LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss Mildred Bitts, who had been in Pittsburgh among friends for a considerable length of time, returned home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Homan, of Cleveland, Ohio, drove to Centre Hall one day last week and were guests of Mrs. Homan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Strohmeyer.

Dr. J. L. Selbert, county medical director, cautions all not vaccinated or who have not been vaccinated since childhood, to do so at once. You may profit by reading the notice over his signature in this issue.

A snake coiled around the family vinegar jug gave Miss Sallie Landis at Potters Mills, an awful scare a few days ago. The reptile made its escape before Miss Landis recovered sufficiently to identify the species it belonged to.

Mrs. F. F. Palmer, of Potters Mills, who is confined to bed with typhoid fever, is improving. Her brother, John Armstrong, who makes his home with Mr. and Mrs. Palmer, and who has been ill for some time, is not getting better.

Mr. and Mrs. John Waga, of Nanty Glo, were in Centre Hall for a few days, guests at the C. D. Bartholomew home. Mrs. Waga is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Krumbine, of Vintondale, formerly of this place. She reports her father being very much crippled from rheumatic pains.

Drilling for water on top of Nittany Mountain will be attempted by J. H. Detwiler, who is making the top of "Old Nittany" a much-sought place. Mr. Detwiler has also leased a tract of land on the top to a party who will erect a garage and establish a gas and oil station. The well drilling outfit is ready for operations.

Mrs. Carrie Tibbens Heckart, Mr. Heckart, of Morgantown, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Vonada, of Coburn, were a motor party visiting in Centre Hall on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Heckart are the owners of a fraternity house at State College, and spend much of the summer time at that place during the absence of the students.

Dr. and Mrs. L. M. Weaver and daughters Catharine, Alice, Gertrude, Mary, Marion, and sons George, Luther and Frank, and the Jones family, with two friends of the Weaver family, making a party of seventeen, came up for the Fischer reunion at Rolling Green Park, at Selingsgrove. They later came up to Woodward to spend the night; made the drive up through Penns Valley Sunday morning to spend a short time with their cousin, Mrs. F. O. Bairfoot, at Centre Hall, and to get a view of the valley from Old Nittany and to see Penns Cave; then back to Woodward and down through the Pocono Mountains, home.

DEATHS.

HEISER.—Dr. Edwin S. Heiser, prominent Lewisburg druggist, died at his home there. He was born at Anronsburg, in 1855, and hence was aged nearly 69 years. About ten years ago Doctor Heiser made a trip to the Holy Land, taking many views which he reproduced by stereopticon for the benefit of the many church organizations in Lewisburg and vicinity. Last year, he again toured the Holy Land, being accompanied on this trip by his son Edwin S. Jr. Funeral services were held at Lewisburg, Rev. Babcock being in charge.

SHOLL.—John Thomas Sholl, a native of Miles township, died at the State hospital at Danville, where he had been a patient for nearly twenty years. He was a son of the late Jacob Sholl and was born in Miles township near Wolfs Store, about fifty-five years ago. Besides his mother he is survived by four sisters and one brother; Mrs. C. H. Bierly, of Rebersburg; Mrs. Harry Noll, of Hublersburg; Mrs. Clarence Noll, of Harrison City; Mrs. Howard Ziegler, of Penn Hall, and William J. Sholl, of Millheim.

The body was brought to the home of C. H. Bierly, near Rebersburg, and funeral services held there, conducted by Rev. W. A. McClellan. Interment was made in the Lutheran-Reformed cemetery.

Notice—Smallpox in Pennsylvania.

At present there is a greater menace of smallpox infection in Pennsylvania than has threatened the state in many years. Since the first of the year more than twenty people have died of smallpox in this state which shows how virulent is the form in which the disease is now prevailing. Most of these deaths having occurred in the cities of Pittsburgh and Pottsville.

The very fact that smallpox is prevailing during the summer months increases the menace to the health of every community in the state.

