BOALSBURG.

Frank McFarlane is seriously ill from a stroke a few days ago.

Miss Ethel Gingrich has purchased a Chevrolet coupe from Decker Bros. E. C. Radel, the Oak Hall station agent, is sporting a Ford sedan recently purchased.

The I. O. O. F. presented twenty-five year jewels to A. R. Lee and Jacob Zong Saturday evening.

Wm. A. Hockey is having electric lights installed in the farm house where his son Ralph lives.

Wm. R. Ham and family and O. F. Smith and family and Miss Margaret Ferree went to Maine last week to spend the summer.

Postmaster Jacob Meyer and wife and little Miss Jane Close spent over Sunday with Lee Brooks and family near Spring Mills.

There will be preaching services in the Reformed church Sunday evening at 7:30. Rev. Romig, of State College, will preach. All are invited to this service.

On Saturday evening the Knight's of Malta will open an ice cream parlor in the lower room of their temple. Ice cream and cake and hot coffee and soft drinks will be on sale.

For the opening evening there will be music during the evening—both vocal and instrumental, and a piano soloist will be present and give some selections at about 9 o'clock. All are invited to come and get some of the good things to eat and drink and enjoy the music while eating.

The funeral of Miss Mary C. Fisher was largely attended. Among those from a distance who came to pay their last respects to the deceased are noted the following: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fisher, Frank Fisher, Orwigsburg; Mrs. Fannie Vanderslice, Port Clinton; Mrs. Catherine Bell, Mrs. John Bell and daughter, Mrs. Richard Collins, Huntingdon; Mrs. Clara Musser, Middletown; Rev. J. H. Keller and son, John Hanney, China Grove, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. F. Snyder, Sunbury; Mrs. C. W. Swartz, George Swartz, Mrs. Adam Heckman, State College; Mrs. Lila Fisher, Mrs. John Fisher, Bellefonte; Miss Jessie M. Sankey, Miss Margaret Ruhl, Millburg; Mrs. Ernest Ruhl, Millmont; Mrs. N. E. Robb, Miss Mary Robb, Bellefonte.

Hospital Directors Elected.

At a meeting held in the court house on Monday evening attended by about seventy-five persons interested in hospital work, measures were taken to rename and reorganize the hospital in Bellefonte. Under the constitution and by-laws adopted, the institution will be known as the Centre County Hospital and will be under the management of a board of directors of fifteen, seven of whom are residents of Bellefonte, the remainder having been selected from other portions of the county. The quorum number is eight.

The directors elected follow:

Bellefonte—John Blanchard, George Hazel, Edward Owens, F. W. Reynolds, W. T. Kelly, A. Fauble, Ross Mowery, Snow Shoe—David Chambers, State College—H. Laird Holmes, Prof. E. C. Woodruff, Port Matilda—W. Edgar Williams, Millheim—W. S. Shelton, Spring Mills—F. A. Carson, Howard—T. A. Pletcher.

Messrs. Blanchard, Reynolds and Fauble are the only members on the former hospital board. The directors will organize Monday evening, at the hospital.

Bloom—Bible

Saturday, at noon, at the home of Mrs. Edward Homan in Centre Hall, the marriage of Daniel B. Bloom and Miss Agnes R. Bible, both of Centre Hall, was consummated in the presence of a few relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The ring ceremony was used and was performed by Rev. M. C. Drumm. After the rites had been performed a sumptuous dinner was served.

The bride is employed as a clerk in the Orkio store and for the present will continue in that work. The groom is an over-seas man and at present is a State highway employee.

Keller—Kinsely.

Wayne G. Keller, of State College, and Miss Margaret Kinsely, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Kinsely, of Bellefonte, were united in marriage recently. The groom is a part owner of the Penn State Auto Company and is known to many about here on account of his work on the ball diamond.

Collar Bone Broken.

