LOCAL AND PERSONAL

The electrification of the Bradford & Company's flouring mill necessitates arranging for a new method of sounding fire alarm signals.

A car load of milch cows was shipped to the eastern markets by D. C. Mitterling. It was the first lot of cows shipped for some time.

Real non-freeze solution for your car. Will not boil, freeze or evaporate. Lasts all winter. No fumes, superior to alcohol. $1.00 per gallon. Inquire National Hotel, Millheim, Pa.

Mrs. R. P. Campbell, of Penns Cave, on Monday morning boarded the train for St. Petersburg, Florida. She will visit her father, Rev. W. R. Picken, who has been in that city since last fall.

Recent admissions to the Children's Department of the Evangelical Home, Lewisburg, were Ella Violet and Irene Frances Kern, both parents dead, of near Bellefonte, and Deliah Viola Kelrbsch, of Tylersville.

Dr. I. L. Foster, head of the Romance Language department, and who is now in his 31st year as a faculty member at Penn State, has been honored with election to the presidency of the Romance Language Section of the Pennsylvania State Teacher's association.

From the Bellefonte Times: John H. Bitner and cousin, Mr. Auman, of Potters Mills, were visitors in our town Saturday afternoon. Mr. Bitner is a bird dog fancier and trainer of note. He stated that if he was successful in selling his property at the Bank, he will try and locate in our valley.

Ten of fifteen cows kept by John Snively, east of Old Fort, average close or altogether to producing sixty pounds of milk per day. Mr. Snively not only keeps high class cows, but they are given the best of attention and feed required to do their best. Stable conditions are also the best.

The Kelley Brothers, of Reedsville, are shipping railroad ties from the Centre Hall railroad station. The ties are cut and sawed at their mills on the Dr. A. G. Lueb and Israel Spayd tracts, east of Centre Hall, along the Brush Valley road. Mining ties are also being hauled to the station in large quantities.

The sudden appearance of a freight engine before him, induced Ernest Homan, farmer east of town, to give his car a turn to avoid hitting the engine "amidships." The rear of the car struck a fire-plug, the result being a pretty badly damaged car. The accident would have been avoided but for the slippery condition of the road.

REFORMED CHURCH LEADERS GATHER AT SELINGROVE

Second Meeting in West Susquehanna Classis Held Saturday in Interest of Ministerial Relief.

Reformed church leaders gathered together from all sections of the eastern part of West Susquehanna Classis at Selingsrove, Saturday afternoon, in St. Paul's Reformed church, in what is said to be by church leaders, the largest and most representative body of Reformed churchmen ever assembled in that territory in the interest of Ministerial Relief. Nearly every congregation in this section of West Susquehanna Classis was represented.

The meeting was called and presided over by J. F. Wetzel, Centre Hall, chairman of West Susquehanna Classis, who presented the cause of Ministerial Relief and emphasized the importance of finishing the campaign successfully, by February 8th. Rev. Wm. S. Gerhard, Freeburg, conducted a brief and impressive devotional service. Rev. H. H. Rupp, of Lewisburg, made the inspirational address. Frank E. Skilton outlined the various campaign plans, one to be used to cover any conceivable situation in any congregation, and thus enable every church to measure up in this effort. A. D. Miller, chairman, St. John's church, Lewisburg, vigorously emphasized the need of a life of service, and thundered a challenge to reformers to stand by the faith of their fathers as exemplified in the Divine cause of Ministerial Relief. He said in part: "I consider this the greatest challenge that has ever come to the Reformed Church." The meeting adjourned with every man grimly determined to do business for God in a big way in this enterprise.

This meeting is one of a series of similar meetings held last week in the Reformed Church all over the United States. This campaign is the only real, organized, Church-wide effort ever made in the Reformed Church to adequately take care of its aged and disabled ministers and their widows and is being watched with a great deal of interest by all denominations.

Letter From Wisconsin.

