SPRING MILLS

Mrs. Florence Reareck of New York City, spent Saturday with her brother, Charles Krage. Theodore Wagner and wife, of Pittsburgh, were visitors at the J. A. Wagner home. Mrs. Beatrice Davis, of Utica, N. Y., accompanied by her father and mother-in-law, attended the funeral of her father, Ammon Decker, on Saturday. The band gave an open-air concert on the school grounds on Sunday evening. It was appreciated by a large crowd. They will hold a festival on Saturday evening. Quite a number attended the band concert at Hasty John's on Sunday. Mrs. Herman and children, of Reno, were visitors at the Randall Heckman home over Sunday. Dr. H. S. Braucht took Mr. Fred Auman, of Potters Mills, to the Geisinger hospital on Monday. A large number of relatives, friends and neighbors attended the funeral of Ammon Decker, on Saturday.

POTTERS MILLS.

Those on the sick list are Miss Elsie Sweetwood, Sarah and Esther Ernest, Miss Helen Palmer and Mrs. Henry Foust. Clayton Auman and family motored from South Dakota to the home of Fred Auman. Joseph Carson and Elaine Palmer spent Sunday at Jersey Shore. Edward Evans and family, of Pittsburgh, spent a short time at this place. Mr. and Mrs. Larran and family, of Pittsburgh, and Mrs. Nancy Royer, of Altoona, visited at the McCormick home. Those who attended the funeral of Mrs. Zimmerman, in Bellefonte, were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Foust, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Palmer. Mrs. C. S. Thomas motored from California, arriving here on the "Fourth." Wheat harvesting began in real earnest beginning of this week. On many farms grain fields were "opened" last week but little grain was cut. In the eastern section of the valley, as well as to the west of here, harvesting was well on last week. We are on the summit here, and all seasons are a few days later than sections east and west. There are many fields of grain that bid to yield abundantly. A civil service examination was conducted in the local high school building, on Saturday, for the position of initial postoffice clerk in Centre Hall postoffice. The examination was taken by three young men, the examination having been for males exclusively. Morton Smith, assistant postmaster at Bellefonte, had charge of the examination.

CUSTOMER PAYS FOR SO-CALLED FREE SERVICE

Dodge Dealer Says Owners Readily Understand Fair Charges. There is a certain magnetism in the word "free," and a natural human gravitation in the direction of anything that appears to be free, but in spite of this it is not difficult to convince the average automobile buyer that paid service is usually preferable to so-called "free" service, according to Walter R. Hosterman, local Dodge Brothers Dealer. "Doubtless we are helped materially," he added, "by the fact that Dodge Brothers have publicly announced repeatedly that they do not believe in so-called 'free' service. It is not simply a local policy of our own, but a principle laid down by headquarters and adhered to, I believe, by every dealer in the United States. The public has learned that Dodge Brothers conduct their business along sound lines and that anything they do benefits the purchaser as much as it does the factory. "Consequently the man who seems inclined to talk about 'free' service usually begins by saying that there must be some good reason for not giving 'free' service, or Dodge Brothers would not take such a definite stand against it. "Whereupon it becomes a simple matter for us to explain how Dodge Brothers assumed that when a man set out to buy a car he was interested primarily in getting a good car, the most car in fact that he could get for a given sum. What might be thrown in with the car in the way of 'free' accessories and 'free' service was of secondary consideration. In fact, these items were of such absurdly minor consequence, compared with the chief objective—that of getting a car that represented real dollar-for-dollar value—that they deserved no consideration whatever. "Having come to this conclusion, Dodge Brothers determined to base the price of their cars wholly on actual value, with a fair profit to themselves and dealers. To enable them to 'give away' accessories and 'free' service, it would be necessary to make the margin of profit on the car large enough to absorb these extra costs. That could be done only by raising the list price of the car—and this they refused to do. "So, under Dodge Brothers policy, the buyer pays ONLY for his car. "Under the so-called 'free' service policy, every owner pays a maintenance fee for the upkeep of every other owner's car—and he pays this fee in advance. "Under Dodge Brothers policy, the owner is not so penalized. He pays a fair, pre-determined price for service, but he pays only as he needs it—and he pays only for his own. "The logic of the proposition is perfectly plain. That is why most people have no difficulty in understanding why 'free' service is not as 'free' as it looks, and that our charges are entirely reasonable and wholly justified by the principles under which the car was sold." adv.

Have You Ever Thought of Money In Terms of Seed? It is an interesting speculation. When you plant a grain of corn in the ground you get a number of ears and each ear has hundreds of grains. Through nature, it has multiplied itself many times within a short period of time. Now that grain of corn is not a great deal different from your dollars. If you plant your dollars in investments, your dollars are going to multiply just exactly as does the grain of corn.
