

THE CENTRE REPORTER

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1924.

POTTERS MILLS.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiltner Lee made a trip to Lancaster on Thursday. Henry Foust and wife spent some time at Tyrone.

William, Robert and Laura Belle McCormick visited friends in Altoona a few days.

Miss Mildred Duck, of Lock Haven, spent a short time at the Eutaw House.

Miss Ida Swope and Misses Anna and Etta Kaibenslaugh, and Mrs. Jas. Buck, all of Harrisburg, spent Sunday with Mrs. John Wilkinson.

Mrs. Ruth Thomas and Mrs. Michael Smith made a business trip to Bellefonte on Thursday.

Howard Davidheiser and wife spent the week-end at the home of Elmer Stump at Mt. Union.

Mrs. Frank Ennist and two daughters, Sara and Esther, spent a week at Lewistown.

Joseph Parker purchased a piano for Miss Ida Carter. Now they have music galore—both instrumental and vocal—at the lower end of town.

One day this week Rev. Rearick had the misfortune to run into Paul Palmer's wagon, knocking it to pieces. Paul was pretty badly used up but not seriously hurt. Children had better be somewhere else than on the highway—a man running a car cannot see everything.

Mr. and Mrs. Crosby, of Philadelphia, on their way to State College to see the football game, met with what might have been a serious accident. Coming down the hill at the foot of the mountain, the axle of the car broke. The driver lost control and almost ran into Michael Smith's yard. Fortunately no one was hurt; only a bad scare.

REBERSBURG.

Edwin Stover, of Dubois, with his family, came to this place and attended the funeral of Samuel Mowery. Samuel Bjerly is building a large slaughter house to the rear of his barn.

Rev. Travers and family are now snugly located in the Lutheran parsonage at this place, and the Rev. has taken up the duties of the charge.

The public schools at this place were opened for the winter term on last Monday, which is almost two months late. The delay has been due to the building of a new school house and the remodeling of the interior of the brick building. A wooden fire escape has also been built to the east side of the building.

While coasting on the sidewalk with his express wagon, Walter Cummings sustained a fractured arm when the wagon upset while going at a good rate of speed, and throwing the young lad to the hard road.

The past week the following movings took place: Stanley Malloy moved into the house which he bought of Wm. Toibert, formerly known as the Harvey Corman home; Rufus Brungart moved from Smullton to this place into one part of his father's house, and Henry Rupp moved from Mill Hall to near Smullton into the home formerly known as the Elias Breon home.

MOWERY.—On last Tuesday evening Samuel Mowery, a highly esteemed farmer, died of dropsy. His remains were taken to Woodward on Saturday afternoon for burial. His age was 64 years, 5 months, 12 days.

MILLHEIM.

(From the Journal.)

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hoover and young son, of Genoa, Ill., arrived in this section Saturday for a visit with relatives and friends.

Miss Jane Musser, of Millheim, and Miss Bernadine Condo, of Penn Hall, are spending the week with their aunt, Miss Clara Condo, at Altoona.

Mrs. E. S. Ripka and son, Byers, motored to St. Thomas, Pa., on Saturday. They are visiting there with Mrs. Ripka's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Byers.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Yearick and daughter, of Mill Hall, and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Royer, of Lamar, were motor visitors Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Frank.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Smith, accompanied by Mrs. Harriet Keen, motored to Harrisburg Saturday afternoon to visit their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. Calvin Smith.

James N. Catherman, of Millheim, and Alfred Catherman, of Hartleton, returned to their respective homes after a several weeks' visit with relatives and friends in Minnesota, North Dakota, Nebraska and Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Gramley and daughter, Miss Lucille, accompanied by their young ward, James DeLaney, motored to Philadelphia, where Mr. Gramley had business to transact.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Hosterman and two sons, Russell and Frederick, on Saturday motored to Portage to visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Eby. Mrs. Hosterman and sons returned home, while Mr. Hosterman went to Harrisburg to attend a harness show.

May Abolish Institute.

County Superintendent D. O. Effer, in his opening address to the Teachers' Institute, last week, indicated that this was the last gathering of the kind that will be held in the State. Efforts to abolish the Institute were made a year ago but were unsuccessful. Nothing definite in this direction has yet been accomplished, but it seems to be the opinion of the powers that be that the money could be better spent on educators to travel to the various schools and take up the specific problems of one teacher at a time rather than to generalize on various subjects as they do now.

