120 MILES MORE HARD ROAD FOR PENNSYLVANIA

Total Cost $6,229,586, Part of Which Was Paid By U. S.—529 Miles Now Under Construction in State.

Pennsylvania farmers and tourists now enjoy 120 miles more of Federal aid highways than they did a year ago, according to the Sears-Robuck Agricultural Foundation. This mileage, completed in the year ending June 30, cost a total of $6,229,586, of which the federal government furnished $2,197,329. Highway construction under this plan now under way in the State totals 529 miles, while the total mileage completed previous to last year was 729 miles.

This additional mileage, while a convenience to the tourist in the State, is a godsend to the farmer, according to the Foundation. It is estimated that each and every farmer in this section of the country averages 32 tons of farm products hauled to market and 14 tons of feed, fuel, fertilizer, machinery, supplies, etc., from town.

When good roads make trucks feasible this is not many burlesomes but it represents a good many hours labor where horses and poor roads must be used. And so while the tourist finds inter-city roads mighty comfortable, to the farmer a good serviceable road from his farm to the nearest market is a downright necessity.

For the Auto Driver.

No man intentionally aims to injure others with his automobile because in doing so his own life or property may be harmed. Auto accidents are largely a matter of carelessness and thoughtlessness and for the most part preventable. To evade and avoid accidents and disaster one has only to exercise precaution and safety first measures.

Auto users need to bear in mind the rules of the road, the traffic laws and traffic signals. Pedestrians should be given the right of way. They are usually women, children and the aged and all of them get panicky. Drive only when you have all of your faculties about you and at ready command. Give a wide berth to the dare-devil and the speedster.

DEATHS.

ORNDORF—Mrs. Sarah (Ulrich) Orndorf, one of Millheim's oldest inhabitants, died at her home from the effects of a paralytic stroke suffered some time ago, aged 84 years, 11 months and 11 days.

Mrs. Orndorf was one of eleven children born to Daniel and Sarah (Yeakley) Ulrich. She was married to Benjamin Orndorf at Woodward, June 30, 1887, who preceded her to the grave a number of years ago. No children were born to this union. She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Hettie Catherman, of Warriors Mark, as well as a number of nephews and nieces. Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon of last week in the Evangelical church, Millheim, her pastor, Rev. H. C. Kieffel, officiating. Interment was made in the Woodward cemetery.

KERN—Alfred B. Kern died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Guy Floray, at Axemann, on Thursday afternoon, from cocaine poisoning. Interment was made at Paradise, east of Spring Mills, on Monday, Rev. F. A. Huff, of the Evangelical church, officiating. His age was 49 years, 2 months, 5 days. There survive the deceased eight children: Mrs. Merrill Miller, Lock Haven; Mrs. Guy Floray, Axemann; Mrs. N. A. Carroll, Northumberland; Clarence, Patton; Harry, William, Grace, Violet and Irene, at home. Also, these brothers survive: William, Louisville, Ky.; Irvin, of Coburn, and one sister, Mrs. Della Wertz, of Philadelphia. Mrs. Kern preceded the husband in death 2 years and five months. The deceased was a painter by trade and was engaged at State College prior to his death.

KRUMRINE—Elias Krumrine, a former resident of Penn township, died at the home of his son, John, near Weikert, Union county, of dropsy and infirmities superinduced by his advanced years, aged 83 years, nine months and 21 days.

Mr. Krumrine, whose wife died nineteen years ago, formerly lived on the old Krumrine farm, now owned by E. L. Stover and tenanted by Elmer Lambert, west of Millheim. Mr. and Mrs. Krumrine were blessed with four children, one of whom died some years ago. In addition to these they were foster parents to Mrs. W. A. Stover, now of Millheim, from the time she was five years old.

Deceased is survived by three children—John, at whose home he died; Mrs. Susan Packer, of Centre Hall, and Mrs. Emma Bressler, of Sunbury. Funeral services were held from the late home of the deceased and interment was made in the Chapel cemetery, near Laurelton.

Boy Hit by Car.

Woodrow Bradford, seven years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Milton Bradford, was hit by an auto and pretty badly injured. The injuries consist of a long gash over the forehead and back over the head, as well as numerous bruises over the body. More than a dozen stitches were required to sew up the wound.

The accident happened Saturday evening while the lad was crossing the street at the Grange store. He was waving a good-bye to some of his little chums and while his attention was thus diverted a slow moving car hit him, knocked him onto the ground and passed over him without the wheels hitting him. Before anyone could reach him the boy was on his feet. He was taken to his home, where Dr. Morrow dressed the wounds, and since has been getting along fine.

Mr. Walters, the man who drove the car, gave all possible assistance. He was looking for a place to park and was going very slowly when the boy ran in front of the car. He promised the Bradford family he would return on Tuesday morning to see the injured boy, but early Monday morning he put in his appearance. He is employed at the Burnham works, and was traveling with his family when the accident happened.

Masons Observe 50th Anniversary.

