DEATHS.

BRADFORD.—Mrs. Sarah C. Bradford, widow of J. Perry Bradford, died at her home in Ferguson valley, Millfin county, aged 70 years, 4 months and 29 days. She was a sufferer for more than a year with a complication of diseases, the last few weeks of her life being filled with much pain while she was confined to her bed.

Her maiden name was Miss Sarah C. Prettyleaf, a daughter of the late William and Elizabeth Prettyleaf, of Lewistown.

On June 16, 1876, she was married by Rev. George Gray to J. Perry Bradford, whose death occurred March 24, 1916. Her husband was superintendent of the Ellen Chapel Sunday school for years. Mrs. Bradford leaves three sons and one daughter—William D. H. Herbert and John F. Bradford, and Mrs. J. C. (Verna K.) Laughlin, all of Ferguson valley, and seven grandchildren. These brothers and sisters also survive the deceased: J. C. Prettyleaf, Sr., Mrs. J. B. Dunn, Mrs. Mollie E. Lyter, and Mrs. Ruth Russler, all of Lewistown.

The funeral was attended by Mr. and Mrs. W. Frank Bradford, Mrs. George W. Bradford, Mrs. C. E. Bradford, and William Bradford, of Centre Hall. The deceased was an aunt of the former.

LOSE.—C. C. Lose, a former resident of Miles township, died recently at his home at Bucyrus, Ohio, after an illness of several months of a complication of diseases arising from kidney trouble, aged about 70 years.

Mr. Lose, a son of Samuel and Elizabeth Brickley Lose, both deceased, and nephew of the late Dennis Lose, of Millheim, was born in Rebersburg, where, upon growing to manhood, he was engaged in the lumber business. About twenty-eight years ago he moved to Ohio, where he has since resided and where for a number of years he was a bookkeeper for the Farmers Exchange of Bucyrus, O.

Surviving him are his wife and the following sisters: Mrs. T. M. Gramley, of Spring Mills; Mrs. C. O. Mallory, of Rebersburg; and Mrs. Charles T. Gramley, of Kaneville, Ill.

Funeral services were held from his late home and interment made in the cemetery at Bucyrus.

HASTINGS.—Frank Hastings, president of the Second National bank, of Altoona, died very suddenly at his home at Ant Hills, death being caused by dilation of the heart. Mr. Hastings was one of the most influential men in that section of the state. Surviving are his wife, Florence Ebert Hastings, two daughters, Misses Catharine and Florence, of Altoona, and three sisters, Miss Anna Hastings, Mrs. Carrie Bailey, of Wellsboro, and Mrs. Wolcott, Athens.

ORR.—David W. Orr, whose entire life was identified with the local history of Little Nittany valley, passed away at his home near Jacksonville, as the result of carcinoma of the hand and other complications due to his advanced age.

He was a son of William and Nancy McCauley Orr and was born near Jacksonville on January 9th, 1841, hence had reached the venerable age of 84 years, 5 months and 28 days.

As a young man he married Miss Susan Bell who passed away a number of years ago, but surviving him are one son and two daughters, Albert Orr, of Hubersburg; Mrs. W. L. Thompson, of Howard, and Mrs. Lillian Deltz, of Jacksonville.

ZIMMERMAN.—Mrs. Eva V. Zimmerman, wife of Oscar Zimmerman, died at her home in Bellefonte as the result of a complication of diseases. She had been a sufferer for eight years and had been confined to her room since early last December.

A daughter of James Stevens and Margaret Armstrong Carson, she was born in Spring township on April 26, 1881, hence was in her 45th year. Her entire life was spent near Bellefonte. She was a member of the Methodist church and a devout Christian woman. Surviving her are her husband and two sons, Dale, aged 11 years, and Billy, aged 4. She also leaves the following brothers and sisters: William Carson, of Woodward; Mrs. John Corman, living near Bellefonte; Clark Carson, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Benjamin Alkey, near Curtin; Mrs. Harry Lyon, Mrs. John Spearley, Mrs. Blise Alkey and Mrs. Walter Armstrong, all of Bellefonte.

New Game Reserve.
The Harbison-Walker Refractories Co., who own a large tract of land of some 1700 acres in Boggs township, Clearfield county, has given it over to the State for a game reserve. The State will immediately cut a line around it and then fence it.

The tract is known as the Baughman land, and is situated on the east side of the Clearfield creek, about two miles south of Dimeling and ten miles south of Clearfield.

The land is a valuable mineral tract, but is not being developed; is all wooded, contains no cultivated land, is well watered by Morgan Run, Camp Hope run and Sanburn run, and at the present time contains deer and fox.

