

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. S. W. Smith, Saturday evening at 7:45 o'clock.

A Dodge touring car was sold this week to Harry L. Burris by Walter R. Hosterman, the local dealer.

F. D. Osman advertises for sale his farm, located west of Centre Hall. See the adv. in this issue.

Mrs. William A. Magee and son Forest, of Wenonah, N. J., are at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Huyett.

The State highway between Milroy and Sigleville is being improved, work on it having been begun the beginning of last week.

Mrs. Charles Cummings, of Lock Haven, and Mrs. W. T. Steeley, of Sunbury, were guests of their brother, M. N. Miller, at Potters Mills, Thursday of last week.

Earl E. Meyer has a crew of mechanics at work framing timber for a new flouring mill to take the place of the mill destroyed by fire, at Loganton, some months ago.

The water mains along the route of the concrete pavement under construction through the borough, have been relaid so that they are clear of the road once it is completed.

The three colors that are about to be agreed upon by all organizations throughout the United States for traffic signals are red, yellow and green. Red for stop, yellow for caution, and green for proceed.

The house on the Richard Brooks farm, west of Centre Hall, occupied by him and his family, is being repaired by John M. Coldron and assistants. The painting up habit is becoming epidemic in this region.

Miss Edith Sankey is here in the interest of the Grange Encampment and Fair, which opens on Grange Park August 29th. She came direct from Atlantic City, where she had gone for the first time to dip in the Atlantic.

Old Home Week celebration left Lewistown with a good-sized delegation which will be met by receipts from motion pictures made for the parade. The committee also proposes to give plays, ball games, etc., to aid in covering the shortage.

While in the mountains for huckleberries the latter part of last week, Abner W. Alexander had the misfortune to sprain an ankle, and since has suffered much pain. At present he is able to locomote with the use of a cane, but it is difficult to do so.

Prof. J. F. Wetzel, the newly elected principal of the Centre Hall High school, was in town on Saturday to arrange for the renting of a house. He looked over the Mrs. Henry Homan home, and was favorably impressed with the conditions found there.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Moore and family motored to Ellysburg on Sunday, taking with them the Misses Betty and Bernice Hull, who had spent a short time at the Moore home. Returning, they were accompanied by Mrs. Grace Hull, a sister of Mrs. Moore.

The lumber firm of Kelley and Sons are setting up their second saw mill on the Dr. A. G. Lieb tract of timber east of Centre Hall and expect to hurry on the cutting as much as possible. They have completed loading bark about twenty car loads. Morris Kelley is managing the work on the mills here.

The stock and fixtures of the C. M. Smith store, in Millheim, were recently sold to L. E. Dotts, of Glenn Hope, Clearfield county, who will take charge as soon as the inventory is completed which it is planned will be next Saturday. Mr. Smith retained the store building. His future move has not been made known.

After a visit to her old home at Fleetwood, Mrs. Delas R. Keener returned to her home on Friday. She was accompanied home in a car by her sister, Miss Edith Schiegel, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schaeffer and sons Austin Schaeffer, the latter a teacher in the public schools of his home town, Fleetwood, also the home of the others mentioned.

Charles F. Sheffer, head of the De-wart Milk Products Company, has been at Clifton Springs Sanitarium and Clinic, Clifton Springs, New York, for more than a month, where he went to recover from a heat prostration. He is improving satisfactorily and expects to be able to resume business in a short time.

If you have an unpaid subscription to the Centre County hospital, the board of directors request that it be paid. The request is made at this time because of the fact that the allotment for building purposes is practically exhausted and the future progress with the work will depend entirely on future payments.

Miss Kate McCormick, who for most of the time has her home with her brother, William McCormick, at Flemington, was in Centre Hall during last week, a guest of Miss Emma McCoy and Mrs. D. J. Meyer. Miss McCormick is a daughter of the late James McCormick, and when a girl lived with her parents on the farm now occupied by F. V. Jodon, west of town.

After visiting her father, B. D. Brislin, in Centre Hall, for three weeks, Mrs. George Robertson returned to her home in Hartford, Conn., on Saturday. She expects to return again in five or six weeks. Mr. Brislin took her to Lewistown where she boarded a through train. On his return he brought back with him his housekeeper, Mrs. Laura Lee, who had been with her son, George E. Brown, in Reading for a week or more.

FRESH AIR CHILDREN.

In Local Homes for Two Weeks. Enjoying Country Life—Pretty, Bright and Happy Are These.

Of more than two hundred New York tenement district children sent to Centre county for two weeks, at the expense of the New York Tribune, about thirty found their entertainment places in and around Centre Hall. A special train carrying more than one thousand kiddies left New York City at 8:00 o'clock in the evening of Thursday of last week, arriving in Bellefonte at 9:45. From there the Centre Hall and adjacent contingent were conveyed by the Emerick auto bus, reaching here at 12:30 p. m. The children were met at the Pennsylvania railroad station by their hosts and hostesses, and then given in personal charge of them by attendants.

