DEATHS.

STOVER.—Mrs. Annie E. (Rishel) Stover, daughter of William and Catherine Rishel, was born in Centre county, August 15, 1845, and died in Crono-ro township, Michigan, a short time ago, aged 78 years, 10 months and 10 days. She was united in marriage to Israel M. Stover April 2nd, 1865, and went to Michigan in the spring of 1868 and has lived on the same farm since 1869. She united with the Lutheran church in her early life and remained a faithful member until her death.

She leaves to mourn her loss her adopted daughter Mrs. Henry Morgan, and is mourned by her as though she indeed was her mother, and by a host of relatives and friends. Funeral services were held at the Salem church on Friday afternoon, Rev. A. H. Keck, of South Bend, officiating. The pallbearers were six nephews, namely, John J. Stover, Clayton Stover, Cloyd Stover, Arthur Stover, Nelson Stover, Clarence Stover. She was kind and loved by all who knew her, and will be greatly missed.

KRAPE.—Mrs. Caroline A. Krape, wife of George W. Krape, died at her home at Salona, after a brief illness following a stroke. Deceased who was 78 years of age, was born near Salona and had resided in that vicinity all her life. She is survived by her husband, four sons and a daughter: M. S., of Middletown; E. E., of San Diego, Cal.; G. R. and L. M., of Altoona, and Mrs. W. A. Ferree, of Oak Hill, and by one brother and one sister, John Winkelschick and Mrs. Lydia Herr, both of Beech Creek. Interment in Cedar Hill.

MORRIS.—Alexander Gilchrist Morris, aged almost ninety years, died at his home in Bellefonte Thursday morning of last week. He was born in Freeport, Armstrong county, November 5, 1834. His father was Robert Morris and was born in Glasgow. The mother was also of foreign birth. Mr. Morris was engaged in various business enterprises, the most prominent being lime stone and products from it.

During 1870 Mr. Morris located in the Tyrone district where he lived until about fifteen years ago, when he located in Bellefonte. It was during this later period in his life that he operated numerous limestone plants, for many years being classed as one of the largest individual operators in that industry in the country. He was president and director of the Blair County National Bank, of Tyrone. He was president of the American Lime & Stone Co. until the recent organization of that company, retiring to become chairman of the board of directors.

Mrs. Morris died a few years ago. The surviving children are Eliza Egbert, at home; Robert and Alexander, Jr., also of Bellefonte, and Thomas K. and Charles A. Morris, of Macon, Ga.

Will Expand Business.

Beginning of this week, what is known as the Colyer mill site, near Centre Hall station, was sold by the owner, B. D. Brisbin, to C. Nevin Hockman. The site covers four town lots, or one acre, and is located on the corner of Hoffer and Allison streets, close to the railroad track. Mr. Hockman contemplates providing for the expansion of his business of hatching chicks, shipping eggs, handling poultry supplies and other commodities connected with his line of business. He will also erect for himself a dwelling house. Work on the improvements, if present plans are carried out, will be commenced by the middle of September.

NEW GRANGE MOVEMENT.

First Penna. Grange Community Leadership School Closed Wednesday Morning—Sessions Held on Grange Park.

As a fitting memorial to its fifty years of service to the farmers of Centre and adjoining counties, the executive committee of the Grange Encampment and Fair Association organized a second institution that bids fair to be of equal, if not superior, service to farm life. Reference is made to the organization of the Pennsylvania Community Leadership School, the first session of which was held on Grange Park, beginning Thursday of last week and closing yesterday (Wednesday) morning.

The work of the school was under observation of State Grange Master John A. McSparran, and the entire executive board of the Pennsylvania State Grange, and they were so favorably impressed with the possibilities of the new institution that in all probability the State Grange will sponsor it in the future, and use its influence to have the National Grange give the school its support.

One of the leading instructors was Mr. Gordon, one of the Agricultural Extension staff at Penn State, who gave particular attention to stage work and platform plays. The results of his efforts will be noticeable during the various entertainments on the regular program of next week in the auditorium.

Mr. Bennett, head of the Gregg Township Vocational School, gave instruction on games for community gatherings.

Another instructor was Prof. Breasler, also identified with Penn State Agricultural Department. Dean R. L. Watts was also a speaker at one or more periods.

The work of the State Grange, both entertained and gave valuable instruction in her line of work. One of the two periods occupied by State Master McSparran was devoted to pointing out the work of the lecturers of subordinate Granges.

SANITATION IN THE HOME.

