Mr. Herr, the Democratic candidate for prothonotary, is deserving of the united support of every Democrat in Penn's Valley. He is amply qualified to fill the place, a perfect gentleman and one you will always be pleased to meet in a business transaction.

If Mr. Dorworth keeps on pushing his "we" in the Republican, he may succeed in electing Mr. Dale district attorney. At least Mr. Dale ought to be grateful that the Republican is using such harmless stuff. It is sort of hissing stuff—hissing on the Democrats to do just what editor C. F. D. doesn't want them to do.

I am prepared to make cider at Linden Hall on Tuesday and Thursday of each week in a new 60-bushel capacity cider mill.—LYNN W. ROSS.

THE DEATH RECORD.

ALEXANDER—Mrs. Ella Alexander died very unexpectedly early Tuesday morning at her home in Centre Hall. She had been in her usual health until a few hours prior to the appearance of the grim messenger. About midnight Monday night she gave alarm to her son, W. Abner Alexander, who lives in the same house, that she was ill. The family went to her assistance at once and medical aid was summoned but nothing could be done to prolong her life—a few gasps and the end came quietly about three hours later.
Interment will be made at Centre Hall this (Thursday) morning. Services at the home at 10:00 o'clock and after interment further services at the Lutheran church, Rev. Drumm to officiate.

Mrs. Alexander was a daughter of the late William and Mary Emerick and was reared east of Centre Hall. She was born December 11, 1844, and March 11, 1869, she was married to James Alexander. The couple began housekeeping on the Alexander homestead west of Old Fort, and lived there until retiring, which was twenty-seven years ago, when they moved to Centre Hall. Nine years ago Mr. Alexander passed away as quickly as did his wife.
The deceased was a life-long consistent member of the Lutheran church, and attended all services when physically able to do so.
The children surviving the deceased are Mrs. J. Elmer Royer and W. Abner Alexander. Mrs. Carrie Ruhl, Mrs. Cyrus Brumhart and George H. Emerick are surviving sisters and brother. All are residents of Centre Hall.

BODTOLF—After an illness which began on Easter day and after being continuously confined to bed for twelve weeks, Miss Jennie Bodtolf passed on of life, Tuesday afternoon at the home of her sister, Mrs. Mary Ishler, at Tusseyville. Death was due to dropsy and complication of diseases. Interment will be made at Tusseyville, Friday morning, services to be conducted by Rev. Drumm.
Miss Bodtolf was a daughter of John Bodtolf, and is survived by the sister at whose home she died, a brother, Calvin Bodtolf, and a half-brother, William Ishler, all of Tusseyville.
She was a woman of kindly disposition, always ready to serve and help others.

NOLL—Hon. John Noll, a lifelong resident of Centre county and much esteemed citizen of Bellefonte, died at his home Wednesday of last week, aged 78 years 21 days.
Mr. Noll was a son of Samuel and Rebecca Noll and was born at the old homestead farm near Pleasant Gap, on which he passed his youth. He served in the Civil War as a member of Co. A, 19th regiment Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry, enlisting on February 25, 1864, and serving until June 5, 1866, in the various capacities as Corporal, Deputy Sergeant, and Quartermaster Sergeant, returning home with an honorable discharge.
On October 6, 1870, he was united in marriage to Miss Mary Hamilton, who survives with the following children: Charles T. Noll, of Altoona; Mrs. Geo. N. VanDyke, of Pittsburgh; and Miss Roberta, at home.

Politically Mr. Noll was a Democrat, and represented this county in the Pennsylvania Legislature in 1907, returning home with clean record and much respect by the members of that body, who though by a large majority were opposed to him politically, nevertheless recognized in him an honest, conscientious colleague.
Interment was made Saturday afternoon in the Union cemetery, Bellefonte.

SWARTZ—Mrs. Mabel S. Swartz, wife of Lincoln E. Swartz, a retired farmer and one of the esteemed residents of Hubersburg, passed away on Wednesday morning of last week, after an illness covering a period of six months with jaundice and complications. Mrs. Swartz was born at Nittany, a daughter of ex-Sheriff Benjamin and Mrs. Sophia Shaffer, deceased, and was 56 years old on July 4th. She was united in marriage on February 2nd, 1889, and since then the family had resided in Hubersburg, where they have won a wide circle of friends. Two sons survive—Benjamin, of Erie, and Lewis C., of Nittany. One sister, Mrs. J. H. Allison, of Chicago, Ill., and two brothers, W. E. Shaffer, of Millburg, and L. A. Shaffer, of Bellefonte, also survive. Funeral services were held Saturday morning; interment in the Cedar Hill cemetery at Salona.

HANNA—William J. Hanna, a native of Centre county and a well known and highly respected citizen of Renovo, died in the Renovo hospital following an illness of three weeks. The deceased was born at Spring Mills, on January 20, 1863. He went to Renovo about thirty years ago and for many years was a clerk and bookkeeper in a general store. Later he purchased a department store which he conducted for some time. After closing out this business he was employed as clerk and bookkeeper at several business houses in Renovo. In 1917 he

COMMUNITY DAY AT SPRING MILLS A GRAND SUCCESS.

