LOCAL AND PERSONAL

After being in Florida since the early part of the year, Rev. W. R. Picken is expected at his home here next week. He expects to attend the sessions of the Methodist conference before leaving for his home.

C. S. Thomas, who spent the past three months in touring the United States, is home again. He was as far south as Florida, crossed over into Mexico and California, going as far north as San Francisco, from which point he came direct home.

L. Ray Morgan, of Homestead, made a trip to Philipsburg, his former home, and from there to Centre Hall, arriving here Saturday. He returned home Monday morning. He has long been employed in the Homestead mills.

Mrs. Paul Swabb, of Spring Mills, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Odenkirk, in Centre Hall, Saturday and Sunday. The latter part of the week the Misses Odenkirk entertained Misses Ruth Swabb and Rebecca and Barbara Robinson, all of Spring Mills.

Enclosing his check for renewal to the Reporter, Carl H. Bohn of Akron, Ohio, writes these few lines of interest: "Business isn't very rushing at this time of the year, but there are good prospects for this summer, especially on dwelling houses, as real estate is going up."

Aside from the proposed new Reformed parsonage to be built the coming summer, one or two other dwelling houses are pretty certain to be erected, and were it possible to secure lots on the main street at what from the view of prospective builders call reasonable, there would be a veritable building boom here, considering the high cost of building material and manual labor.

Mail carrier W. F. Keller, on route one from the Centre Hall post office, one day last week was completely moored in the mud on the north side of Michael Delaney's. The car was axle deep in the mud and would have gone deeper had it not been held up by the frame work of the car. A team of horses pulled the car to more solid ground.

Capt. George M. Boal, on St. Patrick's Day, attained his 86th year. Although he has not been about the old haunts as much during the past few months as heretofore, he is enjoying life just the same. He is one of the few Civil War veterans in Centre Hall, leading the others in age. He is in good spirits and appreciates a good joke, a good cigar, and the good appetite he has long enjoyed. He received many felicitations from friends far and near.

Wedded at Lutheran Parsonage.

At the Lutheran parsonage, Centre Hall, on February 23, Roy W. Whitman, of Yeagertown, and Miss Frances E. Wagner, of Lewistown, were united in marriage by Rev. S. F. Greenhoe.

DEATHS.

BRUNGART—After an illness of two weeks from atheroma of the heart and blood vessels, Mrs. R. Emerline Brungart died at her home in Rebersburg, Thursday morning of last week. Interment was made at that place on Monday, Rev. W. A. McClellan, pastor of the Reformed church of which denomination the deceased was a member since her youth, officiating.

Mrs. Brungart was a daughter of Henry and Rachael Corman and was born in Miles township, where she lived all her life. Her husband, Thomas F. Brungart, died a little over fifteen years ago. There survive the deceased these children: Mrs. Albert I. Doerr, of North Springfield; S. Cleveland Brungart, Centre Hall; Clea V., Rebersburg; Tacie H., Philadelphia; Mrs. Elda R. Musser, Rebersburg; also, five grandchildren. Ella J. Corman, of Millheim, is a sister of the deceased, being the only surviving member of the Corman family.

Mrs. Brungart was aged seventy-five years, two months, nineteen days.

SWARTZ—Mrs. Caroline Swartz died at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Isaac Beem, in Pottsville, at the age of about ninety years. She was the mother of Mrs. J. Fred Kurtz, of Lewisburg, and visited at the Kurtz home and that of Mrs. Isaac Smith, in Centre Hall, a number of times during her latter years.

MUSSER—Mary Jane Musser, (nee Homan), widow of Jacob Musser, of Haines township, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Cleve Musser, at Coburn, of tuberculosis, aged seventy years, 7 months and 27 days.

Deceased was a member of the Lutheran church for many years, was a good mother and kind neighbor. She is survived by five children—William and Mrs. George Stover, both of Penn township; John, of Burnham; Mrs. John Fultz, of Rockview, and Mrs. Cleve Musser, of Coburn; also by two brothers and two sisters—William Homan, of State College; Robert Homan, of Zion; Mrs. J. J. Feidler, of Aaronsburg; and Mrs. John Musser, of Loganton; besides fourteen grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Interment was made in Fairview cemetery, Millheim.

YEARICK—Israel Yearick, one of the oldest and most highly respected farmers of Nittany valley, passed away at his home at Nittany, aged 86 years, 11 months and 15 days. He was stricken with paralysis the day before his death and never regained consciousness. Deceased was born in Brush Valley, a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Yearick, but had farmed in Nittany Valley for more than 50 years. He was united in marriage in 1863 to Miss Catharine Wolfe, also of Brush Valley, who survives with the following children: Noah, of Mackeyville; Edwin L., of Nittany; Harry, of Lock Haven; Boyd E., of Howard; Mrs. Robert Kramer, of Fillington; Mrs. Michael C. Delaney, of Centre Hall; and Margaret J., at home. One brother, Benjamin, of Zion, and one sister, Mrs. Samuel Gettig, of Madisonburg, also survive. Funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the late home and continued at the Disciple Church at Nittany. Interment in St. Paul's cemetery at Clintondale.

Valuable Horse Badly Injured.

A fine large dark gray horse, owned by Harry Wolfe, who resides on the Bartee farm, east of Centre Hall, was severely injured in a peculiar manner, Monday, at noon. Mr. Wolfe was using his team to stock the saw mill at Blue Ball, and at dinner time unhitched his team and let them go to the stable. The one animal, in approaching the water trough, stepped onto high ground and in so doing struck a truss rod, which was projecting from a timber overhead. The rod penetrated the animal's head for a depth of two inches or more, making a hole nearly two inches in diameter. The horse reeled, but managed to keep its feet. A veterinarian was called but he could do little for the noble beast. Mr. Wolfe states that after twenty-four hours the horse seemed no better, nor in fact any worse, but fears the chances for its recovery are very slim, because of the location of the wound.

Entertained School Pupils.

Mrs. B. G. Grove served dinner to the senior class and faculty of the Gregg Township Vocational School on Tuesday evening of St. Patrick's day. Her nephew, James H. Brungart, is the president of this class. After dinner was served, entertainment appropriate for the occasion was given by the host. After a late hour all departed for their homes, reporting having had a joyous time. Those present were: P. B. Bennett, J. B. Park, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Dale, Miss Mildred Wieland, Miss Anabel Zimmerman, Miss Emma Watts, Marian Auman, Mary Corman, Orle Wagner, Doretha Bolry, Agnes Zettie, Mary Long, Violet Hagan, Walter Herring, Harold Brungart, Thomas Hosterman, James H. Brungart, Sara Brungart, Anne Oster, Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Grove.

AUMAN—BOAL.

On Tuesday evening, St. Patrick's birthday was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Heckman, Centre Hall, by a wedding. The contracting parties were Miss Elsie R. Boal, sister of Mrs. Heckman, and Thomas A. Auman, of Rebersburg. The wedding took place at 7 o'clock, followed by a dainty luncheon and two serenading groups, after which the bridal couple drove to their home in Rebersburg. Mr. Auman is a teacher of the school at Rebersburg.

The wedding ceremony came at the close of the song "O Promise Me," sung by Miss Elizabeth Spencer, Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick pronounced them one.

Those present were: Rev. and Mrs. Russell Auman, Harold Auman and friend, Miss Martha Foote, Daniel Daup Sr., Daniel Daup, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. and Jack Kirkpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Confer and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Heckman, and Miss Martha Boal.

Carl has again opened his ice cream parlor for the season. adv
