

BEFORE TWINS WERE BORN

Was Very Miserable. Felt Lois Better After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Wycocna, Wisconsin.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because my twins were born because my sister recommended it to me. I was so I could scarcely go about my daily work I was in such misery. But after I began taking the second bottle I was feeling lots better. I took three bottles and a half before I was confined and finished the bottle while I was in bed. I got up feeling fine and have taken care of the twins alone ever since. I recommend the Vegetable Compound highly and will sing its praises in the future."

—Mrs. Ina Gembitz, Wycocna, Wis.

It is remarkable how many cases have been reported similar to this one. Many mothers are left in a weakened and run-down condition after child-birth, and for such mothers the care of the baby is well-nigh impossible. Not only is it hard for the mother, but the child itself will indirectly suffer.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is an excellent tonic for the mother both before and after child-birth. It is prepared from medicinal roots and herbs, and does not contain any harmful drugs. It can be taken in safety by nursing mothers.

Good Advice for Women

Roanoke, Va.—"I had reached the critical age and my condition was most distressing to me. I had become very nervous and restless, my appetite was gone and I kept losing flesh. At times I suffered intensely and had fainting spells. I felt completely broken-down. I sent for a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and within ten days felt a change for the better, and as I continued its use all my distressing symptoms disappeared. Today I am a well and happy woman, appetite good and I weigh 160 lbs.—Mrs. J. W. Corum, 811 Campbell Ave., S. E. All dealers.

PENNSYLVANIA BRIEFS

By the will of the late Mrs. Amanda Gladfelter, of Spring Grove, Gettysburg College and the theological seminary have each been bequeathed the sum of $5000.

Eighty-five members of the Washington Hook and Ladder Company, of Reading, were guests of the Eagle Hose Company, of York.

Mrs. Charles Hoffman, of Lewisport, fell down stairs about a week ago, but did not know a wrist was broken until an X-ray picture was taken.

Uncle Sam's dirigible Shenandoah, which passed to south of Uniontown, is believed to have been the indirect cause of an accident at Thompson Cross roads that killed one life and inflicted probably fatal injuries to another person. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Zlotin, of Norfolk, Va., whose automobile was struck by a street car, were watching the big craft as they drove along and evidently did not see the approaching car. Zlotin was instantly killed and Mrs. Zlotin is dying from a fractured skull and a broken back.

Louis Seaman was arrested in Pottsville and given a hearing for an automobile accident which occurred two years ago. City police gave as the alleged reason for the delay the fact that Seaman joined the army and nothing was known of his whereabouts. It was alleged that following a football game Seaman ran into William Shuster and seriously injured him. Alderman Davies held the man for trial and also imposed a fine for operating without lights and for operating an automobile without a registration card.

Constance Stoner, the 6-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Stoner, of Gettysburg, died as the result of being scalded. Constance went into the bath room to turn hot water running in the tub. In reaching for the spigot she lost her balance and fell into the water. With the exception of her face, she was badly scalded. Two older sisters ran to the room when they heard her scream and pulled her from the tub.

Bradford county sportsmen are contributing liberally to the proposed state forest bond issue educational campaign. The Sayre rod and gun club and the Sayre sportsmen's club each has voted $25. The money has been forwarded to Dr. H. J. Donaldson, of Williamsport, head of the state game commission and chairman of the state conservation council.

While walking through the country on his way to target practice with several of his brothers and boy friends Clarence Sigafos, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanford Sigafos, of Upper Black Eddy, near Easton, was shot and fatally wounded when the revolver in the hands of one of his companions was accidentally discharged. The bullet entered his neck and penetrated the right lung. He was brought to the Easton Hospital, where he died fifty minutes later.

