SAYS McADOO WILL LEAD ON EARLY BALLOTS.

Rockwell Claims He Will Have Total of 648½ Votes, or Within 85 of the Two-thirds Required to Win Nomination.

David Ladd Rockwell, of Chicago, manager of W. G. McAdoo's presidential campaign, issued a tabulated statement claiming 648½ votes for McAdoo on the early balloting in the New York convention within eighty-five votes of the two-thirds required to win the nomination.

"Thirty-three states and territories, with 520 convention votes already, have expressed their preference," he said. "In these states Mr. McAdoo won or divided the delegation from twenty-seven, losing only six completely to his entire field of opponents who were 'favorite sons' in most cases.

"States that have acted have given Mr. McAdoo 436½ delegates, against 378 for the combined opposition headed by Governor Smith, of New York, with slightly more than 125, including New York's 90.

"Seventeen of the remaining states and territories are known to be favorable to Mr. McAdoo. These states have a total of 180 votes which, added to the 436½ already won by him, will increase his total to 616½ votes.

"In the five remaining states that are classified as doubtful, Mr. McAdoo is assured of not fewer than 22 votes, bringing his total to 648½ or over 100 more than a majority of the convention."

Clean Shirt Psychology.

Under the standard set by the editor of the Lewistown Gazette, is Centre Hall clean or dirty? Here is the rule:

There is always a certain psychological effect in a clean shirt. A bath and a shave tones up a man's self respect. Dirt and the Beast go hand in hand. The more beastly the creature is the more dirty he is. If all men are born free and equal, this equality is lost when the bath tub is neglected. A reup-standing man is a clean man.

As with men so with towns. A clean town is a progressive, likeable place. It stands four square to the world, unshamed. The dirty town is bound to go backward, materially and morally.

Nevel—Klinefelter.

Norman J. Nevel, of Colyer, and Miss Myrtle M. Klinefelter, of Bonalsburg, were united in marriage at the Evangelical parsonage, Centre Hall, by Rev. J. P. Bingman, Wednesday of last week.

MAY COURT.

Session Opened Monday Morning—Harry Hutchinson Grand Jury Foreman.

[Reported by S. D. Gettig, Esq.]

May sessions of court convened on Monday morning at 10 o'clock with all the officials in place, and a large portion of the forenoon session was taken up in hearing motions and petitions as presented by the several members of the Bar.

The Grand Jury was called and Harry Hutchinson, Agent at the Pennsylvania passenger station at Bellefonte, selected as foreman, and after being charged by the Court retired to the Grand Jury room to pass on the several bills of indictment that will be laid before it by the District Attorney.

The list of traverse jurors was called and absentees noted and a few excuses allowed.

The civil list of cases on the trial list for the present week was then gone over and the following cases disposed of:

P. R. Rupp vs. J. V. Foster, an action in assumpsit; continued.

P. C. Shoemaker vs. George C. Meyer and Anna M. Meyer, trading and doing business as State College Commission Company, being an action in assumpsit; continued.

Ivan Walker, Receiver of the Centre County Banking Company, a co-partnership, vs. George T. Bush, being an action in assumpsit; continued.

Goldwyn Cosmopolitan Distributing Corporation vs. John B. Dagan; two cases. Action in assumpsit; but during the noon recess were settled.

Helen T. Broadbent vs. A. T. Sellers; being an action in trespass growing out of a collision on the State Highway between State College and Lemont on the night of August 13, 1923.

The jury awarded damages in the sum of $200.

A second auto case in which a Mr. Hockman was a defendant, was ordered non-suited.

The case of Contractor Gherett vs. James E. Frohm terminated in a verdict of $422 in favor of the contractor. There was a dispute both as to per hour wages and time in this case.

Boy Thrown from Horse.

Tuesday afternoon, Ray, eleven years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gregg Carper, of Spring Mills, was thrown from a horse he was riding with rather serious results. He was riding on the State highway near his home, and as the animal was crossing a concrete bridge it fell, throwing the lad violently onto the hard ground. A neighbor, Mr. Snyder, saw the accident and picked up the unconscious form of the boy, but not before the touch of the soothing hand of the mother was administered. Dr. Braucht carefully examined him and finds no bones broken, although the lad lay unconscious for several hours, not fully arousing until the next morning.

Centre Hall Defeats State College.

The first of the two games of base ball between Centre Hall and State College High schools was played on the latter's field on Tuesday evening, resulting in a victory of 8 to 4 for Centre Hall. Stick work was one of the features of the game of which the local boys speak. Centre Hall has one more game to play to complete the series, and it will take place on Grange Park on Tuesday, June 3rd, which is the last day of school.

The local High still holds the lead in the standing among the High schools, with 6 games won and 1 lost.

On Saturday afternoon, an aggregation of Lemont and State College players defeated the Centre Hall team on Grange Park by the score of 4 to 2. Reckless base running on part of the local team contributed largely to its defeat.

Soldiers Get Bonus.

The soldiers' bonus bill was passed over the president's veto by a vote of 59 to 25 votes, more than the necessary two-thirds majority in the Senate, on Monday. The operation of the bill will require the looking up of the individual records of 6,893,000 men and women, filed in 167,000,000 documents. So it appears that the bonuses will not be ready for distribution at once.

Lutheran Children's Day Service.

A children's day service will be rendered in the Lutheran church, Sunday evening, June 8th.

FIFTEEN MEN GRADUATED FROM LUTHERAN SEMINARY.

All to Go to Pastoral Charges or Are Considering Calls.

