Farmers to Gather at State.

June 9 to 13 is the time for the annual young farmers week at Penn State under the auspices of the State Grange.

Thursday, June 12, has been designated as Farmers' Day when at least 2000 farmers are expected to visit the institution.

Birthday Party.

Sunday was the birthday of John L. Tressler, of Centre Hall, and also that of his nephew, Carl McClellan, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. McClellan, of Linden Hall. The event was celebrated on Monday evening in the form of a surprise party held at Mr. Tressler's home. The former lacks a year of being sixty and the latter one year short of his majority. The guests present were these: Wm. McClintic and family, John Carper, wife and son Albert, Henry Houser, Anna Houser, John Raymond, Frank Ishler and wife, Larue and Woodrow Ishler, R. G. McClellan and family, Leonard Wilson, Mrs. Lloyd Brown, Daniel Colyer and family, Wm. Parker, Catharine Tressler, all of Linden Hall; George Seanson and family, George Tressler, wife and granddaughter, Jacob Sharer and family, of Centre Hall; Nester Heckman and family, John Condo and daughter, Mrs. Harriet Long, of Spring Mills.

MILLHEIM.

(From the Journal.)
Miss Sadie Miller, of Philadelphia, spent over Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. O. Housman were over Sunday visitors with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Stover, at Milton.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Geary and children and Mr. and Mrs. George Wagoner, of Newport, were Sunday motor guests at the N. A. Auman home.

Mrs. George S. King, after a visit of several weeks with relatives and friends at Aaronsburg and Millheim, last Friday departed for their home at North Hibbing, Minn.

Joseph W. Reifsnnyder attended the sessions of the Golden Castle, Knights of the Golden Eagle, held at Bethlehem last week. He was the delegate representing the Millheim K. G. E. lodge, and reports having had a fine time.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry K. Harter and the latter's sister, Mrs. Longie, drove in from Altoona in Mr. Harter's Jewett coupe on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Harter spent Saturday night and Sunday morning with Mr. Harter's mother, Mrs. Minnie Harter, while Mrs. Longie remained in Centre Hall.

Mrs. Gertrude Gephart, who has been a guest at the Masonic home, at Elizabethtown, since February, is at present visiting at the Gephart home. When leaving the home to board the train for here trip here she plucked an alfalfa stalk which measured 26 1/2 inches.

REBERSBURG.

Some of our farmers have finished panting corn while others are not done sowing out.

Daniel Moyer, of Osceola, visited his brother, Jerome, at this place, over Sunday.

Jared Kremer, who had been confined to the house on account of sickness during the winter months, but who had recovered so much as to be able to be around, is again confined to bed.

Nathaniel Shaffer, who had been taken to the Bellefonte hospital for treatment for blood poisoning in his hand and arm, returned home to his family one day the past week.

Edwin Barner and wife, of Milton, motored to this place and were guests at the Scott Stover home on Saturday.

The quarantine tag which was placed on the door of the C. C. Small home several weeks ago owing to the illness of their daughter with scarlet fever, we are glad to mention has been taken off. The house has been fumigated and the Small family is at liberty again.

Mrs. Soley has been called here to help nurse her father, J. B. Kremer, whose condition is becoming alarming to the family.

Mrs. Jerome Meyer is on the sick list, suffering a severe attack of pleurisy.

Samuel Mowery is confined to bed with a severe spell of sickness. We hope for his speedy recovery.

The junior baseball team will hold a festival on the school ground on the evening of decoration day.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Reed and Fisher Mowery, of Millheim, and Mrs. William Miller, of Sunbury, were called to the bedside of their father, Samuel Mowery, who is seriously ill at this writing.

Who Are the Real COMMUNITY BOOSTERS?

How many people in Centre Hall realize what a live, progressive community they live in? How many are as proud of their home town and its institutions as they should be?

Everybody knows what fine people live here—what splendid friends and neighbors we have—and we all know something about the solid integrity and high ability of our business men. But how often do our people stop to realize what splendid stores we have right here at home and close home—right in your buying district?

Keen competition has stimulated our local and nearby merchants to constantly seek the best goods at lowest prices in all the markets of the world. That's what makes this town and district a real place to buy.

If your Home merchant cannot supply your needs, Altoona Booster members, with their unlimited facilities, enormous stocks and unequalled means for service are right at your door—ready and willing to supply the wants of those who live in this prosperous Central Pennsylvania district of which we are all a part and proud of the fact.

The home town first—ALWAYS.

Your district center—Altoona—is your nearest big neighbor and you always find your visits profitable.

Be a Community Booster—buy nearest home.

PROGRAM OF PHOTOPLAYS

At THE SCENIC and the OPERA HOUSE (BELLEFONTE)

—At "The Scenic"—

THURSDAY, MAY 29—Jane Gray in "Governor's Lady;" based on the theme of the poor husband who considered his wife old-fashioned after he became prosperous and tried to shake her.

FRIDAY, MAY 30—Irene Rich in "Michael O'Holleran," with Charles Clary, Clair McDowell and other stars. A story of an orphan newsboy.

—At The Opera House—

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, MAY 30 AND 31—Jacqueline Logan in "Salome Jane," with a lot of other stars. Also, two-reel comedy.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine

Those who are in a "run down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a Tonic and acts through the blood upon the mucous surfaces of the body, thus reducing the inflammation and assisting Nature in restoring normal conditions. All Druggists. Circulars free. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio.
