

AWAIT DECISION ON AMENDMENTS.

Publication of 16 Proposed Amendments to State Constitution Depends on Ruling of Supreme Court

Publication this year of sixteen proposed amendments to the State Constitution will depend upon the decision of the Pennsylvania supreme court in the proposed soldiers' bonus amendment case.

The case involving the bonus amendment was taken to the high court when the Dauphin county court held that, as the constitution had been amended in 1923, submission this year would violate that section which prohibits amendments from being submitted oftener than once in five years.

Six of the proposed amendments, not including the soldiers' bonus, have passed two successive legislatures and would be ready for submission to the voter at the fall election.

Of the sixteen amendments, seven, if submitted and approved, would permit issuance of $273,000,000 in State bonds. This sum would include $100,000,000 for construction of State office buildings, a memorial bridge at the Capitol and for capital investments at State institutions; $50,000,000 for erection of buildings for penal offenders, delinquents and mental defectives; $35,000,000 for payment of a soldiers' bonus; $25,000,000 for reforestation; $3,000,000 for construction of buildings and equipments at Pennsylvania State College, and $5,000,000 for construction of armories.

The other proposed amendments would permit the State to do its own printing, permit classification and exemptions in the collection of inheritance taxes, permit the court of quarter sessions to make changes in boundaries of election districts, authorize the city of Pittsburgh to levy assessments against properties peculiarly benefited by public improvements, authorize appropriations to aged indigent residents of the State, permit Philadelphia to increase its debt to 14 per cent of its assessed taxable realty, permit the legislature to grant exemptions or rebates to citizens or estates of other States granting similar privileges, permit Allegheny county to levy district assessments against property benefited by public improvements and fix the debt limit of Pittsburgh and Scranton at ten per cent of the assessed value of the taxable property.

Since the foregoing was put in type, the State Supreme court decided that the soldiers' bonus constitutional amendment can not be submitted to the people until 1928.

The decision affirmed the action of the Dauphin county court, which held that as the constitution had been amended in 1923, submission this year would violate that section of the State constitution which prohibits amendments from being submitted oftener than once in five years.

Judge Sadler, in the supreme court's opinion, pointed out that the legislature could propose a constitutional amendment changing the present constitutional barrier to the submission of amendments in periods less than five years.

PLANES READY FOR NIGHT MAIL SERVICE.

New York to Chicago Service Began Wednesday Night—5,000,000 Candle Power Beacon Lights.

Everything for the opening of the night mail service between New York and Chicago was completed on Tuesday, and Wednesday night the first regular trip was scheduled. The plane west was scheduled to leave New York at 9:30, was due at Bellefonte field at 11:45 and Chicago at 5:45 a. m. this (Thursday) morning.

Special preparations to safeguard the fliers along the air mail route have been made. Mountain ranges have been studied with powerful beacons, each of 5,000,000 candle-power. One hundred and fifty such beacons are now installed.

Between New York and Cleveland, which embraces the mountainous territory of the route, are thirty-two such landing spots.

In between, on towers from thirty to fifty feet high, are routing beacons consisting of four headlights of the type used on automobiles, one adjusted to cast a beam of light half a degree above the horizon, one at one degree, another at a degree and a half, and the fourth at two degrees.

EVERY PENNSYLVANIA COMMUNITY TO HELP ORPHANS OF VETERANS.

Former Governor Sproul, Chairman of American Legion Endowment Fund Issues Appeal for Everyone's Support This Week of Movement to Aid Disabled and Helpless Babies of Former Service Men.

WILLIAM C. SPROUL Former Governor and Chairman of the Pennsylvania State Committee of the American Legion Endowment Fund for Disabled Veterans and Orphans of Former Service Men.

This community is expected to do its part this week in the raising of Pennsylvania's share of the national $5,000,000 American Legion endowment fund which will permanently provide for the care and assistance of disabled world war veterans and provide for the care of the helpless babies of former service men.

