12 Pages of Colored Comics.
Have you seen the new and enlarged 12-page colored comic section of the New York Sunday American? If not you owe it to yourself to become acquainted with this greatest comic section in America which now contains nearly twice as many laughs as ever before.
The new Sunday American colored comic section is an achievement of newspaper enterprise. No expense has been spared to fill it with humorous masterpieces of the cleverest comic artists in the country.
And a special attraction for the kiddies is the new page of "Scrambled Comics" which has already proved far more fascinating than any crossword puzzle. It is a brand new idea, equally entertaining for grown-ups. As its name implies, "Scrambled Comics" comprises a series of pictures so arranged that they must be cut into sections and placed together in their proper places to understand how the artist originally drew them to produce his humorous situations.
"Hamgravy" and is sweetheart, O'fveoyl, with their loveick tribulations furnish the inspiration for the hilarious picture chronicle called "Thimble Theatre" which has just been added to the new comic section. "So This Is Married Life" is another newcomer, carrying a laugh in every picture. "Eddie's Friends" is still another newcomer that rings the bell with its funny situations.
Besides these new full page comics in colors all the old favorites are there—"Bringing Up Father," "Little Jimmy," "Barney Google and Spark Plug," "Tillie the Toiler," "The Keatenjammer Kids," "Happy Hoolligan," "Boob McNutt," and "Toots and Casper."
With such an array of lively, funny features is it any wonder that it is not always easy to get a copy of the New York Sunday American? Be sure to seize your opportunity now and ask your dealer to reserve you a copy for next Sunday and for every other Sunday.

DEATHS.
RIPKA.—After an illness of several days due to an attack of pneumonia, George Alfred Ripka died at the home of his sister, Mrs. D. W. Sweetwood, in Georges Valley, on Friday evening. Interment took place in the cemetery connected with the Lutheran church, in Georges Valley, on Tuesday morning, Rev. S. F. Greenhoe of the Lutheran church officiating. His age was fifty-nine years, six months.
Mr. Ripka was twice married—first to Miss Maggie Toner and later to Miss Mary Mitchell. Both preceded him to the beyond.
No children survive. The surviving brothers and sisters are these: John, Pleasant Gap; William O., of Spring Mills, and Mrs. Sweetwood, previously named, where the deceased had his home.

KNARR.—Alfred Knarr died at his home in Parsons, Kansas, January 29, of Bright's disease, aged forty-eight years. He was born nearby Boalsburg and at the age of seventeen years left for the west, where he married, his wife being a resident of Indian Territory. Mr. Knarr followed railroading the greater part of his life. His wife and three children survive; also these brothers and sisters: C. E. Knarr, of Oklahoma; M. H. Knarr, of Tyrone; Mrs. D. E. Bartley, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Charles Kuhn, of Boalsburg; Mrs. M. I. Stover, of Altoona, and Mrs. S. E. Kimpport, of Pine City, New York. Burial was made in the west.

SNYDER.—Clara E. Snyder, daughter of Mrs. Ida Snyder, died at the home of her mother at Antes Fort, aged 18 years, 9 months and 22 days. Besides the mother, she is survived by four sisters—Mrs. Frank Shawver, of Woodward; Mrs. Lawrence Krape, of Antes Fort, and Emma and Kathryn, at home.
Funeral services were held in the Antes Fort M. E. church and interment made in the Limestone cemetery, Nipponose Valley.

SMITH.—Mrs. Daniel Smith, of Reedsville, died at the home of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. William Smith, in Philadelphia, and will be buried from her home in Reedsville today (Thursday.) Her husband died several children, one of whom is John H. Smith, of the Smith Printing Company, Williamsport, survive. Mr. and Mrs. John H. Brown, of Centre Hall, are relatives.

Slept 24 Hours.
John B. Dunkle, of Spring Mills, took a twenty-four hour sleep, beginning Monday evening at 5 o'clock and finishing Tuesday evening at 5. During this time much effort was made to arouse him; a physician also called on him, but Mr. Dunkle slept on, and on it fell to the lot of his neighbor, Edward T. Jamison, to give him the awakening jolt, and when he got up he said he felt numb and was a bit nervous, but this soon left him and since he has been in his usual good health. Mr. Dunkle is a painter, aged about sixty years. Mrs. Dunkle has been in very serious condition and required much attention, much of the waiting upon her having been done by her husband, and it is now thought that the long sleep was due largely to exhaustion.

