Penn State, in addition to its regular appropriation, was allowed $6000 for tobacco growing experiments. Miss Jennie Foreman returned to State College after a brief visit with her sister, Mrs. L. L. Smith, in Centre Hall. The Spitzer stone quarry is furnishing some of the lime stone chips for the road between Old Fort and Spring Mills. The exterior of the Benner store building is being repainted by John M. Cordon and helper, John Whitman. Roy Miller was brought from the Lewisburg hospital to his home at Colyer, on Tuesday, by his sons, Elmer and Kyder. Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Morrow and children are located in their new home at Centre Hall, where the doctor is practicing his profession. The young people's branch of the W. C. T. U. held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. F. V. Goodhart, on Monday evening. William E. Tate takes this method of thanking his neighbors and friends for the valuable assistance rendered during the last illness of Mrs. Tate and again at her funeral. Mrs. A. R. Burkholder and daughter, Miss Margaret, of Flemington, N. J., arrived at the home of Mrs. Burkholder's mother, Mrs. Margaret Stogham on Monday, for a short visit. Harold H. Keller and Kryder Miller, Franklin and Marshall students, returned to Lancaster in the Keller car on Tuesday to resume their studies after the Easter vacation. Prof. L. O. Packer, on Monday, returned to Pittsburgh to take up his work in the Oliver High school. While here he was as busy as a bee getting his garden in condition for planting. Joseph Mansfield and Leon Tomcavage broke out of the Lewisburg jail, on Sunday, by breaking a lock with an iron bar. They are notorious characters and were held for shooting up a hole camp near West Milton. Rankin Weaver and wife, of Pleasant Gap, were recently taken before a Bellefonte justice of the peace on the charge of being a common nuisance. Weaver is a lazy whelp and refuses to work, and his wife is no better. Joseph M. Carson, of Potters Mills, was one of the Reporter's callers on Saturday. For more than a year he has been working for Contractor W. S. Williams, and now is helping to construct the Williams house in Centre Hall. Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Emery, Miss Alice Emery, and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Smith drove from Centre Hall to Altoona on Sunday to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Foss, whose baby daughter was the chief attraction. Rev. and Mrs. William H. Kline, of Topton, Berks county, on their way to Brookville, on Monday, stopped with Rev. and Mrs. D. R. Keener, in Centre Hall, for a short visit. Rev. Kline is pastor of a Lutheran church in Topton. A number of minor improvements are being made to properties in town. Both the exterior and interior are receiving attention. We are pretty well painted up and cleaned up, and that is keeping up our reputation of being neat and tidy. The early morning services held in the Methodist and Lutheran churches on Easter were well attended. In the evening an appropriate Easter program was rendered in the Lutheran church, the participants having been children, except the choir. J. S. Marrow, who has charge of the cannery at Rockview, was in town on Monday in quest of a house. He has a family of a wife and four children and would make a valuable addition to the population here if he is successful in securing desirable quarters. On Friday evening the Bellefonte degree team conferred the second degree on six candidates seeking admission to the local K. G. E. Twenty-seven members of the Bellefonte lodge were present. After the conferring of the degree, refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. John C. Rossman and a friend drove from Mifflinburg to Centre Hall and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Dinges, in Centre Hall. The Rossmans have some thought of selling their home in Mifflinburg and locating to Williamsport, where they own several properties. Misses Mary and Ruth Bingham and Messrs. George Rimmer, of Pleasant Gap, and Rossman Wert, of Tusseyville, were an auto party to drive to New Kingstown, where they spent the time with Rev. and Mrs. J. P. Bingham, parents of the ladies. They left here Saturday evening, returning on Sunday. We are all mighty glad that we will soon see a "detour" poster on the diamond, not that we are so anxious to drive twenty miles to reach Bellefonte, but because the sooner we begin detouring the sooner we will have a completed pavement over Old Nittany Mountain, and that is something worthwhile. Monday and Tuesday, while Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick attended Presbytery at State College, his place as teacher in the Potters Mills grammar grade was filled by Edgar Miller, assistant cashier in the First National bank, and the place in the bank by Mrs. Harry W. Potter, who was the first assistant in that institution. Monday evening was a birthday anniversary of Mrs. Cagle Geary, who makes her home with her niece, Mrs. Alice Durst, in Centre Hall. The members of the ladies' Bible class in the Reformed Sunday-school made the occasion a delightful one, by presenting her with a basket of flowers and expressing their good wishes.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Robert Meyer, a P. R. R. employee, of Altoona, was in town on Tuesday. The agents along the branch were called to Sunbury on Wednesday to meet P. R. R. officials. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Heim, of Harrisburg, visited the former's sister, Mrs. W. F. Colyer, and family, over Easter. A regular meeting of the local W. C. T. U. will be held Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. V. Goodhart. Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick and elder J. T. Potter attended the Huntingdon Presbytery meeting held at State College Monday and Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Lambert, who were in Florida since December, arrived in Centre Hall on Tuesday, and opened their home. "The Mouse Trap" is the title of a play to be given by the junior class of the Gregg Township Vocational school, Friday evening. The admission is 20 and 30 cents. Rev. J. M. Rearick, of Mifflintown, on his return from State College, stopped in Centre Hall for a short time on Tuesday. He took his son, Luther, a Penn State freshman, to that institution. Mrs. Elizabeth Mitterling, who had been in Baltimore, Md., for some time, returned to her home here on Saturday. Her daughter, Miss Carrie, accompanied her mother home, but returned to Baltimore on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Auman and children drove from their home at Youngstown, Ohio, to Centre Hall on Saturday and since have been at the home of Mrs. Auman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Shick. They will return home the latter part of this week. BOALSBURG. On Sunday, Mrs. George E. Meyer entertained Calvin Meyer and Miss Abbie Barger, of State College, and Curtis Meyer and family of the Branch and Nevin Meyer and family, of Boalsburg, to dinner. The table was decorated to correspond to the day. Sunday evening the Reformed Sunday school celebrated the Easter season by giving an Easter entertainment in the church. The name of the service was "All-hail the power." The service was well rendered, and a large audience gave good attention to it. Sunday morning, Rev. Wm. Wagner held Communion in the Lutheran church. The members came out in goodly number. Friday the public schools planted trees. On Monday evening fourteen members of the Bear Meadow Commandery, No. 16, Knights of Malta, motored to Williamsport to attend the Red Cross Council given there by Mt. Olivet Commandery. Five of the members took the degree. William Klinger's two children are suffering with chicken-pox. A. R. Lee is having his house painted outside. A. C. Smith of Linden Hall is the painter. Miss Blanche Rowe spent the Easter vacation at her home. Since Easter has past the trees are sending forth their leaves and buds, making us feel that spring is fast on its way. Rev. W. W. Meyer will hold Communion services in the Reformed church next Sunday morning at 10:30; preparatory services Friday evening at 8 o'clock. PINE GROVE MILLS. Some of our farmers are through sowing oats and barley. Contractor Charles Louck is breaking ground for a new residence on west Main street. Mrs. G. W. Rossman is spending a week visiting with friends at Gatesburg. Mr. and Mrs. Russell Port were Rock Spring visitors the late end of the week. Mrs. George A. Reed and children are spending a month with her parents at the Tressler home at Linden Hall. The Baileyville dramatic club installed anew piano in the Baileyville Presbyterian church last week. Merchant Ed. Martz has been confined to his rooms with grippe and tonsillitis. The Stork for the fourth time visited the J. F. Rossman home Sunday and left a chubby little boy. The Presbyterian parsonage will be offered at public sale on Saturday. It is an 8-room house located on Main and corner of Church street, Pine Grove Mills. Hugh Runkle is tilling the farm owned by his brother, W. G. Runkle, in Ferguson township. Rev. P. E. Norris is conducting evangelistic meetings in the M.E. church and much interest is being shown. The Goodling-Aikens sale was the last in this section and was largely attended. Team of horses was handed down at the $620 mark; the high cow brought $140. The sale totaled $5000. W. W. Meyer will tenant the place and will occupy the Frank Wienand residence nearby. The many friends of Mrs. Frank Krumrine will be glad to hear of her recovery from a serious surgical operation in the Centre County hospital. Mrs. P. D. Foster is ill at the home of her son, Harold Foster, in Chicago, where she was visiting. Last Wednesday forest fires started near Maringo. The woodlands were swept by a high wind, carrying sparks for miles, requiring an army of fire fighters all along the path. Flying embers fired the Clyde Beck barn, better known as the Cal. Beck place, at Centre Line, leveling it to the ground. Five horses, eight cows and many young cattle, eight hogs, 30 tons of hay, 300 bushels of wheat, 400 bushels of oats, were consumed. There was some insurance. Wm. Siegel lost a pile of lumber and railroad and mine ties.

WE ARE DAIRYMEN, TOO. We're in the Dairy business, too, as truly as the dairymen we serve. We sell feed to produce milk. The more milk our customers get, the more economically they get it; the more profit they make, the more of their business we will get. That is why we carry in stock only goods of high quality, Dairy Feed that we know can recommend, can depend upon to produce results. You can rely on us to protect our customers from cheap, inferior, unreliable goods. It is not real economy to buy them; we can't afford to sell them. After all, the only way to make our business profitable is to make yours profitable first. BRADFORD & CO.

DODGE BROTHERS BUSINESS CAR Large Increase In Dodge Brothers Sales Dodge Brothers' remarkable increase in production and sales continues without interruption, an official statement from the factory discloses. Actual retail deliveries by dealers during February were within a few cars of 15,000, which is an increase of 23.1 per cent over deliveries in February, 1924. Every week in February showed a material increase over the preceding week and the first week in March likewise exceeded the last week of February. While dealers' stocks are exceptionally low, the factory is turning out cars in such volume that it is hoped to meet practically the entire current demand. Production for the first week of March was over 1900 cars a day. Dodge Brothers sales for 1924 increased more than 25 per cent over 1923, in the face of an 11 per cent decline in the industry as a whole. These facts, considered with the present continuing increase, bespeak a most gratifying condition and Dodge Brothers are naturally optimistic. Hosterman's Garage CENTRE HALL
