AWARD CONTRACT FOR

NEW HOME FOR AGED

F. D. Beyer and Co., Tyrone, Get Job

for Presbyterian's Building Near Hollidaysburg.

Construction of the new proposed home for the aged of the Huntingdon Presbytery, to which Presbytery the Presbyterians in this section belong, was awarded to F. D. Beyer and Company, of Tyrone. Building operations will begin soon. It was announced.

The new home will be on the Keller property in Gaysport. Three wings will be added to the present building on the site.

A new addition will be erected at the rear of the old structure, about 47 feet square, and it is planned to build wings on either side of the original building. Only the one on the south side will be erected at present.

The first floor of the new structure to be built at the rear will contain the kitchen, pantry and dining room; the second floor the diet kitchen, infirmary, nurses' room and sick room. The cold storage, boiler room laundry and ash pits will be located in the elevator in this building.

The new wing on the south side will be 35 by 100 feet in its dimensions and will be connected with the original building by passage ways on each floor. There will be an entrance at the front of the new wing and sun parlors at the rear of both floors.

In his own mind Pinchot is a great governor and economist, but he has an awful lot of trouble to get others to see it. In fact, if Pinchot wouldn't tell of his greatness himself, no one would hear of it.

DEATHS.

ADAMS.—Mrs. Clara Adams, widow of Edwin Adams, died at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Hennigh, in Centre Hall, Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, as the direct result of a stroke of paralysis suffered Sunday a week ago. Mrs. Adams, who is a cousin of Mrs. Hennigh, came to Centre Hall two days prior to her being stricken. It was her intention after a short visit here to leave for Florida to spend the winter.

Deceased was aged 62 years. Her husband passed away a number of years ago. No children were born to their union.

A short funeral service will be held at the Hennigh home this (Thursday) morning by Rev. H. H. Sherman. Undertaker P. V. Goodhart will then convey the remains to Williamsport where further services will be conducted in Grace (Methodist) Church, followed by interment in Wildwood cemetery.

WERNER.—Thursday afternoon of last week, Albert August Werner died suddenly from diabetes, for which disease he was being treated by a local physician. Mr. Werner and his mother came to Centre Hall several weeks ago from Jeanette, and for a time boarded at the private home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Slack. About a week prior to his death, the young man and his mother took up light housekeeping in a part of the house occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Noll, at the Bradford mill. The young man was able to be about town up to two or three days prior to his death. His disease had reached a stage where he was subject to convulsions, and it was while suffering from one of these attacks that he passed away.

The deceased was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman P. Werner, of Jeanette, and was aged twenty-five years. His home was in Greensburg, and his occupation that of a glass blower. A wife survives him, but no children.

The body was prepared by Undertaker Goodhart, and Friday morning it was shipped to Greensburg for interment.

LEITZELL.—John Leitzell died at his home in Lewisburg, on Saturday, and Wednesday the funeral took place, interment being at Lewisburg. Mr. Leitzell was born in Georges Valley, near Spring Mills, and was a son of Samuel Leitzell, and was aged about seventy-two years. He lived in Lewisburg for a long while and was employed as an engine hostler by the P. R. R. Company.

There survive him his second wife, also a son, Elmer, in Williamsport, and a daughter, Mrs. Carrie Saxon, of Scranton, children of the first wife, whose maiden name was Miss Catharine Feldler. A brother, James, of Lewisburg, also survives the deceased.

GILBERT.—Henry K. Gilbert, aged 73 years, 4 months and 7 days, died at his home in Lewistown Monday evening of last week, after an illness dating from last June.

He was born at Salladysburg, Pa., and leaves his wife, Luciana (Baney) Gilbert, whose home was at Madisonburg, Centre county, and the following four sons: James C. Gilbert, of Rossiter; Jesse L. of Williamsport; Homer A. of Corning, N. Y.; Fred, of Syracuse, N. Y., and two daughters—Mrs. John Baney, of Clearfield, and Mrs. Ernest Getalder, Williamsport.

There are six living step-daughters: Mrs. Joseph Baylor, of Chester; Mrs. Edward Lingie and Mrs. Miles Barger, of Spring Mills; Mrs. Harry McClellan and Mrs. Musser Coldren, of Centre Hall, and Mrs. Herman Mateer, at her parental home.

During most of his life he was a member of the Methodist church, until about four years ago when he united with the Trinity Evangelical church, Lewistown, where he served one year as Sunday school superintendent. He also filled the office of Sunday school chorister until the time of his death, when he was also the church treasurer, a steward and a member of the church building committee. He was also a Sunday school teacher and class leader until death summoned him.

The remains were taken to Williamsport for burial.

