

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

The P. A. Leaster farm, east of Potters Mills, is offered at private sale.
Mr. and Mrs. John H. Welby, of Lemont, on Tuesday made a business trip to Centre Hall.

The R. B. Hosterman home in Aaronsburg was purchased at public sale by G. S. Cunningham for $1,700.

Sheridan P. Garis, of Altoona, spent a few days, the past week visiting relatives in Centre Hall.

G. R. Meiss, the Colyer merchant, is housed up owing to a sprained arm.
His daughter, Miss Ella Meiss, is in charge of the store.

Centre Hall Presbyterians will hold their preparatory services on Wednesday evening, at 7:30; communion services Sunday at 10:30 A. M.

John Wright, of Osceola, who was a guest of his niece, Mrs. John Dashem, in Centre Hall, returned to his home on Tuesday.

The Monday morning train from the east was late by several hours owing to the derailing of a number of cars between Sunbury and Montandon, which blocked its passage.

Two boys, aged eight years, had their skulls fractured on Friday in Lewistown. The one lad—Edwin, son of Moses Steinberger—was hit by a mail truck driven by John Reaick.
The other boy is Charles, son of Mrs.
Anne Tittel.

Several weeks ago at the Snow Shoe -Millheim football game played at Millheim, N. A. Auman, a spectator, and resident, of Millheim, was too close to the side lines and was knocked down, receiving an injury to his leg. He is still confined to his bed.

Lewis H. Garbrick, who last spring began farming on the Ed. Brown farm, in Gregg township, was a caller at this office on Saturday. Being a young man of decided mechanical inclination, and rated among his fellows as a genius, he took a great interest in the workings of the Reporter's Linotype machine.

William H. Keller, an aged gentleman, had the misfortune to fall to the floor in his home near the Centre Hall railroad station on arising from his chair at the breakfast table during the past week. No broken bones, but the bruises sustained are causing him much pain and rendered him helpless ever since.

Commissioner James B. Swabb was at the commissioners' office in the court on Tuesday for the first time since he sustained the injury to his shoulder by a fall in his home in Milesburg about two weeks ago. At this time he is not completely rid of the pain but it is gradually leaving him.

The rough frame work for the new bungalow being erected by John M.
Coldron is well under way—almost ready for the roof. Henry E. Foust and son Edward Foust, of Potters Mills, are the carpenters in charge of the work. Mr. Coldron has not yet fully decided whether he will finish with stucco or weatherboarding.

After the burial at Rebersburg of Mrs. Emma Gephart, the following among other stopped for a short time at the home of Mrs. Eliza J. Meyer, in Centre Hall, Saturday afternoon:
Mrs. S. H. Heckman, Johnstown; Mrs.
H. E. Jenkins, Tyrone; Mrs. C. M.
McCoy, Lewistown; Mr. and Mrs. C.
H. Meyer, Reedsville; John D. Meyer, Tyrone.

The eighteen or twenty hunters from this locality who for a week hunted bear in the wilds of Potter county, making their headquarters at Cross Forks, returned home the latter part of last week after an unsuccessful hunt. The big game they were after is either scarcer or else the men failed to see it. Not a hair on a live bear was seen.

From 841 Moffet Ave, St. Petersburg, Florida, comes a message from A. E. Kerlin to the writer, and among other things he says: "This city and climate are beyond description; sunshine all day; not a fly or mosquito around, and cool air from gulf. Sixty degrees this (November 14) morning; noon, 82 in shade; light thunder shower. Centre Hall is not in it compared to this place. Received the Reporter."

A number of people from Centre Hall went to Bellefonte Monday morning to hear Evangelist Billy Sunday.
The reports as is always the case vary much, due largely to the temperament of the individual. The Evangelist's style of delivery is said to be accompanied by less acrobatic action than heretofore, and his language more refined. The real Sunday may be seen best on a Sunday morning service on his platform in the tabernacle.

Missionary services were held in the Lutheran churches in Centre Hall, Tusseyville and State College on Sunday, and at each meeting the principal speaker was Mrs. Horace Becker, general secretary of the mission board of the Lutheran Church, a resident of Hanover. She proved an interesting and instructive speaker, being thoroughly acquainted with her work. In her address here she touched on all of the various mission fields and numerous activities, and held the attention of the audience throughout the entire time. At all of the services children played a part, as did also the choirs by rendering special music.

