

THE CENTRE REPORTER

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1925.

EBBERSBURG.

Some of our citizens are attending court this week.

George Brachbill, who was staying at Tipton during the past winter, arrived at this place and is now keeping bachelor's hall in his dwelling house.

Kline Royer, of Jersey Shore, spent Sunday and Monday under the parental home at this place.

Kline Lambert, who was employed on a farm near Lancaster, left on Thursday for Maple Park, Ill. where he will work hiring on a farm.

William Hagan, of Spring Mills, visited at the Frank Wate home on Saturday.

On Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Meyer motored to Bloomsburg where they visited their daughter, Mrs. Masteller.

Lester Minnich and son Stover, of Millinburg, transacted business in our town last Saturday.

Rev. Dr. Runkle, wife and daughter, of Altoona, were visitors at the Reformed parsonage a few days ago.

Robert McClellan and Mr. Frantz were also callers at the Rev. McClellan home.

Quite an excitement was stirred up in town when it was learned that on last Wednesday evening while Miss Lorraine Sechrist was on her way home from prayer-meeting she was attacked by three boys and her beautiful, long, golden-tinted hair cut off close to the head. Miss Sechrist was one of the few girls in this vicinity who did not have their hair bobbed, and a few weeks ago, according to her story, received an anonymous letter relative to her unbobbed hair. Now since this happened she is number among the bob-haired girls.
