Something to Think About

By F. A. WALKER

BLOCKING THE WAY

THOSE apostles of laxity who can never find time to do anything as it ought to be done go crookedly through life complaining in their semi-serious moments that they are lagging behind their rivals, and never getting anywhere.

They admit this without any apparent sense of shame or compunction of conscience. Sometimes their intimates of like ilk, they boast of their shortcomings in a spirit of bravado.

A laziness that distinguishes them from what they disdainfully term the "common class," to whom they will scarcely nod a courteous good morning, seems in their minds to put them upon a worshipful pedestal.

Daily they go about their task in a slipshod manner, shunning responsibility as a hen avoids a pool of water. Everything they do is half done.

Careless in observing how the proficient save time and energy, and thus make of work a pleasure instead of a drag, these listless persons are always in trouble, scowling and finding fault, even when everything about them is cheerful.

Their desks or benches are continually in confusion, quite in keeping with their unmethodical minds. When urgently needed no paper or tool is in sight or reach.

It is generally hidden somewhere in a disordered heap. Precious minutes are lost while searching for the elusive thing, and should the task of finding it happen to be more vexatious than usual, some innocent fellow-worker is openly charged with pilfering.

Then a storm breaks and the atmosphere is surcharged with anger, which in the customary slowness of cooling off is likely to leave the principals for days and days in sulky humors.

Persons of this character are doomed to fall in everything they undertake, except in the making of quarrels and the wrecking of friendships.

Blameworthy themselves, they pile their sins on the blameless. Whenever they are found there is turmoil, inefficiency, disloyalty and unhappiness, four danger signals which block the way in every track of endeavor to promotion to the higher ranks.

Another Grade

By DOUGLAS MALLOCH

FOLKS can't always find the word. For the things to say. Now and then a man's a bit sayin' right away.

Just the thing at just the time. That is proper, right and prime; But the gibbets ones by far Often poor performers are.

So, my girl, I haven't got sense to say it right—Think of somethin', like as not, By tomorrow night—Then you'll be a hundred miles—Yes, sir, gone, and took your smiles Where there ain't a chance to see Only in my memory.

I'll remember, don't you fear—I'll remember when You and me was youngsters here, Thinkin' others then In their twenties gittin' old, Goodness, how the time has rolled—Here you are, and here I be, Twenty-one and twenty-three.

You was always smart at school—There ain't many such, Me, I guess I used to fool, Fool around too much, I was older, but one day You caught up with me—and, say, You could just have knocked me dead When you passed a grade ahead!

Guess that's what you're doin' now—Made another grade, Hitched and harnessed to the plow I am, I'm afraid; But you're growin' ev'ry hour, Bloomin' like a garden flower, Life has, as it ought to do, Once again promoted you.

Folks the word can't always find For to say a thing; But up yonder look behind Where the swallows sing, You'll be busy, I expect, But just try to recollect Me—no special reason why—Just remember. Well, good-by.

ONE authority says that Moody is derived from a personal name Muthe, while another authority assures us that Moody is an adjective nickname from the word which now means morose, but which at the time that it was first used as a name had the older meaning of valiant. Muddiman is akin

Mother's Cook Book

Mary had a little lamb With fleece as white as snow; The rest of all the tragedy Perhaps you may not know. It followed her to school one day, According to the book; Alas! the school where Mary went, They taught her how to cook.

SEASONABLE FOODS

FOR a luncheon or dinner dish the following will be enjoyed: Browned Pressed Veal. Cook three and one-half pounds of veal and one-half pound of lean pork until the meat falls from the bones. Season and reduce the liquor to three-quarters of a pint. Pour this over the meat and mix thoroughly, then pack in a pan. When cold, slice, dip in egg and crumbs and brown in butter.

Banana Fluff. Cut seven bananas into slices, sprinkle them with lemon juice and shredded coconut; let stand an hour on ice. Put the fruit through a fruit press and add one cupful, lacking a tablespoonful, of powdered sugar. Fold into the mixture the stiffly beaten whites of four eggs and turn into a freezer; turn until it begins to turn hard, then add a pint of cream that has been whipped until stiff.

