THE CENTRE REPORTER, CENTRE HALL, PA.

| THE CENTRE REPORTERISSUED WEEKLY.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | CENTRE COUNTIAN SHOTBY BANDITS IN TEXAS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | WORLD WAR VETERANFOUND DEAD IN SHANTY                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| CENTRE HALL, PA.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Dadiv R. Stover at Point of DeathDue to Four Bullet Wounds In                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Utahville Man Found in Lonely Shed                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 12 1925                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | Abdomen While on Duty at San                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Evidently A Suleide.Foster McGarvey, World was vet-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| SMITH & BAILEY, Proprietors                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Antonio, Texas.A telegram received by Mr. and                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | eran, aged 28 years, missing from thehome of his parents, Mr. and Mrs.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| S. W. SMITH Editor                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Mrs. Oscar Stover, at State College,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | William McGarvey, in Irvona, since                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| EDW. E. BAILEY                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | informed them that their son, David                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Thursday, was found dead in a shan-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Business Manager                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Rhinesmith Stover, was seriouslywounded by bandits while on duty                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | ty near Glen Hope, in the Philipsburgregion, Saturday afternoon.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Entered at the Post Office in Centre Hab                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | with the Santa Fe railroad company,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | The coroner's inquiry revealed that                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| as second class mail matter.TERMSThe terms of subscription to                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | with wich company he has been em-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | he had been shot through the heart,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| the Reporter are $1.50 a year, in advance.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | ployed for twenty or more years in                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | The examination indicated the fatal                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| ADVERTISING RATES Legal notices,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | warious capacities.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | wound was self-inflicted. There was                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| twenty cents per line for three insertions,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | The information received by tele-gram by the parents is not very def-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | no known cause for the deed.Almost constantly since returning                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| and ten cents per line for each additional insertion.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | inite in some respects. It appears                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | from overseas McGarvey has been                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Local notices accompanying display ad-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | that Mr. Stover received four bullet                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | working at Clymer, until about six                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| vertisements, five cents per line for each                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | wounds in the abdomen, and is now                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | weeks ago when he was laid off.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| insection; otherwise, eight cents per line;                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | at a hospital at San Antonio, Texas,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Since that time he has been at the                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| minimum charge, twenty-five cents.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | where it is presumed the shooting                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | home of his father at Utahville.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Display advertising rates made knownon application.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | took place. At last reports probing                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | On Friday night he was seen at                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| paration.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | failed to locate any of the bullets.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Glen Hope, a few miles from his home.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Borough Fire Alarm.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | His condition is very serious.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | The theory is that he was returninghome when he entered the shed.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| In case of fire in the borough of                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Mr. Stover is aged about-forty-one                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | which is some distance from the road,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Centre Hall, the Bradford & Co. mill                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | years and is the eldest of the Stoverfamily, When quite a young man he                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | .gaining entrance through a window.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| whistle will sound:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | entered the mployment of the Santa                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | He had built a fire to warm himself                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| One long and two short blasts when                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Fe railroad company and has since                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | and then committed the crime, which                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| are is north of Reformed church;                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | been with them. He is at present liv-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | was probably premeditated, since he                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| One long and five short blasts when                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | ing at San Antonio, with his wife and                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | carried the revolver from his father's                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| are is south of Reformed church.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | daughter, aged about twelve years.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | home. His father had not seen him                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | DEATUS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | since Thursday noon, when he left                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| GHUROH APPOINTMENTS.