

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

March blew in.
The auto show in Bellefonte closes Saturday.
If you don't have your auto driver's license you're in bad luck.
On Sunday March came in in a way we don't want to see it go out.
Postmaster Harry M. Allison, of Spring Mills, was in town on Tuesday.
A radio was installed by Shannon Booser in the Booser garage office and is giving nightly callers a varied entertainment.
The second week of court is in session, and is being presided over by Judge Miles I. Potter of the Union-Snyder district.
George Searson attended a horse sale at Belleville, on Friday, and stated the average price paid was about $150 or $160.
William Slick, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Slick, left on Thursday for Youngstown, Ohio, where he hopes to secure employment.
About three inches of snow and sleet fell Sunday. This was followed by rain, and then a hard freeze and fierce wind during the night.
Ralph Emerick, who is employed in the railroad shops in Altoona, was at home in Centre Hall for a few days, returning to work on Monday.
A car load of twenty-four milk cows, most of them having calves by their side, was shipped to Collegeville by D. C. Mitterling, on Saturday. This was the first shipment made for some time.
D. A. Boezer, of Centre Hall, and William Keller, of Tyrone, attended the funeral of Peter Fisher Keiler, at Ingram, on Friday. The latter is a brother and the former a brother-in-law of the deceased.
Among the new advertisers in this issue is the Hosterman and Stover company, Millheim, dealers in hardware, also plumbing, installing heat plants, etc. This is an old established and reliable firm.
The members of the junior class of State College High school will render the play, "Come Out of the Kitchen," in Millheim, Friday evening. The play was given in State College last month and was regarded highly successful.
Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Carter, of Centre Hall, within the past week went to Williamsport, where Mrs. Carter is caring for her granddaughter, Mrs. Edna Lusa Alexander. It has not been reported whether it is a boy or a girl.
Ralph Stover, of State College, was the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Alice Durst, on Sunday. He is a brother of the Mr. Stover who was beat up by thugs in Texas a short time ago, and reports him getting along well and expecting to come home in a short time.
After suffering for several weeks from severe pains in the region of the temporal bone, Lloyd W. Stover, cashier of the Farmers National Bank, Millheim, was taken to the Gelsinger Memorial hospital, Danville, where it was thought a mastoid operation would be performed.
Mrs. Samuel Shoop is improving somewhat, but continues bedfast. Mr. Shoop has also been very much under the weather during the past few weeks and their son, William D., since returning from the South has not fully recovered from an illness contracted in Florida.
C. W. Swartz and family, of State College, were in Centre Hall the latter part of last week and while here looked over the home purchased by them from F. M. Fisher. From the best information at hand Mr. Swartz does not expect to occupy the place this coming spring.
Eldon Leathers, who during the past year was employed as a farm hand by T. P. Delaney, at Old Fort, will move to the Van Tries farm, near Linden Hall. The farm was leased by Capt. Shoemaker from Col. Theodore Davis Boal. Mr. Leathers will be followed by John Lingie, who was married last summer.
The consistory of the Reformed church have taken the preliminary measures toward the erection of a new parsonage at Centre Hall, which, if built, will likely be located on the church lot. It appears the proposition must be submitted to the various congregations, but favorable action is looked for.
After an illness of five weeks, which began with an attack of tonsillitis, John Wert, Jr., aged twelve years, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wert, of Tusseyville, is improving nicely. His condition a week ago was very serious, an infection having followed tonsillitis in connection with rheumatism. Dr. Kaldler is the physician in charge. Dr. P. H. Dale having been called in consultation.
George Ream came up from Schuylkill Haven last week to be with his parents at Boalsburg for a few days, and Monday afternoon came to Centre Hall and called at the Reporter office. He is employed as chief dairyman on the county farms connected with the county asylum. He has been at the institution for more than a year and likes it very much. On Tuesday he returned to his post of duty.
Mrs. Robert W. Bloom, west of town, has been suffering from poison on thumb and fingers of both hands. The trouble started ten or more days ago, when the thumb was pierced by the eye end of a needle. The slight wound seemed to heal and then an abscess formed, and after it broke, fingers on the other hand became infected, causing suffering to such an extent that she was almost helpless. On Saturday her daughter, Mrs. William Miller, of Altoona, came home and is now waiting on her. Improvement seems very slow.

SECOND WEEK OF COURT.

Judge Potter Sits With Judge Dale In Hearing Civil Cases This Week.
Court convened Monday morning with the Honorable Miles I. Potter of the Union-Snyder district presiding. After the presentation of a number of petitions and motions by different members of the Bar to Judge Dale, the civil list of cases for the week was gone over, a number of which were disposed of.
The first case taken up for trial on Monday morning was James H. Cullen vs. Annie C. Rowland John E. Fryberger and J. K. Johnston, admors. of the estate of Charles H. Rowland, deceased. Being an action in trespass, and was on trial all of Monday.
Counsel present from elsewhere than Bellefonte during the first week court were John M. Chase and J. Mitchell Chase of Clearfield. During the present week of court, M. Ward Fleming of Philipsburg and A. M. Liveright of Clearfield.
Business transacted during the session of court held last week, not heretofore published, follows:
David Hendershot had a peculiar experience, according to testimony given by him before court. He was prosecuted for bootlegging and defended himself by stating that he had parked his car in Bellefonte, where it was stolen, and did not find it until three o'clock Sunday morning, when he discovered it standing on Water street, Bellefonte, loaded with booze in kegs, also empty jugs that had contained booze. He did not know how the stuff got there. The mystery was solved by a jury returning a verdict of guilty.
Commonwealth vs. Bert Lyle, indicted for violation of liquor laws; prosecutor, Jesse A. King, State police. Defendant entered a plea of guilty and was sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution, $500 fine and six months in the county jail.
Commonwealth vs. Perry K. Detwiler, indicted for selling intoxicating liquor; prosecutor, Charles F. Letzler. The prosecution being brought according to the prosecutor, selling liquor to his father-in-law, H. M. Hoy, on Decoration Day. The defendant denied that he sold any liquor to anybody, and particularly to H. M. Hoy, and produced witnesses discrediting H. M. Hoy. Verdict on Thursday afternoon of not guilty, the prosecutor to pay one-half of the costs and the defendant one-half of the costs.
Commonwealth vs. Bellefonte lodge of Moose. Two district attorney bills. One bill indicted for a nuisance; the second bill three counts—selling and being in possession of and the manufacture of beer containing more alcohol than allowed by law.
Emery-Jodon.
At Milesburg, by Rev. M. C. Piper, pastor of the Methodist church, Albert L. Emery and Miss Edwina Jodon, both of Centre Hall, were united in marriage, on Monday. The groom is a son of Merchant and Mrs. C. F. Emery and the bride a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Foster V. Jodon. The couple have both been employed in the silk mill at Spring Mills for some time and resumed their work there.
Congratulations.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mercury touched zero Monday night.
Miss Alice Yeager, of Howard, was an over Sunday guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Eldor Leathers, near Centre Hall.
P. C. Shoemaker, the Linden Hall merchant, calls the attention of Penns Valley farmers to his advertisement in this issue on Ufiko feeds for increased milk production, as well as for heavy egg production. Don't fail to look up the ad.
