

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Progress Grange meets Saturday evening, and a good attendance is desired.

Thursday, November 26, is Thanksgiving Day, according to the President's proclamation.

Five cases of scarlet fever are reported from Beech Creek borough and township, Clinton county.

Dr. C. T. Alkens has completed twenty years as president of Susquehanna University, at Selingsgrove.

Mrs. Robert McCummon, of Altoona, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Auman, the latter part of last week.

White leghorn hens sold at the Harshbarger sale for as much as $2.20. Roosters, choice ones, were also bid up to $2.50.

Messrs. Charles Shook and William Shultz, prosperous young Greeng township farmers, were callers at this office last Thursday.

The grain warehouse conducted by W. O. Rearick, at Milroy, was recently broken into and a ton of feed and several auto tires carried away.

Mrs. Maggie Kreamer is now at the home of her niece, Mrs. H. J. Kittleberger, at Curwensville, and will remain until the beginning of next week.

William Cummings, now living on the Charles Wolf farm, below Aaronsburg, will become the tenant on the farm west of Millheim, owned by Dr. G. S. Frank, of Millheim.

Rev. and Mrs. W. W. Moyer and Miss Nora Miller, of Boalsburg, drove to Centre Hall on Monday. Rev. and Mrs. Moyer, the latter part of last week, returned from a vacation trip.

After a lay-off of two weeks concrete pouring was again resumed on Nittany Mountain on Monday. The road had been finished at that time to a point within a few hundred feet of the "top."

Many a client came into court with a just cause and was defeated by the simple method of "Postponed until next court," announced by the judge. Vote for Walker, who will "hear the case today."

Miss Annie Fogleman, of Washington, and Miss Margaret Fogleman, of Spring Mills, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Searson, in Centre Hall. The former returned to Washington a few days ago.

Robert H. Kline, for three years supervisor of the Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad, died, on Buffalo, N. Y. He was succeeded six years ago as supervisor by the present official, C. E. Zortman.

Miss Agnes Geary, a freshman at Penn State, entertained the Misses Emily Duebler, Eleanor Gelsenheim, and Jeanette Ritter, college chums, to dinner on Sunday, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Geary.

Mrs. James Spicher, of Altoona, visited her sister, Mrs. H. J. Lambert, in Centre Hall, the day prior to the Lambert leaving for Florida, where they have been spending the winter months for the past few years.

Miss Catharine Goodhart and baby brother, children of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Goodhart, of Centre Hall, spent over Sunday in Sunbury, guests of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde A. Boyer.

Monday morning Mr. and Mrs. John Rearick left for Carlisle, where for two weeks they will take care of the Rev. J. J. Glenn home and the four Glenn children, while Rev. and Mrs. Glenn take their annual vacation which this year will be in Philadelphia and Washington.

Brigadier General Frank R. McCoy of Lewistown, in command of the Third Infantry Brigade, Fort Sam Houston, Texas, is a member of the court martial for the trial of Col. William Mitchell, air service, on charges of violating the Ninety-sixth Article of War.

Miss Florence Zettle, a student in a Williamsport business college, was at her home here over Sunday. Beginning of December she will enter services at the Kerlin poultry plant office, Centre Hall, and with several other stenographers will take care of the work there.

A hand tractor was recently purchased by W. W. Kerlin to be used in cultivating the runs for the White Leghorn hens kept at the Kerlin poultry plant. The tractor will also be put into use for plowing the several lots and later to cultivate them after vegetables, largely cabbage for winter greens, are growing.

Miss Byrd Stover, of Rebersburg, completed the second quarter as an instructor in instrumental music to a large class of young people in Centre Hall. She also had classes in other sections, one being at Avis, to which place she went each week since last spring.

Darius Walte, secretary of the Centre County Sunday-school Association, attended the State Sunday-school convention at Erie, and was one of a number to be given a gold medal for having been in service in some one capacity in Sunday-school work for a period of fifty years.

Mr. W. R. Nuttycombe was in Centre Hall on Monday and had forwarded to Miami, Florida, some personal effects left at the Grove home since she and her husband boarded there. Mr. Nuttycombe, who was in the employment of the State Highway Department, has accepted a position as an engineer with the Miami Engineering department. Providing the couple are pleased with Florida, they will remain there permanently.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Irvin Zettle, who is employed in the Johnstown district, was home with his family over Sunday.

Each of the twenty-four in the party who found the body of Mail Pilot Ames were given $43.33. The total of the rewards was $1109.

Mrs. Harry E. Fye, of Centre Hall, on Wednesday, attended the funeral of Mrs. Harvey Keller, at State College. Mrs. Keller before marriage was Miss Zeligler, a cousin of Mrs. Fye.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Strohecker, of Centre Hall, are in Bethlehem, having been called there on account of the very serious illness of their son, Claire E. Strohecker, from pneumonia.

Mrs. Smith, wife of auctioneer E. M. Smith for ten days has been confined to bed at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Emery, from an attack of summer flu. Her condition at present is very much improved.

Misses Elizabeth Royer and Maybelle Sharer will represent the Lutheran Sunday-school at the Young People's Conference, State College, on Saturday. The delegates from the Reformed Sunday-school are Misses Fay Elizabeth Bradford and Mary Weber, from the Evangelical Sunday-school, Miss Sarah Kunkle.

Robert Burchfield is ill from typhoid fever at his home in Montgomery. His condition had been considered serious, but during the past week there was a marked improvement. Mr. Burchfield, who is formerly from Potter township, is employed by the Montgomery leather company, manufacturers of leather novelties.

Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Frank and son Kenneth, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fetterolf drove to Baltimore last week to the home of Ernest Frank. Returning home on Sunday, the junior Mrs. Frank and baby came with the party, and the senior Mr. Frank remained in Baltimore for a week. On Sunday the father and son have planned to drive here.

Injuries Result in Death.

Mrs. Harvey Keller, of State College, who was found unconscious after an auto accident near Lemont, never regained consciousness. She died in the Centre County hospital where she was taken immediately after the accident. Interment was made at Pine Hill on Tuesday.

The accident happened Wednesday of last week, when a car side-swiped the Keller Jewett sedan, at a point this side of Lemont, and threw it on its side into a ditch. The offending motorist made no effort to stop, and made a successful getaway.

Special Court.

A special term of court was held on Tuesday, Judge Dale presiding.

When the Royer case, from Potter township, was called, the attorney for Mrs. T. F. Royer, who had instituted proceedings to have a guardian appointed over her husband, pleaded that he had lost important papers in the case, whereupon the court continued it until argument court, in December. Harry Horner and his wife were given a hearing, Mrs. Horner having sued for support. After hearing statements on the part of the couple, the court cautioned the husband not to come before the bar again. Mrs. Horner, however, was not given an allowance. Various other cases were heard and disposed of.

Dale Meeting a Dismal Failure.

A few Dale-for-Judge enthusiasts announced and held a meeting in Grange hall, Tuesday night, but the affair proved a dismal failure. Thirty-four persons, not all of whom were Dale supporters, were present. From what could be gathered after the meeting the audience seemed to be unable to even make a good guess as to what the speakers were trying to develop. A series of meaningless confusions were propounded. The vague expressions were not grasped. But one clear thought was left and that was that Walker was a mighty good fellow.
