YOUR INCOME TAX.

If you are single and support in your home one or more persons closely related to you and over whom you exercise family control, you are the head of the family and entitled under the revenue act of 1924 to the same personal exemption allowed a married person, $2,500. In addition, a taxpayer is entitled to a credit of $400 for each person dependent upon him for chief support, if such person is either under 18 years of age or incapable of self-support because mentally or physically defective. Such dependent need not be a member of the taxpayer's household. For example, an unmarried son who supports in his home an aged mother is entitled to an exemption of $2,500 plus the $400 credit for a dependent, a total of $2,900. If from choice the mother lived in another city, the son, although her chief support, would be entitled only to the $1,000 exemption, plus the $400 credit. The mother not living with him, he is not considered the head of the family. An exemption as the head of a family can be claimed by only one member of a household.
*The $400 credit does not apply to the wife or husband of a taxpayer, though one may be totally dependent upon the other.

Golden Wedding.

Dr. and Mrs. P. P. Barker, of Inglesby, recently celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. Mrs. Barker, whose maiden name was Elizabeth Shultz, is a native of Brush Valley. Excepting one, all of Mr. and Mrs. Barker's children (and fourteen grand children) were present, viz: Frank, of Renovo; John, of Union county; Charles, at home; Cora, married to William Koonsman, of Millmont; Virgie, married to Harry Kreamer, of Coburn, and Ruth, married to Thomas Hartman, of Coburn. Harry, of Detroit, Mich., was the absent one.

DEATHS.

CONDO.—After an illness of a week Mrs. Jane (Wolf) Condo, wife of James C. Condo, died at her home at Penn Hall, Monday evening, at the age of 70 years, 4 months, 12 days. The deceased was a daughter of William and Catharine Wolf and was born at Rebersburg.

There survive her these children: Mrs. Harry N. Meyer, Bellefonte; Mrs. John Musser, Millheim; Miss Clara and Miss Sarah, at home; Russell, Spring Mills; also the following brothers and sisters: Reitzel Wolf, of Diamond, Mo.; Lloyd Wolf, Sioux City, Iowa; Edward Wolf, Chicago, Ill.; Alfred Wolf, Chicago, Ill.; William Wolf, San Francisco, Calif.; Mrs. Mae L. Price, Freeport, Ill.; Mrs. Annie Lindeman, Red Oak, Ill.

Funeral services will be held this (Thursday) afternoon, conducted by Rev. W. W. Moyer, of Boalsburg. Interment in cemetery at Salem Reformed church, near the home.

MORRIS.—Charles H. Morris, a native of Loganston, and former resident of Lock Haven, for some time a druggist at the Fenton Heyes store on East Third street, Williamsport, died at his home, 1305 East Third street, Tuesday morning at the age of 55 years.

His wife, three brothers and a sister, F. F. Morris, of Williamsport; O. T. Morris, Lock Haven, and W. A. Morris and Mrs. A. D. Karstetter, of Loganston, survive him. Funeral services will be held at the home Thursday evening and the body will be taken to Loganston where interment will be made Saturday.

The above is reprinted from the Williamsport Sun. Mr. Morris conducted a drug store for a number of years in Millheim. Mrs. Morris, who before marriage was Miss Lottie Miller, is a daughter of the late Rev. J. K. Miller and was reared in Centre Hall.

BROWN.—The body of Edward Brown was shipped to Funeral Director F. V. Goodhart on Tuesday from Cresson State Sanatorium, where he had been a patient for two years. Death occurred Monday. The body was taken care of at the undertaking parlor of Mr. Goodhart and Wednesday afternoon interment was made in the Georges Valley cemetery.

The deceased was aged 35 years, and had never been married. He was a son of Emanuel Brown, of Gregg township, deceased, and is survived by these brothers and sisters: Nathaniel, Wallace, Mrs. William Zones, Mrs. William Ream, Jerome, of Spring Mills; Mrs. Robert Mabin, Nagtroy; Lizzie, also married, in Ohio; John, of Axemann.

KURTZ.—Mrs. Lydia Kurtz, widow of the late Rev. Daniel S. Kurtz, died at her home in Lancaster, Friday evening, aged about sixty-five years. She is survived by two daughters, Marie, now Mrs. Mooney; Pearl, now Mrs. Musselman, and a son, Chester. Interment was made Monday afternoon in Lancaster.

Rev. and Mrs. Kurtz and children lived here for four years, during which time the former was pastor of the Lutheran charge. Five years ago, when Rev. Kurtz retired from the ministry, the family moved to Lancaster.

Death From Scarlet Fever.

Marshall Smith, a son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Smith, of near Anronsburg, died of scarlet fever, after an illness of several weeks, aged 11 years. Private funeral services were held and interment was made in the Woodard cemetery.