High school and Spring Mills Vocational school. The local school was too much as to speed, endurance, and general team-work for the visitors; the final score was 3 to 0 in favor of Spring Mills.
Approximately 250 people were served by the girls of the school to a chicken dinner at 5:30 p. m. This was really the most difficult task of the whole day. To care for that many people in a short time under artificial conditions is far more difficult than the same service in a hotel or restaurant. The school appreciates the cooperation of this regard of the majority of those who partook of this excellent dinner.

In the evening a large audience heard the Strolling Players of State College render three one-act plays entitled "The District Attorney," "The Perfect Woman," "Poor Old Jim." A collection was taken to help defray this expense and if this collection was a sign of appreciation, it can safely be said that the people enjoyed the evening. Music was furnished by the Rural Life Club. Mr. Robinson, County Farm Agent, awarded the prizes during this meeting, which are as follows:
Township School Exhibit.

- 1. Farmers Mills—$5—Miss N. Wagner, teacher.
- 2. Spring Mills Primary—$3—Mrs. Musser, teacher.
- 3. Spring Mills Grammar—$1—Mr. R. Condo, teacher.
- 4. Beaver Dam—honorable mention—Miss Heckman, teacher.
- 4. Logan—honorable mention—Miss Alma Zerby, teacher.

These exhibits were well up to the standard. More table space was provided for these schools this year than last, but every square inch was covered.

If you feel that you got to die to be appreciated you'd better keep right on living and let appreciation go hang itself.
New Rockview Superintendent.
The appointment of J. O. Stutzman as general superintendent of Rockview prison, was approved by Governor Pinchot at a meeting of the board of trustees of the Western Penitentiary held on Thursday.
entered the employ of the P. R. R. company as a store attendant which position he held to the time of his death. He was a member of the Knights of Malta. He is survived by two brothers, John Hanna, of Lemont, and James Hanna, of Hypewell. Interment was made in the North Bend cemetery.

Dr. Longwell Taking Special Course.

Dr. H. H. Longwell, surgeon and physician, is taking a special course in bloodless treatment of piles and diseases of the rectum, in a Pittsburgh institution. Several years ago Dr. Longwell spent several months in Iowa and while there mastered bloodless rupture treatment and since then has had wonderful success in that work, and now is specializing further as is noted above. It is gratifying to the Reporter to be able to make this statement for it means much to a country town like Centre Hall to have in it a professional man always striving to keep abreast with the latest methods of treating diseases.

"The Coming of Ruth."
"The Coming of Ruth," in the Bellefonte opera house, Monday and Tuesday evenings, was a beautiful portrayal of a portion of Bible history known to almost everyone who at all reads the Sacred Book. The characters were well selected and sang and acted their parts to almost perfection. The performances were real treats.
The house was crowded both evenings. The play was under the direction of Prof. Neos and held under the auspices of the Bellefonte W. C. T. U. the profit going to the hospital.

LEGAL ADVERTISEMENTS

ELECTION NOTICE.
Notice is hereby given that pursuant to a vote of Board of School Directors of the School District of the Borough of Centre Hall, at the next general election which will be held in said Borough, on Tuesday, the 6th day of November, A. D. 1923, a proposition will be submitted for the purpose of obtaining the assent of the electors of the School District to increase the indebtedness of said School District, Fourteen Thousand Dollars ($14,000), to be used in erecting a new school building for the use of the Public Schools of said Borough and to carry out the building program recommended by the State authorities.

Notice is also hereby given that the amount of the last assessed valuation of the taxable property in the said Borough of Centre Hall as adjusted for 1923, is $262,329.90. The present indebtedness of the said School District is as follows to wit: None.
The proposed increase of debt is Fourteen Thousand Dollars ($14,000), and the purpose for such increase is to obtain funds for erecting a new school building for the use of the Public Schools of said Borough, and to carry out the building program recommended by the State authorities.
The proposed increase is about seven per cent. of the assessed valuation of the taxable property in the said Borough as adjusted by the last assessment, and the total debt of the School District if said increase is authorized will be about seven per cent. of the assessed valuation of the taxable property in said Borough.

By order of the Board of School Directors of the School District of Centre Hall Borough.
D. K. KELLER,
President.
Attest: EDW. E. BAILEY,
Secretary.

"BILL" MUSSER IN THE TOILS.

Tuesday afternoon Sheriff Dukeman and deputies raided the private residence of "Bill" Musser, about six miles east of Centre Hall, along the main highway to Rebersburg. From what can be gathered a lot of home brew was loaded on a truck during Musser's absence, and then the party awaited the return of Musser who was assisting a friend to move. On his return home, Musser was put under arrest, taken before Justice Woodring, Bellefonte, and held under bond for a hearing at a special term of court on Friday.