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | DEATHS.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | home.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | RHOADS Adam S. Rhoads, a na-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | MARRIAGE LICENSES.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Penns Valley Lutheran Charge.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | tive of Millheim, but whose home was                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Christopher OsewaltOsceola Mills                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| (Rev. S. F. Greenhoe, Pastor)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | at Oak Hall, died suddenly while                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Savilla Habbershon Rush Twp.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | at our man, they surround mane                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Tusseyville, 10:30 A. M.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | seated at the supper table.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | Herbert A. Wahl State College                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Centre Hall, 2:30 P. M.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Herbert A. WahlState CollegeEthel R. ShaefferState College                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | seated at the supper table.Mr. Rhoads was the second son ofJohn H. and Jane Rhoads and was                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Herbert A. WahlState CollegeEthel R. ShaefferState CollegeAlexander O. MorrisonBellefonte                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Centre Hall, 2:30 P. M.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | seated at the supper table.Mr. Rhoads was the second son ofJohn H. and Jane Rhoads and wasborn in Millhelm July 27, 1871, mak-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | Herbert A. WahlState CollegeEthel R. ShaefferState College                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Centre Hall, 2:30 P. M.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | seated at the supper table.Mr. Rhoads was the second son ofJohn H. and Jane Rhoads and wasborn in Millhelm July 27, 1871, mak-ing his age at the time of death 53                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Herbert A. WahlState CollegeEthel R. ShaefferState CollegeAlexander O. MorrisonBellefonteMaud E. KellermanMflesburg                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Centre Hall, 2:30 P. M.Spring Mills, 7:30 P. M.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | seated at the supper table.Mr. Rhoads was the second son ofJohn H. and Jane Rhoads and wasborn in Millheim July 27, 1871, mak-ing his age at the time of death 53years, 6 months and 4 days.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Herbert A. WahlState CollegeEthel R. ShaefferState CollegeAlexander O. MorrisonBellefonte                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Centre Hall, 2:30 P. M.Spring Mills, 7:30 P. M.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | seated at the supper table.Mr. Rhoads was the second son ofJohn H. and Jane Rhoads and wasborn in Millheim July 27, 1871, mak-ing his age at the time of death 53years, 6 months and 4 days.He was employed in the Oak Hall                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Herbert A. WahlState CollegeEthel R. ShaefferState CollegeAlexander O. MorrisonBellefonteMaud E. KellermanMflesburgMonthly Report of the Centre County                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Centre Hall, 2:30 P. M.Spring Mills, 7:30 P. M.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | seated at the supper table.Mr. Rhoads was the second son ofJohn H. and Jane Rhoads and wasborn in Millheim July 27, 1871, mak-ing his age at the time of death 53years, 6 months and 4 days.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Herbert A. Wahl,State CollegeEthel R. ShaefferState CollegeAlexander O. MorrisonBellefonteMaud E. KellermanMflesburgMonthly Report of the Centre CountyCow Testing Assoc. for January.Reported by Tester Willard Straw:Herds tested. 20; cows in milk, 206;                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Centre Hall, 2:30 P. M.Spring Mills, 7:30 P. M.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | seated at the supper table.Mr. Rhoads was the second son ofJohn H. and Jane Rhoads and wasborn in Millheim July 27, 1871, mak-ing his age at the time of death 53years, 6 months and 4 days.He was employed in the Oak Hallquarries and had not complained of                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Herbert A. WahlState CollegeEthel R. ShaefferState CollegeAlexander O. MorrisonBellefonteMaud E. KellermanMilesburgMonthly Report of the Centre CountyCow Testing Assoc. for January.Reported by Tester Willard Straw:Herds tested. 20; cows in milk, 206;cows dry, 50; No. cows sold profitable.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Centre Hall, 2:30 P. M.Spring Mills, 7:30 P. M.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | seated at the supper table.Mr. Rhoads was the second son ofJohn H. and Jane Rhoads and wasborn in Millheim July 27, 1871, mak-ing his age at the time of death 53years, 6 months and 4 days.He was employed in the Oak Hallquarries and had not complained ofany ailment. He worked all day Sat-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Herbert A. WahlState CollegeEthel R. ShaefferState CollegeAlexander O. MorrisonBellefonteMaud E. KellermanMflesburgMonthly Report of the Centre CountyCow Testing Assoc. for January.Reported by Tester Willard Straw:Herds tested. 20; cows in milk, 206;cows dry, 50; No. cows sold profitable,1: unprofitable, 3: No. cows producingover 40 6bs. fat, 19; over 50 Ms. fat,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Centre Hall, 2:30 P. M.Spring Mills, 7:30 P. M.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | seated at the supper table.Mr. Rhoads was the second son ofJohn H. and Jane Rhoads and wasborn in Millheim July 27, 1871, mak-ing his age at the time of death 53years, 6 months and 4 days.He was employed in the Oak Hallquarries and had not complained ofany ailment. He worked all day Sat-urday prior to his return home andhis subsequent death.He is survived by his wife and sov-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Herbert A. Wahl,State CollegeEthel R. ShaefferState CollegeAlexander O. MorrisonBellefonteMaud E. KellermanMflesburgMonthly Report of the Centre CountyCow Testing Assoc. for January.Reported by Tester Willard Straw:Herds tested. 20; cows in milk, 206;cows dry, 50; No. cows sold profitable,1: unprofitable, 3: No. cows producingover 40 fbs. fat, 19; over 50 Mbs. fat,10; No. cows producing over 1,000 lbs.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Centre Hall, 2:30 P. M.Spring Mills, 7:30 P. M.Presbyterian(Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick, Pastor)Presbyterian — Lemont, morning ;Boalsburg, afternoon; Centre Hall,avening.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | seated at the supper table.Mr. Rhoads was the second son ofJohn H. and Jane Rhoads and wasborn in Millheim July 27, 1871, mak-ing his age at the time of death 53years, 6 months and 4 days.He was employed in the Oal: Hallquarries and had not complained ofany ailment. He worked all day Sat-urday prior to his return home andhis subsequent death.He is survived by his wife and sov-en children in addition to his mother,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Herbert A. WahlState CollegeEthel R. ShaefferState CollegeAlexander O. MorrisonBellefonteMaud E. KellermanMilesburgMonthly Report of the Centre CountyCow Testing Assoc. for January.Reported by Tester Willard Straw:Herds tested. 20; cows in milk, 206;cows dry, 50; No. cows sold profitable.1; unprofitable, 3; No. cows producingover 40 fbs. fat, 19; over 50 fbs. fat,10; No. cows producing over 1,000 fbs.milk, 31; over 1,200 fbs. milk, 25.