LOCAL AND PERSONAL

August 2 is Community picnic day. The trackmen of all them along the Lewisburg branch, attended a railroad meeting in Sunbury on Monday.

Frank O. Moyer, of Cleveland, Ohio, was an arrival in Centre Hall on Tuesday, and will visit among relatives in this section for a week.

Mrs. George Potter, who has been in delicate health since last fall, is able to move about in the house to some extent, although very feeble.

Word was recently received here from the State Hospital, at Danville, that Al. Osman, a former resident here, is very seriously ill.

Mrs. T. C. Henney and L. H. Erb, of Latrobe, are stopping with Mrs. Lucy Henney, in Centre Hall, and while here are taking medical treatment.

In a contest at Potters Mills, Miss Leona Faust won the pretty ring offered by a traveling show, and she takes this method of thanking those who voted for her.

Rev. Charles F. Catherman, a former pastor of the Penns Valley charge of the Methodist church, will have charge of the Harvest Home services on Grange Park on Sunday, Aug. 31.

Mrs. R. M. Smith and daughters, Gladys and Roberta, of Centre Hall, went to Coburn on Saturday, remaining there with friends until Monday when Mr. Smith brought them home in a car.

Miss Sankey, the secretary of the Grange Encampment and Fair, is stopping at the home of Mrs. Milford Luse and will remain there until the close of the Encampment and Fair, September 6th.

Mrs. F. L. Worrell, formerly Miss Mabel Sankey, with her husband and son Paul, of near Kansas City, recently visited ten days with her brother, M. A. Sankey, and family, of near Middleburg, Snyder county.

Two large stately deer, one a buck, were seen on the Sunset plot in Seven Mountains, the other evening by Mrs. F. O. Bairfoot and W. J. Smith, who were taking a drive through the mountains and stopped there to look over the improvements.

Saturday night William Johnston, baugh, of Pleasant Gap, came near being run down by an automobile on the diamond in Bellefonte. He grabbed the fender of the car and saved himself from being injured. He experienced a few of the most exciting moments of his life while hanging onto the machine, but came through without a scratch.

Miss Alice Boon, of Hartford, Conn., is a guest of her grandfather, B. D. Brisbin, in Centre Hall, and will remain here until the close of the week, and perhaps longer. Miss Boon holds a responsible position in one of the leading Hartford banks and was the representative of the institution to a convention of bankers held at Baltimore, which closed its session last week, and from there she came on to Centre Hall.

Mrs. David Haines, of McAllisterville, and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Roy White, and the latter's two children, of Lewistown, stopped in Centre Hall for a short while on Saturday on their way to Unionville to visit Mrs. Haines' father, Samuel White. Mr. White attained his seventy-ninth birthday on Sunday, and the event was duly celebrated. Mrs. Haines states she continues to like her home at McAllisterville and that she is living comfortably.

Farmer C. T. Crust, east of town, for two weeks was laid up with an infected eye, caused by some foreign substance fastening itself to the right eye ball. While this enforced lay off occurred at a bad time for a farmer, Mr. Crust had good neighbors who came to his rescue, cutting the grass and making it into hay. He is now on the fair way to recovery, but it will be some time until he will be able to remove the shield from the infected member.

DEATHS.

HARTER.—Mrs. T. H. Harter, wife of the editor of the Keystone Gazette, Bellefonte, and a widely known woman, died at her home on Friday, the victim of an attack of acute indigestion. She was born at Hartleton sixty-seven years ago and was a member of the Presbyterian church. Funeral services were held Monday, with burial at Aaronsburg. The deceased was childless.

FINDLAY.—Mrs. Isabel Findlay died on Monday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edward Loughner, near Potters Mills. The body was prepared for burial by Undertaker Goodhart, and Wednesday morning it was shipped to Jeannette, where interment was made. Funeral services were held at the Loughner home by Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick. Mrs. Findlay was the daughter of John and Isabel Walker and was born in Ireland. Her age was seventy-four years.