The local Masonic order celebrated its fiftieth anniversary on Wednesday evening of last week. The ceremonies were conducted in the regular lodge room and a banquet was later served in Grange Arcadia, a class of ladies in the Reformed Sunday-school having furnished it. The speakers were Hon. Emerson Collins, Williamsport, and Rev. H. Romig, State College. Of the 125 members of the fraternity, ninety participated in the celebration.

C. C. League Baseball Scores.

Ball games played in the Centre County league during the past week resulted as follows: Thursday—Hecla, 2; State College, 1. Bellefonte, 7; Millheim, 0. Saturday—Bellefonte, 4; Hecla, 1. Millheim, 9; State College, 0.

CENTRE COUNTY W. C. T. U. 40TH ANNUAL CONVENTION

Lutheran Church, Bellefonte, September 8th and 9th—Local Y. P. B. Will Render Songs and Stunts the First Night.

Bellefonte is to be the meeting place of the 40th annual convention of the Centre County W. C. T. U. the second week of September, Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept. 8th and 9th, in the Lutheran church. The program promises a number of good things—several new features. The two honor guests and speakers will be Rev. Mrs. Maude T. Seymour, vice president of the Pa. Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and Mrs. Roberta Carnes, of Baltimore, Md., a young lecturer of repute of the National W. C. T. U.

The first evening will be Young Peoples' night when a silver medal contest will be held; the Centre Hall Young Peoples' Branch will render songs and stunts, and the Boy and Girl Scouts will participate, with "Remarks" from Miss Carnes and Rev. Seymour, ending with a reception by the Bellefonte Union.

The first day will also feature Miss Carnes' address in the afternoon, in addition to a Loyal Temperance Legion demonstration by the children, and the president's address. On the second day in the morning will be reports of superintendents and the election of officers, while in the afternoon an especially entertaining and entirely new feature will be introduced at 3 o'clock in "The Union Signal Contest" when six ladies from as many different Unions will make their ten-minute speeches, the judge being the audience, arriving at their decision by ballot.

Wednesday evening Rev. Mrs. Seymour will deliver her spirited and highly commended address, "When Citizens are Sovereigns," with special music and a "demonstration" reminiscent of the recent great World's Convention at Edinburgh, Scotland, as side issues.

The public is cordially invited to attend all open sessions and a general good time is assured for all.

Sachis—Bailey.

The marriage of G. E. Sachis and Miss Edna E. Bailey took place on Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Margaret Godshall, in Centre Hall. The young couple will be at home at 4217 Ingomar St., Washington, D. C., after Saturday.

BOALSBURG.

Rev. W. W. Moyer's parents have been visiting with the Rev. and his wife. On Tuesday the four started to motor to Chicago to the home of Rev. Moyer's parents where the young folks will spend a week or ten days, this being their vacation.

This is the ground hog season, and we have some men here that are very fond of hunting the hog. On Friday evening Charles Faxon and Charles Corl took a few hours at this sport. The first one they saw was fired at by Faxon; the hog was safe. A little later another hog sat up and looked around when Corl, being a hundred or more yards away, fired and shot his hog through the head. The animal was brought to town and served at a six o'clock dinner on Sunday.

M. W. Goheen seems to think he ahead of him. Last week mention was made of a bath room being fitted out in the Dr. Woods home; this week the neighbor across the street, Mr. Goheen, is having a bath put in his house.

The Boal troop returned home from camp on Saturday evening.

Mrs. George W. Rowe is still confined to her bed.

The Sunday schools from here had a large turnout at the picnic at Hecla on Thursday. There were two bus loads and many cars.

Harry Kuhn, of Williamsport, was in town over Sunday.

TUSSEYVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Fortney and family, and Roy Weaver, spent Sunday afternoon among friends in Madisonburg and vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bobb and son Eddie, of Milroy, and Miss Genevieve Howard, of New York, a Fresh Air Miss who is being entertained at the Bobb home, spent Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Ramer.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Weaver and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Miller spent last Thursday at Lewistown.

The Stork visited the Daniel Fohringer home Sunday afternoon and left a nine and one-fourth lb. baby girl. You should see the broad smile Mr. Fohringer wears since the arrival.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Smith and family motored to Altoona on Sunday, where they spent the day among relatives.

Master Philip Geary, of Altoona, spent the week-end with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Rossmann, and aunt, Mrs. J. B. Wert.

C. M. Smithers, of Milroy, and C. P. Ramer, of this place, started on a fishing trip Saturday morning. They intend to fish in Pine Creek, near Jersey Shore, and in various other streams as far east as Wilkes-Barre.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Faust and daughter Alice spent Sunday among friends and relatives in Altoona.

Mrs. Clarence Beck, of Harrisburg, and Clayton and Louis Ripka, of State College, were Monday evening callers at the homes of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Boddorf, of Colyer, S. E. Jordan and Mrs. C. P. Ramer, of this place.

George Donahay, of Centre Hall, spent Sunday at the home of his mother, Mrs. A. W. Holdeman.
