LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss Bertha Snyder, of Millinburg, was among friends and relatives in Millheim and Centre Hall for two weeks. She returned home Tuesday.

Centre Hall baseball team plays two games with Bellefonte on the Fourth—a morning game at Bellefonte and an afternoon game at Hecla Park. Wouldn't two victories look good?

Mrs. Mary Snyder, of Muncy spent a few days this week with her son, Floyd E. Snyder, in Centre Hall. Mr. Snyder motored to Muncy on Sunday, bringing his mother home with him.

Miss Ruth Bingham, after attending the Y. P. E. convention at Harrisburg, visited with relatives in Harrisburg and Mechanicsburg. She also made a trip to the Gettysburg battlefield with friends.

Mrs. S. B. Dunham, of New York, has been at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Weber, in Centre Hall, for two weeks. She is here to recuperate after having been in a hospital for treatment.

10-Lb. Carp Captured.

A carp measuring twenty-six inches and weighing ten pounds was captured in Roopsburg dam, on Spring Creek, by Anthony Volynch. This is the first carp ever caught in the dam and greatly surprised the fisherman.

USE YOUR HEAD.

A woodpecker pecks
Out a great many specks
Of sawdust
When building a hut;
He works like a nigger
To make the hole bigger—
He's sore if
His cutter won't cut.
He don't bother with plans
Or cheap artisans,
But there's one thing
Can rightly be said,
The hole excavation
Has this explanation:
He builds it
By using his head.

DEATHS.

SHEESLEY.—Mrs. Eliza Jane (Hall) Sheesley, wife of Jackson A. Sheesley, died at her home at Woodward, following a long illness aged 74 years, 4 months and 26 days.
She was married to Jackson A. Sheesley, and ten children were born to them, all living, as follows: Adam A., of Cowan; John W., of Woodward; George W., Reuben A. and Harry, of Millinburg; Clayton, of Woodward; Edward, of Hartleton; Mrs. William Miller, of Loganton; Mrs. I. E. Orndorf, of Jersey Shore, and Mrs. William Hafnes, of Woodward. There also survive 36 grandchildren and 16 great grandchildren.

Severe Storm in Brush Valley.

Saturday night's storm played havoc with the roofs of a number of barns in Brush Valley. The barn on the Frank Fisher farm, west of Madisonburg, tenanted by Herbert Swartz, was partly unroofed, and the west gable end, built of stone, was pushed in.

Nearby the Fisher farm two wooden silos were upset. One was on the H. S. Limbert farm and the other on the Curtis Bierly farm.

Aside from blowing over trees and fences little damage was done eastward until the farm of C. H. Gramley, three-fourths mile west of Rebersburg, was reached. Here the roof was taken off the barn, except about ten feet at each gable.

The roof on the barn on the Jacob Gephart farm was totally torn off.

A portion of the roof on the Ernest Stover farm barn was torn off and portions of it hit and killed a cow owned by the tenant, William Bowersox, on the farm. The W. J. Walker farm barn roof was also damaged.

A portion of the roof on the house in West Rebersburg occupied by Milford Gherrett was carried away. In other parts of the town small buildings were damaged.

All through the valley trees were uprooted and damage done to fences and small buildings. In some sections hail badly cut up the corn.

The tops of two cars were torn off in the vicinity of Rebersburg. One car was owned by Alfred Bierly and the other by a son of Ira Gramley.

The New School Building.

Building operations on the new High school building for Centre Hall are progressing rapidly. Lathers, bricklayers, electricians and plumbers are now busy, and by next week the plasterers will be ready to do their work. Nearly half of the brick work is already completed. Contractor Williams is losing no time and expects to have the building completed by the last of July or the first week in August.

Storm Saturday Night.

A terrific storm, accompanied by torrents of rain, electric flashes and heavy peals of thunder, hung over the valley for an hour Saturday night. There was a most elaborate display of electricity exhibited, witnessed in few years, but the crashes of thunder were not so sharp as one might expect. The damage done in this locality was very light—trees, fences and portions of roofs being the only things to suffer.

Bellefonte Mail Center.

Bellefonte has become a center for air mail. Mail to be dispatched by plane will be carried by train in the usual way from Williamsport, Altoona and intermediate and other nearby points and from there dispatched over the air mail route. To accomplish this special permits have been secured from the Postmaster General by the postmasters at Williamsport and Altoona.

Proper Hanging of the Flag.

The proper way to hang a flag when suspended from a rope is frequently discussed. The following well recognized rule may be safely followed and should be kept convenient for reference:

Flags suspended from rope, east and west, stars to east. Flags suspended from rope north and south, stars to north.

Senatorial Scholarships.

Miss Mildred Evelyn Zerby, member of the class just graduated from the State College High school, has been announced as the winner of the state senatorial scholarship for Centre county.

This scholarship is worth one hundred dollars a year and has been won by a State College High school student three years out of six which includes the last two years.

Charged With Bribery.