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Centre Hall, 2:30 P. M.Spring Mills, 7:30 P. M.Presbyterian(Rev. J. M. Kärkpatrick, Pastor)Presbyterian — Lemont, morning ;Boalsburg, afternoon; Centre Hall,evening.Methodist Episcopaj                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | seated at the supper table.Mr. Rhoads was the second son ofJohn H. and Jane Rhoads and wasborn in Millheim July 27, 1871, mak-ing his age at the time of death 53years, 6 months and 4 days.He was employed in the Oak Hallquarries and had not complained ofany ailment. He worked all day Sat-urday prior to his return home andhis subsequent death.He is survived by his wife and sov-en children in addition to his mother,two brothers and four sisters, among                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Herbert A. Wahl,State CollegeEthel R. ShaefferState CollegeAlexander O. Morrison,BellefonteMaud E. KellermanMilesburgMonthly Report of the Centre CountyCow Testing Assoc. for January.Reported by Tester Willard Straw:Herds tested. 20; cows in milk, 206;cows dry, 50; No, cows sold profitable,1; unprofitable, 3; No, cows producingover 40 fbs. fat, 19; over 50 fbs. fat,10; No, cows producing over 1,000 fbs.milk, 31; over 1,200 fbs. milk, 25.Dwner Breed Milk B.Fat                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Centre Hall, 2:30 P. M.Spring Mills, 7:30 P. M.Presbyterian(Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick, Pastor)Presbyterian — Lemont, morning ;Boalsburg, afternoon; Centre Hall,evening.Methodist Episcopaj(Rev. H. H. Sherman, Pastor)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | seated at the supper table.Mr. Rhoads was the second son ofJohn H. and Jane Rhoads and wasborn in Millheim July 27, 1871, mak-ing his age at the time of death 53years, 6 months and 4 days.He was employed in the Oak Hallquarries and had not complained ofany ailment. He worked all day Sat-urday prior to his return home andhis subsequent death.He is survived by his wife and sov-en children in addition to his mother,two brothers and four sisters, amongthe latter being Mrs. C. G. Hassinger                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Herbert A. Wahl,State CollegeEthel R. ShaefferState CollegeAlexander O. MorrisonBellefonteMaud E. KellermanMflesburgMonthly Report of the Centre CountyCow Testing Assoc. for January.Reported by Tester Willard Straw:Herds tested. 20; cows in milk, 206;cows dry, 50; No. cows sold profitable,1: unprofitable, 3: No. cows producingover 40 fbs. fat, 19; over 50 fbs. fat,10; No. cows producing over 1,000 lbs.milk, 31; over 1,200 fbs. milk, 25.Owner Breed Milk B.FatAllen HarterR. H. 1550 69.8                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Centre Hall, 2:30 P. M.Spring Mills, 7:30 P. M.Presbyterian(Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick, Pastor)Presbyterian — Lemont, morning ;Boalsburg, afternoon; Centre Hall,ovening.Methodist Episcopaj(Rev. H. H. Sherman, Pastor)Trinity Reformed                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | seated at the supper table.Mr. Rhoads was the second son ofJohn H. and Jane Rhoads and wasborn in Millheim July 27, 1871, mak-ing his age at the time of death 53years, 6 months and 4 days.He was employed in the Oak Hallquarries and had not complained ofany ailment. He worked all day Sat-urday prior to his return home andhis subsequent death.He is survived by his wife and sov-en children in addition to his mother,two brothers and four sisters, amongthe latter being Mrs. C. G. Hassingerand Mrs. W. J. Shull, both of Mill-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Herbert A. Wahl,State CollegeEthel R. ShaefferState CollegeAlexander O. Morrison, BellefonteMaud E. KellermanMilesburgMonthly Report of the Centre CountyCow Testing Assoc. for January.Reported by Tester Willard Straw:Herds tested. 20; cows in milk, 206;cows dry, 50; No. cows sold profitable,1; unprofitable, 3; No. cows producingover 40 fbs. fat, 19; over 50 fbs. fat,10; No. cows producing over 1,000 fbs.milk, 31; over 1,200 fbs. milk. 25.Owner Breed Milk B.FatAllen HarterR. H. 1513 66.6                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Centre Hall, 2:30 P. M.Spring Mills, 7:30 P. M.Presbyterian(Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick, Pastor)Presbyterian — Lemont, morning ;Boalsburg, afternoon; Centre Hall,evening.Methodist Episcopaj(Rev. H. H. Sherman, Pastor)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | seated at the supper table.Mr. Rhoads was the second son ofJohn H. and Jane Rhoads and wasborn in Millheim July 27, 1871, mak-ing his age at the time of death 53years, 6 months and 4 days.He was employed in the Oak Hallquarries and had not complained ofany ailment. He worked all day Sat-urday prior to his return home andhis subsequent death.He is survived by his wife and sov-en children in addition to his mother,two brothers and four sisters, amongthe latter being Mrs. C. G. Hassingerand Mrs. W. J. Shull, both of Mill-heim. Interment was made at Hous-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Herbert A. WahlState CollegeEthel R. ShaefferState CollegeAlexander O. MorrisonBellefonteMaud E. KellermanMilesburgMonthly Report of the Centre CountyCow Testing Assoc. for January.Reported by Tester Willard Straw:Herds tested. 20; cows in milk, 206;cows dry, 50; No. cows sold profitable,1: unprofitable, 3: No. cows producingover 40 fbs. fat, 19; over 50 Jbs. fat,10; No. cows producing over 1,000 lbs.milk, 31; over 1,200 lbs. milk. 25.Owner Breed Milk B.FatAllen HarterR. H. 1550 69.8W. F. RishelR. H. 1513 66.6A. S. EllenbergerR. H. 1662 64.8Peters BrosG. H. 1401 53.2                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Centre Hall, 2:30 P. M.Spring Mills, 7:30 P. M.Presbyterian(Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick, Pastor)Presbyterian — Lemont, morning ;Boalsburg, afternoon; Centre Hall,evening.Methodist Episcopaj(Rev. H .H. Sherman, Pastor)Trinity Reformed(Rev. Delas R. Keener, Pastor)Centre Hall—9:30 Sunday School.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | seated at the supper table.Mr. Rhoads was the second son ofJohn H. and Jane Rhoads and wasborn in Millheim July 27, 1871, mak-ing his age at the time of death 53years, 6 months and 4 days.He was employed in the Oak Hallquarries and had not complained ofany ailment. He worked all day Sat-urday prior to his return home andhis subsequent death.He is survived by his wife and sov-en children in addition to his mother,two brothers and four sisters, amongthe latter being Mrs. C. G. Hassingerand Mrs. W. J. Shull, both of Mill-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Herbert A. Wahl,State CollegeEthel R. ShaefferState CollegeAlexander O. MorrisonBellefonteMaud E. KellermanMilesburgMonthly Report of the Centre CountyCow Testing Assoc. for January.Reported by Tester Willard Straw:Herds tested. 20; cows in milk, 206;cows dry, 50; No. cows sold profitable,1; unprofitable, 3; No. cows producingover 40 fbs. fat, 19; over 50 Jbs. fat,10; No. cows producing over 1,000 lbs.milk, 31; over 1,200 lbs. milk. 25.Owner Breed Milk B.FatAllen HarterR. H. 1513 66,6A. S. EllenbergerR. H. 1513 66,6A. S. EllenbergerR. H. 1662 64,8Peters BrosG. H. 1401 53,2B. A. SampselG. H. 1361 43.1                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Centre Hall, 2:30 P. M.Spring Mills, 7:30 P. M.Presbyterian(Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick, Pastor)Presbyterian — Lemont, morning ;Boalsburg, afternoon; Centre Hall,ovening.Methodist Episcopaj(Rev. H .H. Sherman, Pastor)Trinity Reformed(Rev. Delas R. Keener, Pastor)Centre Hall—9:30 Sunday School,6:45 Organ Recital.                                                                                                                                                                                                               | seated at the supper table.Mr. Rhoads was the second son ofJohn H. and Jane Rhoads and wasborn in Millheim July 27, 1871, mak-ing his age at the time of death 53years, 6 months and 4 days.He was employed in the Oak Hallquarries and had not complained ofany ailment. He worked all day Sat-urday prior to his return home andhis subsequent death.He is survived by his wife and sov-en children in addition to his mother,two brothers and four sisters, amongthe latter being Mrs. C. G. Hassingerand Mrs. W. J. Shull, both of Mill-heim. Interment was made at Hous-erville.