

PENNSYLVANIA BRIEFS

The Hazleton board of health has issued a warning to all persons not vaccinated for the past seven years to be immunized against smallpox...

Professor H. M. Black, for the last few years principal of the Uniontown high schools, has been elected to a high school position in the South Side, Pittsburgh...

Approval of the sale of the Altoona Gas, Light and Fuel Company to the People's Natural Gas Company was announced by the public service commission.

Abram May is in the Columbia Hospital with a cut foot, bruised head and black eye, sustained when he fell from the third-story window of his boarding house...

Jail Warden Samuel M. Shue, of York, who has been criticised by the press and officials for alleged failure to enforce discipline at the York prison, resigned at a meeting of the county commissioners.

County Detective J. J. Allison made the crew of an Erie railroad freight train at Bradford cut out a box car ready to proceed to Buffalo.

A spark from an engine on the Downingtown and Lancaster branch of the Pennsylvania railroad is believed to have caused the fire which destroyed the three-story feed warehouse of D. G. Weidman...

Trouble arose in the family of Homer and Laura Whetsel, of Edenborn, near Uniontown, when she called him "a cross-eyed devil" and he insisted that she was bow-legged.

P. J. Morrissey, identified with the Clarion river hydroelectric project, says the powerline service from Piney dam to northwestern Pennsylvania points will be in operation about December 1.

Mrs. Bertha Lauber, of York, attempted suicide by inhaling illuminating gas. She was found in the kitchen of her home...

Four persons were injured at the Alaska mine of the Philadelphia & Reading Coal and Iron Company, at Mt. Carmel, when the mechanism on the cages carrying 10 workmen each broke.

While playing about the stable at the home of Clayton Bartholomew, near Sunbury, Robert Fetter, 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fetter, was badly bitten in the neck by a horse.

Believed to have been temporarily crazed by the intense heat, Enoch Coslos, of Port Carbon, near Pottsville, set his own home on fire.

His back broken in an automobile accident at Crescon, December 8 last, Francis W. Schoenfeldt, aged 30, railroad chopman, died in the Altoona Hospital.

An unknown motorist ruined the memorial plot to Cressona soldiers when his car dashed through it, ruining a large flower garden, and disappearing.

Tabulation of the expenditures for state, county and township roads in the Hazleton district this year show that $1,000,000 is being spent for paving of big roads.

Sixteen persons were arrested in a campaign by the Lancaster police department to stop reckless driving on the city streets.

Abram May is in the Columbia Hospital with a cut foot, bruised head and black eye, sustained when he fell from the third-story window of his boarding house...

Jail Warden Samuel M. Shue, of York, who has been criticised by the press and officials for alleged failure to enforce discipline at the York prison, resigned at a meeting of the county commissioners.

County Detective J. J. Allison made the crew of an Erie railroad freight train at Bradford cut out a box car ready to proceed to Buffalo.

A spark from an engine on the Downingtown and Lancaster branch of the Pennsylvania railroad is believed to have caused the fire which destroyed the three-story feed warehouse of D. G. Weidman...

Trouble arose in the family of Homer and Laura Whetsel, of Edenborn, near Uniontown, when she called him "a cross-eyed devil" and he insisted that she was bow-legged.

P. J. Morrissey, identified with the Clarion river hydroelectric project, says the powerline service from Piney dam to northwestern Pennsylvania points will be in operation about December 1.

Mrs. Bertha Lauber, of York, attempted suicide by inhaling illuminating gas. She was found in the kitchen of her home...

Four persons were injured at the Alaska mine of the Philadelphia & Reading Coal and Iron Company, at Mt. Carmel, when the mechanism on the cages carrying 10 workmen each broke.

While playing about the stable at the home of Clayton Bartholomew, near Sunbury, Robert Fetter, 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fetter, was badly bitten in the neck by a horse.

Believed to have been temporarily crazed by the intense heat, Enoch Coslos, of Port Carbon, near Pottsville, set his own home on fire.