The state has been thoroughly organized under the leadership of former Governor William C. Sproul for the intensive campaign of solicitation that began Monday. Early returns indicate that every Pennsylvanian who understands the needs and purposes of the fund has given his support to the fund.

Sproul Issues Appeal

Ex-Gov. Sproul, chairman of the state committee of the endowment fund, has issued an appeal for donations. "While the American Legion began this movement, it is not a Legion undertaking, strictly speaking," the chairman said. "Everyone who believes that the disabled veterans and the 35,000 war orphans of the country deserve a square deal, should take part in the endeavor. The task is a large one which challenges the cooperation and help of everyone."

"The establishment of this fund will mean that a permanent source of income will be available for the aid of the two classes in America who suffered the most by the war, and who are today suffering. These are the men for whom no armistice has come and the children who have been deprived of paternal care and now face disease, poverty and possible crime."

Government Cooperates

"The Legion has carried this burden without knowing from time to time how the financing could be obtained. Always working in close cooperation with government agencies, this splendid organization has helped thousands of men to obtain government compensation and hospitalization. "There remain many more thousands who need this help today, men who are beginning to break now after a few years' losing fight against disease contracted in the service of their flag. I know that this state will make a record in subscribing to the endowment fund. It will if everyone does his part."

J. Mitchell Chase, State Commander of the Legion, issued the following statement as the campaign this week opened: "No Pennsylvanian will fail to respond to this undertaking when acquainted with the needs of the endowment fund."

Means Square Deal "Before seeking subscriptions, it has been necessary to devote some time to an explanation of what the fund means. It means, above everything else a square deal for the men who gave up their health in the war, and it means a good home, an education, a mother's care for every helpless orphan of a former service man."

"Could anything be more worthy? Almost every day sees some additional state respond in full with payment of this debt of honor. It is up to Pennsylvania this week, up to you, to your community."

More emphasis is being placed now on the amount of the over-subscription to state quotas than the order in which the various states "go over the top," according to Commander Chase. Many states have had earlier starts for various reasons, and Pennsylvania's standing among the states will be determined by the amount she donates over her quota.

CHANGES IN MOTOR LAWS ANNOUNCED

Highway Department Issues List for Benefit of Army of Drivers and Owners—Made by Last Legislature

Many changes in the motor laws of Pennsylvania were made by the Legislature this year. The State Highway Department here gives a list of the principal new features of the statutes for the benefit of the 1,036,000 pleasure-car owners and the million or more persons who are authorized to drive in the State, as well as truck owners, dealers and others interested in motor vehicles.

To Get Learner's Permit.

Providing a fine of $100 to $200, or imprisonment for six months, for those who impersonate the holder of a learner's permit. In addition, if the impersonator is a licensed operator his license may be revoked.

Providing that certificates of title shall show encumbrances with name and address of the holder and that certificate of title shall be delivered to the person holding the first encumbrance, to be held until such encumbrance has been satisfied.

Against Dazzling Beam.

Providing that headlamps shall not project a dazzling beam at a greater height than forty-two inches at a distance of seventy-five feet ahead of the motor vehicle; that at no time shall the top of the main beam light be higher than the center of the headlight.

C. C. League Baseball Scores.

Ball games played in the Centre County League during the past week resulted as follows:

Thursday—Hecla Park, 3; Bellefonte, 1; Millheim, 7; State College, 6. Saturday—Bellefonte, 9; Millheim, 8. State College, 11; Hecla Park, 10.

Saturday's game at Millheim was a bitterly fought contest, which Bellefonte won in the 10th inning by the score of 9 to 8. It looked easy for Bellefonte when Millheim took their last turn at bat in the 9th with Bellefonte leading 8 to 4. However, Millheim suddenly became much alive, hitting Harshbarger freely—something unusual for Millheim. A few bingles in rapid succession tied the score, making it necessary to play an extra inning. Bellefonte was equal to the task, and scoring one in the 10th, held Millheim safe in their half of the same inning.

