

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

John C. Rossman, of Millinburg, was a visitor in town for a few days beginning of this week.

Mrs. John Wert, near Tusseyville, has not been physically as fit as she and her family desire. She is now, however, improving.

John E. Rishel is having his dwelling house repainted. The work is being done by Magnus Duck, assisted by the Gradens, all of Spring Mills.

The work of diling and chipping the highway from the Centre-Mifflin county line to Old Fort begun last week was completed the beginning of this week.

The sixteenth annual Grove family reunion will be held Thursday, 19th, on Grange Park, Centre Hall. A general invitation is extended to all to attend the gathering.

Hosterman & Stover, Millheim, put water spouting on the new residence being built by J. Elmer Royer. The firm is also doing some plumbing in the same building.

Mrs. P. McManus, of Harrisburg, made one of her occasional trips to the old home above Potters Mills, one day last week. Of course, she was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Bower.

The Methodist general conference lifted the ban on dancing and other amusements in force about a half century. The vote was five to one. The conference is in session in Springfield, Mass.

Rev. Thomas S. Wilcox, D. D., veteran member of the Central Pennsylvania conference of the Methodist church died at his Williamsport home Thursday in Wildwood cemetery, Wildwood.

Barber Frank P. Geary is putting down a foundation for a large porch on the south side of his home in Centre Hall. The porch to the front will be removed and supplied with an arched projection over the door.

Mrs. W. V. Godshall and son Vernon, are attending the commencement exercises at the Central State Normal School, Lock Haven. Mrs. Godshall's youngest daughter, Eva Bailey, is a member of the senior class.

Daniel Houck, a farmer living near Lewisburg, was arrested and placed under $1000 bail, charged with bootlegging. A search of his premises revealed about five gallons of booze hidden under hay in the barn floor. The booze was in fruit jars.

A fawn deer, but a few hours old, was discovered in a field on the William Jordan place, near Colyer, Tuesday morning. The mother deer was no where in sight. Mr. Jordan is looking after the little animal until it gathers sufficient strength to care for itself, and will then liberate it.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Auman and children, of Struthers, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wallace, of Youngstown, Ohio, drove to Centre Hall on Sunday, and for the week will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Silek, parents of the ladies. Mr. Auman is employed in the steel works and Mr. Wallace is an electrician and this accounts for their infrequent and short visits here.

A playground association has been formed at State College and to help the movement along the Chamber of Commerce has underwritten $500, the understanding being that $200 of this sum will be taken from the treasury of the organization and the remainder to be raised in some manner not announced. The school authorities have granted the use of the school grounds for the purpose.

When he grows up and fills a place of real importance, "Jack" Bradford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Bradford, will tell his companions and those who are curious to know that he got his start in life working on a farm at Old Fort. Although quite young, "Jack" is helping to lift a burden. There is a lot of energy going to waste here that ought to be directed, and one of the ways to develop a youth and do him no harm is to teach him to work with his hands, and the farm is an ideal place for that.

The funeral of Mrs. Claude K. Stahl, Sunday afternoon, was attended by her brother, M. C. Sherlock, Harrisburg, purchasing agent for the Middletown steel car company; Miss Mary L. Sherlock, a sister, of Philadelphia; Chauncey E. Shull, a clothier, of Lewisport, who was accompanied by the members of his family, except Mrs. Shull, who is ill; Misses Helen and Rebecca Fay, daughters of A. L. Fay, of Pittsburgh, purchasing agent of the Pressed Steel Car company; Mr. and Mrs. Ashey C. Stahl, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Stahl, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Snyder, relatives by marriage, and a number of friends also from Altoona, among whom were W. B. Dunn, T. C. Hare, J. A. Lafferty, G. W. Woods, S. Walker, H. M. Simpson, Stanley W. Eckhardt, Mr. Baker, the latter three former office associates; Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Carrall, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. McDowell, Miss Grace Smith, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. David McMurtre, Mrs. M. W. Hazel, Miss Mate Moore, Mr. Palmer, Miss Sara Brandt, Everett Moser, Mr. Brandt.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Gertrude M. Spangler, who had been located in Oakland, California, is spending the summer in the Santa Cruz Mountains, at Mt. Herman, California.

By the score of 10 to 4, Centre Hall High school closed its baseball season with a victory over State College High school, on Grange Park, Tuesday afternoon. Only one defeat was charged up to C. H. H. S. during the season.

The Centre County Christian Endeavor convention held at Phillipsburg was attended on Tuesday by Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Benner, Mrs. F. V. Goodhart, and Miss Grace Smith. The banquets in the evening numbered between two and three hundred.

Mrs. H. L. Kline, of Youngstown, O., last week came to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Boozer, in Centre Hall, for a brief visit. It is her first appearance here since her marriage. Mr. Kline is a druggist and is the owner of a well-patronized drug store and this kept him from accompanying his wife on this trip.