Playlet Part of Leadership Conference—Sunday Evening Services—State Officers and Committeemen on Park.

There have been at Grange Park during the week a number of officials of the State Grange and members of the State Executive Committee. The committee named held a formal meeting on Saturday. Among the dignitaries were State Master John A. McSparran, Lancaster county; C. H. Dilline, Columbia county; Mr. Armstrong, Luzerne county; also Mrs. Louise Taylor Rodgers, Pomona of State Grange, Washington county; Mrs. Fullerton and Mrs. Dilline.

"Sanitation in the Home" was the subject of a very interesting little play program given at the Grange Leadership Conference on the Park Saturday evening by the young folks of Centre Hall and vicinity. The program included recitations, musical numbers, a little playlet entitled the "Sad Tale of the Typhoid Germ," talks by Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Dale.

While the subject of sanitation in the home was of general consideration, the chief topic was that of the septic tank and how to build it. Mr. Dale gave a brief discussion of how to make water-tight concrete and Mrs. Dale took up in a very able fashion some points in home sanitation.

Following the educational numbers Mrs. Louise T. Rodgers in charge of music for the Penna. State Grange, led in a delightful community sing and contributed some very pleasing violin solos. Mrs. E. S. Hoffa gave a pianologue which was thoroughly enjoyed.

The program was under the direction of Miss Ruth Smith and Miss Grace Ishler, both of Centre Hall. The program was as follows:

Chairman of the meeting, Wilbur McClellan.
Song leader, Ruth Bingman
The Fly, Fred Bingman
The Sanitation Squad—Ruth Reiber, Miriam Mitterling, Margaret Reese, Isabel Bradford.
Playlet: "Sad Tale of the Typhoid Germ."
Sides of the Tank—Marvin Ishler and Woodrow Partges.
House Drain, Beulah Bingman
Drain Tile, Catharine Goodhart
Baffle boards—Isabel Bradford and Ruth Reiber.
Water, Mary Reiber
Typhoid Germ, Milla Sytker
Grass, Margaret Bradford
The Community Form, Elwood Smith
Sunday evening religious services were held. The meeting was unannounced and was suggested by the large number of persons on the park. The large auditorium was half-filled, and those present were well repaid by listening to an address by Mrs. Rodgers, Pomona Pennsylvania State Grange. She also sang and performed a number of selections on the violin which were heartily applauded. Miss Sankey, the secretary of the association, read a psalm at the opening of the meeting.

TUSSEYVILLE

Those who visited at the James Foust home on Sunday were: Mrs. John Stump, daughter Miss Lottie, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Shilling, Clarence Shilling, Mr. and Mrs. Russel Romig, and baby, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Romig, all of Wagner, Millin county.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mishler and Merle Frank, came down from Johnstown on Saturday to visit Mrs. Margaret Ackerman. They returned home on Sunday and took with them Mrs. Vaj Wenzel and little grandson, who had been staying with Mrs. Ackerman for a month.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Decker attended the Williams reunion at Martha last Saturday.

Attention, Comrades.

The 51st annual reunion of the Centre County Veterans Club association will be held in conjunction with the Grangers' picnic, on Wednesday, Sept. 3, all day. Able speakers will be present. Soldiers of all wars are cordially invited to join our ranks, which are rapidly thinning. Sixty years ago we marched forth by the thousands to protect the flag; now scarcely a corporal's guard gather for the roll call.

Old soldiers will be admitted free to the grounds, Geo. M. Boal, Pres.; W. H. Fry, sec.

Everybody was pleased to see Rev. Williams in the pulpit Sunday.

Has everyone taken their rest? At least everybody has gone home refreshed with the pure mountain air. Mrs. Runyon and children, of Altoona, who visited at the McCormick home, have returned home. Misses Irene and Marjion Moyer, of Pottstown, are visiting at the home of Howard Davidheiser; Roy Smith, wife and baby, of Reedsville, visited the former's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. James Buck and little granddaughter, Jane Buck, of Harrisburg, spent some time at the home of John Wilkinson.

Mrs. Anna McClenahan spent some time among her friends. She is staying with her daughter, Mrs. John McNitt.

Mr. and Mrs. John Condo spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lott Condo.

Two cars ran together in front of Frank Philyp's garage with such force as to break the windshield and bend the fender, and cut quite a hole thru the sheeting; fortunately no one was hurt. Oh, my.

The Circle was very well pleased with the grand turnout at the festival, and many thanks to everybody for their kindness.