His back broken in an automobile accident at Crescon, December 8 last, Francis W. Schoenfeldt, aged 30, railroad chopman, died in the Altoona Hospital.

Believed to have been temporarily crazed by the intense heat, Enoch Coslos, of Port Carbon, near Pottsville, set his own home on fire.

His back broken in an automobile accident at Crescon, December 8 last, Francis W. Schoenfeldt, aged 30, railroad chopman, died in the Altoona Hospital.

His back broken in an automobile accident at Crescon, December 8 last, Francis W. Schoenfeldt, aged 30, railroad chopman, died in the Altoona Hospital.

Dazzy Vance Is Marvelous National League Pitcher

Dazzy Vance, marvelous pitcher of the Brooklyn National League club, depends upon blinding speed to battle his opponents.

Chief Big Feet Is Caddy

Some day the open champion of the grand old Scottish game of golf will be an Indian—if you don't believe it, ask Chief Big Feet, who totes a bag at the Kebo Valley country club, Bar Harbor, Maine.

LACK OF FOOTBALL STARS AT HARVARD

Coach Fisher Inclined to Put Blame on Alumni.

Robert T. Fisher, football coach at Harvard, has recently bewailed the lack of good material at Cambridge and said he was inclined to blame the alumni for this lack of desirable grid-iron talent.

The trouble with the Harvard alumni, Fisher believes, is that they do not talk Harvard enough among the youth of the land. The alumni of other colleges and universities go about talking so much of the alma mater that they leave no doubt in the minds of youngsters of playing talent where to go for a college education and football fame.

Harvard, it seems, is sadly in need of a loud and vigorous ballyhooing. There is no doubt that Mr. Fisher is fairly convinced that Yale has Harvard smothered when it comes to this gentle art.

No coach can get out winning teams unless he has the material, says Mr. Fisher, and no school can get the desired material unless the alumni gets busy and sends the right kind of boys along.

Harvard has not been getting enough of the desired type of athletes and unless the alumni hustles out and sells Harvard on all sides the ancient rival of the Cambridge school will again rise to the eminent position she once held over Harvard in sports.

Never has there been such an intensive selling campaign as the various alumni are carrying on now.

Yankee's New Fielder

Horan, new outfielder of the New York Yankees, just purchased from the Reading club, shows great promise, and has been placed regularly in the lineup of the champion Yankees.

Twirler Whiffs 24

Jack Rogers, eighteen, of South Pittsburgh, Tenn., who enters Mercer university next fall, struck out 24 of 29 batters to face him in a game which his team, the Case-Fowlers, won from Hawkinsville, Ga., 10 to 0.

Kinsey Springs Surprise

Howard Kinsey of California sprang the greatest surprise of the tennis season when he defeated the veteran William M. Johnston in the finals of the annual Seabright tennis tourney.

DIAMOND PICK-UPS

Charley Hollocher continues fielding brilliantly. Baxter Williams, Knoxville catcher has been sold to the Detroit Americans.

Bob Fitzke, all-around University of Idaho athlete, has been signed as a pitcher by the Cleveland Americans.

Monroe Mitchell, right-handed pitcher of the Memphis team, has been placed on the voluntary retired list because of a sore arm.

Max Carey, center fielder of the Pirates, has been a member of the team since 1911. His speed is shown by his base stealing ability.

Joubert Davenport, Minneapolis pitcher, suffered a broken leg in Milwaukee, when he went in to run for Jay Kirke in a recent game.

Outfielder Joe Moore, who was with Atlanta in the spring, and Johnny Carlin, a semi-pro player from Maryland, have been signed by Little Rock.

Fletcher E. Hodge, giant right hander of the Rochester International club, has been turned over on option to Terre Haute of the Three-I league.

"Connie" Mack, manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, is using "Doc" Barrett, the former Williams college trainer, as a scout again this summer.

Omaha has obtained Pitcher Buddy Napier from St. Paul of the American association. The return of Cliff Markle crowded Napier out of the picture.

Russell Pence, Tulsa pitcher, who recently pitched a no-hit game, won a diamond ring which a jeweler had hung up for such a hurling achievement.

