When you come in contact with candidate William H. Noll you will not be bored—he is different. He is the same man a candidate as before. From the handshake to the conclusion of your conference you will find him different from the average office seeker. He can and will tell you why, when, where. Ask him where he has stood and where he now stands relating to roads; what some of the particular needs of Centre county are as to legislation. He can and will tell you.

Do you think a representative in the General Assembly who has agreed to train exclusively with Governor Pinchot will be able to serve Centre county the best? Pinchot is the governor who cut down the appropriation to Penn State College to such an extent that the institution was and is greatly hampered, and it is charged that he did not have a majority for him at the primary election when he was a candidate. He is also the governor who cut down the appropriation to the Bellefonte hospital to such an extent that it had to go begging. And while he was doing this he signed every bill and was instrumental in their promotion to raise the salaries of hundreds of state employees. If you were a candidate for office that if elected would give you a vote on appropriations and salaries, would you want to sign a pact to do Pinchot's bidding? No, no.

Latest figures from the Republican Department of Labor show that there is greater unemployment today and has been every year of the Harding-Coolidge administration than during any one year from 1916-20, inclusive, and that it is approximately fifteen per cent greater today than it was a year ago.

MAN SLAIN NEAR LEWISTOWN.

Chief Deputy Warden at Rockview Penitentiary Charged With Murder of John Mullen of Jersey Shore

A formal charge of murder has been lodged against E. E. Davis, lately chief deputy warden at the state penitentiary at Rockview, charging him with responsibility for the death of John Mullen, of Jersey Shore.

The body of Mullen, who was a cripple and a man of roving disposition, was found lying by a campfire in the woods near Lewistown, when members of a Lewistown national guard unit encamped in the woods, heard shots Friday afternoon. Davis and Harry A. McCoy, of Altoona, were found nearby in a drunken stupor, with a number of bayrum bottles lying about them.

The authorities say they have an eye witness to the shooting in the person of Miss Cora Knepp, who lives near the scene of the shooting and who has made a sworn statement to the district attorney, describing the affair. Miss Knepp and her mother occupied a house within sight of the spot where the three men staged their debauch. They were badly frightened and kept watch over the men so that they could flee if any of the party approached the house.

Miss Knepp and her mother say that the three men, between frequent drinks, swore, shouted and fought among themselves, exchanging frequent blows. After a tussel in which all were involved they were quiet for a time and then the fighting broke out again. Miss Knepp was the sole witness to this stage of the party, which ended, according to her testimony, when Davis drew his gun and fired at Mullen. Davis sticks to his story that he knows nothing of the shooting, and McCoy, who is being held as a material witness, also professes ignorance of what happened.

Pay for Pastors.

At a meeting of the Northumberland Presbytery held at Williamsport a resolution was passed that the minimum salary of a pastor be $1800 when he received aid from the home mission board.

The proposition to establish an orphanage at Lewisburg on a 90-acre farm, a gift of Mrs. Jane Harrison, was favored by some and opposed by others.

Joint Council Meeting, Oct. 18

The annual meeting of the joint council of the Penns Valley Lutheran Charge, scheduled for October 11th, has been postponed until the following Saturday (October 18th), in order that the result of Rev. S. F. Greenhoe's visit on the charge might be acted upon at this meeting.

Wolfe—Wolfe.

On Saturday evening, Fred O. Wolfe, son of Charles Wolfe, of Aaronsburg, and Miss Anna Elizabeth Wolfe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Wolfe of Rebersburg, were united in marriage at the Reformed parsonage at Aaronsburg by Rev. John S. Hollenbach. The ring ceremony was used.

The groom, who has been in Aaronsburg for some months because of the illness of his father, will return to Akron, Ohio, where he will resume his work with the Northern Ohio Traction and Light Co. His bride will join him there in the near future.

Heavy Sentence.

Paul and John Gentzel, of State College, drew terms of two and a half years each in the eastern penitentiary and fines of $100, in the Northumberland county court, when they pleaded guilty to the theft of the tires from an automobile garage at Elysburg. The boys had expected to get off with fines and their father had given one of them money to pay his fare home after he was released.

Killed in Auto Wreck.

Thomas Walker, aged 25 years, of Burnham, was killed on Saturday on the State highway between Millifinburg and Lewisburg. He and several others were on their way to attend a football game, and in attempting to pass another car going in the same direction the driver lost control, ditching the car. Walker was married and leaves his wife and two children.

Mrs. Clyde Miller and little son, of Greensburg, visited the home of her aunt, Mrs. J. L. Decker, east of town. Mrs. Miller is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Condo.

A. E. Blithen, of San Diego, Calif., visited his sister, Mrs. W. A. White, in Centre Hall, this week. He is connected with the city's administration and is also in the real estate business.

The Bellefonte lodge of Elks will stage its annual Halloween carnival.