George F. Lauer, of Reading, has found among the papers of his father, the late Frederick Lauer, Reading's pioneer brewer, a letter from President Andrew Johnson to whom the elder Lauer had sent a keg of ale with his compliments. President Johnson acknowledged the gift March 31, 1866, and in his letter indicated that he had sampled the contents of the cask. The letter follows: "I received some days since a cask of your justly celebrated ale. I find it worthy the high reputation of your well known establishment and beg that you will accept my thanks for your kindness."

In tumbling from the hayloft to the first floor of an abandoned stable at 237 Fitzwater street, Philadelphia, Gus Watson, 87 years, a recluse and mysterious character, who frequently disappeared and reappeared, received a fractured skull and internal injuries which resulted in his death. Watson habitually slept on a load of hay which had been in the loft for years and police think that he was suffering from indigestion and began to pace the loft when he stepped on the rotten board, which caved through.

Major Hugentugler, of York, ordered the reinstatement of Patrolman Gorman Christine under suspension without pay at the mayor's orders since September 24.

A taxicab bearing a Jersey City license plate drew up in front of the Sykesville National Bank and a well known resident of Sykesville emerged. The man entered the bank and drew $144, which he handed to the chauffeur, the latter thanked the other with a grin and drove off. The Sykesville man confided to intimates that he had imbibed unwisely in Jersey City and acting on a whim had lurching into a taxicab, articulated "Sykesville" as well as he could and dropped off to sleep. The chauffeur consulted his maps and started off, apparently satisfied his passenger was a good financial risk.

Three additional cases of smallpox were reported in the Pottsville district, the new outbreak being at Mill Creek.

A feud with a mania for turning in false alarms has the Mt. Carmel fire department on the jump.

Simon Z. Uhler, of Burnham, aged 25 years, dropped dead at the Standard Steel Works, where he had been employed for years.

Stricken with blood poisoning, the result of a minor injury sustained at play, Emily, the 7-year-old daughter of Grant M. Eddinger, of Boyertown, died.

COOLIDGE SWEEPS EAST AND WEST

His Electoral Vote May Reach 350--Popular Plurality Is Not Certain

DAVIS GETS SOLID SOUTH

La Follette Certain Only Of Wisconsin, His Vote Disappointing Backers

Washington.—Calvin Coolidge has been elected to succeed himself as President of the United States in a landslide which swept the East, the Middle West, a large part of the Far West, and which has increased his party's vote in both the House and Senate.

His electoral vote may reach 350. Latest returns indicated that he would carry Nebraska, Nevada and might even carry Missouri.

John W. Davis, Democratic nominee, seems to have an electoral vote of not less than 136 which may be increased somewhat when the final returns are in from New Mexico and Arizona where he is running neck and neck with the President.

LaFollette carried only his own State, Wisconsin, although he ran second in Iowa, California and a number of smaller States. His popular vote in several Eastern States, notably Maryland and New York, contributed largely to the Coolidge pluralities there.

The Democrats appear to have lost Senate seats in Massachusetts, in Oklahoma and probably in Kentucky. Also they seem to have lost no less than six seats in the House. The LaFollette bloc has suffered two notable Senate losses, apparently in Brookhart, of Iowa, and Magnus Johnson, in Minnesota.

The Ku Klux Klan, which figured largely in the campaign as an issue, apparently has scored against its more violent opponents in a number of States. Not only did John W. Davis, who denounced it by name repeatedly, go down to defeat, as did Senator LaFollette, who also denounced it, but Senatorial and gubernatorial candidates opposed to it were severely punished.

New York.—Coolidge and Dawes swept New York State with a plurality that had reached more than 700,000 shortly after midnight.

With 734 districts missing out of a total of 7,563, the State gave Coolidge and Dawes, 1,648,202, and Davis and Bryan, 872,771. Of the missing districts 290 are in New York city.

At 1.20 A. M. George K. Morris, Republican State chairman, conceded the election of Governor Smith over Theodore Roosevelt by a plurality of 50,000 and 65,000.

At 1.15 A. M. Governor Smith had a plurality of 66,802 over Roosevelt. The gubernatorial vote then was: Smith, 1,338,985; Roosevelt, 1,272,182.