Jo Shaute, Cleveland hurler, bid fair to turn in a winning season. Thus far the youngster has proved about the most dependable gunner on the Speaker staff.

Tony Faeth, St. Paul pitcher, came within two feet of a no-hit game in Kansas City. As it was, a roller just out of Danny Boone's reach, spoiled his bid for fame.

Eddie Herr, Detroit scout, is telling the world that Cleo Carlyle, the young Sally league outfielder recently purchased by the Tigers, is the man destined to take Ty Cobb's place in center. Carlyle has been playing a remarkable game for Charlotte and is hitting about .350.

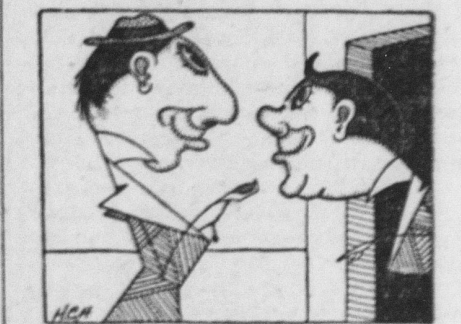

SHE KNEW DADDY

A small child was having her first ride in a subway train. Suddenly the train passed over some points and the lights went out for a moment. When they went up again, the little girl said: "Did you do that, daddy?" "Daddy denied it." "Well," replied his small daughter, "it's just the sort of thing you would do."—Rehoboth Sunday Herald.

Three in One.

"I don't know whether to publish this testimonial," said the inventor of a new hair restorer. "What does it say?" asked a friend. "Before I used your hair restorer I had three bald patches on my head. Now I have only one!" read the inventor with a smile.—Wisconsin Agriculturist.

SEEMED THE RIGHT PLACE

"What made you think you could get your watch fixed at a second-hand store, you gink?" "Well, only the second-hand was broke!"

Pictures Missing

Of "words, words, words," spoke Hamlet sad. His friends in deep dejection remarked, "It really is too bad. He got no comic section!"

He Squeaks

"Gosh, I didn't realize Jack was a tight before." "No?" "The other day he told me that he had lost some money through investments and come to find out he'd tried a gum slot machine that didn't work."—Brown Jug.

A Test

Bella—Do you have any difficulty in feeding your little dog? Donna—No. I always try my cooking on my husband before I give it to Fido.

No Discrimination Tolerated

Book Agent—Is the lady of the house in? Cook—We're all ladies here, yez flat-faced omadhaun! If yez mane the missus, say so!

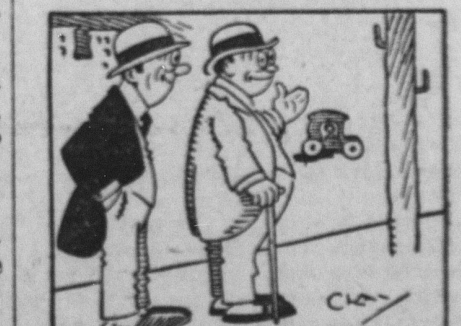

Out of His Class

Lucile (looking back)—Oh, Lewis, believe you ran over that groundhog! Lewis (unconcerned)—Serves him right for trying to be a road hog, too.

She Could Use It to Advantage

The Bore (1 a. m.)—The other night I heard a story that gave me such a start. Girl (very tired)—I wish I knew it.

A CHANGED MAN

"He was such a poor talker—used so few words." "You haven't met him since he acquired a silver, I see."

Powder

Her brow was like the snowdrift. When I made shift To have a look, I saw, gadssook, A heavy drift.

Portage

"Going on a canoe trip this year?" "Nix. A walking tour is all right, but why carry a heavy canoe?"

Elementary

"Mrs. Jones joined one of those correspondence schools last winter." "Indeed! What did she learn?" "Well, she learned not to depend upon her husband to mail her correspondence."

How It Sounded

Policeman at court, describing a street singer's efforts—All I heard was an occasional shout. Magistrate—What sort of shout? "An exaltation as if hurt."