You will have considerable time to read and consider the constitutional amendments before they come up for decision, but you should do so, and carefully. You will notice that all of them, or nearly all, either provide for appropriations of money, or will cause the expenditure of large sums. Probably one or two amendments might be worthy of a favorable vote, but not more. When it comes to the question whether or not a constitutional convention shall be held, make it "no" with entire safety.

DEATHS.

GARBRICK.—John Mitchell Garbrick, of Bellefonte, died following an illness of six years. He was a son of Joseph and Susan Garbrick and was aged 68 years. He was twice married, his first wife having been Emma Wion and his second Catharine Walker, who survives with one brother, Joseph Garbrick, of Bellefonte. Burial was made at Zion.

He leaves his wife and five children, five sisters, four brothers and five grandchildren. He was a member of the Reformed church and an ex-elder of the same. He had been a farmer all his life. Funeral services were held on Saturday morning in the Pine Hall church; interment at Pine Hall.

MILLER.—Mrs. Amanda Miller, an aged and respected resident of Madisonburg, passed away on Monday of last week, after a four weeks' illness of pneumonia. Deceased was born in that vicinity seventy-four years ago. She was married to Elias Miller, who preceded her to the grave a number of years ago. Surviving is one daughter, Mrs. Ann S. Barger, who resided with her mother. Funeral services were held on Friday afternoon; interment at Madisonburg.

COOK.—Clarence Cook, a lifelong resident of Howard, passed away at the Danville State hospital after an illness of complications. He was aged about seventy-two years and was a son of the late Robert Cook. His wife died a number of years ago, but surviving is one son, Charles Cook, of Howard, and two brothers—Walter Cook and Robert Cook, of Howard, and two sisters—Miss Alice Cook, at home and Mrs. R. P. Long, of Indiana. Interment in the Methodist cemetery at Howard.

SMITH.—Andrew Smith, of Mackeyville, died at the Lock Haven hospital following a two years' illness of carcinoma of the face. He was aged 78 years and had been a lifelong resident of Nittany Valley. He is survived by three sons and three daughters: Calvin, Mill Hall; R. B., of New Kensington; King, of Jersey Shore; Mrs. H. A. Oppel, Mt. Union; Mrs. John Dorman, Nittany; Mrs. W. I. Wallizer, Millheim; and by three brothers and one sister: James and Benjamin, Pittsburgh; Howard, Nittany; Mrs. Sarah Homan, Millheim. The body was taken to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Wallizer, in Millheim, where short services were held prior to interment in the Union cemetery at Farmers Mills.

BOALSBURG.

Mrs. O. F. Smith is sick with quinsy. Postmaster Jacob Meyer and wife have returned home from a ten days' vacation which they spent with their son Christ at Niagara Falls.

Charles Hosterman returned to his work at Detroit, Mich., Monday, after spending his vacation with his parents.

On Sunday evening the Reformeds had their Harvest Home services, the Rev. W. W. Meyer of Steelton preached. He was here as a candidate for the charge. The church was beautifully decorated with fruit, vegetables and flowers. The sermon was much enjoyed by all present.

POTTERS MILLS.

'Squire Carson, wife and mother-in-law, Mrs. Wilkinson, made a trip to Harrisburg on Sunday, and brought home with them their daughter, Miss Hazel, who had been visiting at Atlantic City for several weeks. A number of people attended the Mueser murder trial at Bellefonte. Mrs. Lizzie Mothersbaugh, of Boalsburg, visited the Michael Smith home for a few days. George McCormick is the owner of a new Ford. 'Squire Carson purchased a new Studebaker. Miss E. Sweetwood returned home after spending some time with her sister in Lock Haven. Miss Lizzie Slack spent a day on Fairview Farm.

Lincoln Film to be Seen at Moose Temple Theatre.

"Abraham Lincoln," the picture which has been the sensation of the movie world, is announced this week as a First National Picture, to be shown at Moose Temple Theatre, Bellefonte, three days—Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, October 6, 7 and 8. One show each evening at 8:15 P. M., and one matinee on Wednesday at 2:30 P. M.

"Abraham Lincoln" was more than two years in the making, and at times as many as 2,500 people appear in the cast. It deals with the life of Lincoln from his birth, through his boyhood, the presidency and the strife of the Civil war, depicts the surrender of Lee and shows life in Washington after the war and finally his assassination. The production has been hailed as an artistic and dramatic sensation by the national press and is generally conceded to be one of the most important pictures ever brought to the screen.

First National's decision to distribute "Abraham Lincoln" is in keeping with its policy to handle productions of only the highest grade, according to Richard Rowland, production manager. George Blinnes, considered to be a perfect likeness to the famous national hero, plays the title role, and Ruth Clifford is seen as Anne Rutledge. Nell Craig is Mrs. Lincoln. These are the principal figures in the remarkably fine cast. "Abraham Lincoln" was directed by Phil Rosen. Frances Marlon wrote the scenario and supervised the editing. The picture was produced by Al and Ray Rockett.