While playing a game at a party held recently at the home of the parents of Miss Bertha Sharer, Miss Margaret Luse collided with one of her companions with such force as to break her collar bone on the left side. She was taken to the Bellefonte hospital where the fracture was reduced, but with much difficulty, the bone having been badly splintered as revealed by the x-ray.

Miss Margaret is an athlete and enters into sport with a will to win, which accounts for her hard knock.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

J. H. Davidheiser, Potters Mills, advertises a second sale of hand-made furniture, July 5th.

Stone Mill dam produced a trout 21 inches long. It was captured by Jewett Brooks, east of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Puff and children, of Tyrone, are at the home of Mr. Puff's father, J. H. Puff.

The Fisher family wish to thank all neighbors and friends who so kindly assisted them during their recent bereavement.

Former Governor Martin G. Brumbaugh was elected president of Juniata College at Huntingdon to succeed his brother, L. Harvey Brumbaugh, who served for twenty-five years.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Umstead, of Florida; Prof. and Mrs. E. A. Roberts, of Hanover, Mr. and Mrs. E. Morgan and son Ralph, of Topton, were visitors at the Reformed parsonage during the past week.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Yeager, in Lewistown, weighing 9½ lbs. The mother will be recalled as Miss Alice Woods, who made her home with an aunt, Mrs. J. I. Fetterolf, in Centre Hall.

Philip Beezer, a well known business man of Bellefonte, died at his home in that place Monday morning. He was aged some sixty years and had been in delicate health for a year or more due to a stroke of paralysis.

The funeral of Daniel Adam Jordan will be held on Friday morning from his residence east of Aaronsburg at 9:30 and continued in the Reformed church, Aaronsburg, conducted by the pastor, Rev. John S. Hollenbach.

Lost—A leather pocketbook was lost while attending the Miss Mary Fisher funeral, on Tuesday. The purse contains some thirty dollars. The return will be appreciated on account of the great need of the money.—Mrs. Eliza Stump, Centre Hall.

Undertaker F. V. Goodhart is in Harrisburg attending the sessions of the State Undertakers' Association which convened Wednesday and will close Friday. Mrs. Goodhart, who gives her husband valuable assistance in caring for bodies, is accompanying him.

An oil stove exploded in the living room of the home of Mrs. Susanna Spangler, in Centre Hall, Tuesday night about ten o'clock. The stove was thrown out of the house by James Foust, a neighbor. Mrs. Spangler, who is well on in the nineties, was carried to a place of safety. Little damage was done by the fire.

TUSSEYVILLE

Wm. Mulbarger, who had wandered in the mountains several days, returned and is spending some time at the home of his nephew, Arthur Hodge, and family.

Penny Issues Attractive Seashore Folder.

With a view of familiarizing the public with the attractive features and the development of the many Seashore pleasure resorts located along the New Jersey coast, the Passenger Department of the Pennsylvania Railroad has just issued a profusely illustrated 192-page folder, describing in detail the varied facilities and advantages of all vacation Seashore resorts from Long Branch to Cape May.

The folder is a highly artistic specimen of printing and is illustrated with a number of large half-tones, made from original photographs. The text has been carefully written with fidelity to detail; and the folder will prove an illuminating presentation of the New Jersey coast and its facilities for a week-end trip or a pleasurable vacation.

Those who have enjoyed a summer outing at Atlantic City, Asbury Park, Ocean City, Wildwood, Cape May or any of the other New Jersey Seashore resorts, and those who read this folder will doubtless appreciate the fact that no vacation is wholly complete without a dip in the briny deep.

A free copy of this attractive folder may be had upon request of D. N. Bell, Passenger Traffic Manager, Pennsylvania, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia, Pa.

Others Than Ephraim.

Judge Brown: "Well, Ephraim, what are you preaching to your flock these days? I hear you are making a mighty stir."

Ephraim: "Well, sur, yassar I is. I gives it to 'um dis way: Fustly I tells um what I'm gwine to tell 'um, den I tells 'um what I s'nd I wuz gwine to tell 'um, and den I tells 'um what I done tole 'um."
