Do you know that more property is controlled by retail stores than any other kind of business in this country. There is more money invested in retail stores than in all the banks. Their sales exceed that of the steel industry.

More taxes are paid by retail merchants than by any other class.

More people are employed in retail stores than in any other trade. You can put the plus sign on anything you like in regard to the retail business. Therefore it pays to consider the ways and means of improving the greatest activity in Centre Hall, Spring Mills, Boalsburg today. This can be done by Being a Booster for these towns, and by buying from their merchants. They are paying the heaviest taxes and are making this part of Penns Valley the Business Center of the County.

NEW ONE BORN EVERY MINUTE

Mail Order Man Need Not Worry About Keeping His Old Customers.

HIS FIELD NOT RESTRICTED

Local Merchant, on Other Hand, Must Give Good Values and Service in Order to Hold His Trade.

(Copyright.)
It has been said that there is a sucker born every minute. If this be true, there are 1,440 potential customers of the mail-order houses ushered into the world every 24 hours and the number reaches a total of 525,000 every year.

Of course, as Mark Twain remarked regarding reports of his death, these figures may be exaggerated, but they serve to illustrate the fact that the mail-order houses of the big cities always have new fields to exploit and are not hampered in their dealings by the necessity of pleasing all their old customers. If the mail-order buyer discovers that he has been "stung" and registers a vigorous kick, it means nothing in the young life of the mail order man. Why should he worry as long as there are some 99,999,999 other persons in the United States to whom he may make his alluring appeals.

Ever Get Money Back?
Did anyone ever hear of a mail order house refunding a customer's money if the customer was not satisfied with his purchase? Don't all speak at once, please. The big mail order houses in the cities expect to receive a large number of complaints from their customers. They know that much of the goods which they sell will not come up to the expectations of the buyers, whose ideas as to what they will receive have been formulated from the pretty pictures and alluring descriptions given in the catalogues.

The mail order houses prepare for this contingency by maintaining large corps of clerks whose sole duty it is to answer the letters of irate customers. These clerks, or correspondents, as they are called, exercise all their powers of cajolery in an effort to appease the complaining customers, but if this is found to be impossible, after an exchange of letters, the mail order man has no cause for worry. His living is not dependent upon the customer to whom he has already sold goods. "There are as good fish in the sea as have ever been caught" and he

The Saving Habit Is a Good Habit

The optimist is the fellow who pays last week's board with next week's wages.
This is the same person who opens a Savings Account with real enthusiasm, makes regular deposits for a time and then tapers off to the vanishing point. His intentions are still good but his resolution is slipping.
Most successful men are optimists who have paved the way with bank deposit slips.

Mount Carmel.—Joseph Narconis, 32, died at the State Hospital at Mountain Springs, from a broken neck sustained a week ago when caught under a fall of coal at the Reliance colliery, Philadelphia.—Hungry and punctiliously polite, thieves broke into the store of John Hennig, 9835 Bustleton avenue. They took $50 worth of food, mostly canned goods, but the cash register and cigars were left untouched. Hennig found a note which read: "Please take notice your cash register has not been tampered with. All we want is food. You will be repaid when we get jobs."

Franklin.—Grave diggers fled strenuous protest against "digging their own graves." Promiscuous shooting by careless hunters has made their task hazardous. A steel wagon was all that saved two grave diggers from near fatality. The rattle of shot sent them scurrying into the grave, much as in the trench warfare in France. It was their third narrow escape and they threaten to strike. Signs were posted about the Franklin Cemetery forbidding hunting in that vicinity.

Allentown.—Playing the role of "human fly," Carl Kugel, young son of Thomas Kugel, of Northampton, climbed up the front of one of the town's highest buildings. When he turned to wave greetings to admiring friends he fell forty feet to the sidewalk. He landed on his feet, but immediately collapsed and was picked up for dead. He revived soon, however, and when examined by a physician was found to be more frightened than hurt.

Scranton.—"I beg your pardon, ladies," said a dapperly dressed young man to Misses Elsie Moyer and Ethel Myers as they were homeward bound, "but I require your purses." Glancing at the chap who confronted them, hat in hand, the young women thought it a joke until he removed a revolver from inside the hat and remarked that he "meant business." Both handed over their purses, whereupon the robber politely thanked them and gave them permission to move along.

Sharon.—Impressive ceremonies marked the dedication of two new churches here, the First Methodist Episcopal and the Holy Trinity Evangelical Lutheran.

Lewistown.—In a letter here H. A. Carl, of Harrisburg, reports a hold-up in the Lewistown Narrows in which the highwayman took $300 in cash and his 1924 model Ford automobile. The license number, according to the letter, was 940736, and he offers $100 reward for the recovery of the machine and the arrest of the highwayman.

Butler.—Butler city council has sold $100,000 in bonds to the National City Company, of New York, to continue construction of the $400,000 sewage disposal plant which is being built on Connoquessing creek, five miles southeast of Butler. The bonds were sold at a premium and will mature in 1948.

McAdoo.—Charles Hulsizer, 27 years old, a pump runner in the slope of the Haddock Mining Company at Silver Brook, was found dead at his post, having been shocked to death during the night when he is supposed to have accidentally come in contact with a live electric wire.
York.—Eli Finchbaugh, a cigar-maker, of Dallastown, aged 60 years, was struck and fatally injured by an automobile in Spry. His skull was fractured at the base. The driver of the car which hit him increased his speed and got away. The handle of the car door was broken off and found on the highway, so that officers have a good clue and an arrest is expected shortly. Finchbaugh died in the York Hospital.

Towanda.—Two local men, H. M. Eroh and Roland N. Benjamin, while hunting deer near Marsh Hill, in Lycoming county, had a thrilling encounter with a large black bear on a rocky ledge 250 feet up the side of the mountain. The animal rushed from the woods toward the two hunters, throwing them off their guard by the suddenness of its attack. When the bear was within five feet of the ledge one of the party killed it with a well directed bullet. The bear nearly rolled from the ledge after it was shot, but the net kept it from rolling off onto the rocks far below, and brought it back to town.