MUSICAL RECITAL.

Report of Affairs in Millheim Journal Highly Complimentary to Miss Stover and Young Students.

Due to modesty more than anything else, the Reporter refrained from deservedly complimenting the performers in the recital in the Methodist church, Centre Hall, under the direction of Miss Byrd Stover, and, therefore copies the report which appeared in the Millheim Journal:

The musical recital in the Methodist church at Centre Hall last Friday evening, which Miss Byrd M. Stover, of Rebersburg, conducted with her large class of pupils was a gratifying success to both teacher and parents—for which Miss Stover deserves great credit for her ability and untiring efforts as a teacher. It was a rare musical treat, displaying unusual talent in that section.

The smaller children who studied only this year, viz. Miriam Mitterling, Fred Bingman, Fay Reese, Gladys Smith and Isabella Bradford, deserve special mention in the manner in which they performed and read at sight for such brief tutelage. But Miss Stover is especially gifted and painstaking with beginners. We understand she has had numerous lucrative and enticing offers to open studios exclusively for children in larger towns but has declined because of parental duties.

The advanced portion of the class displayed fine talent in the rendition of their solos. We can't mention all, but several most difficult solos deserve creditable mention as rendered by Misses Miriam Moore, Louise Smith and Ruth Bingman.

The musical reading given by Miss Agnes Geary was beautiful, displaying rare talent. She likewise deserves mention in the rendition of one of Miss Stover's personal compositions, which she did very creditably, while the collection was taken.

In Myra Spyster, Miriam and Sarah Smith, Evelyn Colyer and Bertha Sharer, the younger element, Centre Hall can entertain visions of talented future pianists. Likewise gifted violinists in Harold Durst, who rendered a most difficult solo. Misses Elizabeth Bartholomew, Ruth Bingman, Charlotte Keller and Master Vernon Godshall.

The selections by the violin club and the glee songs of the girls ukulele club were greatly appreciated.

Centre Hall can duly pride itself in the musical talent displayed by its young people, which will be a continuity of the reputation the town enjoys in matters musical.

To My Patrons:

It is with pleasure that I announce that I have secured for one performance only, "The Flashes of the Great White Way," for Bellefonte, and I fully guarantee that there will be a great number of my out-of-town friends that will take advantage of the opportunity to witness this revue and in order that they may receive splendid care and attention, I have arranged to make special reservations for them. The choice seats for this engagement will be $2.00 and $1.50. In making out your check or Post Office money order, make same payable to L. J. Toner, Manager, Moose Temple Theatre, and mark, "For Flashes of the Great White Way," giving me the number of seats required, the location of same, and as soon as the seats go on sale, they will be reserved for you and will be held for you. By so doing you will be assured of the choice seats, owing to the cost of this attraction and the great demand for seats. There will be no reservations made without check accompanying the order. Please give this your attention at once. Very truly,
LEO J. TONER, Mgr.

Hard Winter Due.

The United States is due for the harshest winter in years if the well known "law of averages" that rules human destiny works out.

In spite of the assertion of the U. S. weather bureau that long distance forecasting is impossible with present knowledge of meteorology, government officials have admitted that an old-fashioned winter is over due.

SPRING MILLS

Mr. and Mrs. William Smith and daughter, Miss Martha, Mrs. Cogan and son Guy, spent Sunday at Williamsport.

Mrs. C. Austin Long and children were Sunbury visitors a few days last week with Mrs. Long's brother, Rev. Roy Corman.

Mrs. Benjamin Gentzell is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Gramley were Union county visitors on Sunday.

The Lutheran Sunday school has purchased a new library that has a choice selection of books.

The new band is making splendid progress. The schools have resumed their usual routine of work after a week's vacation for institute.

The National Quartette will be the first number of the lecture course, on Saturday evening, November 1.

Eugene Gramley, wife and baby, of Lewistown, were visitors at the T. M. Gramley home a few days last week. Recent visitors of the Stork, aside from the one mentioned last week (a girl to Mr. and Mrs. James McCool), were the following: A son to Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Smith; a son to Mr. and Mrs. Clair Boob; a son to Mr. and Mrs. George Condo.