A Small World.
Following the armistice Lieutenant Paul J. Smith of this city, now of Eldorado, Ark., went to France as a K. of C. secretary, and lived at the home of a charming French family with two daughters. After his return to the States, letters were exchanged for awhile and then gradually ceased. One day last week a letter was received inquiring whether the recipient could possibly be "Smitty" of the class of '18, Notre Dame, and, if so, to let the writer know, as he was Louis Patrick Hare, a fellow classmate, now a Paris representative of the Chicago Tribune and the husband of one of the French girls before mentioned.—Indianapolis News.

Should Be Interesting.
After having spent 62 of his 92 years in prison on the island of Elba, Carmine Donatello Crocco, at one time the most dreaded bandit captain of southern Italy, has published his memoirs, according to reports in Italian papers. Crocco left the army of the king of Sicily when a youth, took up banditry and became so powerful that several thousand troops were necessary to capture and wipe out his band. He was sentenced to life imprisonment.

MAKES ATTEMPT ON LIFE.
Bald Eagle Woman in Philipsburg Hospital After Second Attempt to End Her Life.

Mrs. Jennie M. Irvin, residing on a farm about two miles from Julian, on Saturday made a second-unsuccessful attempt to end her life. While the family was out, Mrs. Irvin discharged the contents of a shotgun into her breasts. She was taken to the Philipsburg State hospital for treatment, where it is believed she has a chance for recovery.
Mrs. Irvin has been brooding over the death of her mother, which occurred a few weeks ago. Several times she threatened to take her own life but the family did not take her seriously.
A few days ago she slashed her wrist with a razor and bled profusely until medical aid could be gotten to her. She is about 45 years old.

Group Six Bankers Meet Feb. 12.
The thirtieth annual meeting of Group Six of the Pennsylvania Bankers' Association will meet next Thursday, Lincoln's birthday in the Penn-Alto hotel, Altoona. The officers are B. M. Marlin, president, treasurer Union Bank and Trust Co., Du Bois; John D. Meyer, secretary, vice president of the First National bank, Tyrone. H. L. Ebricht, cashier of the First National bank, Centre Hall, is a member of the executive committee. The fifteen banks in Centre county belong to the association. The district comprises the counties of Bedford, Blair, Cambria, Centre, Clearfield and Huntingdon, in which there are one hundred fifteen banks, all members.
Speakers at the event will be: P. B. Detwiler, Chairman Educational Committee, P. B. A., Philadelphia; F. P. Weaver, Department of Agricultural, Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y.; and Robert Willis of New York city.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.
Bill boards along the State highway ought to go. The State Highway secretary ought not to have the power of peddling out the privilege of their erection.
We are not so sure about the character of the weather during the next six weeks, but we do know that the ground hog about here did not see his shadow on Monday.
Arrangements are under way to remove Samuel Runkle from the Centre County Hospital to the Danville State Hospital. The transfer will likely be made today (Thursday).

As this issue of the Reporter went to press Wednesday, Mrs. John B. Dunkle, of Spring Mills, was reported by her physician to be at the point of death. She has been suffering from a heart affection for some time.
Miss Marguerite Krape, of Coburn, was a guest during a part of last week of Miss Beatrice Kramer, in Centre Hall. Both young ladies are graduates of the Bellefonte Hospital nursing school and are privileged to write R. N. as suffixes to their names.

Mrs. Thomas L. Moore entertained a score of ladies at her home Tuesday evening, where a quilting kept all hands busy until a late hour. A delightful feature was the refreshments served by the hostess, which were declared to be abundant and of the most delicious kind.
Mrs. Margaret Smith after an illness of two weeks due to a severe attack of sciatica rheumatism, is very much better and began setting up on Wednesday. Mrs. Smith is in her ninety-third year, but is entirely hopeful of fully recovering and with this feeling undoubtedly will.

Rev. D. R. Keener is taking Prof. W. O. Heckman's place in the High school this week while the latter remains at home under quarantine for scarlet fever. Those ill at the Heckman home—Mr. Heckman and two children—have fully recovered from a mild form of the disease and Mr. Heckman states he is in fine physical condition but the 30-day quarantine law, it appears, must be observed; therefore, he will not return to the school room for two weeks longer.
A telegram was received by Mrs. Sue Cornire, of Patton, that her mother was very ill and not expected to recover, and requested her to "come." The lady was very much surprised, and on Monday came on to Centre Hall where her mother, Mrs. Samuel Shoop, lives, but on arriving at her home was very heartily greeted by her mother who was not then nor had been ill. After the warm greetings the daughter related the incident of the telegram. Inquiry at the local telegraph office and at Bellefonte revealed no record of such a telegram having been forwarded. Later it was discovered through the Patton office that the telegram had been delivered to the wrong person, although of the same name.