LINDEN HALL
The Literary Society will hold its next program on Friday evening, July 31st. Note change of date.

BIG SWINE TOUR TO SHENANDOAH VALLEY

Last year all the swine breeders and farmers interested in swine in Pennsylvania made a successful automobile tour to the Government Experiment Station at Beltsville, Md., and to the National Capital. This trip proved so profitable that the breeders requested a similar trip this year. In order to make these tours more convenient to the breeders in all sections of the State, two trips are being planned this summer by the animal husbandry specialists at the Penna. State College.

One trip for those in Eastern Penna. this year will be through the beautiful Shenandoah Valley of Virginia, starting from Chambersburg, at 10 o'clock the morning of July 30th, going as far down the valley as New Market, Virginia. A night trip will be made through the wonderful Endless Caverns and the next morning four stops will be made at leading livestock farms in the Shenandoah Valley, giving those on the trip an opportunity to see Berkshire, Duroc Jersey, Poland China and Hampshire swine;绍 horn, Angus, Jersey, Guernsey, Brown Swiss cattle and Shropshire sheep. The Shenandoah Valley is also one of America's finest farming sections and those on the trip will have an opportunity to see farming operations in this garden spot.

The breeders from Western Penna. will visit the Ohio Experiment Station at Wooster, Ohio, August 12 and 13. There is an indication that both of these tours will be made by a large number of the breeders and farmers from various parts of the State and those who can possibly arrange to make either trip should get in touch with the County Agent at once and indicate their intention of making the trip. It is desirable to know as accurately as possible the number of people who plan to go on these trips so that adequate accommodations can be secured for them.

The farmers and breeders making the trip to the Shenandoah Valley will gather at Chambersburg at 10:00 A. M. of July 30th. Arrangements will be made to have members of the State College Agricultural Extension accompany those that make the trip and no doubt a representative of the State Highway Department will pilot the cars on a motor cycle to keep the crowd together and keep the road open. A log showing all the stops will be given to each person making the trip and can be had from the local County Agent.

Make Up Purse for Pastor.
The members of the Lutheran church in Rebersburg gave tangible expression of sympathy for their pastor Rev. Traber, and family, on Sunday morning, when they raised a purse of over $100 to defray a part of the expenses of a trip to the racine coast, where the minister will go in August to visit a son suffering from a nervous breakdown.

The pastor told his people for the first time that he and his family were sad because of the fact that his son, who was in the U. S. Navy, had suffered a complete breakdown and was now in a hospital in California. Leading members of the congregation at once set to work to do what they could to alleviate the sorrow, the result being that the sum above referred to was raised and turned over to their shepherd.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.
Robert M. Huggins.....Phillipsburg
Nellie May Croft.....Phillipsburg
Alfred F. Frasca.....Sandy Ridge
Mary Marchello.....Sandy Ridge

The automobile driver's license of John Morrison of Bellefonte, has been revoked, the State highway department announced Monday, because of "habitual violation of motor vehicle laws."

The Lewisburg Journal is now owned by Charles S. Smith, who purchased the paper from J. P. S. Strickler. Mr. Smith is a Lewisburg man, but for some time had been employed on the State College Times. Mr. Strickler had owned and edited the paper for about seven years, having purchased it from J. Fred Kurtz.

On Wednesday, August 26, the Loysville orphan band is scheduled to be in Bellefonte and will give an open air concert. This event, which has become an annual affair, is looked forward to by all lovers of music.

We swatted a lot of flies last year, but not all of them. The present crop is large and active. Swat some more.

AREAS IN WHICH DEER MAY BE KILLED

Game Commission Names Centre County As One Area—Landowners Must Act With Caution.

Under the provision of the game laws, permitting landowners to kill deer and retain the carcasses, the game commission has designated certain areas where this may be done, and Centre county is one of them, provided the lands on which such killing is done are open to public hunting and the deer are doing material damage to that particular property.

Adams, Carbon Centre, Clearfield, Cumberland, Franklin, Huntingdon, Juniata, Lackawanna, Luzerne, Lycoming, Mifflin, Monroe, Perry, Pike, Snyder and Union counties, also Anter township, Blair county; Fox, Jay and Benecette townships, Elk county; and Cook and Ligonier townships, Westmoreland county, are named.

Landowners or lessees located within the above designated areas, whose lands are open to public hunting and on which deer are destroying their crops of fruit trees or a material way, desiring to kill a deer and retain the carcass, or to kill such deer to send to a charitable institution, should consult with the District Game Protector if in doubt about the damage being sufficiently serious to warrant such killing. No employees of landowners may kill deer as a protection to crops or fruit trees to be retained for food unless hired on a monthly or annual basis.