The surprise of the game was the mighty Musser. We doubt if he ever received a worse drubbing at the hands of a big league club. Numerous singles a 2-bagger and a home run—a total of fifteen hits—were collected by the visitors, who give evidence of having the best set of stick artists in the county league. "Tillie" Detrich led in the onslaught, and Johnson was a close second.

Beside the ninth, Millheim's other big inning was the 3rd, when they pounded Weber from the mound. Musser's home run out of the lot proved the undoing of Weber.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

Table with columns: Won, Lost, P. C. Bellefonte: 8, 2, .800. Hecla Park: 5, 5, .500. Millheim: 4, 6, .400. State College: 3, 7, .300.

New Water Plant for Spring Mills.

A water plant will be built to supply Spring Mills with fresh water from a spring on Egg Hill within a short time. Application has already been made to the State Water Commission for the necessary papers protecting the watershed, etc. The plant will be erected by Robert Hunter, of Bellefonte, from private funds. "Squire" Edward Jamison, with the view of obtaining a supply of water for domestic and industrial purposes for Spring Mills, has generously given over the large spring of pure and sparkling water on a tract of land he owns on Egg Hill, without a money consideration. This makes it possible to supply Spring Mills with water at a most reasonable rate.

Harshbarger and Glasgow Reunited.

Nearly one hundred members of the Harshbarger and Glasgow families and their friends were present at their reunion which was held at the home of James Harshbarger, at Buffalo Run, on June 21st.

Had Larynx Removed.

Mention was previously made in these columns that Dr. C. F. Smith, a native of Potter township, now practicing in Indianapolis, Indiana, was in a hospital in Indianapolis, where he underwent two operations for throat trouble. His condition became such that he was advised to be removed to the Manhattan Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Hospital, New York, where he was operated on Thursday of last week by Dr. Kenzhabing been on the operating table for three hours, during which time the larynx was entirely removed. His condition on Saturday was reported very favorable by his daughter, Mrs. Robert Peacock, who is with him at the New York hospital.

While in the Indianapolis hospital, Dr. Smith, it is charged, was neglected by the nurse, and for a long period his feet were permitted to touch a heating apparatus, resulting in what are characterized as third degree burns, which will require skin grafting.

Fire Sweeps Lumber Plant.

For the third time in as many years, fire has destroyed part of the lumbering operations of John R. Thompson, of Salona. A saw mill and two stave mills which he has been working in the lumber territory of Sugar Valley were burned Friday morning by the fire, which may have started with a spark from the boiler. Similar occurrences have burned Mr. Thompson's mills in other parts of the county.

$45,000 MILK PLANT FOR CENTRE HALL

Structure to Be of Concrete, Two Stories in Height—Location at Old Fort Spring, North of Mankler at Old Fort.

The Sheffield Farms Co., Inc., one of the largest wholesale milk concerns in the United States, recently purchased properties in Centre Hall from the Dewar Milk Products Co. and Thomas F. Delany, where they expect to construct another of their large milk stations. The site of this building will be near the Old Fort hotel, as has been previously mentioned.

The Sheffield Farms Co. has already four stations in this section of the State, which are located at Bellefonte, Jersey Shore, Howard and Coburn. William DeBrook, general superintendent of the Sheffield Farms, spent the early part of last week in Centre Hall and completed the deal. In reference to the new station, he states that it will be forty-five feet by one hundred thirty-two and will be a concrete structure of two stories. The plant will be a duplicate of the present one at Howard. They expect to handle 500 cans of milk daily, which will be brought in from the surrounding country. The cost of the structure will be in the neighborhood of $45,000. Work on the construction of the new station will begin immediately.

The Sheffield Farms Co., whose main office and plants are located in New York City, where all milk is shipped, now control in the States of New York, New Jersey, Vermont and Pennsylvania 107 stations, which send daily to the main plant 27,000 cans of milk.

The report that the Sheffield Farms Co., the Supple Co., of Philadelphia, and several other large companies are merging into one large concern was denied by Mr. DeBrook.

This new plant, besides being an asset to the town of Centre Hall, will also be of great help to the farmers of this section.
