Holmes Votes for Bluet.

Hon. John L. Holmes, Centre county's representative in the General Assembly, voted for Thomas Bluet for speaker of the House. During the campaign Mr. Holmes was so dry that he and his friends would have taken great offense if it would have been said of him that he was simply working the dry for their votes. The election is over, and Representative Holmes saw fit to vote for a pronounced wet and turned down Governor Pinchot's Mr. Goodnough.

DEATHS.

STAHL.—After an illness from a severe case of grippe which began on New Year's day, James Sankey Stahl pneumonia developed on the morning of the day of his death. In his weak-years. He was a son of Albert and deceased.

Mr. Thompson's entire life in his business aspect was intimately and actively connected with the hosiery business at the knitting factories of the Thompson Bros. firm at Lewistown and Milroy. He was a member of the hosiery firm and gave his fullest and undivided attention to this business.
Mr. Thompson was a member of the Lewistown Presbyterian church and at the time of his death was a member of the board of trustees of his church, of which he was the president for years. He was also prominently identified with the Lewistown Y. M. C. A.
Two years ago he was elected a member of the board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. and served as secretary of the board for one term. He was chairman of the building committee at the time of the completion of the new Y.
M. C. A. building. In 1920 he was chairman of the general committee appointed to raise funds to clear the association building of all indebtedness.
At the time of his death he was chairman of the house and executive committee of the local Y. M. C. A.

fort Hunting Club and during the World War served as chairman of the Food Conservation Committee of Mil-