Indictments charging conspiracy to defraud the United States in connection with leasing the naval oil lands in California and Wyoming were returned a few days ago by the special federal grand jury against, Fall, Sinclair and Doheny, Jr. The indictments besides conspiracy charges Fall and Doheny with bribery, based on giving $100,000 to Fall by the oil magnate. This is one of the results of the Walsh investigation.

LOST.—A black folding bill case, containing about $7.00 in money and calling cards with the owner's name and address. Finder please return to the Reporter office.

TRINKLE IS ELECTROCUTED WITH BLESSING ON LIPS.

Philadelphia Youth Pays Death Penalty for Embague Murder.

"God bless all you gentlemen," were the last words uttered by Joseph Trinkle, 22 years old, of Philadelphia, as he was placed in the electric chair at the Western Penitentiary, Rockview, Monday morning, to be executed for part in the killing of John C. Embague, vice president and paymaster of a Philadelphia contracting firm, during a hold-up April, 1923.

Trinkle was accompanied to the death chair by Father O'Hanlon and showed no sign of fear as he walked to the execution chamber. It was as the head-mask was being adjusted at 7:07 A. M. that Trinkle uttered the words, "God bless all you gentlemen." Seven minutes later he was pronounced dead. Trinkle was brought to the Rockview Penitentiary late Saturday afternoon and, according to officials, was unusually quiet and well-behaved during the 36 hours he spent there prior to execution.

The body was claimed and will be sent to Philadelphia for burial. Trinkle is the first of five men convicted in the Embague case, three others of whom have been given the death sentence. The fifth man was convicted of second degree murder and is serving a sentence of from 18 to 20 years in the Eastern Penitentiary.

Bell-Schreck.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Schreck, Lemont, Wednesday of last week when Madeline Schreck became the wife of William Bell, of State College. Miss Schreck graduated at State High this year and Mr. Bell is agent for the Franklin car.

The bower was made and decorated by Donald Bell, brother of the groom. It was a perfect work of art. It was constructed of spruce which had two shades of green; the new tips on the end of each twig added variance of color and beauty. The spruce was dotted over with roses in beautiful manner. The bower was so arranged as to represent the top of a heart.

The ceremony was performed by the bride's pastor, the Rev. Thompson, pastor of the Houseville U. B. church. Miss Isabelle Speers, of Detroit, Mich., was maid of honor. Miss Speers is a niece of Prof. Woodruff of State College. Robert Breneman, son of Prof. Breneman of State College, was best man. Lois, the young sister of Mrs. Bell, Jr., acted as flower girl. The wedding music consisted of the vocal solo, "O Promise Me," by deKoven; wedding march by deKoven; and Venetian Love Song by Nevin. The music was furnished by Mrs. J. M. Kirkpatrick, of Centre Hall.

A sumptuous luncheon was served to about thirty guests. The couple were the recipients of a number of fine gifts.

Blanks for Soldier Bonus.

World War veterans desiring to make application for adjusted compensation, known otherwise as a bonus, will find blanks at the local post office.

BOALSBURG.

Dr. Wm. Woods and his mother and his sister, Mrs. Place, and her daughter are visiting Dr. and Mrs. Glenn, at Bradford. They drove up in a Willys-Knight auto.

Prof. Edward H. Meyers and family, of Newark, N. J., arrived Sunday morning in their automobile. They are all settled in their summer home and feel right at home, as this is an annual occurrence.

George Mothersbaugh is having an addition put to his house, enlarging the kitchen and making a closed porch below and a sleeping porch on the second floor.

There will be union song services of the different churches Sunday evening on the lawn of the Reformed church. Rev. Wagner will conduct this service. The hymns used will be those of John Newton and a history of his life will be read. All are invited.

On Saturday evening at the ice cream parlor of the Knights of Malta there will be a community sing starting at 9 o'clock. Old familiar songs will be used—the kind that all can join in singing. Come and enjoy the evening together.

The "Fourth at Colyer."

July Fourth will be celebrated at Colyer in the good old-fashioned way—with plenty of fireworks music, etc. G. R. Meiss, the Colyer merchant, has engaged the Potters Mills orchestra, and the evening of the Fourth will be made a merry one for all who attend. There will also be ice cream, cake and fruit on sale. Go to Colyer on the evening of the Fourth and have a good time. adv.

Youths Swipe Car.
Two young men from Connecticut were picked up in Bellefonte on Sunday and upon being questioned admitted having stolen the large Jordan car they were driving in East New Haven. One of the boys, Clifford Ludington, gave his address in New Haven, and the other Clyde Murray, gave an address in Meridan, near New Haven. They stated they passed through New York City and other large cities to Harrisburg then by the way of Lewisburg to Potters Mills, Centre Hall and Bellefonte. Their offer to deal car equipment for gas led to their landing in Port Taylor. They had but ten cents between them. The boys, who were aged 19 and 20 years, respectively, had planned a trip to Titusville and had mapped out the route from Bellefonte by way of Phillipsburg and Clearfield, Bellefonte, they said, was the only place they were interfered with.