Fifteen young ministers received their diplomas at commencement exercises of the Lutheran Theological Seminary, at Gettysburg. All have received calls and most of them immediately will take up pastorates in this and adjoining states. The address to the graduates was delivered by Dr. Edwin Hoy, D.D., of Philadelphia, president of the Board of Trustees, and the diplomas were presented by Dr. J. A. Singmaster, chairman of the seminary faculty.

Graduates who have accepted charges include Edward G. Brame, of McAlisterville, to Friesburg, N. J.; O. D. Coble, of Williamsport, to Benderville; Leroy S. Detrich, of Palmyra, to Westernport, Md.; J. Earl Endres, of Huntingdon, to Howard Beach, N. Y.; Glenn T. Hafer, of Chambersburg, to Chambersford; William C. Huddle, of Churchville, Va. to Greenville, Tenn.; Ralph W. Lind, of Altoona, to Fayetteville; J. Harold Little, of Hanover, to New Chester; Ludwig C. Mortensen of New York, to West Fairview; Samuel S. Shauls, of Somerset, to New Millport, and William R. Siegart, of Colfax, to Arnold.

The four other members of the class who have calls under consideration are Elwood S. Falkenstein, of York; Geo. H. Selzer, of Sunbury; Luther E. Woodward, of Walnut, and Henry B. Young, of Hagerstown.

Two Lutheran Synods Unite.

At a meeting of the Central Pennsylvania Synod, whose territory includes nearly all of this county, Millin, Juniata, Snyder, Perry, Union and Clinton counties, and the Susquehanna Synod met in joint session on Tuesday in Sunbury. The business of the two bodies was transacted separately until Wednesday afternoon, when they merged. The united territory will be known as the Susquehanna Synod of Central Pennsylvania.

The ordination of ministers will take place this (Thursday) evening. The Rev. B. F. Bieber, of Muncy, will preach the ordination sermon.

This Synod includes a membership of 45,000 baptized and 35,000 confirmed persons. There are 166 congregations with 83 pastors and a property value of $3,000,000.

The church in which the Synod meets was erected last year at a cost of $325,000 and, together with its property, is valued at $450,000. The pastor is the Rev. Charles R. Bowers.

The question which will probably come before the Synod will be those of the advisability of employing a salaried president who shall devote all of his time to the affairs of the Synod and the election of delegates to attend the national conference.

The Rev. Frank P. Manhart, D. D., dean of the Lutheran Theological seminary, of Susquehanna university, is the president; the Rev. W. M. Rearick, D. D., of Millinburg, is the vice-president; the Rev. Thomas Horton, registrar of Susquehanna university, is the secretary-treasurer.

Body of Drowned Mill Hall Boy Found.

The body of Mack Meyers aged three years, who was drowned in the flood at Mill Hall Monday of last week, was found three-fourths of a mile above the Flemington bridge, in Bald Eagle creek, Sunday morning.

The discovery was made by Vaughn and Fred MacGregor, fourteen and twenty year old sons of Clarence MacGregor, of Flemington, who started from the Flemington bridge in a canoe and made a careful search of the stream, locating the body in a foot of water, caught in some bushes on a sandbar.

The child fell in a mill race near his home on an island, and the body was swept into Fishing creek and thence into Bald Eagle creek. It was found nearly a mile from the scene of the drowning.

Funeral services were held at the residence of the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Meyers, at Mill Hall, Monday afternoon.

DEATHS.

CORMAN.—Mrs. Calisea Corman, widow of William Corman, died at the Bellefonte hospital following an illness of seven years as the result of gangrene of the foot.

She was a daughter of John S. and Sarah Yearick Hoy and was born at Zion on November 4th, 1856, making her age 67 years, 6 months and 5 days. Marrying Mr. Corman when a young woman practically all their wedded life was spent in Marion and Walker townships. Her husband died a number of years ago but surviving her are two daughters and three sons, namely: Mrs. Clem Harter, of Marion township; Mrs. Harvey Truckenmiller, of Otto; Harry A. Corman, of Zion; Otto and Earl, of Bellefonte. She also leaves three brothers and one sister, Allen Hoy of Zion; George, of Hubbersburg; Simon, of Jacksonville, and Mrs. George M. Harter, of Howard.

Guffey National Chairman.

Joseph P. Guffey was named Democratic National chairman for Pennsylvania at a meeting of Democratic committeemen in Harrisburg, on Tuesday. Eugene Bonniwell, the Philadelphia municipal court judge, was defeated, the McCormick-McSparan-McColough wing turning in for the Pittsburgh candidate.

John H. Bigelow, of Hazelton, was named State Chairman to succeed Mr. McColough.

Mrs. Lillian Bergey, of Philadelphia, was elected National committee woman, and Mrs. Edith Allen, of Williamsport, was elected vice chairman of the State committee by acclamation to succeed Mrs. Renshaw. The committee adopted a resolution dispensing with the election of treasurer and granted power to appoint this official to the chairman.

In spite of the spirited contest for the major offices, the meeting of the committee broke up without disorder. While rivalry was keen there was a spirit of friendliness manifested and the new leadership will have the backing of a united party. The election of Bigelow and Guffey was regarded as a victory for the "liberal" wing of the party, since McAvoy and Nesbitt, despite their personal feelings, had the endorsement of the ultra "drys" as represented by McCormick and McSparan.

Centre county's committeeman, G. Oscar Gray, for National committeeman, first voted for Nesbitt, and on the last ballot for Guffey.

WORK

In city streets, on country highways, in farm structures and industrial plants, small and large, concrete is being more and more used. Why?

First because it meets the modern necessity for economy. Atlas is cheaper today than thirty years ago. And second because man's work must be safeguarded.

Structures built with Atlas protect both the worker and his product, for they are permanent and fire-safe. Tell your building material dealer about your building plans and ask him about materials. He can be of real help.
