

THE CENTRE REPORTER

THURSDAY, JUNE 25, 1925.

REBERSBURG.

Some of our farmers have commenced to make their clover hay. The hay crop in this vicinity will not be as good as was anticipated in the forepart of the season.

John Waite, of Beaver Falls, is at this place at the home of his brother, Frank, who is suffering from a paralytic stroke and who is in a critical condition.

D. D. Royer had a large porch built to the front of his dwelling house.

At present we are greatly in need of a good soaking rain. The oats on the ridges is drying up; potatoes and other vegetables are suffering the same fate.

Samuel Gephart had a fresh coat of paint applied on his dwelling house as well as on his store building.

Mrs. Marshall Hall, of Williamsport, is at present visiting relatives and old acquaintances in this burg.

A 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Day died on Saturday afternoon of dropsy. Burial was made in the Evangelical cemetery at this place.

James P. Frank, an aged and respected citizen of this place, is at present on the sick list.

George Brachbill has closed his home and is spending some time in the western part of the state.

SPRING MILLS

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sharer, Jr., on June 18th.

Ralph Bartges, of Muncy; Mrs. Charles Daley, of Clearfield county; Franklin Rachau and Charles Bartges, of Bellefonte, attended the funeral of Harvey Rachau, on Sunday.

Mary Corman and Ora Wagner went to Lock Haven Normal on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Rote and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Royer were among those who attended a picnic in Union county on Saturday.

Quite a number attended the Walter Main circus at Bellefonte, on Saturday. Mrs. Swab had a merry party of little girls to a birthday party for her daughter Isabelle on Monday evening.

The funeral of Harvey Rachau on Sunday was attended by a large number of neighbors and friends. Mr. Rachau was a kind neighbor and a staunch friend. He will be missed very much by his family and friends.

Mrs. Ruth Wilkinson is spending some time in Altoona.

GEORGES VALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. Weber Confer are the proud parents of a baby girl, Irene Margaret.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Aukerman, of Johnstown, are visiting the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Aukerman.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sipe, Mrs. A. E. Harris, Miss Mabel Shore and W. P. Sipe, all of Burnham, were visitors at the J. T. H. Foust home on Sunday.

E. D. Foust had the misfortune to cut his foot, one day last week, while working at the Lloyd Smith barn, which will require his laying off work for some time.

The farmers have started making hay. The crop will be a good one in our valley.

POTTERS MILLS.

Mrs. John Wolf, who lives with her daughter, Mrs. John Blausser, is seriously ill.

Miss Vesta Blausser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Blausser, is attending State Normal at Shippensburg.

George Sweeney, one of Potter township's school teachers, is a student at Lock Haven Normal, as are also Miss Martha Yearick and Miss Mildred Duck.

Former Snyder County Sheriff Dead

Funeral services were held from his late home in Penn Creek, Snyder county, for David Reichley, ex-sheriff of Snyder county, and one of the few remaining Civil War veterans, whose death occurred after a week's illness with pneumonia.

Mr. Reichley, one of the oldest residents of the section, was aged 87 years, and was one of the best known men of the county. He was a man of high ideals, trustworthy and respected by all who knew him.

He is survived by his widow, one son, O. W. Reichley, and two daughters, Mrs. Harry F. Stuck and Miss Kate Reichley, of Middleburg.

MILLHEIM.

(From the Journal.)

Mrs. W. H. Shively, of near Woodward, returned Saturday from a month's visit with her son, M. O. Yearick, at Plainfield, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Johnson and two children, of Catawissa, former residents of Millheim, were motor visitors here for several hours Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Musser and twin daughters, of Northumberland, were guests of Mr. Musser's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Musser, during the week.

Mrs. Margaret Musser and her daughter, Mrs. Margaret White and son, Henry, have arrived at their home in Millheim, after spending the winter in New York City.

Mrs. S. J. Chetel and two daughters, Frances and Lois, of Indiana, are visitors at the home of Mrs. Chetel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Kessler, on North street.

Samuel Kessler, the third of A. Kessler's sons to graduate from Penn State, returned to his home here last week upon completion of the commerce and finance course and receiving the A. B. degree.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Cole and young son, of Lebanon, were motor visitors with Millheim relatives a few hours Sunday. They were accompanied by Mrs. S. A. Cole on the return trip, the latter expecting to make a brief visit with them.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Stover, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hettinger, Mrs. Arthur Bradley, Mrs. Amanda Weaver, R. M. Clare, W. D. Hopple, and undertakers Rohm & Mauk, all of Altoona, accompanied the remains of Mrs. Rachel Stover from Altoona to Wolfes Chapel.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

For Judge of Courts of Centre County

I hereby announce my candidacy for the office of Judge of the Courts of Centre county, subject to the decision of the Democratic voters as expressed at the primary election to be held in 1925. Your vote, influence and whole-hearted support is most earnestly and respectfully solicited. In the event of my nomination, and finally my election in November, I solemnly pledge a courteous, prompt, honest and efficient administration.—W. HARRISON WALKER, Bellefonte, Pa.

For Judge of Courts of Centre County

I am a candidate for President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, subject to the decision of the Democratic voters at the primaries, Tuesday, September 15th. Should I be nominated and elected, I will bring to the office an experience in the trial of causes, and in the general practice of law in our local and appellate courts, of more than thirty-three years; and an administration conducted with fidelity, economy and to the best of my ability. Your support and influence in my behalf will be much appreciated. NEWTON B. SPANGLER.

For Judge of Courts of Centre County

As a candidate I respectfully announce: That if it be the pleasure of the Democratic women and men voters of our county to nominate me for the Office of Judge of our Courts at the September 15, 1925, Primaries, I shall appreciate it highly.

And if it be the will of our voters to elect me to said Office at the general election, I shall consider it as a call of duty to serve all of our citizens in a practical, impartial, just and economic manner without fear or favor; and shall maintain our laws by example, as well as by precept, governed by no uncertain principles which our sincerely patriotic citizens demand from all public officials.

I sincerely trust that I may have FOUR hearty cooperation. J. KENNEDY JOHNSTON.

For Judge of Courts of Centre County

I am a candidate for Judge of the Courts of Centre County on the Republican, Democratic and Prohibition tickets.

The men and women of this county shall say who will preside over the Courts of the 49th Judicial District.

I stand for the enforcement of the Law.

Section 2 of Article 6 of the Constitution of the United States provides as follows:

"This Constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof, shall be the SUPREME law of the land and the Judges in every State SHALL BE BOUND THEREBY."

Article 7 Section 1 of the Constitution of Pennsylvania provides as follows:

All judicial officers shall take and subscribe the following oath: "I do solemnly swear that I will support, obey and defend the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of this Commonwealth, and that I will discharge the duties of my office with fidelity."

In announcing my candidacy I say to you, men and women of Centre County, "You are my judge, if you believe in my honesty, integrity and ability, vote for me for Judge of the Courts of Centre County."

Cordially and sincerely yours, ARTHUR C. DALE.

For Jury Commissioner.

We are authorized to announce that James C. Condo, of Gregg township, is a candidate for nomination for Jury Commissioner on the Democratic ticket, subject to the primaries of the party to be held Tuesday, Sept. 15th. Mr. Condo will appreciate your support and assures faithful and honorable service should he be nominated and elected to that office.