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Herbert A. WahlState CollegeEthel R. ShaefferState CollegeAlexander O. MorrisonBellefonteMaud E. KellermanMilesburgMonthly Report of the Centre CountyCow Testing Assoc. for January.Reported by Tester Willard Straw:Herds tested. 20; cows in milk. 206;cows dry. 50; No. cows sold profitable.1: unprofitable. 3: No. cows producingover 40 fbs. fat, 19; over 50 Jbs. fat,10; No. cows producing over 1,000 lbs.milk. 31; over 1,200 lbs. milk. 25.Owner Breed Milk B.FatAllen HarterR. H. 1550 69.8W. F. RishelR. H. 1513 66.6A. S. EllenbergerR. H. 1662 64.8Peters BrosG. H. 1401 53.2B. A. SampselG. H. 1361 43.1W. E. RaistonG. G. 977 52.8                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Centre Hall, 2:30 P. M.Spring Mills, 7:30 P. M.Presbyterian(Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick, Pastor)Presbyterian — Lemont, morning ;Boalsburg, afternoon; Centre Hall,ovening.Methodist Episcopaj(Rev. H .H. Sherman, Pastor)Trinity Reformed(Rev. Delas R. Keener, Pastor)Centre Hall—9:30 Sunday School.6:45 Organ Recital.7:00 Church Services.                                                                                                                                                                                      | seated at the supper table.Mr. Rhoads was the second son ofJohn H. and Jane Rhoads and wasborn in Millheim July 27, 1871, mak-ing his age at the time of death 53years, 6 months and 4 days.He was employed in the Oak Hallquarries and had not complained ofany ailment. He worked all day Sat-urday prior to his return home andhis subsequent death.He is survived by his wife and sov-en children in addition to his mother,two brothers and four sisters, amongthe latter being Mrs. C. G. Hassingerand Mrs. W. J. Shull, both of Mill-heim. Interment was made at Hous-erville.WYLEMrs. Sarah Wyle, widow                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Herbert A. Wahl,State CollegeEthel R. ShaefferState CollegeAlexander O. MorrisonBellefonteMaud E. KellermanMilesburgMonthly Report of the Centre CountyCow Testing Assoc. for January.Reported by Tester Willard Straw:Herds tested. 20; cows in milk, 206;cows dry, 50; No. cows sold profitable,1; unprofitable, 3; No. cows producingover 40 fbs. fat, 19; over 50 Jbs. fat,10; No. cows producing over 1,000 lbs.milk, 31; over 1,200 lbs. milk. 25.Owner Breed Milk B.FatAllen HarterR. H. 1513 66,6A. S. EllenbergerR. H. 1513 66,6A. S. EllenbergerR. H. 1662 64,8Peters BrosG. H. 1401 53,2B. A. SampselG. H. 1361 43.1                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Centre Hall, 2:30 P. M.Spring Mills, 7:30 P. M.Presbyterian(Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick, Pastor)Presbyterian — Lemont, morning ;Boalsburg, afternoon; Centre Hall,ovening.Methodist Episcopaj(Rev. H .H. Sherman, Pastor)Trinity Reformed(Rev. Delas R. Keener, Pastor)Centre Hall—9:30 Sunday School.6:45 Organ Recital.7:00 Church Services.Spring Mills—                                                                                                                                                                     | seated at the supper table.Mr. Rhoads was the second son ofJohn H. and Jane Rhoads and wasborn in Millheim July 27, 1871, mak-ing his age at the time of death 53years, 6 months and 4 days.He was employed in the Oak Hallquarries and had not complained ofany ailment. He worked all day Sat-urday prior to his return home andhis subsequent death.He is survived by his wife and sov-en children in addition to his mother,two brothers and four sisters, amongthe latter being Mrs. C. G. Hassingerand Mrs. W. J. Shull, both of Mill-heim. Interment was made at Hous-erville.WYLEMrs. Sarah Wyle. widowof Jacob H. Wyle, and a native of Aa-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | <ul> <li>Herbert A. Wahl,State CollegeEthel R. ShaefferState CollegeAlexander O. MorrisonBellefonteMaud E. KellermanMilesburg</li> <li>Monthly Report of the Centre CountyCow Testing Assoc. for January.</li> <li>Reported by Tester Willard Straw:Herds tested. 20; cows in milk, 206;cows dry, 50; No. cows sold profitable,1; unprofitable, 3; No. cows producingover 40 &amp;bs. fat, 19; over 50 .bs. fat,10; No. cows producing over 1,000 bs.milk, 31; over 1,200 bs. milk. 25.</li> <li>Owner Breed Milk B.FatAllen HarterR. H. 1550 69.8</li> <li>W. F. RishelR. H. 1513 66.6</li> <li>A. S. EllenbergerR. H. 1662 64.8</li> <li>Peters BrosG. H. 1401 53.2</li> <li>B. A. SampselG. H. 1361 43.1</li> <li>W. E. RaistonG. G. 977 52.8</li> <li>A. C. Hartle &amp; BroR. H. 1342 51.0</li> <li>A. S. EllenbergerR. H. 1342 51.0</li> </ul> |
| Centre Hall, 2:30 P. M.Spring Mills, 7:30 P. M.Presbyterian(Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick, Pastor)Presbyterian — Lemont, morning ;Boalsburg, afternoon; Centre Hall,ovening.Methodist Episcopaj(Rev. H .H. Sherman, Pastor)Trinity Reformed(Rev. Delas R. Keener, Pastor)Centre Hall—9:30 Sunday School.6:45 Organ Recital.7:00 Church Services.                                                                                                                                                                                      | seated at the supper table.Mr. Rhoads was the second son ofJohn H. and Jane Rhoads and wasborn in Millheim July 27, 1871, mak-ing his age at the time of death 53years, 6 months and 4 days.He was employed in the Oak Hallquarries and had not complained ofany ailment. He worked all day Sat-urday prior to his return home andhis subsequent death.He is survived by his wife and sov-en children in addition to his mother,two brothers and four sisters, amongthe latter being Mrs. C. G. Hassingerand Mrs. W. J. Shull, both of Mill-heim. Interment was made at Hous-erville.WYLEMrs. Sarah Wyle, widow                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul> <li>Herbert A. Wahl,State CollegeEthel R. ShaefferState CollegeAlexander O. MorrisonBellefonteMaud E. KellermanMflesburg</li> <li>Monthly Report of the Centre CountyCow Testing Assoc. for January.</li> <li>Reported by Tester Willard Straw:Herds tested. 20; cows in milk, 206;cows dry, 50; No. cows sold profitable,1: unprofitable, 3: No. cows producingover 40 fbs. fat, 19; over 50 fbs. fat,10; No. cows producing over 1,000 fbs.milk, 31; over 1,200 fbs. milk. 25.</li> <li>Owner Breed Milk B.FatAllen HarterR. H. 1513 66.6A. S. EllenbergerR. H. 1513 66.6A. S. EllenbergerR. H. 1662 64.8Peters BrosG. H. 1401 53.2B. A. SampselG. H. 1401 53.2S. A. C. Hartle &amp; BroR. H. 1361 51.7J. W. BlairR. H. 1342 51.0</li> </ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Centre Hall, 2:30 P. M.Spring Mills, 7:30 P. M.Presbyterian(Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick, Pastor)Presbyterian — Lemont, morning ;Boalsburg, afternoon; Centre Hall,evening,Methodist Episcopaj(Rev. H. H. Sherman, Pastor)Trinity Reformed(Rev. Delas R. Keener, Pastor)Centre Hall—9:30 Sunday School.6:45 Organ Recital.7:00 Church Services.Spring Mills—1439 Sunday School.                                                                                                                                              | seated at the supper table.Mr. Rhoads was the second son ofJohn H. and Jane Rhoads and wasborn in Millheim July 27, 1871, mak-ing his age at the time of death 53years, 6 months and 4 days.He was employed in the Oak Hallquarries and had not complained ofany allment. He worked all day Sat-urday prior to his return home andhis subsequent death.He is survived by his wife and sov-en children in addition to his mother,two brothers and four sisters, amongthe latter being Mrs. C. G. Hassingerand Mrs. W. J. Shull, both of Mill-heim. Interment was made at Hous-erville.WYLEMrs. Sarah Wyle, widowof Jacob H. Wyle, and a native of Aa-ronsburg, departed this life at the                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | <ul> <li>Herbert A. Wahl,State CollegeEthel R. ShaefferState CollegeAlexander O. MorrisonBellefonteMaud E. KellermanMilesburg</li> <li>Monthly Report of the Centre CountyCow Testing Assoc. for January.</li> <li>Reported by Tester Willard Straw:Herds tested. 20; cows in milk, 206;cows dry, 50; No. cows sold profitable,1; unprofitable, 3; No. cows producingover 40 fbs. fat, 19; over 50 Jbs. fat,10; No. cows producing over 1,000 lbs.milk, 31; over 1,200 fbs. milk. 25.</li> <li>Mwarr Breed Milk B.FatAllen Harter R. H. 1550 69.8W. F. Rishel R. H. 1513 66.6A. S. Ellenberger R. H. 1662 64.8Peters Bros G. H. 1401 53.2B. A. Sampsel G. G. 977 52.8A. C. Hartle &amp; Bro R. H. 1361 43.1W. E. Raiston G. G. 977 52.8A. C. Hartle &amp; Bro R. H. 1361 51.7J. W. Blair R. H. 1342 51.0A. S. Ellenberger R. H. 1342 51.0A. S. Ellenberger R. H. 1345 50.2</li> </ul>                                            |
