To avoid delays during the time the paving is done over Nittany Mountain, the contractors have secured a Butler gas tank which will be mounted on a wagon. In this way the trucks, paver, pumps and other machinery will always have convenient a supply of fuel.

Representatives from the Sunday schools in eastern Penna Valley have arranged details, appointed committees, etc., for an Eastern Penna Valley community picnic to be held in Winklebich's grove, three miles east of Aaronsburg, on Thursday, Aug. 27.

J. E. Stover, of Montgomery, in mailing a remittance to the Reporter says: "We are glad to get the news from Centre, county, and especially from Centre Hall. Business has been a little slack here for some weeks, but appears to be picking up a little now. We expect to see it back to normal in a very short time."

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Lohr, of Philadelphia, came to town the latter part of last week. Mr. Lohr is remaining for a week before going back to the offices of the Pennsylvania Railroad company, in Broad Street Station, where he has been employed for a long while, but Mrs. Lohr will remain for a longer time.

The New Montgomery hotel, at Montgomery, owned by Ira D. Koons, has been leased to A. H. Hartwick, of near Spring Mills. Mr. Hartwick, who previously conducted a hotel in Lock Haven, will take possession August 17, and the hotel will continue as before. A restaurant in addition to the dining room of the hotel will be added.

While visiting at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George P. Musser, at Lewistown, Mrs. W. H. Musser, of near Millheim, recently suffered a slight stroke of paralysis. She is getting along nicely now, which will be good news to her host of friends.

Mrs. Alma Haines recently sold her farm, west of Millheim, to D. H. Rearick, of near Potters Mills, the consideration not being divulged. The farm, situated in what is locally known as "Smithtown," is now tenanted by Morris Miller. The new owner will get possession next spring.

He will be followed by John Stover, of Houserville, who was with the company in the same capacity some years ago. Mr. Potter has no definite plans for the future.

On their first day out on the auto trip to Decatur, Illinois, Edward Durst, his mother, Mrs. Alice Durst, of Centre Hall, and Mrs. Oscar Stover, of State College, ran three hundred and twenty-six miles. They went by way of the Lakes to Sea route; to above Pittsburgh and then bore south to the National Highway, intending to strike it at Columbus, Ohio. Cards from them to friends here while in Indianapolis, indicate the trip a pleasant one and road fine.

Mrs. John McWilliams and son, John McWilliams, Jr., Mrs. Amanda Brown, and Mrs. Julia Johnston, were a Johnstown party entertained by Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Goodhart, in Centre Hall. A short time before coming here the McWilliams car had been stolen and was accidentally found in the mountains many miles from habitation by a boy picking huckleberries. The car was missing for three days, and had been pressed into service by a band of robbers. A small office safe had been conveyed in the car to the lonely spot by the robbers and there was broken open. The booty was $40.00 in cash. The car was but slightly damaged.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

The Linden Hall literary society will render a special program on Friday night of this week at 8 o'clock.

The second annual Brungart reunion will be held at Grange Park, Centre Hall, Saturday, August 22.

Dr. C. F. Smith is back to his home again in Indianapolis, Indiana, after having been in a New York hospital for several months for a throat affection and burns on both feet, the latter having resulted through neglect of him while in an Indianapolis hospital. It will be remembered that it was stated in these columns, some time ago that Dr. Smith's larynx had been removed. A letter from his daughter, Mrs. Julia Peacock, of Cleveland, Ohio, who was with him while in the New York hospital, states that Dr. McKenty perfected an artificial larynx and that with it he is able to speak. The burns on his feet were so severe that the bones are yet exposed, but with the aid of crutches he is able to move about to some extent. While he is very much improved over the condition of several months ago, he is yet far from well and it is only a few days ago that he was able for the first time in a long while to eat in the natural way.
