BOALSBURG.

Mrs. Emma Kuhn and her daughter Margaret, from Williamsport, are visiting at Mrs. Kuhn's parents' home, Mr. and Mrs. George Rowe.

Sunday morning the Rev. W. H. Landis, of Duquesne, preached in the Reformed church. During his stay here he was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Meyer. In the afternoon he preached at Pine Grove Mills and in the evening at Pine Hall. He comes as a candidate to fill this charge.

Fred and Paul Bruose, who are employed at Harrisburg, were home over Sunday.

George Houtz and family of Williamsport, were at the home of his parents over Sunday. Mr. Houtz has gone home but the family are staying for a longer visit.

H. M. Hosterman is having the outside of his house painted. A. C. Smith of Linden Hall is doing the work. It is being painted white with green trimming.

Dr. W. W. Woods and mother, and Mrs. Laura Place and her daughter, Dorothy, motored to Derry last week and are visiting with Prof. James Bryson and family there.

Miss Helen Odenick, of Centre Hall, is visiting her uncle, Jacob Meyer.

Mrs. Ezra Broom and two children are spending a four weeks' vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Lee.

DEATHS.

MEYER.—Thomas F. Meyer, one of Millheim's well known citizens, passed away Monday evening, after an illness of about a week. He had, however, been in rather delicate health for several years, and for this reason he retired from the mercantile business in which he had been engaged in Millheim for about fifteen years.

The deceased is survived by a wife, who before marriage was Miss Mamie Garbrick, and two children: Mrs. Harry Hartman, State College, and Paul, at home. Also, three sisters survive him, namely, Mrs. Nicodemus Luse and Mrs. Agnes Krader, both of Coburn, and Mrs. John H. Rishel, Spring Mills. Mr. Meyer falls from German stock. The first of this family to settle in Hadnes township was George Meyer, the great-grandfather. He was of the third generation in the States, and the subject of this sketch is the sixth. The elder Meyers were farmers and millers. Mr. Meyer also learned the milling trade with his father, George J. Meyer, at Linden Hall, but later engaged in the mercantile business at Coburn, Aaronsburg and Millheim in the succession named.

The age of the deceased was sixty years, seven months and twenty-seven days. The funeral services will be held on Thursday at 2 P. M. at the home, conducted by the pastor of the family, Rev. John S. Hollenbach. The members of M. W. A. Camp No. 9533 of which Mr. Meyer was a member, will attend the services.

MULFINGER.—Mac Edward, aged one year, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mulfinger, of Pleasant Gap, died at the Bellefonte hospital, Sunday night. Interment was made Wednesday at Pleasant Gap. The child became ill Friday, from telescoping of the bowels, and although everything possible was done for him relief came only in death.

VONADA.—James Vonada, a lifelong and highly esteemed resident of Woodward, died suddenly of heart failure while doing the chores about the barn, his sister-in-law, Mrs. Jane Decker, finding his lifeless body. He was aged 66 years, 2 months and 16 days. Besides the wife, whose maiden name was Yearick, there survives one daughter, Bessie, married to Bert Kosler, of Spring City. Funeral services were held Saturday morning at the house, and continued in the upper Evangelical church at Woodward. Interment in the Woodward cemetery.

McCULLLEY.—Mrs. Agnes A. McCullley, widow of the late James T. McCullley, passed away at her home in Bellefonte of exhaustion, the result of her advanced age.

She was a daughter of Dennis and Maria Meyers McCafferty and was born on Bishop street, Bellefonte, on June 28, 1836, hence was 88 years, 1 month and 8 days old. Her entire life was spent in Bellefonte. She was twice married, her first husband having been Leut. John A. Bayard, a brother of the late Col. George A. Bayard, by whom she had one daughter, now Mrs. Howard Spangler, of New York City. Her second husband was James T. McCullley, who died a number of years ago but their four surviving children are James A., Joseph V., W. Frederick and Marion J. McCullley, all at home.

Funeral services were held at the Catholic church Friday morning by Rev. Father Downes, after which burial was made in the Catholic cemetery.

The Musser Murder.

There appears to be no new developments in the Musser murder, and no steps had been taken up to Tuesday evening to secure a hearing for the suspected men now in prison.

There are many rumors floating about, but none of them seem to have any truth in them. One widely spread story tells that within a year or two a State police working in this district disappeared and no trace whatever has been found, except that the automobile he traveled in was discovered in a Lock Haven dealer's hands; that the engine number of this car corresponded with that used by the State cop. And further that William Musser, the murdered man, threatened to tell what befell the cop and to quiet him he was punctured with two bullets. The car in question, the story runs, was said to have been sold to the Lock Haven dealers by a Penna Valley farmer.

So far as the writer is able to discover this story is all an idle tale, at least there has been no known effort on the part of the State or the local officials to run it down.

Escaped Prisoner Captured.

One of the seven convicts who escaped from the Rockview Penitentiary Sunday night after cutting their way through the iron fence of the prison yard was recaptured early Monday morning near Unionville, 10 miles from the prison. He was John Kelly, sentenced to from 15 to 20 years on a murder charge from Westmoreland county.

The six still at large are: John Kelley, Philadelphia, serving 5 to 7 years for robbery; William Rapolsky, Luzerne county, serving 10 to 15 years on statutory charges; John L. Corman, Erie, 4 1/2 to 6 years for receiving stolen goods; J. T. Johnson, Allegheny, 3 to 6 years for robbery; Fred Lutz, Clearfield, 1 1/2 to 3 years for larceny; and Frank Pace, Allegheny, 3 to 4 1/2 years for larceny.

Three weeks ago four prisoners escaped from the institution and last week one escaped. More than 600 prisoners are at present confined there.

CHAS. LATHROP PACK
President American Tree Association of Washington.
Due to the educational campaigns he conducts for a national forest policy and for tree planting, Charles Lathrop Pack, President of the American Tree Association of Washington, D. C., has succeeded in putting the importance of reforestation before the public in such a way that it is now understood by thousands. He has sent millions of American trees seeds to help reforest devastated areas in Europe. He has given a demonstration forest of a thousand acres to the New York State College of Agriculture. He gives annual cash prizes to many colleges for the best written papers on forestry for the public and not for the scientific student to read. His work has been officially recognized by many foreign countries. His tree planting campaign has reached into every county in the United States for the American Tree Association is the unique organization of the world in that there are no dues and the only way to join is to plant a tree and register it with the Association. Mr. Pack sends tree day programs and tree planting suggestions to any who will ask for them. The Association's slogan is "celebrate the centennial of Arbor Day in 1925 by planting the trees now."
