BY ORDER OF THE BOARD. 6514t R. M. Shook.

DEATHS. CRUST.—Amelia Mary Crust, widow of the late William E. Crust, died at the home of her son, Charles E. Crust, east of Centre Hall, with whom she made her home for several years, on Thanksgiving morning. Interment was made on Saturday at Myers cemetery, above Bellefonte, in the family burying plot.

Mrs. Crust was born and reared in the vicinity of Axe Mann. Her maiden name was Miss Amelia Mary Martz. Her husband named above, died about twelve years ago. About five years ago she moved to Centre Hall, and a year or two later took up her home with her son. During the past few years she was a great care and was not able to leave the house. There survive the deceased two sons—Charles E. and J. Frank—the latter living near Bellefonte. Also, a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Geyer, of Port Matilda. She was a member of the Methodist church; Rev. D. A. Sower, of Millville, a former pastor, performed the ceremony. He was assisted by Rev. C. C. Shuey, of Bellefonte, while the local lodge of Rebekahs of which the deceased was a member, held services at the grave. Her age was 63 years, 5 months, 24 days.

JORDAN.—The following obituary notice was forwarded to this paper, having been taken from the home paper of the deceased: John Henry Jordan, son of John and Amanda Jordan, was born in Potter township, Centre county, Pa., Feb. 12, 1862, and died at his home near McConnell, Ill., Nov. 3, 1924. Age, 62 years, 8 months and 9 days. He came west with his parents in 1879 and made this vicinity his home from that early day to this. During the winter of 1885 he was converted at the St. James' United Brethren church, joining that church and was one of its active members. Later he transferred his membership to the McConnell United Brethren church and was a member there until his death.

In the fall of 1885, on the 20th day of September, he was united in marriage to Miss Emma E. Walters, and to this union one child was born, a son, Roy. Two brothers, Samuel, of near McConnell, Frank, of Lena. One sister, Mrs. Fogel, of Red Oak. One half-sister, Mrs. Sarah Leighty, of Greensprings, Ohio. Besides these he leaves a host of relatives and friends.

UNDERWOOD.—Martha Thompson Underwood, wife of Isaac Underwood, well known implement dealer, of Bellefonte, died very suddenly after a few days' illness, which arose from an attack of indigestion. Deceased was born in Halfmoon valley, a daughter of John and Hannah Rowan, and was aged 84 years and 6 months. She was united in marriage on December 24, 1868, and is survived by her husband and the following children: J. Irvin, of Erie; H. Mary, and A. Blanche, at home. One brother, Andrew T. Rowan, of Unionville, also survives. Interment in the Lower Dix cemetery.

HEATON.—Green Heaton, of Rockview, died at the Centre County Hospital after a lingering illness, resulting from complications. Deceased was born at Marsh Creek, a son of Andrew and Elizabeth Heaton, and had he survived until next March would have been 78 years of age. He was married twice, his second wife, who was Mrs. Katie Noll Lester, surviving with the following children of his first marriage: William and Zess, of Eberhart, Fayette county; Mrs. Carol Croft, of Clearfield, and Mrs. William Enn, of Pleasant Gap. These brothers and sisters also survive; Geo., of Altoona; Jack, of Runville; Miles and Mrs. Margaret Cokley, of Yarnell. Funeral services were held from the Lutheran church at Pleasant Gap Thursday afternoon. Interment at Pleasant Gap.

Boy Broke Leg. Paul Lose Foust, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Foust, of Centre Hall, one day last week, had the misfortune to trip on a board while playing in a neighbor's yard and in falling broke the bone in the right leg above the knee. It was some time before a physician could be secured who would give the boy attention, and when Dr. Braucht arrived the limb was so badly swollen that the bone could not then be set, but later the fracture was reduced by him. The lad is about seven years old and took great interest in his work at school and is one of the leaders in his class. Considering all, the boy is getting along fine and is suffering the minimum pain.

Opposition to the child labor amendment to the Federal Constitution is growing, various movements having been taken to check the centralization of power at Washington. States and individuals may yet recover some of their rights, and one of the rights individuals should battle for is to be permitted to work if they desire. It was only a few days ago that an efficient young lady in Millheim was obliged to retire from the management of an Oriole store because she technically labored more than forty-five hours in a week, while in fact she was only obliged to be in the store for the legal length of time.

MANUAL LABOR FOR SALE.—The undersigned located at the home of Robert Bloom offers his services for any kind of work by the day.—Walter Baylet, Centre Hall; Bell 5822.

97 DEER, ONE BEAR, IN MCKINNEY'S DISTRICT. Thirty-Nine Parties Were Lucky During First Two Days—Slacks Kill Fine Bear—Buck Strikes Auto and Breaks Neck—Hunters in Good Spirits.

Ninety-seven deer and one bear were killed Monday and Tuesday in what is known as District No. 6, Seven Mountains, W. P. McKinney, forest ranger. The Union hunting club, who have remodeled the school house in Boal Gap, above Colyer, were the only hunting camp to get its limit of six bucks during the first two days of the season. The hunters are from Red Lion. The Lakemont party at Tar Pit come second with 5. The only bear so far reported killed in the Seven Mountains is credited to the Slacks, whose permanent camp is on Stone Creek, above Colyer.

Mrs. W. M. Woodring, of Altoona, had the good fortune to kill a buck deer in the Seven Mountains on Monday morning. Of eight deer that passed her watch, two were bucks. The first buck was missed, but the second, a three-pronged animal, was shot dead in its tracks. Mrs. Woodring is stopping with Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Miller, at Potters Mills.

