LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Jesse C. McClenahan, not being able to secure a house in Centre Hall, will likely move his family to Potters Mills.

About three inches of snow fell on Wednesday morning, and March 26th looked more like a day in mid-winter than the 6th day of spring.

J. W. Evans, one of Gregg township's substantial farmers, was in town on Tuesday and favored the Reporter with his presence. He states that all the farms in Gregg township are either supplied with tenants or will be farmed by adjoining neighbors.

Hon. R. M. Foster and former U. S. Marshall John F. Short will be the representatives of the National Democratic convention in New York from this congressional district. There were a number of candidates, but all withdrew except the two named.

A deed has been prepared and recorded conveying five acres of the I. M. Arner farm and lying along Hoffer street, in the borough of Centre Hall, to the Centre Hall School District. Consideration, $1125.00, which is $225 an acre. It is on this that the new school building will be erected.

Garage and Barn Burn at Millinburg.

Fire destroyed the garage and barn of Dr. Charles H. Giff, 201 Chestnut street, Millinburg, Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock. The new fire truck was called into use and gave excellent service. The origin of the fire is not known, although it is thought that it started by a short circuit at the rear of the building. The loss on the structure is about $3,000. An automobile in the garage was removed safely.

DEATHS.

THOMPSON.—George Lewis, aged 61 years, died at the Jefferson hospital, Philadelphia. His health had been failing for the past year and two weeks ago he went to the city hospital where he remained until the time of his death. The deceased was a son of the late Albert and Sarah (McParlane) Thompson. He is survived by his wife whose maiden name was Elizabeth Magilligan of Chester county, and one son, Albert, Roland Thompson, aged 11 years, and three brothers—J. Reed Thompson, of Milroy, and Andrew M. and A. Walter Thompson, of Lewistown.

Mr. Thompson was a member of the Thompson Bros. Knitting Mill firm, since their father died and they took over the knitting mill business in Milroy and Lewistown. He was a member and the president of the Armagh township school board at the time of his death, having served in that office for several terms. He was a director of the Lewistown hospital and a member and trustee of the Milroy Presbyterian church.

RIDER.—Mrs. Alberta Rider, widow of the late George Rider, died at her home in Haines township, aged about seventy-five years.

Her maiden name was Rishel and she was born in Sugar valley. She is survived by three sons and two daughters—Ammon and Samuel, of near Coburn; Peter of West Virginia; Mrs. Gertrude Zerby, of Gregg township, and Mrs. Ida Vonada, of Coburn.

Funeral services were held in the Coburn Lutheran church and were conducted by Rev. F. H. Daubenspeck. Interment was made in the Lutheran cemetery at Aaronsburg.

STOVER.—Mrs. Vilette Stover, widow of H. E. Stover, died at her home in Altoona as the result of a complication of diseases. She was a daughter of Frank B. and Mollie Musser Stover and was born at Boalsburg about fifty five years ago. The greater part of her girlhood life, however, was spent in Bellefonte. She married H. E. Stover and practically all her married life was spent in Hagerstown, Md. Following the death of her husband she moved to Altoona. Surviving her are one son, a sister and two brothers. Burial was made on Altoona.

LOHR.—On Tuesday of last week occurred the death of William Henry Lohr, an aged and respected resident of Forest Hill. Mr. Lohr was ill about two weeks. He was born in Centre county, March 23, 1837, making him all but five days of 87 years of age.

Surviving him is one son, J. L. Lohr, of Forest Hill, and two sisters, Mrs. Ella Walker, Berwick, and Mrs. Elizabeth Hessing, of Spring Mills. The deceased was a member of the Methodist church. The funeral was held on Friday at Forest Hill. Rev. Faus officiating.

"Serve Centre's Sick"—Prize Slogan. "Serve Centre's Sick" is the slogan selected as the best from 956 sent in to the committee named to select a slogan for the $100,000 hospital drive, on for the period of April 4th to 14th. The slogan was framed by Lee Lutz, a fourth grade student in the North Ward school, Bellefonte.

A statement has been compiled showing how many patients have been treated at the hospital during the past five years from the various points in Centre county and other points. Bellefonte leads with 1428, and then follows State College with 375. One hundred and sixty-six points are named, which furnished one or more patients. Those having next to Bellefonte and State College follow: Unionville, 129; Milesburg, 119; Snow Shoe, 119; Pleasant Gap, 111; Centre Hall, 82; Coakville, 59; Clarence, 57; Axe Mann, 27; Boalsburg, 25; Millheim, 25; Pine Grove Mills, 31; Spring Mills, 37.

"Spark Plug" Wins.

The local high school pupils divided themselves up into two groups headed by "Spark Plug" and "Sussie Sussie," respectively, for the sale of a weekly periodical, the profit going into the treasury of the school athletic association. There was a goodnatureed, spirited contest waged, resulting in the "Spark Plug" division winning. The net profit to the association is $51.00.

When starting out the contestants agreed that the losers should dine their superiors and this feature of the program is yet to come to pass.

Name 10 Highest Poultry Flocks.

The ten highest producing poultry flocks of the hundreds of poultrymen keeping records in Pennsylvania during the past year have just been announced by the poultry extension department at the Pennsylvania State College.