Charles, the 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Boob, of Woodward, died of scarlet fever. Besides the parents there survive one sister and one brother. Interment was made in the Woodward cemetery.

Community Literary Society

Friday evening a meeting will be held in the Rock Hill school house at Linden Hall, the purpose being to organize a literary society in which it is proposed to interest not only the Rock Hill school pupils, but all in the community. Samuel Ross, the teacher of the Rock Hill school for several years, is at the head of the movement.

The eight thousand acres of wild land in Elk and Clearfield counties purchased by the State, mention of which is made elsewhere in this issue, covers the territory where Tom Mix, of movie fame, learned to "ride the ranch." Mix Run, which flows through the tract, was named for Tom Mix's father, a horseman of note.

BOALSBURG.

Tuesday evening the Lutheran Sunday school had their annual banquet.

Harris township tax payers, get in your taxes to the tax collector on or before the first of February.

Mrs. M. B. Weaver, of State College, spent over Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lucas.

Louise Whitehead, the little daughter of Prof. W. L. Whitehead, has been sick with an attack of pneumonia, but is now on the mend.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rossman and Margaret Rossman came to communion services in the Reformed church Sunday morning, and took dinner at the George E. Moyer home. They are living with Mrs. Rossman's mother at Lock Haven.

Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. John Kimpert entertained at supper Geo. E. Meyer and wife and George Fortney and wife and Maser Frank Roberts, who is making his home with the Fortneys. The supper was such as appeals to one's appetite.

The big heartedness and helpful spirit of the Rev. W. W. Moyer has this week taken him to Centre Hall to teach the High school there. The principal, Prof. Heckman, is ill and his home quarantined, and it seems no other person in Centre Hall could be found to teach the school, so the school board called on the Rev. Mr. Moyer.

SPRING MILLS

Mrs. James Condo, of Penn Hall, is seriously ill at this writing.

The chicken and waffle supper held on Saturday evening by the band was well patronized by the public, and the band realized a neat profit.

The basket ball game on Friday evening between State College and Spring Mills resulted in favor of Spring Mills—the girls winning by 25-9 and the boys by 24-16.

William Neese, Andrew Corman and son Harry and wife attended the funeral of Mrs. Adam Neese, at Hartleton, on Saturday.

Edward Miller, of Centre Hall, was visiting his uncle, Arthur Lee, and took in the band supper on Saturday evening.

On Sunday, Miss Sarah Zettle, one of the exchange girls in the Bell Telephone exchange, and her sister with a little child, came to Spring Mills by horse and sleigh. The horse became unmanageable, throwing all of them out; Sarah, falling on her head, became unconscious and remained so for a day. She was removed to her home and is improving slowly.

REBERSBURG.

Mrs. Katie Bird is on the sick list at present at the H. H. Royer home.

One day last week the Stork visited the Orvis Shawyer home and left a precious baby.

Our blacksmith, H. K. Smull, was on the sick list last week, but as we passed his shop the other day we saw him hammering red hot iron.

The Wolfe Store school house has been converted into a dance hall and basket ball room where the young folks spend their evenings.

D. D. Royer, who was taken to a hospital at Williamsport one day last week and had one of his eyes removed, has returned home and is getting along fine.

Rumor has it that Charles Bressler bought the Wallace Bierly home at Smullton. This home was formerly known as the Walker home.

On Saturday Wes Hackenburg, accompanied by his wife and daughter Geraldine, left for Florida where they will spend some time among the orange groves.

Edwin Bierly has rented the Harry Royer farm, the present tenant being Hol Winkleblech. Mr. Winkleblech will move on his father's farm, at present tenanted by his brother, Allen, who will move on the Oliver Stover farm, tenanted by Mr. Frazier. Mr. Frazier will move onto the Henry Meyer farm which will be vacated by the present tenant, Mr. Bierly.

TUSSEYVILLE

The Stork visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Weaver and left them baby No. 9. He has seven brothers and one sister.

Stewart Jordan is spending some time with friends in Jersey Shore.

Mrs. Robert Boal, of Colyer, spent Tuesday with Mrs. Charles Slaterbeck.

Mrs. Anna Klimefelter left for Bellefonte where she will be employed for some time.

Mrs. William Jordan, of Colyer, was an all day visitor with Mrs. E. T. Jordan.

Miss Marie Copenhagen, of Potters Mills, spent the week end with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Fohringer.

Misses Sarah and Esther Ennist, of Potters Mills, were week-end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Jordan.

Mrs. Arthur Holderman spent several days in Bellefonte with her daughter, Miss Verna Donahay, who is ill in the Centre County Hospital.

Pennsylvania boasts ten thousand lady farmers. Of this number over eight thousand operate farms, 7,500 their own, 40 as managers and not quite 500 as tenants, the data disclosed.
