MOTOR TOURING. Seeing the Country from the Auto A Pleasing Summer Activity—Suggestions to Campers.

One of the most interesting phases of summer activities now is found in the great crowd of people who start out to see the country in their automobiles. Whole families are thus traveling quite widely and seeing things they never expected to see eyes upon.

The philosophers have always said that travel helps people to see their own problems and human relations from a broader viewpoint. However, the pleasures of such jaunting should not make people so restless that after the pleasant trip is over, they can't settle down just as contentedly as before.

One or two suggestions can be made to the campers. First, they should remember that the country suffers a heavy loss annually as the result of the carelessness of such parties. A little too much haste in getting away from the camping spot, may leave sparks in their fire not extinguished, with the result that someone's woodlands have gone up in smoke the next day.

Grange Leadership Conference. The Grange leadership conference, in which the State Grange, County Grange and Pennsylvania State College are co-operating, opened on Tuesday morning under the most favorable conditions. One hundred and seventy-five of those who registered as patrons of the movement were on Grange Park on Tuesday, most of them finding their way here by auto.

Celebrated 86th Birthday. Mrs. Mariah Wagner, of Tusseyville, on Tuesday, celebrated her 86th birthday. She was the guest of her niece, Mrs. A. E. Kerlin, in Centre Hall, for the day, and spent a part of the day touring in the Kerlin Packard, enjoying the trip as thoroughly as any in the party.

DEATHS.

HERRING.—One of the most aged ladies in the valley passed away Monday afternoon in the person of Mrs. Elizabeth Herring, widow of the late Samuel Herring, at the Herring home near Penn Hall. Interment will be made this (Thursday) afternoon at the Heckman cemetery, services by Rev. F. H. Daubenspeck. There survive the deceased three children, namely, H. B. Herring, at whose home the aged lady died; Jennie, wife of A. J. Shook, and Susan, wife of John F. Hosterman, both residing near the home. A sister, Mrs. Ellen Walker, of Lewisburg, also survives her. Mrs. Herring's maiden name was Miss Elizabeth Lohr, a daughter of Jacob and May (Saylor) Lohr, and was born in Union county ninety-two years ago last October. She and her husband lived for many years, where she died. She was a woman greatly esteemed by her close neighbors, where she was best known. She was a member of the Lutheran church and took a deep and active interest in the various branches of church work until incapacitated by age. This religious activity extended further than that of the congregation of which she was a part. She interested herself in movements of church societies and conventions, and was a frequent attendant at these gatherings. She was socially inclined and made those about her feel at ease. She was a woman of rare qualities—one long to be remembered by those who had the good fortune to come in touch with her.

TRESSLER.—Ezra Tressler died on Saturday at his home in State College after an illness of complication of the cases extending over a period of about two years. Interment was made in the cemetery at Boalsburg on Tuesday afternoon, services having been conducted by the pastor of the State College Reformed church, Rev. E. H. Romig, who was the pastor of the deceased. Mr. Tressler was a son of Isaac and Sarah (Dauberman) Tressler, both deceased, and was born in Harris township. His wife, who survives him, was Miss Martha Keller, the following children also survive the deceased: Robert, Albion, Blanche, now Mrs. Adam Kramer, Williamsport; Mary, now Mrs. Sufner Miller, State College. The surviving brothers and sisters are: Jonathan, Oak Hill Station; J. Wesley, Linden Hall; Calvin, Detroit; Mrs. John Getz, Lemont; and Laura, in Illinois.

Mr. Tressler was engaged in farming for the greater part of his active life, and a number of years ago lived on one of the Hofer farms west of town. LIMBERT.—Mrs. Elizabeth Limbert, widow of Frederick Limbert, died on Thursday at the home of her son, Elmer, near Millheim, to whose home she had gone about ten weeks previous, at which time she became ill. Previous to that she had lived alone in Aaronsburg, although she had attained the age of almost eighty-two years. Mrs. Limbert was the daughter of John and Mary (Kraep) Boyer, and was reared along Sinking Creek, east of Centre Hill. Her husband died ten or more years ago. Funeral services were conducted on Monday by Rev. D. R. Keener, in the absence of a pastor of the Reformed church at Aaronsburg of which congregation she was a member. Interment was made at Aaronsburg.

There survive the deceased six children, as follows: Elmer, Millheim; Charles, Aaronsburg; Frederick, Akron, Ohio; Annie, now Mrs. Edward Swann, Olean, New York; Catharine, now Mrs. John Keller, Lock Haven; Carrie, now Mrs. Clayton Musser, Centre Hall; Charles Royer, of Spring Mills, is an only surviving brother.

