THE EDITOR'S CHAIR.
Some Facts About Ourselves Written With Good Intent.

The editor of the Tyrone Times gives expression to these thoughts which the newspaper man has experienced:
A lawyer charges a man $10 for ten minutes conversation—the man insists on paying it. A doctor charges $1 for a prescription and the patient says, "Oh, pshaw, is that enough?" An undertaker conducts a funeral and charges $100 and he is just perfectly lovely with everybody inside and outside the family. A man buys a gold brick and apologizes for not having bitten sooner. An editor walks a mile during a blizzard in the hot sun to get facts of a sudden death or wedding or social function and spends three hours in writing it up and tells lies and praises people till he hates himself, then if he makes an insignificant omission or error or charges five cents straight for three extra copies he is a stingy cuss who never gets anything right and charges four times the price of a city paper and twice as large. In short, he is a confounded most-anything and ought to be run out of town. Talk about the see man! How would you like to run a newspaper?

Murderer Traced by Handkerchief.
Few murderers escape some penalty or other, even the most careful. A strangling mystery two years old has just been solved by means of a handkerchief the murderer stuffed in the mouth of his victim in her apartment in the Rue des Filatiers, Paris. When a robber was arrested recently for holding up a teller of the Bank of France he gave a previous address in the Rue des Filatiers. The handkerchief was then taken all over France and shown to his relatives and friends. Finally, at Carcassonne, his sister unsuspectingly admitted she had embroidered it for him.

Youthful Lovers Quarreled.
He was shorter than I, but we were the same age and both freckle-faced kids, but each thought the other beautiful. One day he accompanied me down town and we had a quarrel. The day after I made an advance to make up because it was my fault, but he wouldn't. He has tried ever since to make up, but this ended my love affair.—Exchange.

DEATHS.
BUBB.—Frances Jane Bubb (nee Stoner, was born in Bedford county, on May 9, 1851. She died February 8 from general debility, at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Bower, who reside one mile west of Millheim. Her age was 72 years, 8 months and 29 days.
She was married to John Bubb, September 7, 1871. He preceded her in death several years ago. Their first child a son named Dephies Mallelei, died when he was only three years of age. Mrs. Bubb was a member of the Reformed church. There remains to mourn her loss the following children: Mrs. H. H. Leitzeil and Mrs. L. P. Bower, of Millheim; and Mrs. H. E. Bible, of Altoona. Also one brother, David C. Stoner, of Green Springs, Ohio.
The funeral services were held at the home of L. P. Bower on Tuesday morning, conducted by the pastor of the deceased, Rev. John S. Hollenbach, assisted by the Rev. F. H. Daubenspeck. Interment was made in Fairview cemetery, Millheim.

BURD.—The death of Mrs. Beulah Burd, wife of C. H. Burd, of near Coburn, occurred Thursday of last week from pneumonia. Interment was made at Wolf's Chapel on Monday, Rev. Daubenspeck, of the Lutheran church officiating. Mrs. Burd is survived by her husband and all of her thirteen children, eleven of whom are at home. The married ones—John and Mrs. Roy Miller—live near Coburn. There also survive her brother, Clayton Musser, of near Centre Hall, and two sisters—Mrs. Seymour Winkleblech, of near Aaronburg, and Mrs. William Winkleblech, of Coburn. Her age was 40 years, 11 months and 4 days.

RHOADS.—George C. Rhoads died suddenly Sunday at his home at Belleville, near Bellefonte, his death being due to heart trouble.
Mr. Rhoads was a well known contractor and had worked on Saturday. It was not noticed that he was in ill health until Sunday morning. He was well known throughout Penn Valley having constructed bridges and other concrete work in this section.
He is survived by four sons: Albert, of Bellefonte, and Wilbert, Leonard and Les, of Coleville; a sister, Mrs. William Jodon, of Bellefonte, and three brothers, Harry and Clarence, of Bellefonte, and William, of Axemann.
Funeral services were held at the home on Wednesday afternoon. Interment in Union cemetery, Bellefonte.

Beautifying Reformed Church.
The Reformed church in Centre Hall of which Rev. D. R. Keener is the pastor, is being beautified at an expenditure of a considerable sum of money. Last fall the roof was repaired, and now, after various meetings of the consistory, it has been decided to fresco the main auditorium and the Sunday-school room; refinish all the woodwork, pews and chairs. All parts of the edifice will also be re-carpeted. Peter Hassel, of State College, has the contract for the frescoing.

Bankers Meet in Altoona.
Group 6 of the Pennsylvania Bankers' Association met in Altoona on Tuesday and was attended by 376 persons, ninety of the 111 banks in the group being represented.
The officers elected for the ensuing year are E. M. Marlin, of Dubois, succeeding N. E. Robb, of Bellefonte, as president. John D. Meyer, Tyrone, was re-elected secretary.
Centre Hall was represented by Messrs. H. L. Ebricht, Thomas F. Delaney, J. C. Brooks, Edward Durst, C. D. Baney, of Lemont; Linden Hall by F. E. Wieland; Lemont by L. F. Mayes.

BOALSBURG.
John Derner is now sporting a new Chevrolet coupe which he bought of the Decker Brothers; he traded in his Cleveland touring car.
Harold Coxy and daughter Eleanor were at the home of his mother over Sunday.
On Sunday morning there will be an Anti-Saloon League man talk in the Lutheran church; services at 10:30. All are invited to this service.
You will be pleased if you go to the cafeteria supper on Thursday evening in the Malta hall, to be given by two classes of the young ladies of the Lutheran Sunday School. Supper begins at 5 o'clock and will continue all evening.
Radios are all the rage in town now. You will find one in the home of W. H. Stuart; one at George Fisher's; Mr. Schirer has had one in his house for several weeks; i. v. Stover had one placed in the parsonage Friday, and Matthew Goheen installed one in his home on Monday.
Fresh fish and oysters at the old stand, the latter part of this week.—Wilbur Bland, Centre Hall.

Local Ministerium Meets.
The local Ministerium convened at the Evangelical parsonage in Spring Mills, 1:30 P. M. February 4, with the following ministers present: Catherman, Drumm, Haney, Keener and Kirkpatrick. The devotions were in charge of Rev. Kirkpatrick. The treasurer's report for the Week of Prayer (1924) was read and accepted. An abridged statement is attached below. The Ministerium decided to advise and encourage the different congregations to forward their respective balances ($7.73) from the Week of Prayer to the Near East Relief Headquarters to be used in their work. Rev. Keener read a paper entitled "The Rise of the Ancient Catholic Church." The next meeting of the Ministerium is scheduled for March 3, at the Evangelical parsonage, Centre Hall. Rev. Catherman will prepare a paper for that meeting, and Rev. Haney is to have charge of the devotions. Rev. Haney closed the session with prayer. After the meeting Mrs. Haney and Mrs. Keener joined the ministers in a delightful social hour during which Mrs. Haney served exquisite refreshments.

Hartleton Man's Acts Strange.
"Where I am going I will not need money." These words are a part of the letter received from N. A. Sleppy, of Hartleton, by his son at Juniata, shortly after Steppy's disappearance on January 29. No word has been received from him since.
Steppy left his home "early" in the morning. He then went to Millburg where he drew all his savings from the bank. He was next seen in Northumberland where he collected several outstanding bills and later in Sunbury where he wrote the letter received by his son.
The letter also urged the son to dispose of the father's holdings and produce on hand and to turn over to Mrs. Steppy the proceeds.
Steppy was aged sixty-seven years and was apparently in good health. He was a successful farmer and owned his own farm. There was nothing whatsoever within the knowledge of his family to induce him to leave home.