ILGIN.—David W. Ilgin, well known wholesale butcher of Millifinburg, died at the office of Dr. Hill at that place. His death was sudden, being caused by angina pectoris. Mr. Ilgin was aged 55 years. Surviving are his wife and one son, Paul Ilgin, of Harrisburg, and the following brother, David Ilgin, of Logan Mills, and two sisters, Mrs. Mary Bartges, of State College, and Mrs. Sara Reareck, of Spring Mills. Interment was made in the Millifinburg cemetery.

Murderers Sent to Prison.

The officials of the Eastern Penitentiary in Philadelphia, notified the sheriff of Snyder county that the two prisoners—Mrs. Annie Willow and her youthful paramour, Ralph Shadel—convicted and sentenced from ten to twenty years for their part in the killing of Harvey Willow, should not be brought to the Eastern Penitentiary. On Monday Mrs. Willow was taken to Lackawanna county jail, and Shadel to the Western Penitentiary, Pittsburgh, to begin their terms of sentence.

Creamery Plant to Close.

To the Public:
After serving the farming public of East end of Centre county for thirty-seven years without a vacation, and falling in health, we have decided to close down our Creamery on December 1st, 1924, and all accounts will be paid in full and plant closed down. The plant is for sale private, and anyone who wants a complete plant, first-class in all respects, will do well to come and see us and buy at a bargain. The Company hereby thanks the public for its patronage these many years and wishes it well.

Yours respectfully,
SPRING MILLS CREAMERY CO.

PINE GROVE MILLS.

Alfred Davis is loading a car with $150 wheat at Penna. Furnace. Cydus Powley will consider "Katy" doffed for a chunk of brain.

The bulk of the corn has been cribbed.

J. R. Smith was taken to the Centre County hospital as a medical patient. David Siegal is breaking ground for a new home at State College.

J. R. Smith and R. G. Goheen are among the sick; Elmer Barr's condition is not improved.

The Ladies school are planning for an entertainment entitled "Thanksgiving on the Farm."

Mrs. George Irvin visited relatives and friends in the Mountain City all of last week and was much benefited.

The Shoemaker club of fifteen struck for the Potter county woods for bear Monday morning. Now for bear steak.

Mrs. Charles Bears had a fall down steps, fracturing her left arm. Mrs. C. M. Wieland is also nursing a fractured right arm.

The Ladies Aid society of the Lutheran church will serve a chicken and waffle supper Saturday evening, at 5:00 per plate. Also, hold bazaar and fancy articles for sale.

J. E. Elder is laid up from an accident that affected both legs. A bench on which he and some others were sitting broke down, pinning his limbs under.

Among the farmers that are quitting next spring are Emery Johnson and Fred Walls. The former is going to Ohio and the latter to State College.

The Andrew Johnson sale last Thursday was well attended and bidding was brisk. Cows sold for $36 to $95; shoats sold low; implements brought fair prices; corn $1 for a double bushel; seed oats 72 cents. The sale totaled $4,500.

Another home is broken up. Before this issue goes to press the W. E. McWilliams home at Rock Springs will be closed. The old veteran will make his home with his daughter, Mrs. Frank V. Goodhart, at Centre Hall. Harry W. Potter and bride will take first lessons in housekeeping in their new home at Centre Hall this Thursday. We are sorry to lose such estimable citizens, but our loss will be Centre Hall's gain.

RIDER.—Another old mother in Israel was called to her heavenly home in the death of Mary Ann, relict of Matthias Rider, a Civil war veteran. She died at her home at Gatesburg last Thursday morning after a lingering illness with a cancerous trouble, which she bore with true Christian fortitude and patience. She was a daughter of John and Mary Ellenberger, pioneer settlers of that section, and spent her entire life within sight of her birthplace. Her husband preceded her to the grave March 17, 1924, but she kept the home fires burning and her home was a royal place to tarry. She was a zealous member of the Lutheran church and its oldest member, and the last of her family. She was the mother of four children, two of whom survive. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon, her pastor, Rev. J. P. English, officiating.

BOALSBURG.

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday nights proved to be real winter weather.

On Sunday, Mrs. Hazel Meyer entertained at dinner Nevin Meyer and family and Curtis Meyer and family.

Mrs. Emma Kuhn and daughter, of Williamsport, are visiting Mrs. Kuhn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Rowe.

The repairs at the Reformed parsonage moving along nicely, and all will be ready for the new minister and his wife by December 1st.

A ladies class of the Lutheran Sunday school will conduct a bake sale at the parsonage the day before Thanksgiving day. That is where to get the good things to eat.

S. M. Roberts and his house-keeper moved to Milesburg Friday. Mr. Roberts will work at the carpenter trade in Bellefonte. His son Frank is staying with George Fortney.

The ladies' class of the Reformed Sunday School are holding a bazaar and chicken supper on Saturday of this week. The bazaar will open at 2 o'clock and continue into the evening; the things to be on sale are all hand made, both useful and ornamental. The supper will start at 5 o'clock and continue during the evening; price, 50c. The bazaar and supper will both be held in Malta temple. All are invited.
