W. Harrison Walker—vote for him for Judge.

It will be impossible for W. Harrison Walker, the Democratic candidate for Judge, to see every voter in the county, but he is busy every day, and will come in contact with as many as possible. The man who wants the laws administered impartially and the business of before the court dispatched with any semblance of promptness will see in Mr. Walker the making of a Judge.

Dr. James Mullen Escapes Drowning. Dr. James Mullen, son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Mullen, of Pittsburgh, was one of several hundred persons on the grandstand when it collapsed during the football game between Carnegie and W. and J. at Washington, this state. Dr. Mullen was among the number who fell into the creek over which the grandstand was built, and he was saved from drowning after considerable effort on the part of the rescuers. When a boy, Dr. Mullen spent his summer months in Centre Hall, where he was then known as "Sunny Jim," owing to his happy disposition.

Notice to Farmers.

Owing to repair work in progress at our place of business, we shall be unable to handle any wheat, until further notice.—McClellan's Grain House, Centre Hall.

Special Court.

At a special term of court held on Saturday morning by Judge Dale, James E. Bowser, an escaped prisoner, was sentenced to from two and one-half to five years in the penitentiary. Seth J. Boorman, of Hubersburg, who was sentenced September 24, for the possession and transportation of liquor, was sentenced to serve thirty days in jail.

Mrs. Charles Ritter, of Reading, visited her daughter, Miss Jeannette, at State College, on Mother's Day, and also for a short time her cousin, Miss Thille P. Keller, in Centre Hall.

DEATHS.

tember 15, 1849. Her husband died thirteen years ago but surviving her are two sons, George, of Bellefonte, and Wilbur, of Pleasant Gap. She also leaves one brother, George W. Rumberger, of Unionville. The funeral was held Friday afternoon.

GHARET.—Mrs. Vesta Gharet, wife of Harvey Gharet, died suddenly at her home in Greenburr. Death was believed to have been due to a heart attack. She was 63 years of age. Mr. Gharet, who is employed by Lester Hagen at the grist mill at Logan Mills, arose as usual and before leaving the house conversed with his wife who appeared to be in her usual health. When he returned home in the evening about 7:10 o'clock he found her dead in bed, still wearing her night clothing and apparently not having arisen since he left her. Deceased was born at Woodward but had lived in Sugar Valley for about 40 years, and had resided at Greenburr for about ten years. She was a member of the Evangelical church. Surviving are her husband, three sons and a daughter; Samuel, residing near Logan Mills; Robert, at Cohen, near Milltown; Fred, of near Tusseyville; and Mrs. Thomas Weber, of Tyrone; also one brother and three sisters: Samuel Orndorf, Mrs. James Beck and Mrs. Aaron Stover, all residing near Pennas Cave, and Mrs. Lincoln Confer, of Rosecrans. Burial was made at Logan Mills.

Bankers Organize.

Ten of the fifteen banks in the county participated in the organization of an association with a view of closer co-operation. The following were elected officers of the association: Charles M. McCurdy, First National bank, Bellefonte, president; John E. Fryberger, First National bank of Philipsburg, first vice president; David F. Kapp, First National bank, State College, second vice president; T. C. Jackson, Moshannon National bank, treasurer, and L. W. Stover, Farmers National bank, of Millheim, secretary.

Belleville Man Killed.

While engaged in tearing down a scaffolding at the American Lime and Stone company plant, Belleville, O. O. Risen, an employe of the Snyder Construction company, fell a distance of ninety feet and was instantly killed. He was standing on a two-by-four scantling and was using a sledge hammer on timber overhead. Swinging with both hands, he lost his balance and toppled into the bunker, striking the floor with great force. A wife and a daughter survive.

Evangelical Merger Invalid.

The merger of the United Evangelical Church and the Evangelical Association, effected three years ago, is held to be invalid by Judge Henry of the Lebanon county court in a seventy-five-hundred word opinion filed last week. Judge Henry's decision was made in the equity proceedings instituted by Bishop William F. Heil and several associate trustees of Albright College who were ousted from the board to make places for representatives of the Evangelical Association, following the merger.

Motor to Be Memorial.

Distorted and beyond repair, the big Liberty motor of the mail plane, on which Pilot Charles H. Ames rode to his death on October 1, will be allowed to lie in its rocky bed on one of the highest points in the Nittany Mountain range as a monument to the intrepid aviator. A wrecking crew from the Belleville landing field has stripped the machine of all parts worth salvaging, burned the broken and twisted wings and fuselage, and left the motor lie where it fell.

Atterbury Visits Penn State.

Although President Atterbury of the Pennsylvania State University was only a friendly call due to his personal interest in the institution, the visit there of forty railroad men is held by many to mean much more. An effort was made before the Interstate Commerce Commission by State College business men to force the Pennsylvania to absorb the freight charges over the Buffalo Run railroad between State College and Bellefonte. It may be that the new president wanted to see for himself the prospects for shipping business and passenger traffic, or perhaps whether or not his own line could be extended to the thriving college town and return a profit.

Heretofore in the selection of judge the matter of economy had not been a question for discussion, for it so happened that the candidates were considered to be, and were, equally alert, quick of comprehension, and decision. In selecting your candidate for Judge at the coming election, if you take into account, and you should do so, the prompt dispatch of court business, which works for economy, Mr. Walker is the logical candidate to select. The proof of this is the manner in which he conducts his own business and that of his clients. This faculty in connection with his temperament and ability as a lawyer makes him fitted for the exalted position from all angles.