Therefore, it is urged that all unvaccinated persons and those who have not been vaccinated since childhood, to take such precautions at once that might save them from smallpox later in the year. It has been proven that more than 90 per cent of those who have died of the disease in Pennsylvania had not been vaccinated, or else had not been vaccinated since childhood.—J. L. Selbert, M. D., County Medical Director.

Up to this time the viewers have not made their official report to the county commissioners, but rumor has it that a valuation of $3000 has been placed on the Millheim-Coburn section, and $2000 on the northern section.

Escaped Prisoners Captured.

Four of the eleven prisoners who escaped from the Western Penitentiary at Rockview were captured, and Monday morning were brought before Judge Quigley for sentencing. Three of the men were given the usual sentence, which is to impose the original sentence. The fourth, George Brandon, who was captured at Lindale, in the mountains below Coburn, was not sentenced. He was regarded by the Court as not having sufficient intelligence to know what he was doing, having only eleven days of his sentence yet to serve, and sentence was suspended for that reason.

The sentences imposed were as follows:

John Kelley, Philadelphia, who has five years to serve on his original sentence, must serve in addition three and one-half to seven years.

John Kelly, Westmoreland county, was sentenced to serve from 10 to 20 years in addition to the 11 years of his unexpired term.

Frank Place, Allegheny county, was sentenced to serve from two to four years in addition to completing his old sentence.

The Lytle family who started the reunion which has been successful in gathering together year after year are Mrs. Katharine Fely, B. F. Lytle, H. B. Lytle, Mrs. Beck McCollm. The descendants are widely scattered over Pennsylvania and Ohio and were present from Cleveland, Ohio, Port Royal, Williamsburg, Middletown, Cherry Tree, Milroy, Lewistown, White Hall, Milmont State College, Lemont, Altoona, Reading, Milesburg. A beautiful program was rendered and all good things to eat were in abundance. After the day was spent in renewing the family ties which bind together, the Lytle family all returned home, vowing they would celebrate the 23rd reunion which will be held the 3rd Saturday in August, 1925, at the home of Paul Cunningham, Williamsburg. ***

Recommend Killing Does.

The State Game Commissioners are out again with a recommendation to slaughter doe deer with a view of increasing the game and incidentally to protect farmers against the ravishes of deer during the closed season.

The final portion of the report is devoted to a discussion of the finances of the game commission. During the 1923 fiscal year, the revenue from hunters' licenses totaled $503,699.53 while deposits for penalties, etc., brought the total to $527,115.99. Expenditures for the same period amounted to $461,272.68. During the 1923 fiscal year, ending on June 1st, 1924, the hunters' license revenue totaled $613,997.75 with the total revenue from all sources amounting to $673,258.24. Expenditures for the 1923 period totaled $698,168.04.

DON'T QUIT SCHOOL.

Don't Let Money Becloud Vision of the Future—Getting An Education Is the Job of Youth.

The school bell will be ringing in several weeks calling back to their studies many thousands of boys and girls.

This bell should be a summons to every boy who has not finished the high school, commercial school or prepared themselves for some useful trade in vocational schools.

As this time for the opening of school approaches, scores of boys and girls who have reached the age of sixteen years and have gone into vacation jobs for the summer, are turning over in their minds the problem of whether to continue work or go back to school.

This problem should not be solved without investigation and consultation with older persons. No boy or girl should decide for themselves a question which is so vital to their future happiness and condition in life.

And parents who feel the need of the earnings of their children should give more than a single thought to the difference between the value of this compensation now and the value of a completed high school education to their children ten twenty or thirty years hence.

Don't let the appearance of a dollar in hand becloud the vision of the future.

Getting a thorough education is the job of youth and nothing should be permitted to interfere with it.

Harry M. Gibbs, a Lewistown photographer, hit and bowled over one of four deer that scamped over the state road near the county line. Mr. Gibbs checked up his car, but not quick enough to avoid hitting one of the animals. Curious to know to what extent the animal was injured, Mr. Gibbs got-out of the car to make an investi-
