

THE RAMBLING REPORTER.

The great question with which we are faced at present is whether or not the groundhog knows his work when it comes to weather. He saw his shadow and that would imply that we will have more cold weather, and for a long time.

The coming week end will be one of the big ones at Penn State. According to the schedule there will be three big athletic events: boxing, wrestling and basketball. The boys are all looking forward to seeing the boxing and wrestling teams in action, for this is their first meet of the season.

What a shame it is that there are not more men like General Butler of Philadelphia. We feel sure that there are a lot more cities that need cleaned up and it will take men like General Butler to do it. The General comes from Chester county, and was educated in a Quaker school. For this reason he has been given the name "the fighting Quaker."

Roosevelt, once made this statement, and it is worth repeating: "The human side of the rural life problem is to make the career of the farmer and the career of the farm laborer as attractive and as remunerative as corresponding careers in the city."

Biron E. Decker, captain of the Varsity Cross Country Team at Penn State spent the week end at home with his mother. Mr. Decker has started training for indoor track and is showing a wonderful stride and endurance. The Reporter had the privilege of seeing the "Capt." run, and on the same evening a great part of Mac Halz turned out to see him run. We as a community should be proud to see one of our boys receive so much honor at an institution the size of Penn State.

Something which struck the Reporter as being funny was in the column of a certain large newspaper headed: "Advice to Girls." One young lady wrote and asked if it were right to let a young man with whom she was in love hold her hand. This is the advice she got: "If you are not engaged to the young man, it is vulgar to do so." The moral of the story is this: Life would not be all joy if we trusted the advice of everyone.

(Received too late for last week.)

The Penn State Basketball team was an easy winner over the Bucknell cage-men Saturday night. The Nittany tossers more than doubled the score on the Lewisburg aggregation, making the final score 44-18. This was the 5th straight victory for State and this game was rough, as was indicated by some forty fouls which were called. The State freshman team defeated the Dickinson Reserves in the preliminary game, running up a 23-17 score.

The Syracuse wrestling team meets State in a dual meet Saturday, February 9th at State College. This is the first wrestling meet of the season. On the same day it is expected that Springfield will come to State for the first boxing meet. Both the wrestling and boxing teams are working hard every day that they might be ready to meet their rivals and furnish keen competition.

Penn State will grant eighty-five Bachelor degrees and six graduate degrees at the mid-year graduation exercises to be held Tuesday night.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine

Those who are in a "run down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a Tonic and acts through the blood upon the mucous surfaces of the body, thus reducing the inflammation and assisting Nature in restoring normal conditions. All Druggists.