William McCoy Wolf Jr., put in an appearance on Sunday in Ardmore, where the parents live. He had a little sister to greet him beside the parents.

Mrs. Julia Keller, widow of the late Daniel C. Keller, formerly treasurer of Centre county, is seriously ill at her home in Phoenixville where she and her children are living.

Contractor W. S. Williams, of Centre Hall, is completing the apartments in the new "Richelleu" and is also engaged in doing various other jobs in Bellefonte. Among these, either already begun or about to be, are a front at the business place of the Keystone Power Company, on High street; remodeling the Bush home, next to the Decker Garage, for Mr. Landsey of the Brokerhoff House; a large show room on the second floor and an open stairway leading to it in the Potter-Hoy store building.

BANDIT HOLDS UP SUNBURY
R. R. STATION AGENTS

Takes $181 From Pennsylvania Railroad Agent at Point of Gun-Refuses 47 Coins.

Police on Tuesday searched for a bandit who the night before held up and robbed William Brown, Pennsylvania Railroad station agent at Sunbury of $181.00. He took nothing but bills, refusing all coins handed to him.

Only one man was in the station at the time and he was sleeping, giving the bandit plenty of opportunity to demand the money from the station agent. After getting the money from Brown he warned him to keep quiet and walked leisurely out of the door.

When Brown called the police they were listening to a report of an attempted robbery of the ticket agent at the Reading Railroad station, five blocks away. There, according to John Hoverter, the agent, ordered him to open the safe. Hoverter said he was unable to do so. The robber then demanded the contents of the cash drawer and of the agent's pocket-ets. Hoverter produced $10 from the drawer and $5 from the pocket.
"I don't want that, it's chicken feed," the robber said, throwing the $15 on the counter.

He then shook hands with the agent and warning him not to call the police, disappeared.

YOU NEED HAVE NO
WINTER CAR TROUBLES

A Small Sum Expended Now will Save Time, Worry and Expense Later.

Read of Liberal Offer to All Car Owners

I would like to meet every car owner in our community personally and I am taking the following means to accomplish this: For the NEXT 30 DAYS we will do all of the labor on the operations listed below for the nominal sum of $9.90.
These operations have been selected carefully with the thought in mind of covering the items which would most surely eliminate the majority of your winter troubles.

- (1) Grind valves and clean carbon.
- (2) Replace all necessary gaskets.
- (3) Time up motor.
- (4) Adjust carburetor.
- (5) Flush and clean out cooling system and refill with alcohol and water solution.
- (6) Examine, tighten or replace all necessary hose connections.
- (7) Repack water pump if necessary.
- (8) Tighten all electrical connections—including cleaning top of battery and greasing terminals.
- (9) Clean generator commutator and adjust 3rd brush to increase output if needed.
- (10) Clean starting motor commutator and replace brushes if necessary.
- (11) Adjust headlights, check tail light and top light.
- (12) Lubricate entire chassis thoroughly, including change of oil in crankcase.

This work at regular prices would cost you much more than the amount quoted. Why not drop in and see me personally and make arrangements to have your car gone over thoroughly and put in such condition that you will have a minimum of so-called cold weather troubles.

More per Cow Rather than More Cows Says U. S. Bureau Chief

In a Chicago address, recently, Dr. C. W. Larson, Chief of the United States Bureau of Dairying, made a plea for greater production per cow rather than an increase in the number of cows.
The average cow in the United States yields annually only about 4,000 pounds of milk of which 2.7% is butterfat.
Careful breeding and elimination by test in the milk herd makes an increase to 8,000 pounds of milk annually per cow not impossible with the average dairyman. This would net the milk produced $75.00 above feed cost per cow as compared with the present average of only $26.00.
Membership in a cow-testing association and the maintenance of herd records are extremely desirable. The system of records should at least include an identification record, an account of production for each cow—the amount of feed given and breeding dates. For a grade dairy herd, the record system may be quite simple.
Cow-testing associations promote a more faithful follow-through of the rudiments of dairying. Among them are intelligent feeding, proper stabling, regular milking, thorough grooming, periodical clipping of the long hair from flanks, udder and underline and other attendant precautions against the presence of bacteria in the milk.
In cow-testing associations, records of the milk and butterfat production of pure bred cows are made under the supervision of the association and are given official recognition.
