LINDEN HALL

(Received too late for last week)
Mrs. James Swabb spent the week-end with her sister, Miss Izora Rupp, at the Jonathan Tressler home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Brouse spent the week-end with relatives here and attended the State College football game on Saturday. They returned to their home at Dushore on Monday.

Among the visitors here on Sunday were William Sharpless and Fred Ely, of Philadelphia, and Henry Lorenze and Misses Joanna, Mary and Annie Powell, of Wilkes-Barre.

Frank Ishler expects to move to Oak Hill on Thursday, where he has been transferred as station agent.

On Friday evening a large crowd of friends gathered at the Robert McClellan home to celebrate the 19th anniversary of Rodney, the second son. The party was planned by Mrs. McClellan and was a complete surprise.

BOALSBURG.

The union Thanksgiving services will be held in the Lutheran church on Wednesday evening at 7:30, Nov. 25th. The choir of the churches are preparing music for this service. All are invited.

The Home Missionary service rendered on Sunday evening in the Reformed church was interesting, due to so many taking part. Those who had special parts were George Mothersbaugh, H. M. Hosterman, Pauj Durner, John Shuey, Mrs. Hazel Meyer, Minnie Shutt, Mary Shutt, Elizabeth Brouse, Irene Markle, Agnes Lucas, Margaret Gingrich, Wm. Tressler and George E. Meyer.

The P. S. Ishler family spent Sunday with their son, Wm. R., at Altoon. When they returned home another son, Fred, of Indiana, was home to welcome them. He will stay until Wednesday.

The ladies' Bible class of the Reformed Sunday school will serve a chicken supper in the Malta Temple on Saturday evening, 21st inst. Price of the supper will be 50 cents. In connection with the supper they will have a bazaar. Two quilts called "name quilts," will be among the articles for sale.

Mrs. Lizzie Corl and her nephew, John Meyers, spent Sunday at State College with friends.

Miss Frank McFarlane will leave for Philadelphia this week, where she expects to spend the winter.

POTTERS MILLS.

Adam Klmpert, of Altoona, spent a few days at the home of Warren Slack.

Among the sick are Mrs. Michael Smith and Mrs. Frank Ennist, who are not improving as their friends would wish.

The bear hunters who went from this place returned without any success.

Burton Fetterolf and family, of near Centre Hall, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Fetterolf's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Carson. They were accompanied home by Miss Helen Palmer, who will remain for an indefinite time.

Miss Elsie Sweetwood, who had been working at the W. S. Williams home in Centre Hall, has returned to her home here.

Those from this place who were to hear Billy Sunday, Monday forenoon at Bellefonte, were Mrs. H. E. Fous, Miss Opha Fiesher, Mrs. F. F. Palmer, Mrs. V. W. McCormick and Mrs. G. H. McCormick.

Mrs. J. P. Miller and Miss Caroline McCluskey are spending the week at the C. D. Bartholomew home.

SPRING MILLS

Miss Delcie Morris and Miss Benner, both students at Selinsgrove, spent Sunday at the Charles Krape home.

Charles Bartzes, Jr. is in the Bellefonte hospital, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis.

William and Mert Zettle, sons of Roland Zettle, each shot a wild turkey.

Mrs. Charles Royer is spending some time in Altoona with her son, Rev. Victor Royer.

I. C. Peese moved to Milton on Monday.

Wilbur Decker and family, of Bellefonte, were Sunday visitors at the Thomas Decker home.

Mrs. Paul Grove and mother, Mrs. Calvin Finkle, were to Bellefonte on Monday to hear Billy Sunday.

Clara Heckman, of State College, spent Sunday at the Thomas Decker home.

Mrs. Charles Krape was to Mercer to see her sister, Mrs. George Crawford, who was in a hospital for blood poisoning. She is improving.

Mabel Allison returned from a visit to Atlantic City, New York and other points.

Mrs. Foster Auman had the misfortune to break her leg between the knee and ankle. She was returning home from her brother-in-law's home in the mountain. When near the Daniel Smith home she slipped and fell. She crept about three hundred feet to the Emma home from which place she was conveyed to her home.

MILLHEIM.

(From the Journal.)
Harvey Swartz, of Northumberland, is a guest of his mother, Mrs. Caroline Swartz.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Hosterman, of Milton, visited with relatives in Millheim and vicinity.

Rev. W. J. Dice and wife, and Mr. and Mrs. William Vonada, of Lewisburg, were visiting Millheim friends.

Misses Gladys Stover and Bertha Lower spent the week-end in Harrisburg, guests at the hospitable Kurzenkabe home.

Mrs. Thille O'Neil, of Williamsport, is the guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Welsler.

J. Russell Hosterman, a student at Pierce Business School at Philadelphia, spent the week-end at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Hosterman.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Campbell spent from Thursday until Saturday afternoon with friends in Williamsport. They attended and were deeply impressed with Billy Sunday's evangelistic meetings.

Stover G. Snook, of Philadelphia, was a week-end visitor in Millheim. He attended the alumni day celebration at Penn State and witnessed the State-Notre Dame football game.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Maize, of near Freeport, Ill., are guests of Mr. Maize's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Maize. A daughter, Mrs. S. L. Ulrich, of Cleveland, O., arrived later.

Just Can't be Done--

Old Si Chestnut says: "Don't try to fly all night with the owls and then expect to keep up with the eagles in the daytime."

Sure enough. It can't be done. Early to bed, early to rise, hustle like blazes—and advertise. That's our method. We may not be able to "fly with the eagles," but it isn't because we have been out all night with the owls. Safe, conservative banking, courteous treatment, cheerful, reliable service, these are the foundations of our banking business.

Quality—Comfort—Economy

THE Star 2-passenger Coupe is the choice of commercial travelers and other business and professional men because of its weatherproof construction, reliability, power and freedom from breakdowns.

Women prefer it because of its refined dark blue lacquer-finished body, white striped, with enduring black enameled fenders and nicked radiator shell—its roomy, comfortable interior and wide doors, its ease of handling and trouble-free operation.

High mileage on gasoline and oil and low maintenance costs makes this car most economical.

See it at our show room and try the wonderful motor on a demonstration ride.