Hentons, Wis., Jan. 16, 1925. Centre Reporter.
Gentlemen: I note that my label says "Feb. 25," so enclose two years' subscription. From the number of new names mentioned in your paper and the increasing scarcity of old ones we are beginning to feel more or less strangers to the Old Home surroundings. We are glad to notice the happenings to the old friends, especially if the happenings are pleasant. Daddy, who will soon be eighty-one, and who spent all his active life at Spring Mills and Penn Hall, looks forward each week to the arrival of the Reporter.

If any of the old friends should drop in on us we would be glad to see them and will assure them a welcome. Route 29 Wisconsin, the Chicago and Dubuque Highway, and the A. Y. P. trail past our door. The latter trail will probably be routed over Illinois trunk five next spring, but that comes within ten miles of us and we have hard roads all the way from Chicago to Dubuque on any of these routes. Any and all can easily reach us.

Yours truly,
P. W. LEITZELL, M. D.

Coaster Dies Under Auto.

The first fatal coasting accident of the season cost the life of Merle Woodward, 14 years old, of Yeagertown, one night last week. Woodward and Eugene Hutchinson, 12 years old, rode down Mill lane and dashed into an automobile driven by Percy Baker, of Allensville. Woodward sustained fractures of the neck and skull, while Hutchinson escaped with minor injuries.

1926 Fishing License.

Fishing licenses must now be had over sixteen years, instead of eighteen years as heretofore. Under the code, fishing devices in inland waters are limited to two rods and lines and one hand line, and no permits may be issued for use of spears, fish baskets and nets or other special devices.

DEATHS.

MANY 1926 HOLIDAYS FALL ON SUNDAYS

Fourth of July, Memorial Day Both on First Day of Week; Christmas on Saturday.

The year 1926 was blessed by many holidays—but the balance must be kept, the pendulum swings back, and in 1926 the holidays will be extremely rare. The boys and girls who always look forward from one holiday to the next will bemoan their fate, for many of the best holidays fall on Sunday.

Fourth of July falls on Sunday, and Christmas on a Saturday. Holidays which this year come on Sunday are St. Valentine's day, Memorial day, Independence day and Halloween.

Although there are no week-end holidays save Christmas, 1926 will in all probability be a much luckier year than 1925. One will not have to be on one's guard quite so much in regard to walking under ladders, or evading black cats, breaking mirrors, etc., as there is only one Friday the Thirtieth, as against three in 1925. This one occurs in August.

Labor day this year will be observed on September 6. Flag day comes on Monday, June 14. Columbus day will be celebrated on Tuesday, October 12, and Armistice day on a Thursday, November 11.

Easter is on the forward move and is celebrated about a week earlier than last year. This year Easter comes on April 4. In 1925 Easter was observed on April 12, while in 1920 the day marking the observation of the Lord's resurrection fell on April 20. Lent therefore begins earlier, the first day being Ash Wednesday, February 17.

Many persons are not aware as to how the date for Easter is ascertained. During the past twenty-five years Easter has been observed in the last week in March only a few times. It usually falls between the first and twentieth of April. It is the first Sunday after the full moon that falls on or next after the twenty-first of March. If the full moon happens on Sunday, Easter is always a week later. The date of the full moon is ascertained according to certain calendar rules, and may differ from that of the actual (astronomical) full moon. The rules include as preliminaries the finding of the golden number, exact and dominical

Always a Wise Investment, NOW== Better than Ever Before

Dodge Brothers, Inc. have announced astonishingly low new prices.

They have announced important refinements in their product. Always building an exceptional car, they are now building better than ever.

Better in many ways, in beauty, comfort, driving vision, engine smoothness, snap, elasticity and getaway.

The simultaneous offering of lower prices and vital improvements is made possible by a gigantic expansion of buildings and equipment.

Ten million dollars so invested permit great savings through vastly increased volume and efficiency. Part of these savings goes into further betterment of the car. The other part goes directly back to the buyer—in the form of a price reduction that staggered the industry.

Those who chose Dodge Brothers Motor Cars in the past invested their money wisely.

Today they invest more wisely than ever before.
