MARRIAGE LICENSES.

William L. McFarland, Phillipsburg, Ethel E. Renaud, Allport.
Leroy T. Reifer, Pittsburgh, Mildred H. Cogson, Phillipsburg.
George Anthony, State College, Jennie Nicholas, State College.

WEDDINGS.

marriage was employed at the Viscose plant at Lewistown. Mr. Youm is a professional musician and for years has played with the Black and White orchestra of Lewistown.

BRON-SMITH.

The marriage of Miss Irene Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Smith, of Reading, and J. Harold Breen, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Breen, formerly of Centre Hall, Ala., of Reading, was solemnized at St. Matthew's Lutheran church, Reading, by the Rev. Dunlap, at 6 P. M., Tuesday. A large reception was held at the Pomeroy Country Club. There were 100 guests. Music was rendered by the Cinderella orchestra, under the leadership of Joseph Narva, well-known Reading musician. The couple received many beautiful gifts.

THREE PRISONERS CAPTURED.

Three of the five prisoners who escaped from Rockview were captured in the vicinity of Harrisburg. Two of them were taken by a constable, who threatened to fire on the third if he did not stop. The threat made him stop the vehicle and for the time made a safe getaway. He was later caught in the Enola railroad yards.

BRUNGART DESCENDANTS MEET.

A few of the descendants of Mrs. Henry Brungart, of Millheim, had a gathering at the home of Allen Brungart, at Rebersburg, on Sunday evening. Another son, John Brungart, and his wife, and the following children were present: Roy, Clara, Merle, Irene, Hazel, from Patton. Others present were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brungart, Catharine, Beatrice and two babies, from Rebersburg; Mrs. Randall Hosterman and her three children, Eugene, Richard and Ardell, from Millheim; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Brungart, from Centre Hall, and daughter Florence; James Brungart, Mary Brungart, Spring Mills; Mrs. Henry Brungart, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Brungart, Alma, Louis, Kenneth, Palmer and Albert Brungart.

DEFEATED LEMONT, 5-3.

The Centre Hall baseball club played a real brand of ball Saturday afternoon, on Grange Park, defeating the strong Lemont team by a score of 5 to 3. The Lemont lads have been cleaning up practically all comers this season, hence the local victory was one to crow about. Frank Gross pitched a nice game for the locals, and was given fine support, especially by the infielders.