NEESE.—Emanuel Neese died at the Neese homestead near Spring Mills, Monday afternoon, after an illness of about two weeks from lung trouble. Interment was made in Heckman cemetery this (Thursday) forenoon, Rev. Hollenbach, of the Reformed church, of which the deceased was a member, holding the services. He was born Oct. 12, 1840, making his age 83 years, 9 months, 10 days. He is survived by his wife and two sons, Samuel, who also lives on the homestead, and Frank, of near Spring Mills. The ancestors of the deceased were David and Susie (Kerster) Neese.

LINGLE.—Mrs. Lydia Lingle, widow of Henry Lingle, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jared Ripka, in Georges Valley, Tuesday forenoon, at the age of 74 years. Death was due to hardening of the arteries. Funeral services will be held Saturday morning; interment in Georges Valley cemetery. Mrs. Lingle's maiden name was Zerby, and she is survived by a full brother, Robert J. Zerby, of West Brownsville, who came here at the time of his sister's death, and a full sister, Mary, wife of Edward Bungard, of Lock Haven. Emanuel Bungard, of Farmers Mills, is a half-brother.

KREAMER.—After an illness of several weeks, Jared B. Kreamer died at his home in Rebersburg Monday afternoon. Interment will be made this (Thursday) morning. Mr. Kreamer formerly lived in Centre Hall, but most of his life was spent in Miles township where he was born, having been a son of John and Solome (Weaver) Kreamer. His age was almost 81 years. There survive him his wife, whose maiden name was Joanna Meyer, and two daughters, Mary, wife of Rev. Solly, of New Jersey, and Mrs. Gertrude Frank, at home.

ON TOUR TO PACIFIC COAST

we think we picked the hardest grove to get to. It was dusty as they did not get much snow in the mountains last winter and very little rain. From this point we continued on to San Francisco. We have now covered over 4,700 miles. Our only trouble so far was three flat tires. Our car is working just as fine as when we started and we still have all the original tires and they look as though they will bring us back home to Bellefonte. We will leave here tomorrow for Portland, Oregon, and Seattle, Wash., then south east to Yellowstone Park and home by the Lincoln Highway. When we left home on June 14th we noticed there was still some corn to plant, owing to the wet spring. We found this same condition existed in Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. A great many farmers in these states were still plowing and where the corn was planted only half came up and grass was so thick you could scarcely see what was planted. In Missouri through the corn belt the corn looked very poor; also in Kansas. We believe the corn will be much higher in price unless we have a very late fall. Kansas wheat was very good and they expect a very large crop. They were busy harvesting when we came through Colorado, New Mexico and Arizona. There is not much farming, mostly alfalfa and stock raising. California, the wonder state, can raise anything where they irrigate but where there is no water nothing grows. It never rains here in summer. They depend entirely for water from the snow-clad mountains.

Now a word about the roads, and we think we have given you about all the news. We had hard-surfaced roads from Bellefonte to 25 miles West of St. Louis, then dirt and gravel across Missouri. In Kansas about half the state is improved roads, balance gravel and dirt. Colorado good graded gravel New Mexico graded gravel and dirt, all very good. Arizona the same. California on the east side of the mountains gravel and sand and the West side all improved concrete and macadam. There is a decided improvement in the roads in the last five years. One thing we have found is, that people can live much cheaper in the West than in the East. One man told us that his fuel bill for a five-room bungalow for lights and heating water and cooking and heating his house was $14 for a year. That makes us think when we pay that much for one ton of coal and use thirty in one season. We find hotel rates much cheaper here than in the East. For instance here in San Francisco we are paying $5.50 for our whole party; have two rooms with bath between, and cot in one room; fine hotel right in center of town. We cannot get such prices in the East. Here is another: you can get a breakfast, ham and bacon and two eggs, toast and coffee for 25c; and these are first-class places. In Long Beach, a city of 100,000, we had a businessman's lunch, cost 40c—soup, meat, two vegetables, coffee and pie. It seems very often in touring that the tourist is taken over, but not in the West. We certainly receive full value for our money.

Every one of the party is feeling fine. They are all nearly as dark as Mexicans, but that will come off in time. We feel we have taken enough of your time and will try to find time to write more later.

We close with kindest regards to all our friends.