Tuesday noon when the Johnstown party were returning to their headquarters at the Potters Mills hotel, a nice young buck jumped down an embankment on Sand Mountain, above the State House, striking the running board of the car and broke its neck. On the running board on the opposite side of the car lay a buck, the result of the half day's hunt. The car was being driven by John Barron who was surprised to see the deer leap over the embankment and in an instant hit the car. Two does following the buck leaped so close to him that they just missed the rear of the car.

At another point a doe almost landed on the radiator of a car, but managed to escape without injury.

It was reported that a hunter had been shot and killed, but the story is evidently not true. One hunter, a Mr. Smith, of Harrisburg, died on the mountain on Monday. A brief account of his death appears elsewhere in this issue.

Another story that appears to have foundation but cannot be definitely given, is to the effect that a bullet that killed a buck, struck a stone and rebounding passed through the flap of a hunter's breeches' pocket.

The Bear Meadows, Pine Grove Mills, Milroy, Spring Mills and Woodward districts also report many bucks killed. Below the tunnels at a camp along the L. and T., a bear was exhibited Monday. On the south side of Nittany Mountain, several bucks were killed, and on the north side, in the Zion section, a number of large ones were captured.

Merchant Boyd Smith, of Spring Mills, was the first hunter to get a buck on Monday morning. Jacob Greene, of West Chester, one of a hunting party who made the Eutaw House, Potters Mills, their headquarters, while in the mountains on Monday morning, slipped and fell and in doing so injured his back. His injury was at first thought to be serious but later in the week he was able to return to the mountains with his hunting companions.

James Houser, of Spring Mills, after leaving about the station at that place on Monday morning, told his companions that he was going out to kill a deer. He had left the station but for about a half hour, when he was seen dragging a buck along the railroad tracks. He had gone to Egg Hill and met the game as it emerged from the little mountain.

An unusually large black bear was killed by the Slack hunting party, located on Stone creek above Colyer. The bear and one deer were killed the first two days of the season.

Table listing hunting parties and their results. Columns include party name, location, and number of kills. Total kills listed as 97.

Does on Hunting Trip. Mark S. Smith, 48 years, wholesale coal and coke dealer, of Harrisburg, died suddenly on Monday from heart disease, superinduced by acute indigestion, while heading the brush in the big game country of the Seven Mountains.

Local and Personal. Samuel Gingerich is contemplating a trip to Coatesville. Johnstown had six inches of snow Monday morning. Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Smith spent Thanksgiving day in Millburg, guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. R. R. Finkle.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Frank drove from Baltimore to Centre Hall, arriving here Saturday evening, and Sunday returned home. Samuel Tate, of Yeagertown, on his way to Pine Grove Mills to join a hunting party, on Sunday stopped with his uncle, F. D. Lee, in Centre Hall.

Mrs. James Oman, of Spring Mills, was in Centre Hall beginning of this week in the interest of matters that do not occur frequently in one's life. December came along with a good deal of snap. The snow that fell Sunday night was preserved throughout the day, although the sun showed brightly at times.

J. R. Hanna, who for the past fifteen years has been engaged in lumber operations at Wells Tannery, is among relatives at Potters Mills, and expects to remain until spring. William Bradford, of Phoenixville, and Charles Bradford, of the Pittsburgh district, are hunting in the Seven Mountains and stopping at a camp that bears the family name.

Mrs. Clara Meeker, of near Potters Mills, expects to accompany Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bradford to Willard, Ohio, when they return to their home about the close of the hunting season.

V. A. Auman and William Bradford, members of the firm of Bradford and Company, will attend a convention of dealers in Purina feeds to be held in Harrisburg, Monday and Tuesday of next week.

Dr. John McGarvey, of Lorraine, O., was a guest of his sister, Mrs. W. R. Picken, in Centre Hall, and before returning home the Doctor and his sister visited friends in Huntingdon. Dr. McGarvey reported Ezekiel Miller, a former resident of Centre Hall, but long a resident of Lorraine, as living quite comfortably and having parted company with work. The hurricane of several months ago damaged several of Mr. Miller's properties, but these were immediately put in repair.

COURT HEARS ARGUMENT IN EVANGELICAL MERGER

Control of Albright College Main Bone of Contention. Supporters of the Evangelical Church merger and their opponents representing in the United States the United Evangelical Church on Monday filed the main room of the Lebanon County courthouse for the argument before Judge Henry in quo warranto proceedings arising over the organization of the board of trustees of Albright College, Myerstown. Following the Evangelical amalgamation by action of the conventions held at Ellington, Ill., and later at Detroit, Mich., the mergerists assumed control of Albright College, electing Rev. Dr. E. E. Stuffer, W. S. Harris, H. H. Zaring, D. S. Kistler, George H. Leininger, B. F. Christ trustees in place of Bishop W. F. Heil, George W. Marquart, J. W. Ditzler, J. N. Hoffman, C. T. Davis and C. E. Christ. Ouster proceedings were instituted by Bishop Heil and his associates attacking the legality of the merger, and a hearing, at which a large volume of testimony was presented by both sides was held some months ago before Judge Henry. Each side consumed two hours in the presentation of argument on Monday. Judge Arthur Shay, of Pottsville, being heard for the United Evangelicals and Attorney William H. Earnest, of Harrisburg for the Evangelicals. While the argument involved only control of Albright College, the finding of Judge Henry is believed will go far toward establishing the legality of illegality of the church merger itself.