With scarcely an exception the children are handsome, bright, of lovely disposition and adapted themselves to their new and radically different conditions with the least possible embarrassment to their hosts. They at once made friends with the children of the town, and in many instances the newcomers are being idolized.

And this, too: these children, regardless of their age, sing our National song and applaud in true American spirit. Our flag, in religion, well, our National constitution provides for no interference.

The special train carrying the children came by Montandon to Williamsport and Lock Haven, dropping off children at the various points. Lock Haven took care of 138.

The following persons have been reported as hosts to these children:

Jacob Sharer, 2; George Sharer, 2; Ralph Homan, 2; Ernest Homan, 3; Raymond Walker, 2; H. L. Ebright, 1; S. W. Smith, 2; James E. Frohm, 3; F. V. Goodhart, 2; Miss Emma McCoy, 1; John Rearick, 1; Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick, 1; George O. Benner, 2; John A. Heckman, 2; F. M. Fisher, 2; D. A. Boozer, 1; A. H. Spayd, 2; T. A. Hosterman, 1; Mrs. W. V. Godshall, 2; all of Centre Hall. R. G. McClellan, Linden Hall, 2; Mrs. Anna Lenker, Lemont, 2; Mrs. Frank Musser, Spring Mills, 2.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

A camp of the P. O. S. of A. was instituted at Pine Grove Mills this week.

Dr. Davis and her sister, Miss Catherine Davis, of Altoona, were guests of Miss Cora Luse, at the farm home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Luse.

Asher C. Stahl and family, of Altoona, motored to Centre Hall beginning of the week and spent a few days with the former's mother, Mrs. Mary Stahl.

Mrs. William H. Stoner is making an effort to raise turkeys and to date has been quite successful. She has now some seventy turkey peeps, and one or two hens setting. From nineteen eggs one hen hatched eighteen.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zimmerman, of Orviston, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Beidle, of Shippensburg, were recent callers at the Lutheran parsonage. Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Hoover and daughter, Miriam, of Pleasant Hill, spent the week with Rev. and Mrs. Greenhoe.

Mr. and Mrs. Gross R. Allison and two children, and Mrs. Allison's sister, Mrs. Vernon Valentine, of Newcastle, Kentucky, are in Centre Hall for a two weeks' vacation, guests of Mr. Allison's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Runkle, and aunt, Miss Laura Runkle.

The James S. Stahl tract of woodland, extending along the State Highway over Nittany Mountain to the "top" was sold by the heirs to Musser E. Coldron, who expects to conduct a refreshment stand on it. The sale price for the eight acres has not been made known.

Mrs. Samuel M. Goodhart, accompanied by her son, Franklin, and daughters, Misses Margaret and Grace, all of Johnstown, for a few days was at the home of her father, Alfred Durst, and sister, Mrs. W. F. Keller, in Centre Hall. They returned home on Sunday.

While E. Fred Brouse, in the State Forestry Department, is doing research work in Indiana and Clearfield county, Mrs. Brouse is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Wieland, at Linden Hall. The latter part of the week the family will go to the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Theis, on the Susquehanna River, at Muncy.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Leitzell, accompanied by a party of relatives, motored from Chicago, Ill., the fore part of the week, and spent Tuesday night in Centre Hall. On Wednesday they went to Spring Mills, their destination, and the former home of Mr. Leitzell, where his mother still resides. Eighteen years ago Mr. Leitzell, then quite a young man, went to Chicago and became employed with the Chicago Tribune, styled, "The world's greatest newspaper." He is still with that publication, engaged in the capacity of pressman. He is on a two weeks' vacation.

Festival at Spring Mills.

The Spring Mills lodge of Rebekahs will hold a festival on Saturday, August 15th. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the orphan's home, near Sunbury. The object is a worth while one and an effort will be made at the same time to please all patrons.

SECRETARY LIKES THE RODEO

In the West he's "Bill" but in official Washington he's William Marlon Jardine, secretary of agriculture, a member of President Coolidge's official "family." Secretary Jardine has been invited to attend the Chicago Roundup and World's Championship Rodeo, to be held for nine days, beginning August 15. Those who know him say that he will be on hand for this greatest of all cowboy contests, as Secretary Jardine has not lost the spirit of the West where, years ago, he rode the range and punched cattle with the best of them.

Back in Idaho they like to tell how the secretary of agriculture busted bronchos and threw a rope. They're proud of their "Bill" and they're willing to wager that he could ride into the arena at the Chicago Rodeo and make some of the expert cowhands hustle for honors. The competitions will be held under the direction of Tex Austin for the world's championship titles belts and trophies and $30,000, the largest cash purses paid anywhere.