The owner of the champion flock for the past year is Emmet Stull of Tioga county. His 446 White Leghorns averaged 186 eggs per bird during the twelve months. The other flock owners ranking within the first ten are: Fred Carrington, Bradford county, 185 eggs per bird; E. F. Newell, Beaver 180.6 eggs; Ivan Waltman, Bradford, 180 eggs; Harry Jackson, Wayne, 178.8 eggs; Lynn Harnish, Huntingdon, 178.2 eggs; J. H. Rojar, Cumberland, 178 eggs; Bertha Hodgson, York, 178 eggs; James Eastman, Bradford, 178 eggs; and John Tolvoonen, Erie, 175.8 eggs. These flocks range in size from 100 hens up to 1000.

Many excellent labor incomes were also recorded among the poultrymen who kept accurate records. The best labor income was made by W. T. Cope of Chester county whose small flock of Rhode Island Reds yielded him $10.90 per bird.

Tumor Removed.

Mrs. A. P. Krape was taken to the Gessinger hospital, Danville, on Friday, and on Monday had a tumor removed from the breast. Mrs. Krape was not aware of the presence of the tumor until quite recently when she accidentally struck it while performing household duties. An investigation was immediately made, with the above noted result. The operation was not at all serious. Mrs. Krape accompanied her to the hospital, but returned home before the operation was performed.

$5,987.00 Sale.

The big sale of the season in this section was the Homan and Homan sale held Tuesday on the William H. Homan farm, east of Centre Hall. The sum total of which was $5,987. The total received for the cattle was $2,561. The cattle consisted of pure-bred Guerneys and Holsteins. Guernsey cows sold for $237.50, $227.50, $200, and $190; heifer, $125; bull, $112.50. Two grade cows, $156 and $144, respectively. The Holstein top cows sold at $139, $125, $110, $100 and $97.

The sale was largely attended and the bidding was spirited.

Smallpox in Clearfield.

The Clearfield High and Junior schools were closed Friday, when it was discovered that Mrs. Cleon Steel, the assistant domestic science teacher, who has been ill for ten days, has smallpox. Her condition is not serious and she is now reported to be on the way to recovery. The schools, including High and Junior, opened on Monday. Only those are being admitted who have been successfully vaccinated within the past five years.

BOALSBURG.

John Derner and wife went to Bellefonte Sunday to call on Mrs. Derner's sister, Mrs. Wm. Johnson, who is in the hospital.

Mrs. Elizabeth Brown is confined to her home on account of being sick. Her daughter, Mrs. Mary Condo, is home looking after the house work.

Moving time is on now. Ernest Hess moved from his farm at Shingletown to his home in Boalsburg; his son Edgar will go on the farm.

John Rimey moved from the Goheen farm to the Heckman farm; William Coble from the Mitchell farm on the Branch to the Goheen farm; Glenn and Shick to the farm recently bought at Lemont from the Mrs. Elmer Ishler farm; James Gilliland from the William Hockey farm to the Ishler farm; Alvie Johnsonbaugh will vacate the Shaffer house and Lester Brouse will occupy that house. Foster Charles will move to the Weber house while he is remodeling his house.

George Fortney will farm the Stuart farm in connection with his own this summer.

On Saturday evening the high school are giving a show in the Malta hall; all are invited.

LINDEN HALL

David Campbell took sick suddenly on Saturday evening; at this writing he is slightly better, although he does not have the use of one arm.

County Commissioner James Swabb has been confined to bed for a week with a severe cold.

Mrs. Wesley Tressler spent the week end with her daughter, Mrs. Reed, at Pine Grove Mills.

Mrs. William McClintic and children are with her parents in Centre Hall for a few days visit.

W. A. Ferree, after a week's treatment at the Gessinger hospital at Danville, returned home on Saturday somewhat improved.

John Reifnyder recently bought a new Ford roadster which he will use in traveling to State College where he is employed at the carpenter trade.

COLLEGE SETS DATE FOR YOUNG FARMERS' WEEK

June nine to thirteen will be a big week for the farm boys and girls of Pennsylvania. State Club Leader Alton L. Baker has just announced that the Fifth Annual Young Farmers' Week will be held at that time at State College.

At least 400 boys and girls from all parts of the state will represent their counties in the state wide judging contest which is the big feature of the week. Instruction in agriculture and games for the juniors will complete the program. Every farm boy and girl in Pennsylvania is invited to attend the event and arrangements are being made to accommodate a record breaking crowd of future farmers.

Atlantic City The Hall Mark of Service
An Ideal Resort for An Early Spring Vacation
With the closing days of the winter season, and its round of social activities and business cares, the Seashore sends forth a call forceful and cogent in its appeal to the pleasure seeker, and suggestive of the days of restful ease and comfort for the tired worker seeking an early spring health-giving vacation.
More and more each year Atlantic City is becoming accepted as an inviting seaside resort for a Lenten and Easter season of relaxation from social worries and business cares.
Atlantic City Is Delightful in Early Spring
It is bright and joyous in the early days of spring. It is a veritable city of sunshine by the sea. There is a tonic benefit in the ozone with every breath wafted from the ocean and health and recuperative force, in the breezes from nearby forests of pine.
The sixty-foot-wide Boardwalk is a colorful spectacle, with its magnificent hotels, rolling chairs, wonderful shops, theatres, concerts, attractive piers and an array of beauty and fashion, with the ever restless sea as a background to the pleasing picture.
SOFT BREEZES, WARMER AIR, RECUPERATIVE FORCE, RESTFUL EASE, BRIGHT SUNSHINE, AND A RE-INCARNATION OF NERVE FORCE, HEALTH AND STRENGTH, ARE THE JOYS VOUCHSAFED THE EARLY SPRING SOJOURNER AT ATLANTIC CITY.
Convenient all-rail service is provided by the Pennsylvania Railroad from all sections of the country.
