Orange-Blue Track Teams Famous Under Pilot.

Coach Harry Gill is preparing another of his famous University of Illinois track teams.

Gill is noted for the championship teams which he has turned out. When he first came to Illinois in 1904, he quietly assumed control of the team and started working on the youngsters. Illinois won its first track championship in 1907. Since that time, the Illini have led the conference nine times.

In the twenty years prior to the 1924 season, Gill's men won 93 of their 97 dual meets, while two were tied. In 1924, the Illini won the indoor conference championship, and the outlook is good for them to repeat in their outdoor meets.

The Illini are especially strong in the hurdles, pole vault, javelin and
