

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

James Conley takes this means to thank kind friends who assisted at the funeral of his mother; also for beautiful floral tributes.

Isalah and Howard Emery, Jefferson Slick and Alfred Crawford, on Saturday night, drove to Gettysburg and on Sunday viewed the battlefield.

The application for a pardon for W. L. Jacobs was not presented to the board of pardons at their meeting held in Harrisburg on Wednesday of last week.

F. J. McClellan and family and Mr. and Mrs. D. Geiss Wagner the latter part of last week, drove to Washington, D. C., to visit Mr. and Mrs. Long and family.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Mitterling and daughter Mrs. M. motored to Harrisburg and Gettysburg, visiting the famous battlefield at the latter place, this week.

Howard Durst is having the electric light line extended to his dwelling house, east of the borough limits, and will shortly have his home electrically lighted.

Fifteen tickets were sold from the Centre Hall station to excursionists who went to Niagara Falls, Saturday night, returning early Monday morning.

The Ladies Aid of the local Methodist church, are preparing to hold a bazaar of all kinds of fancy and useful articles, some time in November. The date and place to be announced later.

The Earlstown school children attended the Community Day exercises and sports at Spring Mills, on Friday. Miss Martha Yearick is the teacher, and is taking a great interest in her work.

Mrs. Mary Goodhart, whose illness had been mentioned several times during the past two months or more, continues to grow weaker from day to day. Her condition at present is extremely serious.

The Brockerhoff farm, near Old Fort, now being farmed without a tenant, has been leased to Daniel Bohm of near Spring Mills. Mr. Bohm is counted a good farmer and no doubt will be able to show results.

The wheat fields along the State highway between Centre Hall and the Penns Valley Narrows look promising. The stand is uniform. The same may be said of the wheat fields lying between the Narrows and Sunbury.

The greater part of the borough school pupils, above the primary grade, witnessed the exercises and some of them competed successfully in the sports of the Gregg Township Vocational School Community Day, on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Rice, of Wadala, on Sunday, visited the latter's father, George W. Potter, in Centre Hall. They brought with them Hazel Potter, who made her first trip here since making her home with the Rice family.

James Conley, of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, accompanied the body of his mother, Mrs. Catharine Conley, to Centre Hall, where interment was made Saturday afternoon. Mr. Conley is a salesman of oil and oil products. He will remain here for a week or more.

Mrs. Wilbur Henney recently attended the funeral of her father, William L. Aurand, who died at his home in Lewistown, at the age of 63 years. He was a contractor for excavation and masonry work. A wife, one son and six daughters survive the deceased.

The Reporter hopes to have its "Buy At Home" page ready by next week. The soliciting of the advertising and putting the ads in type involved a great amount of labor, and while the advertisers might be expecting the page to appear this week, we find it impossible to bring this about for this week's issue.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Shadle, of Charleston, West Virginia, arrived in Centre Hall on Monday and since have been entertained by Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bradford. Mr. Shadle is engaged in the lumber, coal and oil business and has been highly successful financially. He is a native of Williamsport and Mrs. Shadle grew to womanhood near Centre Hall.

Orlando Houtz and Miss Mary Barnes of State College, and Miss Florence Zettle, of Centre Hall, on Wednesday made a brief trip by auto to Selinsgrove, returning home by way of Williamsport. They were guests of friends along the way. At Williamsport the party spent the time with Miss Vienna Zettle, who is taking a course in one of the Williamsport commercial schools.

Miss Estella Hosterman has been in Ohio and western Pennsylvania among friends during the past two weeks, and is expected to return home this week. In Ohio, Miss Hosterman visited two uncles—Byron and Edward Hazel—in Youngstown, and in the western part of the state, John Waite, at Beaver Falls, also an uncle. She is one of the clerks in the local post office and has been pretty closely tied to her duties during the past few years.

Among the most recent arrivals at the Logsville Orphan Home is a baby boy three months old, named Hendricks Coetock, and hails from Bridgeton, New Jersey. Another bit of news from the Lutheran institution is that several estates recently settled remembered the needs of the children and left sums ranging from $500 to almost $4000. The names of the donors and sums given are as follows: K. O. Wolf estate, of Gettysburg, $500; Robert Strickler estate, of Harrisburg, $822.11; E. A. Garman estate, of Richfield, $3627.19; Edward Wagner estate of Shrewsbury, $1000.

FARM HOUSE BURNED.

James W. Evans Home in Georges Valley Burned Monday Forenoon.