| Centre Hall, 2:30 P. M.Spring Mills, 7:30 P. M.Presbyterian(Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick, Pastor)Presbyterian — Lemont, morning ;Boalsburg, afternoon; Centre Hall,ovening.Methodist Episcopaj(Rev. H .H. Sherman, Pastor)Trinity Reformed(Rev. Delas R. Keener, Pastor)Centre Hall—9:30 Sunday School.6:45 Organ Recital.7:00 Church Services.Spring Mills—1430 Sunday School.2:39 Church Services.                                                                                                                     | seated at the supper table.Mr. Rhoads was the second son ofJohn H. and Jane Rhoads and wasborn in Millheim July 27, 1871, mak-ing his age at the time of death 53years, 6 months and 4 days.He was employed in the Oak Hallquarries and had not complained ofany allment. He worked all day Sat-urday prior to his return home andhis subsequent death.He is survived by his wife and sov-en children in addition to his mother,two brothers and four sisters, amongthe latter being Mrs. C. G. Hassingerand Mrs. W. J. Shull, both of Mill-heim. Interment was made at Hous-erville.WYLEMrs. Sarah Wyle, widowof Jacob H. Wyle, and a native of Aa-ronsburg, departed this life at thehome of her son, J. R. Wyle, of Me-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | Herbert A. WahlState CollegeEthel R. ShaefferState CollegeAlexander O. MorrisonBellefonteMaud E. KellermanMilesburgMonthly Report of the Centre CountyCow Testing Assoc. for January.Reported by Tester Willard Straw:Herds tested. 20; cows in milk. 206;cows dry, 50; No. cows sold profitable,1; unprofitable, 3; No. cows producingover 40 fbs. fat, 19; over 50 Jbs. fat,10; No. cows producing over 1,000 lbs.milk. 31; over 1,200 lbs. milk. 25.Owner Breed Milk BFatAllen HarterR. H. 1550 69.8W. F. RishelR. H. 1513 66.6A. S. EllenbergerR. H. 1662 64.8Peters BrosG. H. 1401 53.2B. A. SampselG. H. 1361 43.1W. E. RaistonG. G. 977 52.8A. C. Hartle & Bro R. H. 1361 51.7J. W. BlairR. H. 1342 51.0A. S. EllenbergerR. H. 1365 50.2                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Centre Hall, 2:30 P. M.Spring Mills, 7:30 P. M.Presbyterian(Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick, Pastor)Presbyterian — Lemont, morning ;Boalsburg, afternoon; Centre Hall,evening.Methodist Episcopaj(Rev. H. H. Sherman, Pastor)Trinity Reformed(Rev. Delas R. Keener, Pastor)Centre Hall—9:20 Sunday School.6:45 Organ Recital.7:00 Church Services.Spring Mills—1:50 Sunday School.2:30 Church Services.Farmers Mills—                                                                                                   | seated at the supper table.Mr. Rhoads was the second son ofJohn H. and Jane Rhoads and wasborn in Millheim July 27, 1871, mak-ing his age at the time of death 53years, 6 months and 4 days.He was employed in the Oak Hallquarries and had not complained ofany allment. He worked all day Sat-urday prior to his return home andhis subsequent death.He is survived by his wife and sov-en children in addition to his mother,two brothers and four sisters, amongthe latter being Mrs. C. G. Hassingerand Mrs. W. J. Shull, both of Mill-heim. Interment was made at Hous-erville.WYLEMrs. Sarah Wyle, widowof Jacob H. Wyle, and a native of Aa-ronsburg, departed this life at thehome of her son, J. R. Wyle, of Me-dina, Ohio, of pneumonia, which she                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Herbert A. WahlState CollegeEthel R. ShaefferState CollegeAlexander O. MorrisonBellefonteMaud E. KellermanMilesburgMonthly Report of the Centre CountyCow Testing Assoc. for January.Reported by Tester Willard Straw:Herds tested. 20; cows in milk, 206;cows dry, 50; No. cows sold profitable,1; unprofitable, 3; No. cows producingover 40 fbs. fat, 19; over 50 Jbs. fat,10; No. cows producing over 1,000 lbs.milk, 31; over 1,200 fbs. milk. 25.Nowner Breed Milk B.FatAllen HarterR. H. 1550 69.8W. F. RishelR. H. 1513 66.6A. S. EilenbergerR. H. 1662 64.8Peters BrosG. H. 1401 53.2B. A. SampselG. H. 1361 43.1W. E. RalstonG. G. 977 52.8A. C. Hartle & BroR. H. 1361 51.7J. W. BlairR. H. 1342 51.0A. S. EilenbergerR. H. 1342 51.0A. S. EilenbergerR. H. 1355 50.2                                                                                                                                                              |
| Centre Hall, 2:30 P. M.Spring Mills, 7:30 P. M.Presbyterian(Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick, Pastor)Presbyterian — Lemont, morning ;Boalsburg, afternoon; Centre Hall,ovening.Methodist Episcopaj(Rev. H. H. Sherman, Pastor)Methodist Episcopaj(Rev. H. H. Sherman, Pastor)Centre Hall—9:30 Sunday School.6:45 Organ Recital.7:00 Church Services.Spring Mills—1:30 Sunday School.2:39 Church Services.Farmers Mills—9:30 Sunday School.                                                                           | seated at the supper table.Mr. Rhoads was the second son ofJohn H. and Jane Rhoads and wasborn in Millheim July 27, 1871, mak-ing his age at the time of death 53years, 6 months and 4 days.He was employed in the Oak Hallquarries and had not complained ofany ailment. He worked all day Sat-urday prior to his return home andhis subsequent death.He is survived by his wife and sov-en children in addition to his mother,two brothers and four sisters, amongthe latter being Mrs. C. G. Hassingerand Mrs. W. J. Shull, both of Mill-heim. Interment was made at Hous-erville.WYLEMrs. Sarah Wyle, widowof Jacob H. Wyle, and a native of Aa-ronsburg, departed this life at thehome of her sor, J. R. Wyle, of Me-dina, Ohio, of pneumonia, which shecontracted after having had a strokeof paralysis on New Year's day.Mrs. Wyle was the daughter of Ja-                                                                                                                   | Herbert A. WahlState CollegeEthel R. ShaefferState CollegeAlexander O. MorrisonBellefonteMaud E. KellermanMilesburgMonthly Report of the Centre CountyCow Testing Assoc. for January.Reported by Tester Willard Straw:Herds tested. 20; cows in milk, 206;cows dry, 50; No. cows sold profitable,1; unprofitable, 3; No. cows producingover 40 fbs. fat, 19; over 50 Jbs. fat,10; No. cows producing over 1,000 fbs.milk, 31; over 1,200 fbs. milk. 25.Nowner Breed Milk B.FatAllen HarterR. H. 1550 69.8W. F. RishelR. H. 1513 66.6A. S. EllenbergerR. H. 1662 64.8Peters BrosG. H. 1401 53.2B. A. SampselG. H. 1361 43.1W. E. RaistonG. G. 977 52.8A. C. Hartle & BroR. H. 1361 51.7J. W. BlairR. H. 1342 51.0A. S. EllenbergerR. H. 1342 51.0A. S. EllenbergerR. H. 1355 50.2ZETTLE-YOCUM.Edward Emery Zettle. of SpringMills, and Miss Caroline Julia Yocum.                                                           |