Centre County P.O.S. of A. Picnic. Arrangements have been made to hold a County P. O. S. of A. picnic at Hecla Park on Friday, August 28th. A cordial invitation is extended by Bellefonte Camp No. 887 for you to join us and make this the greatest get-together meeting of the year, where you will be entertained every minute of the day by ball games, bathing, boating, dancing and other amusements which have been arranged for by the committee in charge.

Seven Pedestrians Injured. Seven young people of Yeagertown and Reedeville were injured on Monday when an automobile, driven by H. W. Arnold, Lewisport, ran through a group of walkers on a country road near Lewisport. The injured are Crawford Sheets, 17, Yeagertown, fractured skull and arm and facial cuts, in Lewisport hospital; Joseph Stewart, Yeagertown, lacerations; Misses Mary Snook, Sara Snook, Verne Smith, Emory Sout and Betty Detweiler, all of Reedeville, slightly hurt. Investigation by highway patrolmen absolved Arnold of blame.

MRS. MIRIAM MOYER SHERMAN VICTIM OF SLEEPING SICKNESS IN PARIS

Former Rebersburg Lady Passes Away in Foreign Land, But in American Hospital. A cablegram from Paris received by Mrs. Edwin Zeigler, at Mont Alto, Franklin county, announced the death of her sister, Miriam, wife of Prof. Sherman. The death occurred in an American hospital in Paris, on Monday, from sleeping sickness. Mrs. Sherman accompanied her husband to France last spring at the close of the Freehold, New Jersey, public schools, in which schools he teaches modern languages. It was to further his studies that he went abroad, taking with him Mrs. Sherman and two children, aged 18 months and three years, respectively. The brothers and sisters here had had no previous knowledge that Mrs. Sherman had been ill. Mrs. Sherman was aged about thirty-two years, and was the youngest daughter of Joseph K. and Mary (Kline) Moyer both deceased, and was reared in the vicinity of Rebersburg. Before marrying she engaged in teaching. The brothers and sisters surviving the deceased are Nevin J. Rebersburg; Sarah, wife of Prof. Wm. R. Bray, Freeland; Elizabeth, wife of Prof. Henry Kryder, Toledo, Ohio; Rebecca, wife of Prof. Edwin Zeigler, Mont Alto; Mrs. Florence Lambert, also of Mont Alto; Bruce and Jay, of Corning, New York.

MARRIAGE LICENSES. William Peavy, Phillipsburg; Martha Watson, Phillipsburg; Robert Boyle, Clearfield; Louise Learith, Clearfield; Clarence F. Ripka, Pleasant Gap; Helen M. Barnes, Bellefonte; Eugene A. Dambly, Shippack; Margaretta Webber, State College.

BOALSBURG. There will be preaching services in the Reformed church Sunday evening at 7:30. Rev. Moyer had intended to be away from home at that time, but his arrangements have been changed.

On Thursday there were 43 people from Bear Meadow Commandery No. 416, Knights of Malta, who attended the pilgrims' day at the Malta home at Granville. A bus load and three touring cars took the crowd. Mrs. (Dr.) Woods is having a bath room fitted out in her home. P. M. Charles, the local plumber, is doing the work.

The W. E. Gettig family, of Altoona, visited in and about the town on Sunday afternoon. An auto load of tourists—Walter Geary, George Shugarts, Ralph Kishel, Ralph Dale, and Frank Hosterman, started out Monday morning in the Rishel car. They expect to go to Canada, and then on to Maine, and other States adjoining, and home by New York.

Mrs. George Rowe is still confined to her bed, mostly due to a swollen limb. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lucas spent Monday with their daughter, Mrs. M. B. Weaver, at State College.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kimpfort are enjoying looking at pictures that were taken of their fine lot of Leghorn chickens. Nevin Meyer is painting his house on his farm. Lester Brouse moved from Altoona Monday to the Lucas house alongside his father's home.

John Gill Fatally Injured. John Gill, 55 years old, blacksmith, residing at Julian, was found along the railroad track two miles east of Martha by a train crew early Thursday morning.

Gill had a deep gash in his head and was unconscious when found. He was carried to his home at Julian where medical aid was summoned and everything done to save his life. He gradually grew weaker and died at 8:15. It has not been fully determined just how Gill met with the accident that caused his death, but it is supposed that he stumbled and fell against the side of a moving train, as he had been taken from the track earlier in the morning. He is survived by his aged father, George Gill, a brother and several sisters.