The dwelling house on the James W. Evans farm, about two and one-half miles west of Spring Mills, in Georges Valley, was totally destroyed by fire Monday forenoon at about ten o'clock. Mr. Evans and two sisters—Misses Caroling and Irene Evans—occupy the place. Mr. Evans and a farm hand were in the corn field when they saw smoke arising from the house and on closer observation it was seen that the roof was on fire. When they arrived at the house the sisters had not yet discovered the fire. The structure burned slowly, as there was scarcely a movement of air, and this enabled those who quickly gathered at the scene to remove nearly all of the house furnishings.

The Evans place was inherited by the trio occupying it from their father, the late J. Wells Evans, and was originally the Daniel Runkle homestead. Since coming into the hands of the Evans family, the house was remodeled and was in the best of condition when burned. The loss will fall quite heavily on the owners, although some insurance, about $1800, was carried.

The barn stood to the south of the house and nearby, but owing to the fact that there was scarcely a movement of air, the structure was saved from the ravishes of the flames.

Big Potato Crops.

Some of the potato farmers about Centre Hall are harvesting big crops. Among these are Morris A. Burkholder, who is certain of a crop of approximately 1500 bushels. Thomas Delaney, who has made potato growing one of his money crops for some years, sold 500 bushels, which represents only a part of the yield, at 70 cents per bushel. Mr. Decker, on the Colyer farm, has the best of reasons for estimating his crop at between four and five thousand bushels. Although a young man, Mr. Decker has met with marked success in growing potatoes. He just makes them yield.

Elks Halloween Parade.

This celebration has been great in years past, but this year it will be greater. The parade, to form at 7:30 o'clock, will be made up of three divisions.

1st Division—Composed of Marshall and staff, Elks, Band, Carnival Queen, etc. Will form on Allegheny street with right opposite Most drug store.

2nd Division—composed of Mummies; will form on West Bishop street with right on Allegheny street.

3rd Division—Composed of Military, Fraternal, Civic organizations, and floats, will form on East Bishop street with right on Allegheny street.

Sixty-one prizes are offered, ranging from $25.00 in cash for first; $15.00 for second, and a like sum for the third prize by the Elks lodge, to cash prizes of less amounts and articles of value offered by firms and individuals.

FOUR GIGANTIC SEA VESSELS IN "SEA HAWK"

Having viewed the year's biggest dramas and spectacles dealing with adventure on land, local photoplay lovers are curiously awaiting the initial showing of what is regarded as the greatest sea drama ever filmed. Frank Lloyd's production of "The Sea Hawk," a First National Picture, adapted from Rafael Sabatini's celebrated novel of the same title. It will be shown at the Moose Temple Theatre, Bellefonte, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week; matinees daily at 2:30 p. m., and one show each evening at 8:15.

"The Sea Hawk," for five years one of the best sellers on the popular fiction shelf, and dealing with the colorful adventures of English knights and sweethearts and Barbary corsairs, has required a gigantic background for its many vivid scenes.

Four gigantic sea going vessels of the sixteenth century, exact in every detail and manned by over a thousand sailors, corsairs, galley slaves and officers, participate in much of the action, several naval battles, during which ships ram into each other head on, then lash themselves together, while their crews engage in hand to hand combat, are said to be but a few of the unique and highly exciting scenes of the production.

More than $5,000 in costumes were designed and executed for the members of "The Sea Hawk" cast that the details of early fashion might not be neglected.

Milton Sills heads the exceptional cast in Mr. Lloyd's big spectacle, playing the dual character of Sir Oliver Tressilian and Sak-el-Bahr. Enid Bennett has been given the principal feminine role, with Lloyd Hughes, Marc MacDermott, Wallace Beery, Frank Currier, Wallace McDonald, Hector V. Sarno, Fred de Silva, Kathleen Key, Mme. Medea Radzina, Christine Monti, Lionel Belmore, Robert Bolder and others of note lending support.

Among the many beautiful scenic shots the picture is said to contain are some of the most successful night scenes ever filmed—in particular a night battle between the English frigate manned by 400 men and a Moorish galley crewed by 200 slaves and defended by twenty-five brass cannons and a hundred spearmen and bowmen.

The management of the Moose Temple theatre will present "The Sea Hawk" with an elaborate musical program.

BILL BOOSTER SAYS

"GOLLY, THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE HOME, BUT A FELLER HAS TO SPEND A FEW DAYS IN A BIG, DIRTY NOISY CITY TO APPRECIATE IT! THIS CITY STUFF MAY BE O.K. FOR MILLIONAIRES, BUT GIVE ME A PEACEFUL FRIENDLY TOWN LIKE THIS, SEE!!"

Hall's Catarrh Medicine
Those who are in a "run down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a Tonic and acts through the blood upon the mucous surfaces of the body, thus reducing the inflammation and assisting Nature in restoring normal conditions. All Druggists.