| Centre Hall, 2:30 P. M.Spring Mills, 7:30 P. M.Presbyterian(Rev. J. M. Kärkpatrick, Pastor)Presbyterian — Lemont, morning ;Boalsburg, afternoon; Centre Hall,evening.Methodist Episcopaj(Rev. H. H. Sherman, Pastor)Methodist Episcopaj(Rev. Delas R. Keener, Pastor)Centre Hall—9:30 Sunday School.6:45 Organ Recital.7:00 Church Services.Spring Mills—1:30 Sunday School.2:39 Church Services.Farmers Mills—9:30 Sunday School.19:30 Caurch services.                                               | seated at the supper table.Mr. Rhoads was the second son ofJohn H. and Jane Rhoads and wasborn in Millheim July 27, 1871, mak-ing his age at the time of death 53years, 6 months and 4 days.He was employed in the Oak Hallquarries and had not complained ofany ailment. He worked all day Sat-urday prior to his return home andhis subsequent death.He is survived by his wife and sov-en children in addition to his mother,two brothers and four sisters, amongthe latter being Mrs. C. G. Hassingerand Mrs. W. J. Shull, both of Mill-heim. Interment was made at Hous-erville.WYLEMrs. Sarah Wyle, widowof Jacob H. Wyle, and a native of Aa-ronsburg, departed this life at thehome of her son, J. R. Wyle, of Me-dina, Ohio, of pneumonia, which shecontracted after having had a strokeof paralysis on New Year's day.Mrs. Wyle was the daughter of Ja-cob and Elizabeth Holloway and was                                                                             | Herbert A. WahlState CollegeEthel R. ShaefferState CollegeAlexander O. MorrisonBellefonteMaud E. KellermanMilesburgMonthly Report of the Centre CountyCow Testing Assoc. for January.Reported by Tester Willard Straw:Herds tested. 20; cows in milk, 206;cows dry, 50; No. cows sold profitable,1; unprofitable, 3; No. cows producingover 40 fbs. fat, 19; over 50 Jbs. fat,10; No. cows producing over 1,000 fbs.milk, 31; over 1,200 fbs. milk. 25.Nowner Breed Milk B.FatAllen HarterR. H. 1550 69.8W. F. RishelR. H. 1550 69.8W. F. RishelR. H. 1662 64.8Peters BrosG. H. 1401 53.2B. A. SampselG. H. 1361 43.1W. E. RaistonG. G. 977 52.8A. C. Hartle & BroR. H. 1361 51.7J. W. BlairR. H. 1342 51.0A. S. EllenbergerR. H. 1342 51.0A. S. EllenbergerR. H. 1395 50.2ZETTLE-YOCUM.Edward Emery Zettle. of SpringMills, and Miss Caroline Julia Yocum,of Madisonburg, were united in mar-                         |
| Centre Hall, 2:30 P. M.Spring Mills, 7:30 P. M.Presbyterian(Rev. J. M. Kärkpatrick, Pastor)Presbyterian — Lemont, morning ;Boalsburg, afternoon; Centre Hall,evening.Methodist Episcopaj(Rev. H .H. Sherman, Pastor)Methodist Episcopaj(Rev. H .H. Sherman, Pastor)Centre Hall—9:30 Sunday School,6:45 Organ Recital,7:00 Church Services,Spring Mills—1:30 Sunday School,2:39 Church Services,Farmers Mills—9:30 Sunday School,10:30 Caurch services,San Sunday School,10:30 Church services, | seated at the supper table.Mr. Rhoads was the second son ofJohn H. and Jane Rhoads and wasborn in Millheim July 27, 1871, mak-ing his age at the time of death 53years, 6 months and 4 days.He was employed in the Oak Hallquarries and had not complained ofany ailment. He worked all day Sat-urday prior to his return home andhis subsequent death.He is survived by his wife and sov-en children in addition to his mother,two brothers and four sisters, amongthe latter being Mrs. C. G. Hassingerand Mrs. W. J. Shull, both of Mill-heim. Interment was made at Hous-erville.WYLEMrs. Sarah Wyle, widowof Jacob H. Wyle, and a native of Aa-ronsburg, departed this life at thehome of her son, J. R. Wyle, of Me-dina, Ohio, of pneumonia, which shecontracted after having had a strokeof paralysis on New Year's day.Mrs. Wyle was the daughter of Ja-cob and Elizabeth Holloway and wasborn at Aaronsburg December 24th,                                        | Herbert A. WahlState CollegeEthel R. ShaefferState CollegeAlexander O. MorrisonBellefonteMaud E. KellermanMilesburgMonthly Report of the Centre CountyCow Testing Assoc. for January.Reported by Tester Willard Straw:Herds tested. 20; cows in milk, 206;cows dry, 50; No. cows sold profitable,1; unprofitable, 3; No. cows producingover 40 fbs. fat, 19; over 50 Jbs. fat,10; No. cows producing over 1,000 lbs.milk, 31; over 1,200 lbs. milk. 25.Nowner Breed Milk BFatAllen HarterR. H. 1550 69.8W. F. RishelR. H. 1513 66.6A. S. EllenbergerR. H. 1662 64.8Peters BrosG. H. 1401 53.2B. A. SampselG. H. 1361 43.1W. E. RaistonG. G. 977 52.8A. C. Hartle & BroR. H. 1361 51.7J. W. BlairR. H. 1342 51.0A. S. EllenbergerR. H. 1342 51.0A. S. EllenbergerR. H. 1355 50.2D. A. S. EllenbergerR. H. 1395 50.2                                                                                                                        |
| Centre Hall, 2:30 P. M.Spring Mills, 7:30 P. M.Presbyterian(Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick, Pastor)Presbyterian — Lemont, morning ;Boalsburg, afternoon; Centre Hall,avening:Methodist Episcopaj(Rev. H. H. Sherman, Pastor)Methodist Episcopaj(Rev. Delas R. Keener, Pastor)Centre Hall—9:20 Sunday School.6:45 Organ Recital.7:00 Church Services.Spring Mills—1:50 Sunday School.2:30 Church Services.Farmers Mills—9:30 Sunday School.10:30 Church Services.                                               | seated at the supper table.Mr. Rhoads was the second son ofJohn H. and Jane Rhoads and wasborn in Millheim July 27, 1871, mak-ing his age at the time of death 53years, 6 months and 4 days.He was employed in the Oak Hallquarries and had not complained ofany ailment. He worked all day Sat-urday prior to his return home andhis subsequent death.He is survived by his wife and sov-en children in addition to his mother,two brothers and four sisters, amongthe latter being Mrs. C. G. Hassingerand Mrs. W. J. Shull, both of Mill-heim. Interment was made at Hous-erville.WYLEMrs. Sarah Wyle, widowof Jacob H. Wyle, and a native of Aa-ronsburg, departed this life at thehome of her son, J. R. Wyle, of Me-dina, Ohio, of pneumonia, which shecontracted after having had a strokeof paralysis on New Year's day.Mrs. Wyle was the daughter of Ja-cob and Elizabeth Holloway and wasborn at Aaronsburg December 24th,1835, making her age at the time of | Herbert A. WahlState CollegeEthel R. ShaefferState CollegeAlexander O. MorrisonBellefonteMaud E. KellermanMilesburgMonthly Report of the Centre CountyCow Testing Assoc. for January.Reported by Tester Willard Straw:Herds tested. 20; cows in milk, 206;cows dry, 50; No. cows sold profitable,1; unprofitable, 3; No. cows producingover 40 fbs. fat, 19; over 50 Jbs. fat,10; No. cows producing over 1,000 fbs.milk, 31; over 1,200 fbs. milk. 25.Nowner Breed Milk B.FatAllen HarterR. H. 1550 69.8W. F. RishelR. H. 1550 69.8W. F. RishelR. H. 1662 64.8Peters BrosG. H. 1401 53.2B. A. SampselG. H. 1361 43.1W. E. RaistonG. G. 977 52.8A. C. Hartle & BroR. H. 1361 51.7J. W. BlairR. H. 1342 51.0A. S. EllenbergerR. H. 1342 51.0A. S. EllenbergerR. H. 1395 50.2ZETTLE-YOCUM.Edward Emery Zettle. of SpringMills, and Miss Caroline Julia Yocum,of Madisonburg, were united in mar-                         |
| Centre Hall, 2:30 P. M.Spring Mills, 7:30 P. M.Presbyterian(Rev. J. M. Kärkpatrick, Pastor)Presbyterian — Lemont, morning ;Boalsburg, afternoon; Centre Hall,evening.Methodist Episcopaj(Rev. H .H. Sherman, Pastor)Methodist Episcopaj(Rev. H .H. Sherman, Pastor)Centre Hall—9:30 Sunday School,6:45 Organ Recital,7:00 Church Services,Spring Mills—1:30 Sunday School,2:39 Church Services,Farmers Mills—9:30 Sunday School,10:30 Caurch services,San Sunday School,10:30 Church services, | seated at the supper table.Mr. Rhoads was the second son ofJohn H. and Jane Rhoads and wasborn in Millheim July 27, 1871, mak-ing his age at the time of death 53years, 6 months and 4 days.He was employed in the Oak Hallquarries and had not complained ofany ailment. He worked all day Sat-urday prior to his return home andhis subsequent death.He is survived by his wife and sov-en children in addition to his mother,two brothers and four sisters, amongthe latter being Mrs. C. G. Hassingerand Mrs. W. J. Shull, both of Mill-heim. Interment was made at Hous-erville.WYLEMrs. Sarah Wyle, widowof Jacob H. Wyle, and a native of Aa-ronsburg, departed this life at thehome of her son, J. R. Wyle, of Me-dina, Ohio, of pneumonia, which shecontracted after having had a strokeof paralysis on New Year's day.Mrs. Wyle was the daughter of Ja-cob and Elizabeth Holloway and wasborn at Aaronsburg December 24th,                                        | Herbert A. Wahl,State CollegeEthel R. ShaefferState CollegeAlexander O. MorrisonBellefonteMaud E. KellermanMilesburgMonthly Report of the Centre CountyCow Testing Assoc. for January.Reported by Tester Willard Straw:Herds tested. 20; cows in milk. 206;cows dry, 50; No. cows sold profitable,1: unprofitable, 3: No. cows producingover 40 fbs. fat, 19; over 50 Jbs. fat,10; No. cows producing over 1,000 lbs.milk. 31; over 1,200 lbs. milk. 25.Owner Breed Milk B.FatAllen HarterR. H. 1513 66.6A. S. EllenbergerR. H. 1662 64.8Peters BrosG. H. 1401 53.2B. A. SampselG. H. 1361 51.7J. W. BlairR. H. 1365 50.2A. C. Hartle & BroR. H. 1361 51.7J. W. BlairR. H. 1375 50.4J. W. KeisterR. H. 1395 50.2DETTLE-YOCUM.Edward Emery Zettle. of SpringMills, and Miss Caroline Julia Yocum,of Madisonburg, were united in mar-riage Saturday evening at the Luth-eran parsonage in Centre Hail by Rev.                   |