TWO ELECTROCUTED AT ROCKVIEW PENITENTIARY.

Both Die at First Contact, Although Two or More Contacts Are Usually Necessary—One Only 19 Years Old.

Unusual circumstances marked the electrocution of two men at the Rockview penitentiary Monday morning. With few exceptions, two or more contacts are necessary before the authorities are satisfied that life is extinct. Monday morning, however, but one contact was required in each instance. The first man led to the chair, James Scott, a Greensburg negro, was one of the youngest men ever electrocuted at Rockview. He was convicted of shooting a policeman at West Newton, Pa. Scott slept soundly the last night and ate a hearty breakfast. Attended by the chaplain, C. E. Kahn, he went to the chair at 7 a. m. and was pronounced dead at 7:06. His body was unclaimed and he was buried at the prison.

Anthony Wichrowski, 35, of Reading, convicted of killing his wife during a quarrel at his home, went to the chair at 7:09 and was pronounced dead at 7:14. He was attended by Father O'Hanlin, of State College. Wichrowski was of Polish birth. His body was claimed by relatives.

Local Ministerium Meets.

The local Ministerium met for its monthly session at the Evangelical parsonage in Spring Mills on October 19 at 10:15 o'clock, with the following present: Revs. Greenhoe, Haney, Huff, Keener and Kirkpatrick. After the routine business officers were elected for the coming year. The new officers are: President, Rev. Haney; vice-president, Rev. Greenhoe; secretary-treasurer, Rev. Hazen.

The next monthly meeting was scheduled for Monday evening, Nov. 2, at 8:00 o'clock, at the Reformed parsonage. Rev. Hazen was instructed to prepare the paper for this meeting. The session was closed with prayer by Rev. Haney.

Hunting 'Coons.

Raccoon hunting is one of the sports engaged in by farmer Guyer Grove, of near Centre Hall, and his companion hunters are his father, B. Gardner Grove, and Russell Brungart, both of Centre Hall. During two hunts they captured eight 'coons—five the first night, and three the second. The weights of the first lot were 21, 16, 14, 9 and 9 pounds. The second lot were not weighed, but were counted five specimens. The first hunt was on Nittany Mt. when one party got lost and turned in only when daylight broke. After the mail plane was discovered, Mr. Grove found he had been wandering about for several hours within a very short distance of where Pilot Ames and his plane lay undiscovered. The second hunt was in the region of the White Deer hunting camp.

Evangelistic Meetings at Centre Hall.

A series of evangelistic meetings will be held in the Methodist church of Centre Hall, beginning Monday evening, October 26, at 7:30 o'clock. All the people of the town are invited to attend these meetings. Come enjoy the singing; help make it a community campaign.—C. E. Hazen.

The Jury Commissioner Question.

The fact that Judge Whitehead, of Lycoming county, sitting in the Clinton county court, ruled that John H. Hamilton was ineligible to be a candidate for the office of jury commissioner because he had held the office for six successive years, may effect the candidacy of John Decker, in Centre county, who like Mr. Hamilton, has been a jury commissioner for six successive years. The decision of Judge Whitehead is based on a law passed more than fifty years ago.

The Richelieu Opening.

The Richelieu Theatre company opened their new play house known as the "Richelieu," in Bellefonte, on Monday evening. Warner's special scenic classic production, "The Wife Who Wasn't Wanted," an all-star cast, was shown on the screen to a packed house. Beautiful red roses were presented to the ladies as they entered and to each patron a booklet descriptive of the theatre and a program for the week. As was previous advertised, the theatre will be open continuously from 2:00 to 11:00 o'clock P. M.

Previous to the showing of latest news and a special comedy, the curtain when drawn aside revealed the little daughter of Mr. Richelieu holding the staff from which floated the Stars and Stripes. There was applause, and when the great organ struck the first note of the National air, the audience, more than a thousand, did its customary honor.

The Richelieu is one of the finest theatres in the country, and nothing has been slighted, or no cost spared to make it the utmost in comfort, and a most pleasant place to enjoy good, clean entertainment, of which this theatre will be noted.

The theatre has a perfect ventilating, lighting and heating system; drinking fountain, ladies' and gentlemen's rest rooms, 1000 sanitary air cushion chairs, a properly inclined floor, and the seating arrangement is laid in such a manner that every seat has a full, unobstructed view of the screen or stage. The Wurlitzer company are builders of the largest and finest theatre organs in the world, and words cannot describe the beauty of this organ. It contains all the instruments found in a 40-piece orchestra, with each instrument at the fingertips of the organist, which makes it possible to have the music fit the picture at all times. The stage is modern, convenient and complete in every detail, and large enough to play any attraction. It is also fully equipped with modern scenery and sets to play any home talent or show not carrying their own scenery; in fact, as above stated, there has been nothing slighted.

Robberies at Spring Mills.

Two robberies were committed at Spring Mills during the past ten days. One offender is under bail for his appearance at court and the other has not been apprehended. Last week one of the windows in the establishment of S. L. Condo was pried open and through this entrance was gained by the offender. The cash drawer was drained of almost $20.00. On Sunday night a window light in the Bruce Meyer restaurant was broken and from the show window a rifle was taken. These rifles are all numbered, but Mr. Meyer does not have a record of the gun number and this will hamper him in identifying it if it were discovered.