The vote for the rest of the State ticket was close.

For Lieutenant-Governor George R. Lunn, the incumbent, had a vote of 442,099, as compared with 528,248 for Seymour Lowman, of Cheung, the Republican candidate, in the two-thirds vote tabulated at midnight.

Milwaukee.—On the basis of 272 precincts reported out of a total of 2,679 in the State LaFollette was leading President Coolidge for President by nearly 6,000 votes. The tabulation gave LaFollette 38,214, Coolidge 32,431 and Davis 6,345.

LaFollette managers predicted he would carry the State by a large majority. The tabulation showed about one-tenth of the State reporting.

The increase of LaFollette in the last 100 precincts heard from was approximately 3,000 votes.

At the State capital, where he received the election returns by special wire, Senator LaFollette indicated to friends that he would be unable to appraise the results on the basis of fragmentary returns.

He awaited each bulletin eagerly, smiling as the figures were read and remarking from time to time to a small circle of friends on the significance he attached to the reports. He would have nothing for publication, however, he said, until the returns might be studied.

Montpelier, Vt.—Vermont poured out her votes for President Calvin Coolidge. With a little more than half the vote counted the President had received 33,780 votes, Davis running a poor second with 6,270. LaFollette received 2,816.

In the gubernatorial contest, Billings, Republican, was running slightly behind the head of his ticket with 31,645 votes, and Martin, Democrat, had 7,193.

In Plymouth, the birthplace of the President, Mr. Coolidge received 165 votes, Davis 7 and LaFollette 1.

Providence, R. I.—With returns from 43 districts out of 194 in Rhode Island, President Coolidge had a lead of 19,731 over John W. Davis. The figures were: Coolidge, 19,726; Davis, 8,995. LaFollette had polled 524 in the same districts.

Jesse H. Metcalf, Republican Senatorial candidate for the unexpired term of the late United States Senator LeBaron B. Colt and for the regular term to follow, was leading Governor William S. Flynn, Democratic candidate, by 9,849 for the regular term and by about the same figure for the short term. Edward M. Sullivan, Independent Democratic candidate, has polled less than 150 in the same districts.

For Governor, former Gov. Aram J. Pothier, Republican, was leading Lieut. Gov. Felix A. Toupin by 7,803 votes, with 34 districts heard from.

Wilmington, Del.—President Coolidge had a big lead in Delaware over his two opponents in late returns. Coolidge, 4,624; Davis, 2,097; LaFollette, 548.

In the same districts T. Coleman du Pont, Republican, led James M. Tunnell, his Democratic opponent for United States Senator, by more than 2,300 votes, while Robert P. Robinson, Republican candidate for Governor, had a two-to-one vote over Joseph Bancroft, Democrat.

Memphis.—Returns gave John W. Davis, Democratic Presidential candidate, 44,447 votes; President Coolidge 31,394 and Senator LaFollette 1,559.

Returns were from 75 of the 95 counties in the State.

In the Senatorial contest Gen. L. D. Tyson, Democrat, had a total of 37,185 votes and H. B. Lindsay, Republican, 25,240.

Gov. Austin Peay, Democratic candidate for re-election, had 42,306 votes and his Republican opponent, T. F. Peck, 28,297.

Harvey Hanna, Democratic incumbent, was leading W. T. Testerman, his Republican opponent in the contest for Railway Commissioner, by a ratio of approximately two to one. Hanna had 29,920 and Testerman 14,395.

Indianapolis.—On the face of the returns from scattered precincts throughout the State of Indiana, but from enough sources to tell the trend, President Coolidge has carried the State by a plurality which will range from 100,000 to 160,000.

LaFollette is running exceptionally weak, and probably will not get 5 per cent. of the total vote, which will run close to 1,550,000.

Jackson, Republican, for Governor, is not running as strong as Coolidge,