WINDING UP THE Stock Reducing Sale

For the benefit of the people from a distance who were not able to take advantage of this great sale on account of the roads being blockaded,

We have extended the Sale for 10 Days Longer, for the Final Wind-up.

All broken assortments, odds and ends, limited quantities, and special assortments that offer the most pronounced values of the entire sale.

It's going to be a most remarkable SAVING WEEK !

| 12 WOMEN'S SUITS, formerly$20.00, go at$3.50              | 10                                                       | WOMEN'S SILK HOSE, form-erly $1.25, now69c  |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------|
| 10 WOMEN'S COATS, go at$1.00                                   | SHREDS.                                                  | 95 Pair FELT SLIPPERS                            |
| 25 CHILDREN'S COATS, form-                                      | Ask your friendswho have attend-                     | FLANNEL NIGHT GOWNS 79c                          |
| erly $10.00, go at$2.50                                       |                                                          | MEN'S OVERALLS                                   |
| 25 Pair WOMEN'S SHOES,GIVEN AWAY AT                         | ed this great sale,                                      | WOMEN'S SILK PETTICOATS 98c                      |
| GITES AWAI AI                                                   | and hear what                                            | EXTRA HEAVY SWEATERS $1.19                      |
| 72 Pair WOMEN'S WALK-OVERSHOES, formerly $6.00, now98c     | they have to say.Entire special as-sortment from | 1 LOT OF MEN'S GOOD SUITSto go at            |
| 69 Pair WOMEN'S High-GradeSHOES, formerly $7.50, now$1.49 |                                                          | 25 MEN'S FINE OVERCOATSFormerly $20.00, now |
| 58 Pair CHILDREN'S SHOES                                        | this Sale at Great                                       | 1 Lot RAINCOATS go at$1.00                      |
| $2.75 grade, now                                               | Big Savings.                                             | 50 Pr. GOOD BLANKETS, form-erly $2.95, now  |
| 67 Pair MEN'S High-Class Walk-Over SHOES, now               | Come Early.                                              | 1 LOT BOYS' SUITS, formerly$10.50, now      |
| 79 Pair Men's Extra Good WorkSHOES, now                     | Read here.                                               | 1 Lot BOYS' OVERCOATS, form-erly $9.50, now |
|                                                                 | *                                                        | RICHEY SOX                                       |
| MEN'S GOOD WORK SHIRTS,                                         |                                                          | 1 Lot SILK AND WOOL HOSEto go at             |
| MEN'S CANVAS GLOVES                                             |                                                          | 1 Lot WOMEN'S WHITE WAISTSto close out at    |

Our Entire Stock of Ladies' Coats and Suits

Regular worship at 10:30 A. M. Linden Hall-Regular worship at 2:30 P. M. Tusseyville-Sunday School at 9:30 A. M. Regular worship at 7:30 P. M.

Centre whist

Evangelical, Spring Mills (Rev. E. E. Haney, Pastor.) Green Grove, 10:00 A. M. Bethesda, 2:30 P. M. Spring Mills, Sunday School, 1:39; Preaching, 6:45 P. M. Locust Grove, S. S., 2:00 P. M.: Preaching, 7:45 P. M.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Another supply of fresh fish and oysters by the latter part of this week. ed cemetery at that place. Try these goods; you will be pleased with their quality .-- W. H. Bland.

Mrs. W. F. Colyer and Mrs. Clyde E. Bradford, of Centre Hall, attended the funeral of Mrs. John B. Dunkle, at Spring Mills. on Monday.

Mrs. (Dr.) W. E. Park, of Kenilworh Park, Biltmore. North Carolina, is visiting her father, Capt. G. M. Boal, in Centre Hall.

George Michael will be employed on the Jacob Sharer farm, east of Centre Hall, and will take the place of his son, Jacob Sharer, Jr., who with his bride will live at Spring Mills.

the W. H. Reish home, at Boalsburg, Presbyterian church, of Freeport, Ill., Thursday evening of last week, in honor of Mrs. Reish's birthday. Delicious refreshments were served, and every-, one present spent a pleasant evening.

