LOCAL AND PERSONAL

I will have fresh fish and oysters the latter part of this week. Good quality. Wilbur Bland, Centre Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kerlin and little son William, on Wednesday, went to Philadelphia, where the junior will become a hospital patient. Dr. J. V. Foster, of State College, accompanied them and will aid in selecting an institution to give proper aid. Mrs. Kerlin and the baby may be obliged to remain in the city for several weeks.

Eugene Burkholder, on Tuesday morning, went to Harrisburg to attend the Farm Products show. He made his reputation as a judge of hogs by developing the runs in his father's herd. A boy that can make a hog out of a runt and also knows the points of a good hog has a combination of knowledge that ought to fit him for growing high class hogs.

Zero Weather.

Sunday night a storm set in and with it mercury dropped to three degrees below zero and that temperature was retained until about 7:30. At noon mercury was hovering only a fraction of a degree below zero. During Monday night three degrees below zero was again recorded, but during the day it warmed up to more than 25 degrees above the zero point. The day was clear and beautiful.

Fall Accused of Grafting.

That Teapot Dome is sending out an awful stench and to avoid strangulation Sinclair is off to Europe "on business" and Secretary of Interior Fall, under President Harding, now in Florida accused of every possible form of crookedness. Archie Roosevelt, son of former President Roosevelt, on account of the amazing testimony being given to the Senate committee, washed his hands of the whole business by resigning as an officer of the Sinclair company.

THE DEATH RECORD.

DALE—Alfred A. Dale, a prominent attorney of Bellefonte, died late Saturday night. Mr. Dale had been suffering for some time of a disease which resembled cancer of the mouth. He was born at Oak Hall Station, on July 29, 1849, the son of Christian and Eliza Dale. He was educated in the Oak Hall schools, the Boalsburg academy and Pennsylvania State College, from which he graduated with a degree of bachelor of arts. He was admitted to the bar in 1876.

Mr. Dale was an excellent orator and delivered the address at the Memorial day services at Gettysburg battlefield at one time.

He is survived by three brothers—Clement, of Bellefonte; Philip, of State College, and Austin W. of Boalsburg, and a nephew, District Attorney Arthur C. Dale, of Bellefonte. His age was seventy-four years.

Funeral services were held at the Boalsburg Lutheran church on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

MITCHELL—Isaac Mitchell died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Porter, in Bellefonte, aged 81 years, 3 months, 18 days. Mr. Mitchell was born in Philadelphia and was a son of Dr. Charles Mitchell, who died when the subject of this sketch was but a child. Mr. Mitchell was admitted to Girard College where he finished his course in 1857. Shortly thereafter he came to Bellefonte and began life as a clerk. For a time he was a clerk in the Reynolds bank later engaged in the hardware business with the Wilson and McFarlane Hardware company, and then again took up banking with Jackson and Company, remaining with that institution through its various changes until April, 1921, when he retired.

When a young man he married Miss Deborah Thomas, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Thomas, of Bellefonte, who passed away many years ago, but surviving him are five children, namely: J. Thomas Mitchell Esq., of Greenwood, Miss.; Joseph D., of Burnham; Mrs. John Porter Lyon, of Bellefonte; Miss Grace D. Mitchell, of Princeton, N. J.; and Malcolm A., of Greenwood, Miss. His only sister, Mrs. Charles Heath, of Philadelphia, died some years ago.

Funeral services were held at the Mathews home, conducted by Rev. F. H. Daubenspeck, after which the remains were shipped to Lightstreet, where burial was made.

Chinese Supreme in Alloys.

German silver is merely an imitation of an invention long known in China under the name of pal t'ong, or white steel, which is obtained by fusing red steel with arsenic. The Chinese have long been pastmasters in the art of making alloys.

Gongs and tom-toms, with their perfect tones, whose origin is mingled with the legendary origin of their inventors, have stirred experts to admiration and in vain have they tried to imitate them. Chemical analysis has determined the composition of the tom-toms, but the details of their manufacture, the knack of the artisans, remain mysteries. It is the same with those vases of ancient bronze, so treasured by collectors.

The brass pagoda constructed on a hill near Tsing Klanfun dates from about the Twelfth century.

FLIVERS FOR STUDENTS! NO.

Penn State Students Must Leave Automobiles at Home—They Interfere With Student Study Work.

Students at Pennsylvania State College hereafter will be prohibited from taking their motor cars to college as a result of action taken at the annual meeting of the trustees held in Harrisburg on Tuesday. Parents of students are to be notified to this effect, according to the resolution adopted by the board, which said:

"It is the opinion of the Board of Trustees that students of the college can not keep automobiles for use while at college without interference with their studies and without considerable risk to their personal safety and health. The Council of Administration is therefore directed to take such action as may be necessary to prevent this practice and to bring general notice of such action to the attention of the parents of students."

LINDEN HALL

Miss Martha Tressler is visiting relatives in Harrisburg.

Among the sick are Hugh McCintic who is recovering from a severe attack of cold and Leroy Sharer who has been suffering from rheumatism.

Fred Ross and Rodney McClellan went to Harrisburg Tuesday from the Boalsburg High school to attend the State Farm Products Show.

Mrs. Daniel Colyer entertained a number of her friends on Saturday at a quilting party; among those present were Mrs. Jacob Sharer, Mrs. Clyde Dutton, Mrs. Spurgeon and Mrs. Clarence Blazer, of Centre Hall, and Mrs. Earl Ross, Mrs. Harry Cummings, Mrs. Alvin Stump and Mrs. James Swabb.

(Received too late for last week.)

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Tressler and Leonard Wilson spent Sunday at the home of James Reish at Pottery Mills.

The refreshments were delicious and Mrs. White received many handsome and useful gifts.

Mr. Smiley, of Harrisburg, is visiting relatives in this section, with headquarters at the Robert McClellan home. Hugh, a little son of Mr. and Mrs. William McCintic, has been confined to bed for a few days with a heavy cold.

While coming home from school in Boalsburg one day last week, the horse Miles McClellan was riding stumbled and fell on the icy road, causing a severe sprain of the boy's right foot which has kept him home from school ever since.

Almost one hundred guests were present at the surprise party given by Wallace White for Mrs. White, on Saturday evening. The event was one of the most enjoyable parties of the season. Guests were present from Bellefonte, State College, Centre Hall, Boalsburg and surrounding neighborhood.

Heavenly Decoration.

Elizabeth Anne went out in the suburbs with her father to see the new house they were building. One of the workmen was taking them about and telling of the progress they were making, when he remarked:

"Well, sir, it will be heaven when the house is plastered."
Elizabeth Anne looked up very much surprised and exclaimed:
"Why, daddy, is Heaven plastered?"
