The Belleville (Mifflin county) Times said last week: If our local sportsmen fail to apply for the 300 special doe licenses this week, the state sportsmen wilf be given an opportunity to purchase them. One hundred sportsmen in Pittsburgh have already applied for these licenses in the event-that they are favored and our local men do not act, we can expect nothing else but that next year will find several more hunting clubs located in this section as the outcome, and they will be maned by these men.

As was previously announced in this paper. Rev. S. F. Greenhoe, of Orrsburg, Franklin county, filled the appointments at Farmers Mills, Georges Valley and Centre Hall, in the order named, on Sunday, and immediately after the services congregational meetings were held at which the members voted on the question of the minister becoming the pastor of the Penns Valley Lutheran charge. Next Sunday Rew. Greenhoe will hold services at Tusseyville. Spring Mills and Centre Hall. The voting will then be completed.
