REBERSBURG.

A young Mr. Sauer visited relatives at this place for several days last week.

The teachers' local institute held at this place on Friday afternoon and evening, was largely attended and was greatly appreciated by all who attended the two sessions.

The members of the Evangelical church at this place will have a Christmas entertainment on Christmas eve (December 24). Everybody is invited to come and hear the elaborate program which will be rendered.

Norman Bierly, who was farming on the Leister farm near Pottery Mills, and who had sale of farm stock and implements, will move to this place into the Mrs. Emma Gephart home and will help his brother Robert in his business.

On Friday an appraisement was held of the real estate of Samuel Mawery, deceased.

Albert Reed, of Millheim, is at present staying at the Mowery home, helping the Mowery boys get away their fall work.

Mr. Sheesley and mother, of Woodward, spent Friday at this place. While here Mrs. Sheesley called on old acquaintances while her son spent the day tramping along the mountain north of this place in quest of wild game but did not succeed in bagging anything.

Last week was an unlucky week for Mail Carrier Robert Bierly. In the first place he lost by death a valuable horse, colic being the cause; the following morning he found one of his valuable heifers lying dead in the stable. "Rob" has our sympathy. John Bright, who is employed at the carpenter trade at State College, spent over Sunday at this place with his family.

SPRING MILLS

Mrs. C. C. Bartges, Mrs. Jack Mullinger and Mrs. Ammon Decker attended the funeral of John Litzell, at Lewisburg, on Wednesday.

Clair Allison and family, of Renovo, were visitors at the Harry Allison home last week.

The Grangers will hold an oyster supper in the Grange hall on Thanksgiving evening, November 27.

Rev. Haney will preach in the Lutheran church on Thanksgiving eve.

Rev. Greenhoe preached an interesting sermon on Sunday evening.

There was no school on Friday afternoon as the teachers were to Rebersburg to attend local institute.

Word was received that Mrs. Naomi Heckman (nee Weaver) was very ill at her home in Patton.

Harry Barger lost his pocketbook Saturday evening, containing some twenty dollars. Mrs. Hassemplug found it Sunday morning.

MILLHEIM.

(From the Journal.)
Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Weiser and children, of Altoona, were visitors with home friends in Millheim over the week-end.

S. G. Snook motored up from Philadelphia Tuesday, accompanied by his aunt, Mrs. W. F. Smith, who was his guest since the death of his wife several weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Winters, of Fredericksburg, Va., and Prof. Harold Schaffer, of Cogan Station, were Sunday visitors at the home of Rev. and C. B. Snyder.

Stores Closed Thanksgiving Day.

The following stores in Millheim will be closed all day Thanksgiving Day:

- D. J. Nieman.
- A. Kessel.
- A. A. Frank and Son.
- E. R. Shreckengast.
- C. M. Smith.

Rebersburg Ends Soccer Season.

The Miles Township High school of Rebersburg, by defeating Boalsburg High on Friday by a score of 1 to 0, ended their 1924 soccer season with a splendid finish. Although the school has been playing only since October 31, the season was thought well worth while and there are good prospects for a still better season next year.

Some soccer was played before the school term started but the team used was only "picked up" and the results were not considered on the High school records.

Rebersburg's only defeat was a game played with Millheim. This defeat was probably due to the fact that the Millheim boys were equipped with football suits and football shoes.

The following are the results of the games played this season: Rebersburg 1, Millheim 0; Rebersburg 1, Boalsburg 1; Rebersburg 0, Millheim 0; Rebersburg 0, Millheim 3; Rebersburg 1, Boalsburg 0.

The following was the lineup for the last game:

Rebersburg	Position	Boalsburg
T. Tyson	Goal	Bohn
C. Tyson, Wolfe	R.F.B.	Roberts
Bierly	L.F.B.	E. Callahan
Jo. Wolfe	R.H.B.	Ferre
Wert	C.H.B.	Thomas
Bowersox	L.H.B.	Shuey
Weaver	R.E.	Lombberger
Meyer	R.L.F.	Smith
Detwiler, Capt.	Centre	Fisher
Cummings	L.L.F.	Wert
Bressler	L.E.	Callahan

Rebersburg's basket ball practice will begin some time this week. There will be both a boys' and a girls' team.
