DEATHS.

GÖBBLE.—Mrs. Herbert Gobble died at her home in Georges Valley from complications developing after giving birth to a child, ten days previous. Her maiden name was Miss Etta Smith, and she was aged thirty-one years. The husband is the only survivor of the family. Interment was made in Georges Valley Tuesday morning. Rev. Hany officiating at the services.

STAMM.—Edna S. Harter Stamm, wife of Fred Stamm, died at her home near Millmont, aged 42 years and 7 days. Mrs. Stamm was the youngest daughter of the late Andrew and Susan Harter, of Marion township. The children surviving are: John Nevin, Anna, Belle, Robert, Hughey, James, Philip and Franklin Pierce, the latter but eleven days old. The surviving brothers and sisters are: Mrs. Elias Baxon; Mrs. Lawrence Hike, both of Axemann; Franklin Harter, Louisville, Ky.; Clementine Harter, Marion township; Harry Harter, Bellefonte; Albert Harter, Renovo; George Harter, St. Louis, Mo.; half-brother and sisters: Jacob Shivers, Centre Hall; Mrs. Susan Burk, of North; Mrs. Sadie Womer, Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. Emma Dale, Lemont. Funeral services were conducted on Sunday morning by Rev. Hartman; interment at Boalsburg.

A Mountain Resort Purchased.

The Joseph Parker property in the Seven Mountains along the state highway, was purchased on Tuesday by parties in Centre Hall who will convert it into a mountain resort. Possession will be obtained prior to January 1st. It is the intention of the parties to greatly improve it and make it a beauty spot in the course of time.

The property consists of two tracts of land, one purchased by Mr. Parker from W. J. Thompson and the other from Ah-Jah Summers the two containing about six acres. On the first named tract Mr. Parker erected a house and other improvements and has lived there for some thirty years. On the second tract is a stable and school house, the latter on leased ground. The consideration was $800.

Bear Bolls from Mountainside.

To see a bear lose his foot-hold, mill down an embankment to the side of your car and then scamper away is somewhat of a novel sight and was experienced by Mr. and Mrs. John A. Stack and David Stoner, of Centre Hall, as they were passing over Nittany Mountain in the vicinity of the watering trough. The bear had crossed the road and attempted to gain the mountain side where sure footing was at a premium.

County Grange Meeting.

A regular session of the Centre County Pomona Grange will be held in Grange Arcadia, Saturday, 24th inst. There will be two sessions—forenoon and afternoon. One of the items of business will be the election of officers for the ensuing two years. A full attendance is desired.

GROSS SHOOK, Sec.

SAWYER CUT TO PIECES.

Frank Wingart Meets Death on His Mill at Potters Mills—Body Severed Into Three Parts by Saw.

A most horrible accident occurred at 7:30 Tuesday morning on the Stigart-Wingart Brothers saw mill, at Potters Mills, when Franklin Wingart was sawed into three parts and the various portions of the body thrown more than ten feet from each other. The left arm was severed, but remained in the coat sleeve, the cut continuing from the right shoulder over the chest downward, severing the left leg. The head, trunk and right leg, comprising the main portion of the body, were picked from the sawage, the left leg laid more than ten feet from it.

While a brother, George, was on the mill when the accident happened, he was not looking in the direction of the saw when it struck his brother, his attention first being attracted by a cry of distress.

Squire F. A. Carson got in touch with the county authorities and was authorized to make a view of the body and report without the formal holding of an inquest. The body was then removed to the Goodhart undertaking establishment where it was prepared for burial.

Mr. Wingart was a son of Linderman Wingart and was reared in the vicinity of Coburn, where he lived until the time of his death. He was a member of the Evangelical church and the Masonic lodge at Millheim. He was a great hunter, a member of the Wingart hunting party that always made a record for itself during the big game season. He was one of the brothers comprising the Stigart-Wingart Brothers lumber company in the Pine Woods, near Potters Mills.

Funeral services will be held this (Thursday) afternoon from the residence of the deceased. Rev. Snyder of the Evangelical church will officiate.

The wife, formerly Miss Isabel Gates, and one son, Coleman, are the survivors of the family. His age was forty-six years, seven months and five days.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Fred Smith, Morristown; Mary Boggon, Philipsburg.

Fred H. Miller, Axe Mann; Vesta M. Weaver, Axe Mann.

George A. Showers, Bellefonte; Mary B. Fishburn, Millheim.

William Brodich, Munson; Anna Tulowitzki, Munson.

Hershey B. Smith, Beech Creek; Mary A. Bodle, Wallacetown.

Red Cross Membership.

Last year Centre Hall and its environs was able to muster but sixty-eight adult membership for the Red Cross, which is not a good showing for a community like this. At this time memberships for 1924 are being renewed and should be more than triple that of last year. There is no need here to argue for the cause; it is fully known to everyone. Let us all be ready to meet the solicitors with the necessary cash and encouragement.

Hospital to be Improved.

At a public meeting held in the Court house, Bellefonte, a resolution was adopted looking toward the improvement of the Bellefonte hospital as recommended by the New York expert and the raising of sufficient funds to meet the expense in accomplishing it. No plans for securing the funds were adopted.

While the questions involved were under discussion, it was discovered that a movement was under way to establish a community hospital at State College. At the suggestion of State College representatives a conference was held at the close of the meeting, which resulted in arrangements for a further conference to be held at State College on Monday evening, the purpose being to gain the support of State College to the Bellefonte hospital, thus enabling the present D grade hospital to assume the proportions of an A grade institution.

Judge Ogleby acted as temporary chairman until Dr. A. M. Schmidt was placed in the chair. The attendance was very light, but it was termed a representative gathering.

Monday, at 7:30 P. M., the annual Praise and Thanksgiving service will be held in the local Presbyterian church.

NOTICE.—I hereby notify all persons concerned that I am the owner of a two-thirds interest in all the livestock, farming machinery, implements, tractor and equipment, now leased to George B. Thompson and in his possession, of which property Magdaline C. Thompson and George B. Thompson are the owner of the remaining one-third interest; I have recently paid $200. All persons are hereby notified that none of said property can be sold or disposed of without mutual consent.

Xmas Bazaar and Food Sale.

The ladies of the Sewing Circle of the Sprucecreek M. E. church will hold a bazaar and food sale in the school house at Potters Mills, afternoon and evening, December 1st. Sandwiches, cakes, doughnuts and home-made candies will be on sale. All are cordially invited to come and patronize.

Colonel Follmer Dead.

Col. W. R. Follmer, of Lewisburg, died in the Getzinger hospital, Danville, the result of a paralytic stroke, suffered while delivering an Armistice day speech in the Evangelical church at Lewisburg.

A military funeral was held from his home Friday afternoon; interment at Lewisburg.

Bell Stock Oversubscribed.

It is estimated that 75,000 persons subscribed for a portion of the $20,000,000 new stock being issued by the Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania, bearing 6 1/2 per cent interest. The total subscriptions amount to two and one-half times the amount of stock to be issued. Allotments on the subscriptions will be made in a short time.
