An Unnecessary Sacrifice.
Much as we admire the youngsters who go shouting about the streets and trooping into the school houses, taking sunshine and happiness with them, most of us are far too careless in allowing our little ones to take risks of accident.

The statement just made by the American Red Cross that 20,000 children under 14 years of age are killed in accidents each year in the United States is appalling. Big figures are hard to comprehend. But when we think of each one of these innocents sent to the slaughter of carelessness, we can realize what a sum of poignant grief has been cast up.

Every mother who has lost a child has a constant sorrow. But it is not alone in suffering that the nation loses. Twenty thousand boys and girls cut off before their talents could flower or their faculties be developed have lessened the quality of our citizenship for the next generation in a measure that is impossible to compute. This should not be.

Safe Blowers Fall.
Two attempts to blow open the safe in the Pennsylvania passenger station, at Philadelphia, early Wednesday morning failed, although the robbers are thought to have been men of experience in their line of work. Two charges of powder or nitroglycerine were used, which badly used up the safe, but the strong box refused to yield its treasures. The men worked undisturbed, the reports of the explosions having been mistaken for the back-firing of an automobile.

MILLHEIM.
(From the Journal.)
A. P. Matze, of Allentown, is circulating with Millheim relatives and friends.

Miss Mary E. Mauck, of Lewisburg, spent the past week with relatives and friends in Millheim.

Mrs. Alice Musser, of State College, spent several days last week at the A. A. Frank home.

K. H. Stover, of Keyser, W. Va., was an arrival in Millheim Friday morning to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law, T. B. Motz.

Mrs. G. R. Stover, of Millheim, was a guest at the Dr. G. S. Frank home several days last week, attending the funeral of T. B. Motz.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Shreckengast, of Jeannette, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Shreckengast. Ward is devoting his time while here to deer hunting.

G. W. Harter, after spending several weeks with his son-in-law, W. E. Smith, went to Tyrone, where he expects to spend the winter with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Fitzpatrick.

Mr. Lida McCloskey, who was engaged as a nurse for Doris, the 3 1/2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. Musser, of Bellefonte, during the illness and subsequent death of the girl, returned to her home in Millheim.

Dr. Frank Whitman, who enjoyed a week's deer hunting in the mountains hereabouts and participated in the drive last Saturday when Ralph Musser shot a 4-prong buck, returned to his home at Middletown Sunday morning with his share of venison. He was accompanied by Mrs. H. C. Hassinger, his cousin, who spent part of the week there, and by Mr. and Mrs. S. J. McMullin as far as Harrisburg, where Mr. McMullin attended a miller's convention.

POTTERS MILLS.
Mrs. Michael Smith entertained a number of friends and relatives on Sunday: Roy Smith and family, of Lewistown; Dr. and Mrs. Alexander, Lowell Alexander and family, of Bellefonte.

Earl Smith and family spent Sunday with Boyd Smith at Spring Mills, who had been sick.

Samuel Lingle, who lives with Geo. McCormick started for the hunting camp in Ppe Valley, but took very ill, and is now at the Asher Confer home.

Lizzie Ennist has been real sick for some time.

Lizzie Slack is not improving very fast.

Mr. and Mrs. George McCormick went to Aaronsburg on Tuesday last to help the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Mingle, butcher.

Coleman Wingart and mother, and Grandma Wingart spent Sunday afternoon at the F. A. Carson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Foutz and Miss Orpha Flesher went to Aaronsburg on Thursday to assist Sparr Wert to butcher.

The bazaar held by the ladies' Circle was a success. They sold practically everything; the few remaining articles are on sale at the home of Mrs. Frank Palmer.

Our opinion is that if the deer season had lasted two weeks longer there would not be a buck left in the mountains. There are entirely too many hunters from other counties invading our mountains.