"The Old Homestead" depicts America's rural life as no other drama does. You will have an opportunity to see it for the first time at popular prices at Moose Temple Theatre, Bellefonte, Wednesday night, February 18th.

M. A. Davis, of Lewistown, is a candidtae for sheriff in Mifflin counbeen a P. R. R. police and county detective.

Miss Osler, known to her Penn State both of Millheim. school chums as "Balle." came to Centre Hall with her sister, Miss Anne B. days before returning to her home at years. Columbia,

We had some most delightful weathbeginning of this week, yet the month is not too far spent to make itself disagreeable in the extreme. We are thankful however for the lovely days we already have had.

onsburg, having moved from there about eighteen years ago to the son's tome where she died .. Her husband preceded her in death about twenty years ago; five of her eight children (dying in infancy) also preceded her to the grave. She is survived by three sons, W. C. Wyle and B. W., of Akron, O.; and J. R., of Medina, Ohio, and two brothers -Frank A. Holloway, of Cedarville,

Ill.; and James E. Holloway, of Aaronsburg; also eight grandchildren and seven great grandchildren. The remains were shipped to Aa ronsburg to the home of J. H. Crouse from where buria; services were held Tuesday forenoon of last week, conducted by Rev. F. H. Daubenspeck. Interment was made in the Reform-

RICKERT.-Susanna Rickert (nee Gramley) died at her home in Cedarville, Ill., where she had resided since 1867. She was born in Rebersburg, January 27, 1841, was the oldest child of John and Maria Gramley, and the last surviving member of the family. Her mother died in 1907 and her brothers Oliver and Byron several years ago. Her husband, Henry Rickert. died in 1922, and surviving her are four cildren-J. Logan, of Redondo Beach, Calif.; J. Clyde, of Columbus, Ohio; Mrs. Oliver Troxell, of Cedarville, Hl. Buriat was made at Cedar Friends and relatives gathered at ville. Rev. Dr. McNary, of the First tre County Hospital.

officiating.

ROYER .- George Royer died at the hens; also five White Leghorn cockhome of his son, Frank Royer, near erels: raised last year: fine for breed-Woodward, from dropsy, aged eightying stock. Inquire of Harry Dinges. one years, 9 months. Nearly all his Centre Hall. life was spent in Milheim, where he followed the carpenter trade.

His wife, who was Elvina Confer assed to the great beyond November 19. 1911, at the age of 69 years and 9 bell, Centre Hall. months. He is survived by one sis ty. He was formerly elected to that ter, Mrs. Jane Wallzer, of Millheim, office by the Republicans and since has and four children: F. P., of Woodward; S. H., of Millmont; Mrs. E. H. Zimmerman and Mrs. S. R. King,

HENDRICKS .- Mrs. Henry Hend-Osler, one of the teachers in the local ricks died at her home in Pittsburgh, High, on Monday, to remain for a few of softening of the brain, aged 56 Her maiden name was Sarah Hoy, a daughter of the venerable John S. er during the latter part of last and Hoy, of near Madisonburg, and she was born in Miles township. The husband and father and one daughter, Myrtle, survive. The remains were shipped to Co

(Continued on foot of next column) etery.

Birthday Party A birthday party at which twenty of twenty-one school class members were present, together with eight or ten others, was given Monday night by Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Smith for Isabel Bradford, who had attained her eleventh year. The missing class member was under quarantine. It was a gay night in the little people's lives. The class is made up of the following boys and girls; Loraine Brungart, Muth Bailey, Jack Coldon, Bettle Ebright, Emm Grove, Ruth Hartley, Lawrence Hart ley, Susan Anna Heckman, Marvin Ishler, Franklin Moyer, Sara Odenkirk, Reuben Rickert, Margaret Reese Donald Ruble, Gladys Smith, Arthur Scott, John Spyker, Burton Snyder, Kenneth Snyder, Helen Weaver, Isabel Bradford.

TUSSEYVILLE.

Watsontown.

best made, and last, but not least, re-The Stork called at the home of Mr. member to bring a silver, offering aand Mrs. Orvis Swartz and left a ong. aby boy-No. 2

NEV ADVERTISEMENTS.

S. Walker, Centre Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kimport enter-Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Ness and daughained at dinner Friday Deamer N! ter Violet, of Red Lion, spent several hart and wife and little daughter, of days with Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Jordan. Word was received by Mrs. Charles Dover, Minn., and Mr. and Mrs. Marg-Slaterbeck, on Eriday, of the death of aret Rossman, of Lock Haven. her aunt. Mrs. Mahala Nevel, who

Cyrus Wagner, of Altoona, spent was living with her son Jacob, at ver Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Wagner. Mrs. Arthur Holderman spent sev eral days in Bellefonte, and returning Paul Dernar, the school teacher at brought home with her her daughter. Waddle, was home over Sunday. Miss Verna Donahey, who for several Miss Blanche Rowe, who is working, weeks had been a patient in the Cenat Harrisburg, was home for a few lays the past week.

The Rev. W. W. Moyer and wife vere entertained at the George W. FOR SALE-35 nice White Leghorn Rowe home Saturday evening at sup-

On Sunday evening the Reformed S. S. and church will hold the foreign mission service. The school is tak-MAN WANTED for general farm ng a special part and should help to work. Can use single man, or can make the service more interesting employ man and wife .-- R. P. Camp-Mrs. Lucy Murray died Thursday Gtf after an illness of several months due to old age. Burial was made Sunday FARM FOR SALE .- Farm of 75 afternoon. cres, all fine tillable land excepting

The grap has caused much sickness 3 acres of woodland; solid brick house, luring the past few weeks. all buildings in first-class condition; blacksmith shop; Night in house and Rev. W. W. Moyer will start a catbarn; water in house, enclosed conechetical class on Saturday evening of crete porch. This is one of the most net week. All children who are old enough to unite with the church are desirable farms in the whole valley: especially urged to attend this class located 21/2 miles west of Centre Hall and prepare to unite with the church along Brush Valley road. For further at the Spring Communion. information inquire of the owner, W.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Corl visited at 31* State College Sunday, seeing the new (Continued from previous column) baby at the Charles and Rebecca Hey ourn and taken from there to Madierly home. It is a girl, two weeks sonburg, where funeral services were old Monday. held in the Lattheran church. Burial was made in the Evangelical cem-

The Centre Reporter, $1.50 a year-

Reduced to 50c on the Dollar.

D. J. NIEMAN

"Always Reliable"

and the refreshments will be the very

BOALSBURG.

Don't forget the Valentine social Saturday evening at the Fisher home by the little girls S. S. class taught by Mammy Stover. The have prepar ed a real Valentine social program

A HOME FOR DODGE AND FORD MOTOR CARS

MILLHEIM

GENUINE DODGE and FORD PARTS

WILL BE KEPT IN STOCK CONSTANTLY

OTHER MAKES OF CARS WELCOME

Prompt Service on all Trouble Calls.

When your wheel, axle or anything else is broken so that you are unable to get in, call us. We have the Towing Ambulance.

LOCATED ON MAIN STREET