Curried Bananas. Put a cupful of desiccated coconut into a dish with a cupful of milk; if the fresh coconut is used add its own milk, if enough. Peel and slice a half-dozen bananas and put them with two tablespoonfuls of butter in which a tablespoonful of curry has been heated; brown lightly. Add a teaspoonful of the essence of anchovies, a teaspoonful of Worcestershire sauce, one-half teaspoonful of salt, a dash of cayenne and, last of all, the coconut and milk. Simmer for fifteen minutes, then stir in a well-beaten egg. Serve in a well of freshly boiled rice.

Mr. Lysander John Appleton Mrs. Lysander John Appleton Miss Daysey Mayme Appleton Master Chesney Devere Appleton

MRS. LYSANDER JOHN APPLETON, recently visited Grant's tomb. She gave a passing glance at it, and then said: "What a pity to waste all this fine grass when it would keep a cow."

When Lysander John Appleton gets cross his wife gets no sympathy from Daysey Mayme. "You married him," she will remind her mother. "Whatever made you marry a man like that?" Then Mrs. Appleton replies in a low mumble, and Lysander John knows she is apologizing to her children because she didn't marry a prince, or a duke, or at least a banker.

Daysey Mayme Appleton, though a devout member of church, can't resist the desire to be revenged if some one offends her. A girl recently stole her beau, and Daysey Mayme got a sweet revenge. She cut up a loaf of baker's bread into thin slices, put ham between, and tied them with baby blue ribbon. Then she made some lemonade, and invited 12 girls in to spend the afternoon, and left the Hated One out. Oh, it was sweet when she passed the ham sandwiches tied with baby blue ribbon, and watered the lemonade a little more, to reflect on what her rival was missing. "She will be sorry," said Daysey Mayme, when she returned to the kitchen with an empty plate, "when she finds out what she has missed."

Altogether Different A lawyer was examining a witness whom he had reason to suspect of deliberate perjury. At length, becoming impatient, he asked, very impressively: "Do you know the nature of an oath?" "I do." "Are you aware that you are commanded in the Bible not to bear false witness against your neighbor?" "I am; but I'm not bearin' false witness agin him. I'm bearin' false witness for him."

Must Discard Clothing Europeans and Americans who want to travel or study in the tropics must get over the bashfulness of going without clothes, according to Prof. F. F. Pyson of Berhampur, Bengal. The tropics will never be colonized by Americans or Europeans until they decide to live with the native dress. Clothing, he maintains, interferes with the natural regulating action of the skin and makes it impossible for the northerners to stand the climate.

Hammer Drives Screws Hammer-driven screws are the latest time-savers for work in hard metal and composition materials. A hole of the correct size is drilled in the material. Into this the top of the new type screw is inserted. As it is hammered, the screw cuts and twists into the material. The extreme hardness of the screw and the angle of its threads make it turn as it is driven.—Popular Science Monthly.

Weak After the Grip? Lancaster, Pa.—"I was quite sick following an attack of the Grippe. It had left me so weak that I had no ambition or strength to attend to my duties at home. I had lost flesh, weighing 18 lbs. less than before. My doctor changed my medicine quite often but it brought no satisfactory results. It was then that I heard of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery as a blood tonic, and before I had taken it a week felt an improvement, and before I had finished the second bottle all symptoms of weakness had gone and I felt absolutely well."—Mrs. Mary Killian, 514 N. We want you to make this test

WE want every weak, puny, fagged-out man and woman in America to make this test: buy one bottle of Tanlac at your druggist's, take it according to directions for one week and see how quickly you get started back to full strength and vigor.

We know what we are talking about. Tanlac has helped millions. In our files are more than 100,000 letters of praise from grateful users.

Don't confuse Tanlac with ordinary patent nostrums. It is Nature's own tonic and builder, compounded from roots, barks and herbs that we gather at great expense from the four corners of the earth.

Tanlac goes straight to the seat of your trouble; cleanses and purifies the blood stream; puts your digestion in proper shape. First thing you know you have an appetite like a starved child. You rest at night and your whole body begins to feel the stir of strength and energy.

Don't be discouraged. Don't put off testing Tanlac—TAKE TANLAC VEGETABLE PILLS FOR CONSTIPATION
